

WTKM-FM2023 Quarterly Issues - 1st Quarter

Topic	Program	Description	Date	Time	Duration
Public Safety & Education	Open Line	Hartford Police Officer, Cori Whipple discussed tips on safe driving during the winter season.	1/5/2023	9:45a	15 min
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Kristy Wilson, Resident nurse at the Gardens of Hartford discussed ways to live a healthy life.	1/9/2023	9:50a	10 min
Local Economy & Small Buisnesses	Open Line	Dana Osmanski, Board President of the Hartford Chamber of Commerce discussed how the Hartford Chamber supports area buisnesses.	1/13/2023	9:30a	30 min.
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Joe Pahkolski, Marketing Director of Washington County Humane Society discussed how a pet can improve a person's mental health.	1/31/2023	9:30a	15 min.
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Josh Schoemann, Washington County Executive discussed programs available for pregnant women in need, through Washington County.	2/3/2023	9:30a	15 min
Public Safety & Education	Open Line	Wendy Smith, Director of Washington County Anti-Trafficking Advocates discussed on-line safety for teenagers.	2/14/2023	9:30a	15 min
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Randy Wojtasniak, Director of Hartford Parks and Recreation discussed the benefits of exercise.	2/16/2023	9:30a	15 min
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	Patty Peters, Organizer of Relay for Life Hartford-Slinger discussed how to join and find support groups for cancer patients.	2/24/2023	9:40a	10 min.
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Kristy Wilson, Resident nurse at the Gardens of Hartford discussed the importance of kidney health.	3/6/2023	9:50a	10 min.
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	Jeff Walters, Superintendent of Hartford Union High School discussed the courses offered at HUHS for students entering the workforce after graduation.	3/15/2023	9:30a	15 min
Public Education	Open Line	Holly Wenzel, City of Hartford Utility Billing Specialist discussed the process of paying your utility bill and what to do if your electricity is shut off.	3/16/2023	9:30a	15 min
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Erin Wilk, Marketing Director for Grand Avenue Dental Care discussed how dental care affects overall health.	3/17/2023	9:30a	15 min