Sample news stories covered:

10/7/16 – Guernsey Farms Dairy of Michigan has announced a voluntary recall of some of its products due to equipment failure during the pasteurization process. The recall includes five products that were primarily distributed in southeastern Michigan. They include: skim milk, egg nog, half-percent milk, butter pecan ice cream, and French vanilla ice cream.

10/14/16 – Tonight is the annual Michigan State Madness event at the Breslin Center. It features the introduction of both the mens and womens basketball teams for the upcoming season. Doors open at 8:30 p.m. and admission is free.

10/21/16 – Michigan lawmakers approved legislation governing how drivers should pass cyclists on the road and requiring bike and motorcycle safety instruction in driver education classes. A bill passed by the Senate Thursday would require drivers to pass bicyclists at least 5 feet to the left. Another bill approved unanimously would require at least three hours of instruction about bicycles and motorcycles in driver education classes.

10/28/16 – it's the annual in state rivalry matchup between Michigan and Michigan State football this weekend. Michigan is favored to win and is motivated after last year's loss to MSU at home. As of last weekend, Michigan State is looking to not only beat U of M again, but put an end to a five-game losing streak. Tomorrow's game starts at noon in East Lansing.

11/4/16 – Jay's sporting goods store in Gaylord is inviting male hunters to check their health while they check their guns. Staff from local hospitals will be in Gaylord and Clare today for free blood pressure exams and cholesterol tests to make sure hunters are in good health . The traditional firearm deer season starts in less than two weeks.

11/11/16 – More than 2-thousand protestors marched through the streets of downtown Grand Rapids Thursday. They were angry about Donald Trump's victory over Hillary Clinton for the presidency earlier this week. Grand Rapids police had extra officers on duty, trying to stay ahead of the crowd.

11/18/16 – The Bay County Health Department has confirmed two cases of chickenpox at Bay City Central High School. The cases were confirmed from lab tests taken earlier this week. Unvaccinated and under vaccinated students could be asked to stay home to prevent the virus from spreading.

11/25/16 – There's one Black Friday deal that's free today. Residents can get into Michigan state parks at no charge today even if you don't have the annual recreation passport. The state is waiving fees today at 103 state parks and recreation areas and 138 rustic campgrounds. The DNR is joining a national effort to get people outside on the day after Thanksgiving.

12/2/16 – A nativity scene that was taken down at a park in Michigan's Upper Peninsula... is getting a new home at a church. Abundant Life Church & Mission says it will put up the nativity scene that was taken down this year at Great Lakes Memorial Marina Park in Menominee. The city attorney determined that the display wasn't allowed on public property.

12/9/16 – A 40-car pileup on I-96 Thursday morning claimed the lives of multiple people and injured even more. It happened near Fowlerville around 9:30 a.m. when a blanket of snow froze and road conditions quickly deteriorated. Some motorists had to be extricated from their vehicles.

12/16/16 – General Motors will start testing autonomous cars on public roads in Michigan immediately. Just last week, Governor Snyder signed legislation that allows the cars to be tested on public roads without a driver or a steering wheel. The automaker says that for now it will have a human driver as a backup in the Chevy Bolts that will start driving around Warren, Michigan.

12/23/16 – Detroit Lions quarterback, Matthew Stafford and his wife Kelly have adopted the families of two fallen Detroit police officers for the holidays. Myron Jarrett and Kenneth Steil lost their lives in the line of duty this year, leaving young families behind. Stafford says he is happy he can use his fame to help hurting families and bring some cheer to people who have had a tough time.

12/30/16 – On New Years Day in Grand Rapids, Flo's Pizzeria will continue its recent tradition of giving away pizza to the city's homeless. For the second year in a row, employees, friends and family from Flo's Pizzeria will prepare and serve 101 pizzas at two ministries. Last year, the pizza restaurant gave away 100 pizzas. They hope to add one pizza for every year they take part in the tradition.
