

WUWT-TV in Union City, Tennessee is proud to serve our viewing public with the following locally originated programming:

- 1) News in a Minute - a local news insertion that features local area news, weather and area events. These segments air 36 times per day offering our viewing public access to local news and information. News and information covers a wide verity of community news, from business and chamber of commerce events to crime reports, weather, high school sport scores, and a host of other "public service information."
- 2) A locally originated program featuring local wrestling. Ultimate Combat Wrestling airs once a week and is a 30 minute format.
- 3) Local church services are from four area churches are broadcast each Sunday. Each service is one hour in length.