

ISSUES & PROGRAM REPORTS

WTLA-AM N. SYRACUSE, NY

4Q 2023

Program that addresses issues is 'For The Record.' It airs on Sunday mornings at 6 o'clock. ISSUES OF CONCERN TO N. SYRACUSE, NY (ONONDAGA COUNTY) ADDRESSED IN RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING IN THE 4TH QUARTER OF 2023:

COMMUNITY APPEAL

10/1 Greg Michel - Executive Director, Onondaga Earth Corps on upcoming "Earth Corps Encore" fundraiser, community engagement, conservation, volunteer/internship opportunities. 10/8 Jordan Capozzi Host went over local news stories; Onondaga + Oswego counties to decline NYC homeless rental waivers, Free college application waivers, Ongoing battle with Columbus statue downtown. 10/22 Josh from Cayo Industrial Warehouse of Horror went over the unexpected economic impact of "Haunted Houses" in CNY. 11/12 Jordan Capozzi Host went over local Election results, community reaction to protests on campus, and traffic/construction. 12/3 Tom Walters - Communications Director of Onondaga County Public Libraries discussed upcoming fundraisers, free family activities, community access to tech and tech literacy. 12/31 Jordan Capozzi host with news regarding homelessness, clothing charities, and updates on resolution to stopping parkway bridge from truck damage.

PUBLIC SAFETY

11/5 Lynn Hy - Director of Development, CNY Food Bank discussed fighting hunger and Poverty in CNY, volunteer and donation opportunities, and upcoming events.

EDUCATION

12/10 Jordan Capozzi Host with sound from SCSD Superintendent Anthony Davis; New Syracuse STEAM School.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

10/29 Sgt. Katherine Loveland went over Halloween safety tips for all age groups. 11/26 Dr. Mohsin Syed, Internal & Addiction Medicine- Slocum Dickson Medical Group held a discussion on Diabetes; Symptoms, Risks in residents & staying healthy during the holidays. 12/17 John Tumino - Executive Director, In My Father's Kitchen discussed Battling chronic homelessness in Syracuse, new initiative to help women stuck in sex trafficking, what to give/how to help homeless people you pass by every day.

CHARITY

10/15 Eric Devendorf: Owner, ED23Hoops discussed Fighting hunger/providing clothes/materials for those in Syracuse, and Volunteer opportunities. 11/19 Matt Govendo - Sponsor/Volunteer, ED23Hoops Turkey Drive gave an update on ED23Hoops Turkey Drive, creating awareness for local clothing/blanket drives to support SCSD. 12/24 Lynn Hy - Executive Director, CNY Food Bank discussed What's new to the food bank in 2024, signs someone you know is food insecure, how to sign up to volunteer or tour the Food Bank.

10/1

Guest: Greg Michel - Executive Director, Onondaga Earth Corps

Topic: Upcoming Earth Corps Encore fundraiser, community engagement, environmental conservation, volunteer/internship opportunities

10/8

Guest: Jordan Capozzi Host

Topic: Projected snowfall in NY set to return to normal, Onondaga + Oswego counties to decline NYC homeless rental waivers, Free college application waivers, Ongoing battle with Columbus statue downtown, local bars permitted to serve alcohol for 9:30am Bills game

10/15

Guest: Eric Devendorf: Owner, ED23Hoops

Topic: Fighting hunger/providing clothes/materials for those in Syracuse, and Volunteer opportunities.

10/22

Guest: Josh from Cayo Industrial Warehouse Of Horror

Topic: Unexpected Economic impact of haunted houses in CNY

10/29

Guest: Sgt. Katherine Loveland

Topic: Halloween safety tips for all age groups

11/5

Guest: Lynn Hy - Director of Development, CNY Food Bank

Topic: Fighting hunger and Poverty in CNY, Volunteer and donation opportunities, Upcoming events

11/12

Guest: Jordan Capozzi Host

Topic: Election results/news, Community reaction to protests on campus, housing, traffic/construction

11/19

Guest: Matt Govendo - Sponsor/Volunteer, ED23Hoops Turkey Drive

Topic: Update on ED23Hoops Turkey Drive (callback from 10/15/23 show), Creating awareness for local clothing/blanket drives to support SCSD, Airport/Weather related Thanksgiving travel updates

11/26

Guest: Dr. Mohsin Syed, Internal & Addiction Medicine- Slocum Dickson Medical Group

Topic: Diabetes discussion: Symptoms, Risks in residents & staying healthy during the holidays

12/3

Guest: Tom Walters - Communications Director, Onondaga County Public Libraries

Topic: Upcoming fundraisers, free family activities, community access to tech and tech literacy.

12/10

Guest: Jordan Capozzi Host

Topic: Sound from SCSD Superintendent Anthony Davis, Mayor Ben Walsh, Governor Kathy Hochul; New Syracuse STEAM School, upcoming construction/traffic updates, winter weather update

12/17

Guest: John Tumino - Executive Director, In My Father's Kitchen

Topic: Battling chronic homelessness in Syracuse, new initiative to help women stuck in sex trafficking, what to give/how to help homeless people you pass by every day

12/24

Guest: Lynn Hy - Executive Director, CNY Food Bank

Topic: What's new to the food bank in 2024, signs someone you know is food insecure, how to sign up to volunteer or tour the food bank

12/31

Guest: Jordan Capozzi Host

Topic: Headline news regarding homelessness, clothing charities, and updates on resolution to stopping parkway bridge from being damaged by trucks.