

Quarterly Reports

Second Quarter: April-June 2019

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Hours
Weather readiness	Community Outlook: members of WSRU discussed how to be prepared for inclement weather in Pennsylvania.	4/1	1600-1700	1
Safety in food	Community Outlook: with a recent E coli breakout in beef products, Program Director, Joe Nania, discussed the benefits of vegetarianism.	4/8	1600-1700	1
Interview with the Mayor	Community Outlook: DJ Jeff Cupp interviewed Slippery Rock Mayor Jon R. Longo and talked about issues in the borough.	4/15	1600-1700	1
Thrift Shops: help or hurt the economy?	Community Outlook: Program Director, Joe Nania, discussed the advantage of dollar stores; thrift shopping as a local way to save money and help out the local economy.	4/22	1600-1700	1
Year lookback: Job outlooks for graduates	Community Outlook: examined college to jobs initiative; new jobs for college graduates; caller input on future job prospects.	4/29	1600-1700	1
Total Hours:				5

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Hours
Drugs in Slippery Rock	Community Outlook: members of WSRU discuss the drug problem in the borough.	5/1	1600-1700	1
Sports affecting public opinion	Community Outlook: Program Director, Joe Nania, outlined how athletes affect political opinion across the United States.	5/8	1600-1700	1
Politics/Issues	Community Outlook: Program Director, Joe Nania, discussed points of topic for the upcoming Democratic debate.	5/15	1600-1700	1
Community involvement in local clubs/organizations	DJ Jeff Cupp interviewed the president of the Accounting Club; outlined goals and purpose.	5/22	1600-1700	1
Gas prices	Community Outlook: Program Director, Joe Nania, discussed rising oil prices; why PA prices are higher.	5/29	1600-1700	1
Total Hours:				5

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Hours
Suicide in the borough	Community Outlook: WSRU members discuss suicide statistics, intervention options and treatment services in Slippery Rock.	6/2	1600-1700	1
Homelessness in Los Angeles: compare and contrast the homeless population in the borough	Community Outlook: discussed the bad press about the climbing homeless rate in LA; the homeless population in Butler county was also discussed.	6/9	1600-1700	1
Streetfare safety	Community Outlook: Program Director, Joe Nania, discussed complaints from the public about inadequate police protection during streetfares in the borough.	6/16	1600-1700	1
Pride Month Recognition	Community Outlook: WSRU outlined Pride Month activities in Slippery Rock for June; discussed LGBTQ pride month activities across the U.S.	6/23	1600-1700	1
Low cost education for seniors	Community Outlook: discussed the University of Minnesota's new senior initiative program that offers credits to those over 65 for only $15 a credit.	6/30	1600-1700	1
Total Hours:				5