Description:

I'll have to apologize to Dr Jamie, but one of the things people enjoy doing the least is visit the dentist - then as many children experience - a costly, uncomfortable couple years of braces can follow. It's one of those things that needs to be done for oral health and sometimes just for vanity. When options get pricey, some people are participating in a terrifying solution - turning to the internet for DIY methods of straightening teeth. We'll discuss the options that exist for straightening your teeth without stooping to home spun concoctions and options for lower cost care.

Description:

Creating communities is more than just putting up some new townhomes or high rises and hoping everything works out - there are tons of challenges for taking the people of an area and providing options for resources - and we must consider all the people of a community. The United Way of King County Streets to Home project is chaired by noted chef Ethan Stowell and his wife Angela who know a thing or two about creating a space where people can come together to break bread and conversate, but it's how they go beyond to help within the community beyond meals that is impressive.

Description:

I'll have to apologize to Dr Jamie, but one of the things people enjoy doing the least is visit the dentist - then as many children experience - a costly, uncomfortable couple years of braces can follow. It's one of those things that needs to be done for oral health and sometimes just for vanity. When options get pricey, some people are participating in a terrifying solution - turning to the internet for DIY methods of straightening teeth. We'll discuss the options that exist for straightening your teeth without stooping to home spun concoctions and options for lower cost care.
