KUNC, 91.5 – Greeley / Fort Collins, KRNC, 88.5 Steamboat Springs, KENC, 90.7 Estes Park, KVNC, 90.9 Minturn / Vail, KMPB, 90.7 Breckenridge 4th QUARTER 2021 SUBMITTED		PROGRAMS ISSUES LIST
DATE AIRED	NAME OF PROGRAM	BROADCAST TIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Issue #1: Drought conditions and water management. Drought remains across the West, but in our listening area including Boulder, Larimer, and Weld counties, conditions are worsening. KUNC's reporting includes a reporter didicated specifically to drought, water use, and regional water management.
10/14/2021	All Things Considered	2pm / 4:30pm / 6pm	45 seconds	Water experts from across the West are set to testify in front of Congress. The hearing will focus on drought and response measures in the Colorado River Basin…
10/25/2021	All Things Considered	2pm / 4:30pm / 6pm	45 seconds	New measurements for the state of drought in the West deliver a grim long-term forecast. The latest data also show new rains could bring relief to SOME parts of Weld, Boulder, Larimer, and Summit counties.
10/28/2021	Morning Edition	6:30am / 7:30am / 8:30am	30 seconds	The "atmospheric river" that dumped rain across the West Coast also helped to partially reduce drought in Colorado. The weather pattern also delivered rain and snow to the Western Slope... Those rains didn't reach the Front Range and Eastern Plains, where drought conditions are gradually spreading.
12/30/2021 & 12/31/2021	Morning Edition & All Things Considered	2pm / 4:30pm / 6pm & 6:30am / 7:30am / 8:30am	30 seconds	Mountain snow is helping to erase some of Colorado's drought. This week saw a downgrade in drought status for much of the western slope – which has been plagued by months of dry conditions. Meanwhile, Colorado's northwest corner and eastern plains are still in one of the highest categories of drought.
Issue #2: COVID-19 madates, virus transmission, and local reactions. COVID-19 continues to be a huge issue throughout the listening area. KUNC continued to provide updates arounf the virus and inform the listeners about important updates from local health officials.
10/1/2021	All Things Considered	4pm / 5pm / 6pm	30 seconds	Denver's COVID-19 vaccine requirement for city employees is seeing high compliance, with nearly 99 percent of workers having submitted proof of vaccination or an approved exemption. Disciplinary action for those not in compliance began Today.
10/13/2021	Morning Edition	6:30am / 7:30am / 8:30am	30 seconds	Americans got a break from the flu season last year. Epidemiologists think THAT was due to masking and social distancing meant to curb the COVID-19 pandemic. Researchers say certain factors could lead to a "twindemic."
10/22/2021	Morning Edition	6am / 7am / 8am	30 seconds	Data from the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment show at least 300 people were infected with the coronavirus over the summer festival season. The Colorado State Fair accounted for a majority of cases, with 91 infections.
Issue #3: Colorado's Legislative Reporting. KUNC continues to maintain a reporter stationed at the state capitol. This enables us to provide the listener with objective and indepth reporting from the Capitol, including the yearly Legislative session.
11/30/2021	Morning Edition	6:30am / 7:30am / 8:30am	30 seconds	State lawmakers are reviving efforts to drop sales taxes from menstrual products and diapers. Backers of the legislation want to combine two unsuccessful state tax exemption proposals from 2017 into a single bill. If the bill succeeds, Colorado would join 12 other states that don't have a tampon tax and 15 that don't tax diapers.
11/19/2021	Morning Edition	6am / 7am / 8am	30 seconds	Colorado voters will decide next year whether to cut their income tax rate for the second time in two years.
11/20/2021	All Things Considered	2pm / 4pm / 5pm	30 seconds	Colorado lawmakers are advancing five new bills that aim to protect residents from wildfires.
11/3/2021	Morning Edition	6:30am / 7:30am / 8:30am	30 seconds	Colorado voters soundly rejected all three of the statewide questions on their ballots during . The results stung activists who spent millions of dollars trying to convince voters to pass Amendment 78 and Proposition 120, which together would have stripped some power from Governor Jared Polis and permanently cut property taxes.
11/4/2021	All Things Considered	4pm / 5pm / 6pm	60 seconds	Colorado voters rejected a proposal to gradually raise taxes on marijuana sales to pay for tutoring programs aimed at reversing learning loss caused by the coronavirus pandemic.
Issue #4: In late December, the Marshall Fire ripped through Boulder County amid dry and windy conditions. Even though it was December, there was little snow on the ground and the parched conditions let to the most destructive fire in Colorado's history of recorded fires.
12/31/2021	All Things Considered	2pm / 4pm / 5pm	30 seconds	Colorado's elected officials are vowing a swift response to help those who were forced to flee the Marshall Fire in Boulder County.
12/30/2021	Morning Edition & All Things Considered	2pm / 4:30pm / 6pm & 6:30am / 7:30am / 8:30am	60 seconds	A wind whipped fire that started outside of Boulder is still burning through communities. More than 500 homes could be lost in the 16-hundred-acre Marshall Fire. Superior and Louisville were evacuated earlier today.
12/31/2021	Morning Edition & All Things Considered	2pm / 4:30pm / 6pm & 6:30am / 7:30am / 8:30am	30 seconds	Tens of thousands of Coloradans are still under mandatory evacuation orders this morning due to grass fires that quickly spread through the Boulder area. At least 580 homes have been lost in the Marshall Fire. Governor Jared Polis has declared a state of emergency.