

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS LIST
3rd QUARTER 2013

Station WRFC, 960 AM, Athens, Georgia, determined the following issues were of significant concern to the local community and were dealt with according to the attached schedule during the third quarter of 2013.

1. Community/Charity Events/Organizations
2. Immigration/Race Relations
3. Health/Education
4. Economy/Economic Development
5. Environment
6. Public Safety/Crime
7. Political

Prepared by:

Mel Stovall
Compliance Director
Cox Media Group, Athens, Ga.
WRFC-AM

COMMUNITY-CHARITY EVENTS-ORGANIZATIONS-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Georgia Focus	7/7/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need for community support for families of fallen or wounded Special Operations Forces. Program guests were Bill Stevens and Aimee Souto from Operation One Voice. Operation One Voice is a program designed by police officers, firefighters and community leaders to raise funds to support families of fallen or wounded Special Forces members. Since 2006, over five hundred thousand dollars has been donated to over three thousand families.
Newsmakers Today	7/14/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to create community awareness of a local development. Julia Gaskin discussed details of a twilight tour of the UGA Organic Research Farm.
Georgia Focus	7/21/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to cultivate art related activities within the local community. Karen Paty, Director of Georgia's Council for the Arts, discussed their programs. Georgia Council for the Arts empowers the arts industry in Georgia to cultivate healthy, vibrant communities that are rich in civic participation, cultural development and economic prosperity.
Newsmakers Today	8/18/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to expand the horizons of Habitat for Humanity in the local community. Spencer Frye represents the local Habitat for Humanity and he discussed their plans for opening a second Re-Store location.
Georgia Focus	8/4/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need for community support for a program that provides for community charities. Speedway Children's Charities provides funding for non-profit organizations that meet the direct needs of children. This program outlines the work of the Atlanta Chapter with guest Ginger Moats, Director of the Atlanta Chapter of Speedway Children's Charities, Ed Clark, President of Atlanta Motor Speedway, and NASCAR drivers David Ragan and Reed Sorenson.
Georgia Focus	8/18/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to create public awareness of a project at a local state park. Magnolia Springs State Park near Millen, Georgia, was once the site of a major Civil War prison built by Confederates in 1864. Since the summer of 2010, Georgia Southern University has been carrying out an Archaeological project on the site. Dusty Fuller, Park Manager and Dr. Lance Greene, Assistant Professor of Anthropology at Georgia Southern discussed the Camp Lawton Project.
Georgia Focus	8/25/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to support veterans as they return from military duty. Save Homeless Veterans facilitates the immediate and long-term needs of returning American soldiers and empowers them as they make the transition back into civilian life. On this program, former Atlanta Braves pitcher John Rocker talks about the program and his involvement.
Newsmakers Today	9/8/13	7:30 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to create community awareness and support for a fundraiser aimed at helping homeless. Scott Cochran is from Bigger Vision and provided details about their work in the community and a fundraiser for this homeless shelter.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's to support the Boys and Girls Club of Athens/Clarke County. Total announcements – 21.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's to support the University Of Georgia Home Coming Parade.
 Total announcements – 10.

IMMIGRATION-RACE RELATIONS-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	7/14/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local

A need for legislation to control the problems related to illegal immigration. D.A. King is from the Georgia Immigration Coalition. He discussed the current immigration legislation and expressed his viewpoints opposing immigration legislation.

WRFC News	7/29/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to commemorate a racial lynching years ago in the local community. The report dealt with a weekend activity in Walton County that included the first reenactment of the Moore's Ford lynching since the indictment of organizer Tyrone Brooks. The Atlanta state representative faces a long list of federal charges, accused of stealing money from his charitable foundations. Democrat Brooks has long called for federal investigation of the still-unsolved Moore's Ford murders, in which two young black couples were killed in 1946, shot to death by a white mob at the bridge that connects Walton and Oconee Counties. He claims his indictments are a result of his activism on the issue.

WRFC News	8/1/13	7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to solve a crime perpetrated by illegal immigrants. This report dealt with a Hall County Grand Jury handing up an indictment in a human trafficking case involving a 4-year old girl. A woman and two men are named in a 15-page indictment in Gainesville. They are from El Salvador and Honduras and were placed on immigration holds after their arrests. The most serious charges include first degree child cruelty and rape.

Newsmakers Today	8/18/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to create public awareness of local involvement in a bus trip to DC for the 50th Anniversary of the MLK speech.

WRFC News	8/23/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create awareness of local involvement in a national event. This report dealt with Athens NAACP president Alvin Sheats heading up a local delegation on a bus trip to Washington, D.C. The report contained information on how they'll take part in a rally organizers hope will attract millions in observance of the 50th anniversary of the 1963 March on Washington.

EDUCATION & HEALTH-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	7/7/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local

A need to create awareness of the efforts of the Georgia Association of Educators. Calvin Rollins represents the GAE and he discussed plans for the upcoming 151st National Educators Association Assembly in Atlanta and the issues likely to be addressed.

Georgia Focus	7/14/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need for the public to understand the advantages provided by telemedicine programming. Telemedicine being used widely across the state and telemedicine sessions soared to more than 75,000 last year. Guests for this program were Paula Gay, CEO of the Global Partnership for TeleHealth and Dr. Michael McConnell and Jill Davis with Childrens Healthcare of Atlanta. They discussed the benefits of Telemedicine.
Newsmakers Today	7/28/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for relief from Obamacare. Howard Burke is from the National Federation of Independent Businesses. He explained the mandates placed on employers by Obamacare and that is will likely mean high premiums.
Georgia Focus	7/28/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to provide new parents with information that can benefit them in their new roles. Parents have many concerns when it comes to their kids – safety, injury, nutrition, etc. The guest on this program was Dr. Vivian Lennon, Medical Director of Primary Care at Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta’s Primary Care Center in Chamblee. She answered some of the most common questions parents have on caring for their child’s health.
WRFC News	8/1/13	7:45 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:45 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to offer education opportunities to dropouts. This report dealt with registration opening for classes at Bowman’s new School for Dropouts. The Mountain Education Center offers high school classes for students between ages 15 and 21 who have officially withdrawn from schools in Madison, Elbert, Franklin or Hart Counties.
Newsmakers Today	8/4/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for relief locally from requirements of Obamacare. This report dealt with Ralph Hudgens is the State Insurance Commissioner and he talked about the Obamacare mandates. He’s asking the federal government for what he’s calling an emergency delay of the filing deadline for Obamacare insurance rates. Hudgens, in lodging his request with the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services, says implementation of the so-called Affordable Health Care Act could cause some Georgia insurance premiums to rise by almost 200-percent.
WRFC News	8/7/13	7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to address the obesity crisis among children in Georgia. This report dealt with new information released showing childhood obesity rates are now down in eighteen states, including Georgia.
WRFC News	8/8/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for public awareness of the outcome of a public hearing in Atlanta on the VA Hospital. This report dealt with word from Wednesday’s congressional field hearing in Atlanta. Two top administrators in the Veterans’ Administration have resigned, three have been reprimanded, and others are facing what the VA says are “unspecified” actions after reports of rampant mismanagement at the Atlanta VA Medical Center in Decatur. Georgia Senator Johnny Isakson led the hearing at Georgia State University, a session called in the wake of recent patient suicides at the hospital in Dekalb County.
Georgia Focus	8/11/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to provide health tips aimed at youngsters as they prepare to return to school. Guests on this program were Dr. David Marshall and Dr. Vivian Lennon from Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta who discussed important health and safety issues to keep in mind as kids get ready to go back to school.

Georgia Focus 9/8/13 7:30 a.m. 28-minutes GNN
 A need to reduce the numbers in childhood obesity. Childhood obesity has become a threatening epidemic in Georgia with nearly 40-percent of the state's kids being overweight or obese. September is Childhood Obesity Awareness Month. On this program, Dr. Stephanie Walsh, Medical Director of Child Wellness at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, discussed this issue.

Georgia Focus 9/15/13 7:30 28-minutes GNN
 A need to create awareness for the increasing numbers in dreaded Parkinson's Disease. Parkinson's Disease touches many lives in one form or another. Approximately 60,000 victims are diagnosed each year. Program guests Bill Wilkins, Co-Founder of the Wilkins Parkinson's Foundation, Tamra Cantore, head of "Team Cantore" which raises funds for Parkinson's and Dr. Stewart Factor, Director of Emory's Movement Disorders Center, discussed the aspects of Parkinson's Disease.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Athens Regional Medical Center. These announcements focused on topics of exercise and Type-2 Diabetes, summer cardio exercises, summer sports injuries heart CPR, and heart sodium. Total announcements – 402.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Saint Mary's Hospital. These announcements focused on treatment and prevention of Strokes. Total announcements – 211.

ECONOMY-ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	7/7/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for new revenues for roads construction. Bert Brantley is from the Georgia Road and Tollway Authority. He talked about the issues of new tolls being put into place.\
Newsmakers Today	7/14/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to develop new efforts on economic development. Chris Clark is from the Georgia Chamber of Commerce. He discussed a regional power lunch to be held in Athens and how it can hopefully bring leaders in the region together on their thinking and coordinated efforts.
Newsmakers Today	7/21/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to generate additional revenue for state cofers. Judson Hill discussed aspects of the state senate studying a Fair Tax and how it could benefit the state.
WRFC News	7/25/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to help businesses around Georgia's lakes struggling with the effects of the economy. This report dealt with Ninth District Congressman Doug Collins planning to roll out a bill he says will help Georgia's lakes. The Hall County Republican said the bill is designed to provide economic relief to lake communities by capping fees marinas pay on lakes operated by the Corps of Engineers.

WRFC News	7/25/13	7:48 a.m. 8:48 a.m.	45-sec. 45-sec.	Local Local
A need for improvement in joblessness across the region. This report dealt with statistics released by the state Labor Department which shows Athens again has the lowest unemployment rate in the state. The bad news is the local joblessness rated increased, climbing to 7.2-percent in June, up from 6.2-percent in May. The state unemployment rate for June was 8.6-percent, also up from the month before. Georgia's May jobless rate was 8.3-percent. Meanwhile the state Labor Department reports an uptick in the Gainesville market with an unemployment rate of 7.6 in June, up from 6.9 in May. The overall unemployed rate in Northeast Georgia increased to 8.4-percent in June, up from 7.6-percent in May. The rate one year ago was 8.8-percent.
Newsmakers Today	8/4/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for public awareness. This segment was an introduction to the community of Pamela Thompson, the new director of the Athens Downtown Development Authority.
WRFC News	8/6/13	6:48 a.m. 7:48 a.m. 8:48 a.m.	30-sec. 30-sec. 30-sec.	Local Local Local
A need to help parents with a price break on items for back to school. This report dealt with Georgia's annual sales tax holiday that starts later this week. It's a weekend in which certain back-to-school items can be purchased free of state and local sales taxes. There's some grumbling from parents in which the tax-free weekend comes too late. School systems in several cities and counties around the state have already started their new school year.
WRFC News	8/8/13	6:48 a.m. 7:48 a.m.	30-sec. 30-sec.	Local Local
A need for alternative revenues for Georgia. This report dealt with legislative talk about reducing or eliminating Georgia's state income tax, replacing it with a higher sales tax. Now there's a report from Atlanta-based Georgia Budget and Policy Institute that says such a tax would hurt Georgia's economy.
Newsmakers Today	8/11/13	7:00.m.	3-minutes	Local
A need for initiatives toward economic development in north Georgia. Woody Woods discussed the ongoing efforts to develop a new bike trail in the location of an old unused railroad bed from Gainesville to Helen. Rights-of-Way are now being acquired on much of this trail.
Newsmakers Today	9/15/13	7:30 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for public awareness of a problem with a community economic development project. Blake Aued is from Flagpole Magazine. He provided an explanation that the Selig Property in downtown Athens has hit a snag in its development process.
Newsmakers Today	9/15/13	6:30 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for incentives for small business development. Kyle Jackson is from the NGIB and provided details of the small business optimism index that was released for the region.
Georgia Focus	9/22/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to create public awareness of the economic importance of the pro-golf tour events in Georgia. Golf adds over $2-billion annually to the state's economy and seven PGA Tour Events are played in the state. Earlier this year the Georgia Golf Trail was formed to promote golf tourism in the state. Guests on this program were Doug Hollandsworth from the Georgia Golf Trail, Elizabeth Clarkston, head golf pro Chateau Elan in Braselton, and professional golfer Davis Love III...who talked about the importance of golf to Georgia.

ENVIRONMENT-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	7/21/13	7:00 a.m.	4-mintues	Local
A need for alternative sources of energy. Chuck Eaton, a member of the Georgia Public Service Commission talked about a vote by the commission on efforts to develop solar power production.
WRFC News	7/29/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for reductions of coal ash in our environment. This report dealt with a U.S. House vote last week to remove what House Republicans say is a complex and burdensome set of federal requirements regarding coal ash. The house bill would replace the federal guidelines with state regulations. Athens Republican Congressman Paul Broun calls it a step in the right direction. But, the Tenth District Congressman and U.S. Senate candidate wants to go a step farther. Broun says again it is time to dismantle the Federal Environmental Protection Agency.
WRFC News	7/30/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to address concerns about use of coal on the University of Georgia campus. This report dealt with a press conference and public hearing set for six o'clock this evening in Athens. The Sierra Club and other environmental organizations will be at the Athens Public Library on Baxter Street. They say they'll again petition the University of Georgia to stop powering the campus with its coal-burning power plant.
Newsmakers Today	8/11/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to settle a dispute over parking issues in the Five Points community. Regina Quick represents Stiles Properties and discussed the issues involved in the controversy over parking and what effect her winning the lawsuit will have in the area.
Newsmakers Today	8/11/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
Discussion of needs created by flooding from recent heavy rains in many parts of Georgia. Crystal Paulk-Buchanan is from the Georgia Emergency Management Agency. She talked about conditions in the flooded areas, focusing on the hard-hit Gilmer and Pickens Counties.
WRFC News	8/14/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to resolve issues of the on-going water wars between Georgia, Alabama and Florida. This report dealt with another salvo in the long-running Tri-State water war. Florida Governor Rick Scott says he'll sue Georgia over water from rivers that flow out of our state into his. Georgia Governor Nathan Deal responds by saying these water disagreements should be settled at the negotiating table and not in the courtroom. Florida, Georgia and Alabama have been at odds over water issues for decades.
Newsmakers Today	9/8/13	7:00 a.m.	3-minutes	Local
A need to develop alternate sources of energy. David Staples talked about the Green Tea Coalition and discussed solar energy initiatives in the community.
Newsmakers Today	9/8/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for additional energy sources. Chuck Eaton is a member of the Georgia Public Service Commission and he provided details about construction of additional facilities at Plant Vogtle.
Newsmakers Today	9/22/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for public understanding of climate change conditions. Rich Rusk and Aaron Joslin represent the Georgia Climate Change Coalition. They discussed their group's efforts toward educating the public on climate change conditions.

Georgia Focus 9/29/13 7:30 a.m. 28-minutes GNN
 A need for the public to understand the role and importance of members of the Georgia Public Service Commission. Guest on this program was Bill Edge, Public Information Officer from the Ga. Public Service Commission. He explained the Public Service Commission is made up of five elected commissioners that oversee the main services in our communities. Their mission is to ensure consumers receive safe, reliable and reasonably priced telecommunications, electric and natural gas services from financially viable and technically competent companies.

PUBLIC SAFETY & CRIME-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	7/7/13	7:00 a.m.	4-mintues	Local
A need for improved quality of daycare services. Mindy Binderman discussed new standards being put into place for daycare centers to provide a safer environment.
Newsmakers Today	7/7/13	7:00 a.m.	3-minutes	Local
A need to address the issues of copper theft. Lee Swann discussed problems arising from increased copper theft in the area. He talked about efforts being made to track copper theft
Newsmakers Today	7/14/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to address issues of elder abuse. Kathryn Fowler is from the Georgia Council on Aging and she discussed the increase in problems of elder abuse. She explained how to spot elder abuse, and if you suspect such a problem exists, what you should do about it.
WRFC News	7/24/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to clear-up a series of area burglaries. This report dealt with information released by Athens-Clarke County Police saying they have busted a four-person robbery ring. Four juvenile burglary suspects were arrested this week and taken to the Regional Youth Detention Center in Gainesville. Police say the suspects burglarized, among other targets, Barnett Shoals Elementary School.
WRFC News	7/24/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for public awareness of status of a court case. This report dealt with Celia Savage in Federal Court where she pleaded guilty to federal charges stemming from her 2011 arrest in Habersham County. The northeast Georgia woman pleaded guilty to charges of possessing and manufacturing explosive devices. The area woman was accused of making and detonating pipe bombs in the north Georgia mountains. She is facing up to twenty years in prison.
WGMG News	7/25/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for public awareness in a continuing court case with new charges. This report dealt with the much publicized court proceedings involving Andrea Sniderman. She still faces perjury charges stemming from the death of her husband, Rusty, who was shot and killed in 2010, gunned down outside a daycare center in Dunwoody. Triggerman Henry Neuman is serving a life sentence. Andrea Sniderman was charged with conspiring with Neuman in the Rusty Sniderman killing. A hearing on the remaining charges is set for tomorrow, pre-trial maneuevings in a trial is still scheduled to start next week.

WRFC News	7/30/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for public awareness and assistance to law enforcement in a search for vandals. This report dealt with city officials in Lula saying they've removed spray painted graffiti from a veterans monument in a park in the Hall County town. They're still searching for the person who vandalized the park, and the Lula Historical Society continues to offer a $500-reward in the case. The vandalism was discovered last Thursday in the park in downtown Lula.
WRFC News	8/2/13	7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to create public awareness of a public safety effort by local police. This report dealt with the Athens-Clarke County Police Department planning to take part in tomorrow's annual National Night Out. They'll be setting up shop with University of Georgia Police and Athens-Clarke County firefighters, 4-til-8 p.m. Saturday in the parking lot a Target on Atlanta Highway. Police officials say they'll place a special emphasis Neighborhood Watch Programs in the activities.
WRFC News	8/2/13	6:48a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to create awareness of a fake ID ring operating locally. This report dealt with a Clarke County Grand Jury handing up an indictment in what police and prosecutors say was a multi-state fake ID ring. Twenty current and former students are facing charges, including several at the University of Georgia. The alleged ring leaders are 22-year old UGA student William Trosclair, and 23-year old Tyler Ruby, who was student at what was then called Gainesville State College. Campus police say the indictments cap an investigation that started three years ago.
WRFC News	8/8/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for public awareness of some strategic highway changes. The Georgia Department of Transportation takes the ongoing facelift of the Highway-10 Loop at Peter Street and Olympic Drive to a new level, moving the intersection, its traffic signals, and its left turn lanes, about 700-feet to the south. It's the next phase in the project that will eventually see the intersection replaced with an interchange. It's a $14.5 million reconfiguration due for completion two summers from now.
WRFC News	8/15/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec;	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local\
A need for protection for U.S. residents from terrorists. This report dealt with Georgia Senator Saxby Chambliss speaking in Athens. The retiring Republican – who is stepping down at the end of next year – used his speech to the Athens Rotary Club to defend the controversial NSA surveillance programs, telling the audience at the Athens Country Club that the intelligence-gathering techniques have foiled more than fifty terrorist plots, thirteen of them in the United States.
WRFC News	8/27/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for public awareness of a busted crime ring. This report dealt with some suspects from Georgia being among the eleven people arrested in connection with a multi-state dog fighting ring federal investigators say operated in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas. More than 360 dogs were seized, and one-half million dollars in cash confiscated.

Newsmakers Today 9/15/13 7:00 a.m. 4-minutes Local
A need to know the candidate. Karen Handel is an announced candidate for the U.S. Senate. She talked about her campaign and explained her choosing to be the first candidate to place radio commercials on the air in selected cities across Georgia.

Newsmakers Today 9/22/13 6:00 a.m. 4-minutes Local
A need to know the candidate. Melanie Sloane represents CREW. She discussed a report that local congressman Paul Broun is one of the most corrupt officials in Congress.