

WISCONSIN PUBLIC RADIO

Quarterly Issues and Programs Report

2017

For Wisconsin Public Radio Stations

Licensed to

University of Wisconsin Board of Regents

And

The State of Wisconsin Educational Communications Board

Attached Reports Represent Q2, 2017

ECB Radio Stations WLBL (AM/FM), WHAA (FM), WHAD (FM), WHBM (FM), WHDI (FM), WHHI (FM),

WHLA (FM), WHSF (FM) and WHWC (FM) are affiliates of the WPR Ideas Network

ECB Radio Stations WERN (FM), WHWA (FM), WHND (FM), WHRM (FM), WHSA (FM), WPNE (FM), WSSU (FM)

and WSSW (FM) are affiliates of the WPR News and Classical Network

Wisconsin Public Radio Issues and Programs

April - June 2017

Selected Issues Provided Significant Broadcast Program Treatment

Segment Running Times: 1:00-5:00

Aired Weekdays: 5:04am-6:06pm

Ideas Network: Station WHA

Subject	Source	Title	Description	Reporter	Experts	Date
Economy	WHA	PRATPASS2	La Crosse county voters are behind the idea of a new tourism tax to raise money for roads.55 percent voted in favor of a premier resort area tax. La Crosse is the first county to pursue the half-cent sales tax at places like restaurants, hotels and gift shops.	Kirwan	State Representative Steve Doyle	4/6
Politics	WHA	KINDSYRIA1	Wisconsin's federal lawmakers on both sides of the aisle are calling President Donald Trump's decision to bomb a Syrian air base an "appropriate response." Some, however, are worried about further military involvement.	Kirwan	Congressman Ron Kind	4/7
Environment	WHA	SALTLAKE	A study indicates road salt is causing more widespread contamination in lakes than previously thought.	Quirnbach	Hilary Dugan, UW-Madison Limnology researcher	4/10
Agriculture	WHA	NOBEETAX1	Wisconsin lawmakers are hoping to help the state's bee population by expanding a tax exemption for beekeepers	Kirwan	Amy Loudenbeck, State Representative	4/11
Agriculture	WHA	DATCPLTR1	Wisconsin Agriculture Secretary Ben Brancel is calling for federal action after a Canadian pricing policy cost some Wisconsin dairy farmers their milk contracts. Brancel says changes may also be needed at the state's milk processors.	Kirwan	DATCAP Secretary Ben Brancel	4/12

Agriculture	WHA	CAFORUL1	The State Appeals Court today handed a significant setback to the proposed Golden Sands mega dairy farm in the Wood County Town of Saratoga. The dairy may appeal the ruling to the State Supreme Court.	Moberg	Rhonda Carrell, founder of the group Protect Wood County	4/13
Politics	WHA	ROGGEN	Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Patience Roggensack has been re-elected as the court's chief justice	White	N/A	4/14
Environment	WHA	PARXFLEX	State Parks could use flexible admission prices, under Governor Scott Walker's state budget proposal. The plan could trigger more debate, as the Legislature's budget committee resumes hearings this week.	Quirnbach	Ben Bergey, Parks Director	4/17
Education	WHA	PBF1	University of Wisconsin President Ray Cross is asking legislators to allow the Board of Regents to set system performance standards. The standards could have an impact on the amount of money campuses received under Governor Scott Walker's proposed budget.	Terrell	Nick Hillman, education policy researcher at UW-Madison	4/17
Healthcare	WHA	DUFFYHALL1	Northern Wisconsin Congressman Sean Duffy says Republicans have a three to four week window in which to repeal Obamacare. Duffy was asked repeatedly about health care at a town hall meeting in Antigo.	Moberg	Congressman Sean Duffy	4/18
Economy	WHA	NOSKILL1	The number of building permits for new homes in Wisconsin is up 10% so far this year. But as Rich Kremer reports builders are having trouble finding enough skilled labor to keep up.	Kremer	Keith Tibbits, Project Manager for C&E Wurzer Builders	4/18

Environment	WHA	CWD1	A new study is shedding light on how Chronic Wasting Disease is spreading through Wisconsin. The US Geological Survey developed a new and more accurate disease modeling system to forecast how the fatal brain disease may advance through in an area of southwestern Wisconsin near the Wisconsin River.	Carlson	Katherine Richgels, National Wildlife Health Center	4/20
Politics	WHA	RECUSE1	Conservatives on the Wisconsin Supreme Court have rejected a petition to require justices to recuse themselves from some cases involving campaign donors.	Johnson	Justice Shirley Abrahamson	4/20
Economy	WHA	MARHOME2	It's shaping up to be another busy year for home sales in Wisconsin. A new report from the Wisconsin Realtors Association showed sales of existing homes in March grew by more than 7 percent over March of last year, following a winter slowdown in the market.	Carlson	David Clark, Marquette University Economist	4/24
Healthcare	WHA	DRUGPRICES1	Nearly every year in the past decade, prescription drug prices have grown at a much faster rate than general inflation. President Trump has complained about high drug prices. And many states, including Wisconsin, are looking at ways to get costs under control.	Mills	Kevin Look, UW Madison Assistant Pharmacy Professor	4/28
Education	WHA	CAMPUS1	The sponsor of a bill creating penalties for students who disrupt speeches on U-W campuses says he agrees with concerns that the language in his measure may be unconstitutional.	Carlson	Representative Jesse Kremer	5/1
Politics	WHA	JFCJUDCOM	The legislature's Joint Finance Committee has rejected Governor Scott Walker's plan to move a judicial watchdog under the power of the State Supreme Court.	Johnson	N/A	5/1

Healthcare	WHA	WORKERS	A new report by the nation's largest federation of unions shows the number of worker deaths has increased slightly in Wisconsin in recent years. The American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations is calling for stronger enforcement.	Kaeding	Phil Neuenfeldt , Wisconsin AFL-CIO President	5/4
Politics	WHA	WALKNOCOM2	Governor Scott Walker won't rule out seeking a federal waiver to drop a requirement that bans insurance companies from denying people coverage based on a preexisting condition.	Johnson	Governor Scott Walker	5/5
Education	WHA	UWKOCH	The Chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Stout is defending a recent high dollar donation from the Charles Koch Foundation. Koch is a libertarian billionaire who's known along with his brother David, for financing conservative causes across the country.	Vasquez	Bob Meyer, UW Stout Chancellor	5/10
Agriculture	WHA	WATKEW1	A Northeastern Wisconsin County wants to regulate how farmers can spray manure on their crops. A draft proposal in Kewaunee county would limit the force can use to apply dairy cattle waste.	Murray	Scott Feldt, Kewaunee County Administrator	5/16
Economy	WHA	FORTAX1	Gov. Scott Walker is making an aggressive push to eliminate the state's portion of property tax bills in the next budget. His proposal is getting resistance from forestry groups.	White	Fred Clark, Executive Director of the Forest Stewards Guild.	5/20
Environment	WHA	METEOROK	The state has granted permission for a timber company to fill wetlands as part of a 65 million dollar sand processing plant in Monroe County.	Kaeding	Evan Zeppos, Meteor Timber spokesman	5/22

Education	WHA	UWJF2	State funding for the University of Wisconsin System would go up by 36 million dollars over the next two years under a plan that passed the legislature's budget committee yesterday. It would mark the first state funding increase for the UW System since Republicans took control of the legislature and governor's office in 2011.	Johnson	Representative Katrina Shankland	5/26
Healthcare	WHA	MEDICAID	A key lawmaker who has spearheaded laws to reduce opioid addiction says he supports Governor Walker's proposal to drug test those on Medicaid. But Republican Representative John Nygren of Marinette says how it would be done is important.	Mills	Representative John Nygren	6/6
Economy	WHA	WALKSBA	Governor Scott Walker is asking the U.S. Small Business Administration to designate Barron and Rusk counties disaster areas. The declaration would open access to low-interest federal loans to homeowners and businesses.	Kremer	N/A	6/12
Environment	WHA	LOCALPOW2	At the Midwest Renewable Energy Fair near Stevens Point today local government officials are being urged to take the reins on cleaner forms of energy. The Trump Administration recently pulled out of the Paris Climate Accord.	Quirnbach	Sherrie Gruder, UW-Extension	6/16
Healthcare	WHA	ENHEALTH2	Governor Walker is urging U.S. Senators to keep their word and repeal Obamacare. The Senate version of a health care reform bill is slated to be released tomorrow with a possible vote next week.	Mills	Senator Ron Johnson	6/22

Agriculture	WHA	WOTUSREAX	Many Wisconsin farmers say they're relieved the US Environmental Protection Agency will be removing the controversial "Waters of the United States" rule. It defined what waterways are covered by the Clean Water Act.	Kirwan	Nick Levendofsky, Wisconsin Farmers Union	6/28
Education	WHA	SUPOPEN1	The Wisconsin Supreme Court sided with open meetings advocates today in a case involving the Appleton Area School District.	White	Tom Kamenick, an attorney for the Wisconsin Institute for Law and Liberty	6/29

Wisconsin Public Radio Issues and ProgramsApril - June 2017*Selected Issues Provided Significant Broadcast Program Treatment*Segment Running Times: 1:00-5:00*Aired Weekdays: 5:04am-6:06pm*NPR/Classical Music Network: Station WERN

Subject	Source	Title	Description	Reporter	Experts	Date
Economy	WERN	PRATPASS2	La Crosse county voters are behind the idea of a new tourism tax to raise money for roads.55 percent voted in favor of a premier resort area tax. La Crosse is the first county to pursue the half-cent sales tax at places like restaurants, hotels and gift shops.	Kirwan	State Representative Steve Doyle	4/6
Politics	WERN	KINDSYRIA1	Wisconsin's federal lawmakers on both sides of the aisle are calling President Donald Trump's decision to bomb a Syrian air base an "appropriate response." Some, however, are worried about further military involvement.	Kirwan	Congressman Ron Kind	4/7
Environment	WERN	SALTLAKE	A study indicates road salt is causing more widespread contamination in lakes than previously thought.	Quirnbach	Hilary Dugan, UW-Madison Limnology researcher	4/10
Agriculture	WERN	NOBEETAX1	Wisconsin lawmakers are hoping to help the state's bee population by expanding a tax exemption for beekeepers	Kirwan	Amy Loudenbeck, State Representative	4/11
Agriculture	WERN	DATCPLTR1	Wisconsin Agriculture Secretary Ben Brancel is calling for federal action after a Canadian pricing policy cost some Wisconsin dairy farmers their milk contracts. Brancel says changes may also be needed at the state's milk processors.	Kirwan	DATCAP Secretary Ben Brancel	4/12

Agriculture	WERN	CAFORUL1	The State Appeals Court today handed a significant setback to the proposed Golden Sands mega dairy farm in the Wood County Town of Saratoga. The dairy may appeal the ruling to the State Supreme Court.	Moberg	Rhonda Carrell, founder of the group Protect Wood County	4/13
Politics	WERN	ROGGEN	Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Patience Roggensack has been re-elected as the court's chief justice	White	N/A	4/14
Environment	WERN	PARXFLEX	State Parks could use flexible admission prices, under Governor Scott Walker's state budget proposal. The plan could trigger more debate, as the Legislature's budget committee resumes hearings this week.	Quirnbach	Ben Bergey, Parks Director	4/17
Education	WERN	PBF1	University of Wisconsin President Ray Cross is asking legislators to allow the Board of Regents to set system performance standards. The standards could have an impact on the amount of money campuses received under Governor Scott Walker's proposed budget.	Terrell	Nick Hillman, education policy researcher at UW-Madison	4/17
Healthcare	WERN	DUFFYHALL 1	Northern Wisconsin Congressman Sean Duffy says Republicans have a three to four week window in which to repeal Obamacare. Duffy was asked repeatedly about health care at a town hall meeting in Antigo.	Moberg	Congressman Sean Duffy	4/18
Economy	WERN	NOSKILL1	The number of building permits for new homes in Wisconsin is up 10% so far this year. But as Rich Kremer reports builders are having trouble finding enough skilled labor to keep up.	Kremer	Keith Tibbits, Project Manager for C&E Wurzer Builders	4/18

Environment	WERN	CWD1	A new study is shedding light on how Chronic Wasting Disease is spreading through Wisconsin. The US Geological Survey developed a new and more accurate disease modeling system to forecast how the fatal brain disease may advance through in an area of southwestern Wisconsin near the Wisconsin River.	Carlson	Katherine Richgels, National Wildlife Health Center	4/20
Politics	WERN	RECUSE1	Conservatives on the Wisconsin Supreme Court have rejected a petition to require justices to recuse themselves from some cases involving campaign donors.	Johnson	Justice Shirley Abrahamson	4/20
Economy	WERN	MARHOME2	It's shaping up to be another busy year for home sales in Wisconsin. A new report from the Wisconsin Realtors Association showed sales of existing homes in March grew by more than 7 percent over March of last year, following a winter slowdown in the market.	Carlson	David Clark, Marquette University Economist	4/24
Healthcare	WERN	DRUGPRICES 1	Nearly every year in the past decade, prescription drug prices have grown at a much faster rate than general inflation. President Trump has complained about high drug prices. And many states, including Wisconsin, are looking at ways to get costs under control.	Mills	Kevin Look, UW Madison Assistant Pharmacy Professor	4/28
Education	WERN	CAMPUS1	The sponsor of a bill creating penalties for students who disrupt speeches on U-W campuses says he agrees with concerns that the language in his measure may be unconstitutional.	Carlson	Representative Jesse Kremer	5/1
Politics	WERN	JFCJUDCOM	The legislature's Joint Finance Committee has rejected Governor Scott Walker's plan to move a judicial watchdog under the power of the State Supreme Court.	Johnson	N/A	5/1

Healthcare	WERN	WORKERS	A new report by the nation's largest federation of unions shows the number of worker deaths has increased slightly in Wisconsin in recent years. The American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations is calling for stronger enforcement.	Kaeding	Phil Neuenfeldt , Wisconsin AFL-CIO President	5/4
Politics	WERN	WALKNOCO M2	Governor Scott Walker won't rule out seeking a federal waiver to drop a requirement that bans insurance companies from denying people coverage based on a preexisting condition.	Johnson	Governor Scott Walker	5/5
Education	WERN	UWKOCH	The Chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Stout is defending a recent high dollar donation from the Charles Koch Foundation. Koch is a libertarian billionaire who's known along with his brother David, for financing conservative causes across the country.	Vasquez	Bob Meyer, UW Stout Chancellor	5/10
Agriculture	WERN	WATKEW1	A Northeastern Wisconsin County wants to regulate how farmers can spray manure on their crops. A draft proposal in Kewaunee county would limit the force can use to apply dairy cattle waste.	Murray	Scott Feldt, Kewaunee County Administrator	5/16
Economy	WERN	FORTAX1	Gov. Scott Walker is making an aggressive push to eliminate the state's portion of property tax bills in the next budget. His proposal is getting resistance from forestry groups.	White	Fred Clark, Executive Director of the Forest Stewards Guild.	5/20
Environment	WERN	METEOROK	The state has granted permission for a timber company to fill wetlands as part of a 65 million dollar sand processing plant in Monroe County.	Kaeding	Evan Zeppos, Meteor Timber spokesman	5/22

Education	WERN	UWJF2	State funding for the University of Wisconsin System would go up by 36 million dollars over the next two years under a plan that passed the legislature's budget committee yesterday. It would mark the first state funding increase for the UW System since Republicans took control of the legislature and governor's office in 2011.	Johnson	Representative Katrina Shankland	5/26
Healthcare	WERN	MEDICAID	A key lawmaker who has spearheaded laws to reduce opioid addiction says he supports Governor Walker's proposal to drug test those on Medicaid. But Republican Representative John Nygren of Marinette says how it would be done is important.	Mills	Representative John Nygren	6/6
Economy	WERN	WALKSBA	Governor Scott Walker is asking the U.S. Small Business Administration to designate Barron and Rusk counties disaster areas. The declaration would open access to low-interest federal loans to homeowners and businesses.	Kremer	N/A	6/12
Environment	WERN	LOCALPOW2	At the Midwest Renewable Energy Fair near Stevens Point today local government officials are being urged to take the reins on cleaner forms of energy. The Trump Administration recently pulled out of the Paris Climate Accord.	Quirnbach	Sherrie Gruder, UW-Extension	6/16
Healthcare	WERN	ENHEALTH2	Governor Walker is urging U.S. Senators to keep their word and repeal Obamacare. The Senate version of a health care reform bill is slated to be released tomorrow with a possible vote next week.	Mills	Senator Ron Johnson	6/22

Agriculture	WERN	WOTUSREAX	Many Wisconsin farmers say they're relieved the US Environmental Protection Agency will be removing the controversial "Waters of the United States" rule. It defined what waterways are covered by the Clean Water Act.	Kirwan	Nick Levendofsky, Wisconsin Farmers Union	6/28
Education	WERN	SUPOPEN1	The Wisconsin Supreme Court sided with open meetings advocates today in a case involving the Appleton Area School District.	White	Tom Kamenick, an attorney for the Wisconsin Institute for Law and Liberty	6/29