July 1st to September 30th, 2015

Filed October 7th, 2015

By Public Affairs Director, Jon Michaels

ORIGINAL LOCALLY PRODUCED PROGRAMS OF RESPONSE

"FORUM" is produced in-studio by Public Affairs Director Jon Michaels for sixty minutes and airs every Sunday morning at six A.M. Jon Michaels has been doing this program since the FCC first required it in 1977. Jon has received the "Golden Apple" Award from the South Dakota Education Association and the "Bright Idea" Award from the Sioux Falls Public Relations Network for "lifetime achievement". The Children's Care Hospital and School has awarded Jon their "Golden Wings Medal" Award. Downtown Sioux Falls (formerly Main Street) has honored Jon as "Volunteer of the Year". Jon has also received awards from the Associated Press over the years of what is still the longest running talk show host in Sioux Falls radio history.

2015 3rd QUARTER "ISSUES AND ANSWERS"

MILITARY AND VETERANS: The Vietnam Wall in Sioux Falls, the homeless veterans stand down to the Wounded Warrior Family Support effort were well done this quarter.

GOVERNMENT: We covered the blogging of Kathy Scott's book, (Stealing South Dakota) to the interview of Sioux Falls Counselor Kenny Anderson.

SIOUX FALLS ARCHITECTURE: Eric Renshaw's book "Forgotten Sioux Falls", Theresa Stehly's "Prairie Boulevards", Sioux Falls Washington High School fifty years ago to Ann Erickson's thirty years of Carousel Skate were talk of the town this quarter.

ECONOMY: The new Executive Director of Downtown Sioux Falls, Joe Batcheller, talks about his new ideas he brings from his previous job in Denve. Jeff Hayzlett of Sioux Falls, New York and Los Angeles talks about his adventure to CFO of Kodak and a judge with Donald Trump's Apprentice TV Show....why he still stays with his family in Sioux Falls.

RELIGION: From Al Green's Lifelight concert of over 300,000 people and Tom Gunlick's change from a bar promoter to a dog trainer, religion is a large part of Sioux Falls.

Public Affairs Director Jon Michaels talks with City Council member Kenny Anderson Jr.

Kenny Anderson Jr. grew up in the north end of Sioux Falls. Kenny attended Hawthorne Elementary, Axtell Park Middle School, and spent one year at Washington High School before serving in the U.S. Marines from 1976 to 1980. Kenny graduated from National American University in 1998 with a degree in PC support and general science.

With a strong interest in local government, Kenny chose to enter public service and ran an unsuccessful campaign for the Sioux Falls City Council in April of 2006. "Sharing my father's love of the community I felt driven to community service," he said.

With encouragement from friends and family, Kenny again chose to enter public service by running a successful campaign for the Sioux Falls City Council Northeast District in April of 2008.

Kenny has been active in several community organizations such as: Sioux Falls NAACP, Sioux Falls People for Youth, Sioux Falls Community Foundation Grant Committee, Sioux Falls

Tomorrow II, Sioux Falls Schools Diversity Committee, and the Sioux Falls Slow Pitch Softball Association. He is the project and property manager for Phantom Construction in Sioux Falls.

Mr. Anderson is single with family, mother (Muriel), four sisters, nine nieces and nephews, and four great-nieces and nephews.
