

Radio Program: Interaction

Issue:	Length:	Description of Program or Segment:	Date Aired:	Time Aired:
Homeless	4 minutes	Interviewed Jim McCormick, Executive Director of the Great Falls Rescue Mission, regarding the recent upgrades to the women's shelter that could cause an immediate impact in helping ease the pressure of finding adequate housing for displaced women and single mothers now living in tents downtown.	7/3/23	8:50a
			7/9/23	6:42a
			7/9/23	10:25a
			7/9/23	2:25p
			7/9/23	6:25p
			7/9/23	10:08p
Mental Health	4 minutes	Interviewed Angela Garcia, spokesperson for Voices of Hope (Crisis Line), on how the organization is celebrating it's 10th anniversary of it's Ice Fishing Derby introduced thru it's "Healthy Minds Through Recreation" program which exceded expectations in raising funds and increased membership of volunteers.	7/18/23	8:50a
			7/23/23	6:42a
			7/23/23	10:25a
			7/23/23	2:25p
			7/23/23	6:25p
Meth	4 minutes	Interviewed Amy Rue, Executive Director of the Montana Meth Project, about how high schools throughout the state are asked once again to participate in the "Paint The State" contest which encourages students to create murels that promote recovery with this years theme being "Freedom from Meth is Possible". Prizes for the contest winners was also discussed.	7/26/23	8:50a
			7/30/23	6:42a
			7/30/23	10:48a
			7/30/23	2:25p
			7/30/23	6:25p
Tourism	4 minutes	Interviewed Kristie Scott, Executive Director of The History Museum, regarding the introduction of the new program called "Second Saturday" at the museum which features local historians every month sharing their knowledge on various subjects that relate to certain communities around the state. All free of charge.	8/24/23	8:50a
			8/27/23	6:42a
			8/27/23	10:25a
			8/27/23	2:25p
			8/27/23	6:25p
Disabled	4 minutes	Interviewed Deb Sivumaki, Executive Director of Eagle Mount, on how the recent donations received unexpectedly thru a local organization's fundraising event could extend this winters programs for clients with disabilities an extra two weeks. Their major fundraising event set for late January was also discussed.	9/7/23	8:50a
			9/24/23	6:42a
			9/24/23	10:25a
			9/24/23	2:48p
			9/24/23	6:25p
			9/24/23	10:25p