

The FCC requires that the online political file contains the actual times and rates for the political spots that air and that this information be included in the file as soon as possible. Since this information is generated via official station invoice on a monthly basis, below is the name of a contact person who can provide the times and rates for those specific spots aired.

Pam Sanchez
(505) 341-6113
psanchez@entravision.com