

On the Record

30-minute weekly program

Thursdays at 7:00pm on KLRN

Hosted by T.J. Mayes, On the Record features interviews with San Antonio's key players in politics, business and community activism. Each week, Jim also hosts a roundtable discussion with local journalists who keep a pulse on important issues impacting our city.

328

First air date/time: Oct. 1, 2020 7:00pm

The recent decision by the Texas Historical Commission to deny a permit to move the Cenotaph has put the entire Alamo renovation plan in jeopardy... according to some.

District 1 Councilman Roberto Trevino talks with host T.J. Mayes about why he is disappointed in the decision, but what he plans now to keep the project moving forward. District 10 Councilman Clayton Perry is on the other side of the issue...he thinks the decision was the right one.

We also discuss the latest election information with Bexar County Elections Administrator Jacque Callanen, who clarifies early voting, mega sites, and straight ticket voting. On Reporter's Roundtable, Scott Huddleston with the Express News details his coverage of the Cenotaph, and the Alamo Renovation Plan.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

T.J. Mayes, Host

Jacque Callanen, Bexar County Elections Admin.

Clayton Perry, District 10 Councilman

Roberto Trevino, District 1 Councilman

Scott Huddleston, Reporter, San Antonio Express News

331

First air date/time: Nov. 5, 2020 7:00pm

An overview of Tuesday's historical election this week On The Record, hosted by T.J. Mayes. We look at how Texas voted with Trinity Political Science Professor Dr. David Crockett, Kimiya Factory with Black Freedom Factory and "El Conservador" George Rodriguez. On Reporter's Roundtable, a wrap up from the media point of view with EN Columnist Gilbert Garcia and SA Current Editor-In-Chief Sanford Nowlin.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

TJ Mayes, Host
Prof. David Crockett, Ph.D., Trinity University
Kimiya Factory, Co-founder/Pres., Black Freedom Factory
George Rodriguez, Conservative Talk Show Host
Gilbert Garcia, EN Columnist
Sanford Nowlin, Editor-In-Chief, SA Current

332

First air date/time: Nov. 12, 2020 7:00pm

This week on the Record, Newly elected state Senator Roland Gutierrez lays out why he is pushing for the legalization of marijuana in Texas. Host T.J. Mayes visits with the husband-wife team of Thomas and Jan Patterson, both infectious disease specialists at UT Health about the latest research on COVID-19. We also find out how to take part in CPS Energy's public input forum next week, as well as hear from SA Report reporter Brendan Gibbons on all the issues facing CPS Energy in the coming year. And money Express-News columnist Michael Taylor talks about his column on why Texas needs the tax money that would come from legalizing marijuana.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

T.J. Mayes, Host
State Senator-elect Roland Gutierrez
Dr. Jan Patterson, Infectious Disease Specialist, UT Health
Dr. Thomas Patterson, Infectious Disease Specialist, UT Health
Rudy Garza, CPS Energy
Michael Taylor, Money Columnist, Express News
Brendan Gibbons, Senior Reporter, SA Reports

333

First air date/time: Nov. 19, 2020 7:00pm

Dr. Colleen Bridger with Metro Health explains when and if you should quarantine after exposure to COVID-19. District 10 Councilman Clayton Perry explains why he thinks the Alamo Plaza renovation plan needs to be reconfigured. We talk with Maggie Thompson, Executive Director for the San Antonio Riverwalk Association about how businesses along the river are faring, and on Reporters Roundtable, Express News Columnist Gilbert Garcia discusses his column on Texas Republican Party Chair Allen West.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

T.J. Mayes, Host

Dr. Colleen Bridger, Interim Director of Public Health & Asst. City Manager

Clayton Perry, District 10 Councilman

Maggie Thompson, Exec. Director, San Antonio Riverwalk Association

Gilbert Garcia, EN Columnist

334

First air date/time: Dec. 12, 2020 7:00pm

How will the COVID-19 vaccine be distributed here in Bexar County? IS it safe? Who gets it first? Dr. Bryan Alsip, University Health Chief Medical Officer, answers those questions this week On The Record. Host T.J. Mayes also welcomes Pct. 3 County Commissioner Kevin Wolff to look back at his years in office as he prepares to leave the court. Sheriff Javier Salazar stops in to talk about his push for better mental health initiatives and treatment for the county jail. In addition, T.J. talks with musician Michael Carrillo, who is featured on the city's video encouraging people to wear masks. And on the Reporters Roundtable, Express News reporter Emilie Eaton discusses her articles on SAFD Chief Hood and the fallout from the nude sushi picture.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

T.J. Mayes, Host

Dr. Bryan Alsip, Chief Medical Officer, University Hospital

Kevin Wolff, Pct. 3 County Commissioner

Javier Salazar, Bexar County Sheriff

Michael Carrillo, Musician

Emilie Eaton, Express News Reporter

335

First air date/time: Dec. 19, 2020 7:00pm

The county's decision to open a mega-voting site at the AT&T Center seemed like a good idea. That is, until the county got a bill for $250,000 from the Spurs to cover the cost of using the venue. That's much more than any other voting site cost the county. Tonight, On The Record, T.J. Mayes asks County Commissioner Justin Rodriguez what happened. Who didn't check the price, and why?

Next, District One City Councilman Roberto Trevino talks about how the city should deal with the increasing number of homeless people. It's a topic we continue with Katie Vela, head of the South Alamo Regional Alliance for the Homeless.

On Reporter's Roundtable, Sanford Nowlin with the SA Current and Gilbert Garcia with the San Antonio Express News talk about the top news stories of 2020.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

T.J. Mayes, Host

Justin Rodriguez, County Commissioner

Roberto Trevino, Dist. 1 City Councilman

Katie Vela, Exec. Director, South Alamo Regional Alliance for the Homeless

Sanford Nowlin, Editor-In-Chief, SA Current

Gilbert Garcia, Columnist, SA Express News