

Quarterly Reports

2016

Third Quarter: July 1st - September 31st

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Hours
Farmers Market	Community Outlook: Park Owner Tod Johnson explains importance of supporting local farmers by shopping at farmers markets	7/5	1600-1700	1
Spiritual Health	Community Outlook: Clergyman Christian Belman explains the importance of searching for spirituality and religion in effort to improve quality of life	7/12	1600-1700	1
Vandalism	Community Outlook: Officer Ryan Brunt explains the vandalism and graffiti problem in town and their efforts to crack down on offenders	7/19	1600-1700	1
Self Harm	Community Outlook: Counciler Jerry Mack explains threat of self harm and suicide among teens and ways to help them get in touch with the resources they need	7/26	1600-1700	1
Community Service	Community Outlook: Elder Danes discusses benefits of volunteering for the community and how to get involved	8/2	1600-1700	1
Driving Under the Influence	Community Outlook: Officer McCrackin expresses concerns of impaired driving and the risks associated with it.	8/9	1600-1700	1
Consent	Community Outlook: Counciler Savannah Styles outlines proper consent and how to recognize individuals at risk for sexual abuse	8/16	1600-1700	1
Nature Conservation	Community Outlook: Park Ranger Brad Appleton discusses ways to help cut down on pollution and how the community can get involved	8/23	1600-1700	1
Alcohol Poisoning	Community Outlook: Counciler Amelia Davis discusses the proper way to treat alcohol poisoning and how to help people who may be at risk	8/30	1600-1700	1
Sickness Prevention	Community Outlook: Nurse Julia Humphrey identifies the proper ways to prevent the spread of bacteria	9/6	1600-1700	1
Flue Shots	Community Outlook: Health Center explains importance of getting a flue vaccine as preventative measures	9/13	1600-1700	1
Library Hours	Community Outlook: Students express necessity for a facility opened 24 hours a day for student research and study	9/20	1600-1700	1
	Total Hours			12

