

2nd Quarter Issues/Programs
For Radio Station

KPZA
Hobbs, NM

For the year: 2023

Covering the months of:
April, May, and June

ISSUE	PROGRAM/TITLE	DATE	TIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Public Safety	Morning Show	6/1/2023	10am	30 Minutes	Discussed: Alerting the community to scams that often forget older adults. many scams are from IRS imposters who call senior citizens and threaten to arrest them. They are advised to not answer calls from unknown sources and numbers.
Education	Afternoon Show	6/6/2023	1:30pm	30 Minutes	Discussed: Information from the U.S. Secretary of Education cites a survey by the National School Choice Awareness Foundation that Hispanic parents are most likely to choose new schools and 52 percent say at least one of their kids will attend a new one in 2023-24.
Economy	Morning Show	6/10/2023	10:30am	30 Minutes	Discussed: AARP Advisor Gil Cabrera says Latinos are accumulating more and more credit card debt. Also, recent studies reveal the typical family pays $445 more per month to make the same purchases they made one year ago.
Education	Afternoon Show	6/21/2023	1pm	30 Minutes	Discussed: Teresa Castillo discussed the Hobbs Public Library free summer reading program for children.

Quality Of Life	Afternoon Show	6/29/2023	2pm	30 Minutes	Discussed: Angelica Quiroz, the City of Hobbs, talked about the outdoor public pools that are open, the hours and cost for pools, as well as splash pads that are free and open at five locations in town.
Health	Afternoon Show	5/19/2023	2pm	30 Minutes	Discussed: Health and Wellness Educator Wayne Elliot cited statistics showing cardiovascular disease to be America's top killer and listed poor eating habits and unhealthy lifestyles as your heart's chief enemies.
Education	Morning Show	5/23/2023	10am	30 Minutes	Discussed: Ralph Smith of the Annie E. Foundation said a new crop of college graduates are looking for jobs. The HEA Group did research and found careers in science, technology, engineering and math are among the highest-paying and best jobs available.
Public Safety	Morning Show	5/30/2023	10am	30 Minutes	Discussed: Bruno Olvera of North American Supplies said that in New Mexico, more than 63,500 vehicles of all makes and models have defective airbags with an unrepaired recall. Vehicle owners should access Check to Protect, a coalition to raise awareness about the importance of checking for any recalls.

Government Morning Show	4/10/2023	10am	30 Minutes	Discussed: Cesar Coronel of the Social Security Administration said a person doesn't have to be retired or even close to it in order to take advantage of their personal social security account. Anyone can estimate their future benefits, check their status and more.
Education Morning Show	4/14/2023	8am	30 Minutes	Discussed: Alma Casarez from NMJC said enrollment is open for the next sessions of the English-as-a-Second-Language classes that are free and open to everyone. Spanish speakers are available to help.
Quality of Life Afternoon Show	4/28/2023	1pm	30 Minutes	Discussed: Sergio Polanco from Hobbs Hispano Chamber of Commerce invited the public to El Dia Del Nino event. It's designed to offer good formation for parents about their kids' health and safety the kids enjoy a variety of fun activities and giveaways.
Public Safety Morning Show	4/18/2023	10am	30 Minutes	Discussed: Hobbs Police Officer Reanna Alarcon said HPD would be conducting sobriety checkpoints and saturation patrols intended to reduce alcohol-related incidents and increase public safety among drivers in the community.

Public Safety	Morning Show	5/8/2023	11am	30 minutes	Discussed: New Mexico State Police Officer Luis Ruiz said the department would be doing sobriety checkpoints and saturation patrols through May to help reduce drug and alcohol related deaths and help change society's attitude about driving while impaired. Drivers should be sober and ready to stop and show ID, license, registration and proof of insurance at any time and place in N.M.
Education	Morning Show	5/16/2023	10:30am	30 minutes	Discussed: Rosie Incilan with Lea County Electric Co-op said the company's educational foundation provides thousands of dollars in scholarships for children of members. Applications are available at all area high school counseling offices. Scholarships are available to members and their children who qualify.