Description:

Making relationships work over long periods of time involves constant work to stay connected and aware of our needs. When it comes to marriage some of the top causes for a separation include infidelity and finances - like a sitcom, we argue over money. Kathy is a certified financial planner among other things and president of Flourish Wealth Management and she's going to help us how to keep your relationship with your partner strong when it comes to finances.

Description:

The posture and stance of bipedal animals puts a strain onto the backs of humans and without proper care can turn into life long problems. These problems are oft chased by scalpels and pain medications to treat, but Mr. James says we're handling our lives all wrong and can help to alleviate the back problems holding us back.
