

ISSUES/PROGRAMS
WOSU PUBLIC MEDIA
CLASSICAL 101 FM NETWORK
WOSA 101.1/WOSB 91.1/WOSE 91.1/WOSP 91.5/WOSV 91.7/WOSX 91.1
July 1, 2023 – Sept 30, 2023

The station's daily issues/programs commitment is represented by the stories/programs listed below.

ISSUE	SIGNIFICANT PROGRAMMING	DATE	TIME/DURATION
Arts & Culture diversity	Aired Gateways Radio series, featuring performances from the Gateways Radio Archives.	July-Aug 2023 Saturdays at 1pm	1:00 hour x 9 episodes 9 hours
Arts & Culture Diversity	Concierto is a bilingual weekly program featuring Latinx composers and performers	July - Sept 2023 Saturdays at 8pm	2 hour x 13 episodes 26 hours
Arts & Culture Diversity	Christopher Purdy produced and Stephen Spottswood hosted "New Perspectives: from Bach to Biggie," a series viewing classical music through a more inclusive lens...and featuring music by new and diverse performers and composers.	Sept 2023 Saturdays at 1pm	1 hour x 4 episodes 4 hours
Arts & Culture Diversity	The American Sound airs twice weekly. It is a program of music by American composers and artists, with a strong focus on new works, works by BIPOC composers and artists, and often-neglected works by women and composers of color.	July- Sept 2022 Saturdays at 6 Thursdays at 7	1 hour twice weekly 2x13 = 26 hours
Arts & Culture Local	Jennifer Hambrick posted online and promoted online a video feature with the return to Columbus of the 9 th VIVO music festival	Sept 7, 2023
Arts & Culture Diversity	Jennifer Hambrick presented online and promoted on air a feature about an exhibition exploring art and feminism at OSU in the 1960s, 70s and 80s.	September 6, 2023

Jennifer Hambrick served on the board of the the Columbus Children's Choir and the Johnstone Fund for New Music.

Cheryl Dring served on the board of trustees for Chamber Music Columbus.