

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS LIST
4th QUARTER 2013

Station WRFC, 960 AM, Athens, Georgia, determined the following issues were of significant concern to the local community and were dealt with according to the attached schedule during the fourth quarter of 2013.

1. Community/Charity Events/Organizations
2. Health/Education
3. Economy/Economic Development
4. Environment
5. Public Safety/Crime
6. Political

Prepared by:

Mel Stovall
Compliance Director
Cox Media Group, Athens, Ga.
WRFC-AM

COMMUNITY-CHARITY EVENTS-ORGANIZATIONS

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	10/6/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local

A need for support of the UGA Alumni Association. Deborah Dietzler represents the University of Georgia Alumni Association and she provided details of group's billion dollar endowment drive and encouraged support from the community.

Newsmakers Today	10/13/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	----------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to create public awareness of a local event. Olivia Anderson represents Dance Athens 2013. She provided details of a workshop the group has planned for October 13-19 at the Historic Morton Theater and encouraged participation.

Georgia Focus	10/13/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	----------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to create public awareness of a women's organization. 9-to5 is one of the largest, most respected national membership organizations of working women in the U.S., dedicated to putting working women's issues on the public agenda. Guests on this program were Charmine Davis, State Director of 9-to-5, and Marilyn Winn, recipient of 9-to-5's 2013 Lily Ledbetter Award.

WRFC News	10/22/13	7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create community awareness of an urgent need from a local food bank. This report dealt with the Danielsville-based Madison County Food Bank putting out an urgent appeal for food donations. Director Bobby Rooker says it's a matter of supply and demand. She says demand is up and supply is down. Rooker says the Madison County Food Bank has served, on average, around 75 households per month. She says that figure has crept closer to 100 over the past few months and she says donations have dipped dramatically during the same time span. She says that's a trend that is likely to continue as the holiday season approaches.

Georgia Focus	11/24/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	----------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to create awareness of a program that supports our military personnel. Guests on this program was Georgia's First Lady Sandra Deal who helped kick-off this year's Holiday Mail for Heroes Program. The Red Cross Holiday Mail for Heroes program is a way for the public to send words of inspiration, thanks and encouragement to our military heroes. This program also featured other work by the Red Cross throughout Georgia.

Georgia Focus	12/1/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to assist veterans with housing problems. On this program John Gallina and Marshall Boutwell, CEO of Peach State Federal Credit Union discussed the work of Purple Heart Homes. In 2008, Iraq war veterans John Gallina and Dale Beatty founded Purple Heart Homes, an organization dedicated to providing personalized housing solutions for veterans and their families.

WRFC News	12/2/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create awareness and support for a community program. This report dealt with AIDS ATHENS marking this week's World Aids Day by offering four days of free HIV screenings. The first is today at Aids Athens office on Park Avenue. The free testing takes place tomorrow at the Clarke County Health Department, Wednesday at the Athens Neighborhood Center, and Thursday at the AIDS Athens office in Monroe.

WRFC News	12/9/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to help a soon-to-be-closed animal shelter find home for its residents. This report dealt with an animal shelter in Athens facing closure and searching for homes for its pets. Petzone, a no-kill animal shelter, is in dire financial straits. After three years, the property that houses the shelter is being sold and the owner says she doesn't have money to move. The shelter is now looking for homes for it 18 dogs and three cats.

Georgia Focus	12/22/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	----------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to assist veterans who are facing challenges. Guests on this program were David Sharpe, Founder and Chairman of Companions for Heroes, Sgt. Jimmy Childers USMC Retired, recipient of a dog from C4H and Cathy Roth from Urban Pet Project. This discussion explained how Companions For Heroes provides companion and service dogs obtained from shelters or rescues to military personnel, veterans and first-responders recovering from psychological challenges.

Georgia Focus	12/29/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	----------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to create public awareness of an effort to preserve a Civil War Site. Guests on this program were Dusty Fowler, Park Manager and Dr. Lance Greene, Assistant Professor of Anthropology at Georgia Southern University, who discussed the Camp Lawton Project. Magnolia Springs State Park near Millen, Ga., was once the site of a major Civil War prison built by Confederates in 1864. Since summer of 2010, Georgia Southern University has been carrying out an archaeological project at the site.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for the area Salvation Army. These announcements were utilized to promote the Christmas Kettles sponsored by the Salvation Army. Total announcements – 135.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for the Georgia Association of Broadcasters. These announcements were utilized to promote the Georgia Army National Guard. Total announcements – 24.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Georgia Gives Day. These announcements were utilized to promote the idea that individuals should donate to non-profit organizations that mean the most to you. Examples were literacy, hunger, blood diseases, disability, jobs development, etc. Total announcements – 30.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for University of Georgia. These announcements were utilized to promote the UGA Homecoming Parade and activities associated with homecoming. Total announcements – 25.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Food For Flight. These announcements were utilized to promote donations of canned food items for the Athens Area Emergency Food Bank. Total announcements – 9.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Food Bank Of Northeast Georgia. These announcements were utilized to promote the food bank's Hunger Bowl Program aimed at raising awareness of a need to feed the hungry in the Northeast Georgia community. Total announcements – 50.

HEALTH & EDUCATION-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
WRFC News	10/4/13	6:48 a.m. 8:48 a.m.	30-sec. 30-sec.	Local Local
A need for help for persons trying to access the Affordable Healthcare Website. This report dealt with the local library trying to help patrons navigate the apparently treacherous waters of the Affordable Health Care Act. The Athens Regional Library on Baxter Street is posting a link to the Obamacare health insurance exchange program on its website. The library's Rhiannon Eades says it is especially designed for those who come to the library to use its computers.
Newsmakers Today	10/13/13	7:00 a.m.	4minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness in the community of an important local educational event. David Mustard represents Young Democrats of Georgia. He provided details of an upcoming education conference and encouraged local participation.
Newsmakers Today	10/6/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for adequate health care for individuals. Amanda Patashkin is from Georgian's for Healthy Futures. She discussed how registration is now in effect for Obamacare and some issues local individuals can expect to deal with as they attempt to enroll.
WRFC News	10/24/13	6:48 a.m. 8:48 a.m.	30-sec. 30-sec.	Local Local
A need for relief from the Affordable Health Care Act. This report dealt with John Barrow, the former Athens-Clarke County Commissioner who is now a Congressman in Augusta, becoming one of the first congressional Democrats to call for a delay in implementation of the Individual mandate provision of the Affordable Health Care Act. Barrow, who represents east Georgia's 12th District, say from the floor of the U.S. House a delay "is not the right thing to do, it's the only practical thing to do". Barrow joins with House Republicans and others who are complaining about multiple and massive glitches with the Obamacare website.
Georgia Focus	11/3/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to create public awareness of a health issue. Guests on this program were Leigh Tenewitz, Director of Communications and Government Affairs for the Georgia Chapter of March of Dimes, and Deborah Roegge de Vita, Vice President of Women's/Infants and Pediatric Networks at Wellstar Health System. They discussed that November is Prematurity Awareness Month and the work the March of Dimes Georgia Chapter does focusing on premature births in the state.
Georgia Focus	11/10/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to create awareness of a program supporting military families. Guests on this program were David Coker, President of the Fisher House Foundation and Susan Strobino who resided at a Fisher House in Augusta while her son was recovering from wounds received while serving in Iraq. They explained the Fisher House provides "a home away from home" for families of military personnel receiving care at military and VA medical centers.
Georgia Focus	11/17/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need for the public to get flu shots. Guests on this program were experts from Children's Healthcare of Atlanta: Dr. Jim Fortenberry, Pediatrician-in-Chief, Dr. Andi Shane, Medical Director of Hospital Epidemiology and Infection Prevention, Dr. Robert Jerris, Medical Director of Microbiology and Renee Watson, Manager of Infection Control. These medical professionals joined others from around the state in urging everyone to get vaccinated as soon as possible to be protected from the flu virus this year. They addressed issues pertinent to this flu season.

WRFC News	11/21/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to expand educational opportunities in the University System. This report dealt with an announcement the State Board of Regents has approved a new, four-year communication degree at the University of North Georgia. UNG says it sought expansion of the program in response to recent sustained increase in demand for writers, animators, cinematographers, and medial
Newsmakers Today	11/24/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to help those who are struggling as caregivers to seniors, or ailing partners. Renee Unterman talked about the challenging situations that face those who fall into roles of being a caregiver. She talked about what we can do to help these individuals.
Newsmakers Today	12/1/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for more blood donor volunteers. Kristen Stancil is the area Red Cross office. She explained there is a need for more blood donors because there is a shortage in blood donations that has resulted in a shortage in blood supplies.
WRFC News	12/12/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for improvement in education statistics. This report dealt with officials in the Clarke County School System reacting to the release of a state report on high school graduation rates. The report from the Georgia Department of Education shows a 76.4 percent 2013 graduation rate at Clarke Central, down slightly from 2012. Cedar Shoals saw an increase from 73.4 percent last year to 75.9 percent this year. Both schools topped the state rate of 71.5 percent.
Georgia Focus	12/15/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to encourage support of a children's health care initiative. Guests on this program were Steven Wagner, Development Officer of Major Gifts at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta and Ryan Grelecki and his son Parker who have experienced first hand the great work done at Children's. All In For All Better is a movement at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta to inspire the community to come together to help children feel better. Donations made this holiday season will help kids get well so they can enjoy the childhood they deserve.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Mobile Mammogram. These announcements were utilized to promote the mammogram services and encourage women to utilize mobile mammogram. Total announcements -17.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for employees of Athens Regional Medical Center. These announcements were utilized to promote the Pink Glove program supporting the fight against cancer. Total announcements -37.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Home Health Care Services of St. Mary's Hospital. These announcements were aimed at raising awareness of services that can aid those with health need in the community. Total announcements - 126

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Breast Cancer Awareness. Total announcements - 27.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Athens Regional Medical Center. These announcements were aimed at raising awareness of issues surrounding heart attack, food poisoning, orthopedics. Total announcements - 222.

ECONOMY-ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Georgia Focus	10/6/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	Local
A need to expand Georgia's biggest industry. The Guest on this program was Jamison Cruce, Director of Research and Education for the Georgia Peanut Commission. He explained the Georgia Peanut Commission was established in 1961 under the Commodities Promotion Act. Peanuts are a $2-billion industry in Georgia and the Commission conducts programs in the areas of promotion, research and education.
Newsmakers Today	10/13/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A question of whether a need exists for a Georgia Power rate increase. Tim Echols is a member of the Georgia Public Service Commission. He discussed the pros and cons of a request from the Georgia Power Company citing a need to expand and grow production as the basis for a rate increase.
WRFC News	10/23/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for an improvement in the jobs market in our area. This report dealt with good news on two job fronts. It was the second northeast Georgia jobs announcement this week. On the heels of news that a California-based bakery firm is expanding and adding 400-new jobs in Hall County, comes word that a yarn manufacturer will set up shop in Rabun County. Parkdale Mills expects to fill more than 200 positions with its $85-million expansion in Rabun Gap.
Newsmakers Today	10/29/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for additional local revenues. Travis Brown talked about the efforts toward collecting sales taxes on online purchases.
WRFC News	10/30/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for economic growth in the community. This report dealt with Selig Enterprises saying it is scrapping plans for a controversial development that had been proposed for the eastern edge of downtown Athens. Selig had been looking at a multimillion dollar proposal for the old Armstrong and Dobbs Property.
Newsmakers Today	10/30/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for increased fares for the local transit facilities. Butch McDuffie is from the Athens Transit System. He talked about the proposed fare increases and why they are needed.
Newsmakers Today	10/30/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A disappointing decision about a proposed downtown development. Doc Eldridge is from the local Chamber of Commerce. He explained a decision that means the Selig Company won't be building a new major retail shopping complex on unused property in downtown Athens.
Newsmakers Today	11/10/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for public awareness of details related to a Georgia Power rate hike request. Debbie Dooley from the Georgia Tea Party discussed rate hearings being held by the state Public Service Commission on the Georgia Power request.
Newsmakers Today	11/24/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need within the business community is fulfilled. Myla Neal is from the Athens Tennis Center and explained the center is now open. She provided details about what the center offers.

Newsmakers Today 12/1/13 7:00 a.m. 4-minutes Local
 A need for improvement in retail sales. John Fleming is from the Georgia Retail Association and talked about the big sales and promotions known as Black Friday. He made projections for the holiday shopping season beginning with Black Friday. He also discussed how some retailers are opening on Thanksgiving to get an early jump on the big sales and to draw a crowd of shoppers.

Georgia Focus 12/8/13 7:30 a.m. 28-minutes Local
 A need to expand Georgia's major shipping port in Savannah. Efforts to deepen the Port of Savannah to accommodate larger ships have been underway for sometime. This program featured an interview with Curtis Foltz, Executive Director of the Georgia Ports Authority. During this interview, he reviewed comments on the port project by Governor Nathan Deal and Chris Carr, Commissioner of the Georgia Department of Economic Development at a recent State Ports Conference in Atlanta.

ENVIRONMENT –

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
WRFC News	10/4/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need save on energy and water costs. This report dealt with Georgians looking for ways to save on energy and water costs and encouraged them to take advantage of the second annual water and energy products sales tax holiday. Environmentally friendly products that carry the Energy Star and WaterSense Labels and the cost $1,500, or less, could qualify for the sales tax exemptions.

Newsmakers Today 11/10/13 7:00 a.m. 4-minutes Local
 A need to publicly express the needs for the Athens downtown infrastructure. Tony Eubanks discussed the current state of conditions within the infrastructure. He explained many areas of the infrastructure have not kept up with growth and development and this has created some shortfalls in service to the community.

WRFC News	11/11/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to raise concerns about returning to drought conditions. This report dealt with officials saying drought conditions are creeping back into Georgia after a break of several months. The U.S. Drought Monitor finds the biggest cluster of abnormally dry conditions in east and west central Georgia. Northeast Georgia is officially drought-free, at least so far.

Newsmakers Today 11/17/13 7:00 a.m. 4-minutes Local
 A need for public awareness of proper recycling mandates. Joe Dunlop provided details of a commercial recycling ordinance that begins in January.

WRFC News	12/9/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for development of new water facilities. This report dealt with establishment of a three member committee that will plan for recreational uses for the still-under-construction Hard Labor Creek Reservoir. The 1,400-acre lake will provide drinking water for Oconee and Walton Counties. The committee appointed by the Hard Labor Creek Reservoir Management Board will draft preliminary plans for recreational use of the lake and will also estimate costs.

PUBLIC SAFETY & CRIME-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
WRFC News	10/1/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

Is there a need for guns in possession of school officials? This report dealt with the report of more talk as last night's Gainesville City School Board's meeting about a plan to place rifles in Gainesville schools. There could be a school board decision at a meeting later this month. The controversial proposal calls for rifles to be kept under lock and key at three schools in Gainesville. They would be accessible to school resource officers in the event of an emergency situation.

WRFC News	10/2/13	7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for public safety in the courtroom. This report dealt with an occurrence when a mother made a frightening discovery in Walton County, finding a pipe bomb in her teen-aged son's room. She called the Walton County Sheriff's Office and they found in the room a dummy grenade that had been hollowed out and filled with powder and shrapnel. Investigators say the 13-year old boy had an upcoming court date. They say they don't know if he planned on bringing the explosives to the courthouse in Monroe. He's been arrested and is now in juvenile custody.

Georgia Focus	10/20/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	----------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to create public awareness of state service that provides help to travelers. Program guests were Chata Spikes from GA 511 and Michael Roberson from HERO. They explained how Georgia 511 provides free, real time travel and traffic information anywhere in Georgia. The service also allows travelers to report and incident, request assistance, get mass transit and airport information or even transfer to surrounding states' 511 systems.

WRFC News	10/25/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of dangers from roaming bears. This report dealt with details released by the state Department of Natural Resources that says eight black bears have been struck and killed by vehicles over the past eight weeks in north Georgia. The DNR says that indeed is an unusually large number and urged caution when a bear is sighted. One possible reason is bears foraging in advance of the upcoming winter and looking hard to find acorns which, because of the unusually rainy summer, not as abundant as in years past.

Georgia Focus	10/27/13	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	----------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to stress safety procedures for children at Halloween. Guests on this program were Dr. Vivian Lennon, Medical Director of Primary Care at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, Wendy Palmer, Registered Dietician and Program Manager for Child Wellness Solutions for the Strong4Life Program, and Officer Eric Rooks, Gwinnett County Police Crime Prevention Unit. They discussed how Halloween is an exciting time for kids because they can dress up in elaborate costumes and act out of character. However, as trick-or-treaters start roaming the streets there are some things two worry about as a parent or guardian...from traffic safety to making sure the candy is safe.

WRFC News	10/30/13	7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to control the problem of rabid animals in northeast Georgia. This report dealt with an increasing problem of detected rabies. The Madison County Animal Control Office confirmed two recent reports of rabies. A rabid skunk came into contact with a dog on Coley Davis Road in Danielsville, and a rabid raccoon tangled with a cat on Forest Lane in Colbert. Animal Control officials in Danielsville say this month's rabies cases point to the need for valid vaccination of pets.

WRFC News	11/27/13	6:48 a.m.	45-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	45-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	45-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of arrests in a home invasions case in Athens that is prime interest. This report dealt with three suspects linked to two home invasion robberies in Athens being arrested by police in Cornelia. Cornelia police chief Rick Darby says his officers, along with Habersham County Sheriff's Deputies and Baldwin police officers found the suspects in a Days Inn Motel in Cornelia. They're facing a long list of charges that include drug and weapons violations. They'll be questioned by Athens-Clarke County Police about violent home invasions that happened last week. In one case, a man in an apartment says he was burned with a hot iron by the men who burst into his residence looking for cash. In the other, this past Friday, a woman tells police she was raped by three gunmen in her residence on Cole Manor Drive. The suspects are Deonta Moss and Michael Moss, both 33 years old, and LaQuinton Smith, 27 years old.

Newsmakers Today	12/1/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to encourage Georgians to buckle up for safety. Harris Blackwood is from the Governor's Office Of Highway Safety and talked about the department's programs and efforts aimed at getting the driving public to buckle up and slow down.

WRFC News	12/5/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to prevent child deaths within the state juvenile system. This report dealt with an announcement that Tonya Boga has resigned, stepping down from her post as the state's Child Advocate. Governor Nathan Deal has appointed a seven member panel to search for a replacement. Her departure comes amid criticism of the Georgia Department of Family and Children's Services and in the wake of recent child deaths that were not prevented by DFACS.

POLITICAL-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	10/6/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local

A need for enforcement of ethics in state government. Bryan Long is from the group, Better Georgia. He discussed a need for enforcement of ethics as applied to the governor's office. Accusations were recently made against Governor Nathan Deal and now an investigation is ongoing into his actions.

Newsmakers Today	10/13/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	----------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need for public consideration of a bicycle bill in the state legislature. Emory Dunahoo explained his attitude on why legislators should kill the bicycle tax bill. This measure would require bicyclists to register and get tags, much the same as automobiles.

WRFC News	10/23/13	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for clear enforcement of ethics in state government. This report dealt with the State Ethics Commission changing course and asking the State Department of Audits and Accounts to conduct an internal investigation of the agency. The commission had previously voted to ask Attorney General Sam Olens to appoint a special investigator. At issue is the commission's handling of ethics allegations leveled against Governor Nathan Deal.

Newsmakers Today	11/10/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness of the activities of a local political party organization. Denise Ricks is from the local Athens Democratic Party. She provided details of their upcoming monthly meeting and what participants should expect.
Newsmakers Today	11/17/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Matt Schultz is a candidate for Georgia State School Superintendent. He explained why he chose to run for state school superintendent, and talked about the things he sees are important in the state's public school. He explained how he plans to address some of the current problems.
Newsmakers Today	12/8/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Melissa Link is a candidate for District-3 on the Athens-Clarke County Commission. She talked about why she chose to seek election and focused on issues she believes are important in the county. She related to how she would deal with these issues
Newsmakers Today	12/8/13	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to insure all voters have access to their designated voting place. Stacy Abrams is from the American Values Project. She discussed issues some voters have encountered when voting and explained their efforts for assuring access at the polling booth.				