

Arts

30 minute weekly program
Thursdays at 8:00pm on KLRN

Join us each week as we visit art openings, music and theater performances in the San Antonio arts and culture scene. In this series, we also explore breathtaking art from around the country.

Program number: 423
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: October 6, 2016 8:00pm

Located in the heart of San Antonio's Deco District, the Woodlawn Theatre provides quality, entertaining programming for all ages. We visit the theatre to learn more about the set design behind each show, as they prepare for the opening of Sweeney Todd, the Demon Barber of Fleet Street.

Ballet San Antonio begins its 2016-2017 season with the premiere of Don Quixote. Based on the iconic Spanish novel, Don Quixote weaves a splendid tapestry of love, illusion, and daring adventure. We visit the artists as they prepare for their upcoming performance.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host
Kurt Wehner, Executive Director, Woodlawn Theatre
Benjamin Grabill, Technical Director, Woodlawn Theatre
Willy Shives, Artistic Director, Ballet San Antonio
Sally Turkel, Principal Dancer, Ballet San Antonio
Ian Morries, Principal Dancer, Ballet San Antonio

Program number: 424
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: October 13, 2016 8:00pm

Wrap up Hispanic Heritage Month with a visit to the McNay Art Museum! We meet with the first Hispanic director of the McNay Art museum, Dr. Richard Aste, who gives us an inside view of a few works from the McNay's permanent collection created by Hispanic artists.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host
Dr. Richard Aste, Director, McNay Art Museum

Program number: 425
Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: October 20, 2016 8:00pm

For over fifteen years, the Martinez Street Women's Center has been working to empower women and girls on the East and Southeast sides of San Antonio. Through their Girl Zone program, they are engaging young women in service learning and leadership development, promoting positive body image and self-esteem and teaching girls how to use art to tell their stories. Their work is currently on exhibit at The Institute of Texan Cultures. We take a look at "Girls Eye View: An Eastside HerStory".

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host

Andrea Figueroa, Executive Director, Martinez Street Women's Center

Ernesto Olivo, Girl Zone Educator

Program number: 426

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: October 27, 2016 8:00pm

: The San Antonio Symphony begins its 2016-2017 season with Carmina Burana on Friday, September 16 at The Tobin Center for the Performing Arts. We sit down with Music Director, Sebastian Lang-Lessing to find out more about the upcoming season and learn about the selection process in creating an international, well-balanced musical experience.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host

Sebastian Lang-Lessing, Music Director, San Antonio Symphony

Program number: 427

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: November 3, 2016 8:00pm

What do David Bowie, Mozart and Prince have in common? Their musical talents will all be featured as part of the Youth Orchestra of San Antonio's upcoming season. The Youth Orchestra of San Antonio, or YOSA, provides an orchestral experience like no other. This season, more than eighteen hundred young people will benefit from the YOSA experience, representing schools from Bexar County and surrounding communities. We had a chance to visit the group during a rehearsal for their upcoming performance, "Remembering Bowie".

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host

John Thornton, John Marshall High School Orchestra Director

Jeremy Brimhall, Director of Education, San Antonio Symphony

Nangie Lowrie, Chief Operating Officer, Alpha Home

Lorie Wong, Outpatient Counselor, Alpha Home

Sara Barcus, Artist

Program number: 428
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: November 10, 2016 8:00pm

KLRN introduces you to a local talent of the recording industry from right here in San Antonio. As a boy, Gilbert Velasquez began playing guitar for his church choir. Since then, his passion and dedication to music has grown into an award-winning career in record producing. We visited his studio to learn about the sound breaking experiences of this Grammy-award winning producer.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:
Melina Narezo, Host

Program number: 429
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: November 17, 2016 8:00pm

The Children's Ballet of San Antonio is kicking off the holiday season with a performance of the classic beloved tale, The Nutcracker. We take you behind the scenes, to see a rehearsal, as everyone gets ready for an upcoming performance.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:
Melina Narezo, Host

Program number: 430
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: December 1, 2016 8:00pm

San Antonio's East Side community was graced with unforgettable performances, innovative pop-up exhibitions, and cutting-edge multi-media works at the ninth annual Luminaria Contemporary Arts Festival. Learn how the idea was inspired by other popular international night festivals found in Paris and Madrid, and what it means for the expanding artistic community in our city.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:
Melina Narezo, Host

Program number: 431
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: December 15, 2016 8:00pm

The 323d Army Band "Fort Sam's Own" aims to strengthen the pride of Americans, boost soldier's morale, and provide support for local troops and their communities through the power of music. Get an inside look as the band rehearses for an upcoming holiday performance.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:
Melina Narezo, Host