

ISSUES/PROGRAMS SUMMARY

4th quarter – (Oct. – Dec.) 2022

WAJH covered several community issues this quarter with various forms of programming, including ongoing public service announcement campaigns, and promotions for significant events in the community. For the following issues, a 30-second public service announcement was aired at least once daily during the quarter, unless otherwise noted:

- Adoption/Foster Care –WJH aired a campaign (throughout the quarter) supporting efforts by the Alabama Department of Human Resources to encourage foster care and adoption. The program aired daily throughout the quarter and specifically encouraged foster and adoptive parenthood.
- Public Safety – WJH aired a campaign (throughout the quarter) on behalf of the state Transportation Dept., reminding motorists to “share the road” with bicyclists, and drive safely around those on bikes.
- Vaccines/COVID – WJH aired two campaigns (throughout the quarter) on behalf of the Alabama Dept. of Public Health, one dealing with vaccinations and the other with testing for Covid when symptoms arise for the general public, and another targeting people with disabilities and their caregivers, as they may be at higher risk.
- Healthcare/Veterans – WJH aired a campaign (throughout the quarter) on behalf of the VA reminding veterans of a hotline for veterans to connect with other veterans when facing post-combat challenges.
- Pollution/Transportation – WJH aired a campaign (throughout the quarter) on behalf of the Alabama Clean Fuels Coalition, promoting electric vehicles. The messages focused on the vehicles being fast, powerful, and fun to drive.
- Elder Care - WJH aired a campaign (throughout the quarter) on behalf of the state DHR’s division of Adult Protective Services, reminding the public to be alert and report suspected elder abuse and neglect.
- Housing/COVID - WJH aired a campaign (throughout the quarter) on behalf of the AL Housing Finance Authority, informing the public of financial assistance for housing available to those impacted by the pandemic.
- Tourism – WJH aired a campaign (throughout the quarter) on behalf of the AL Dept. of Tourism, promoting a new program designed to help promote various Alabama attractions in the wake of the pandemic shutdown.
- Athletics and Performing Arts - WJH aired a campaign throughout the quarter) on behalf of the AL High School Athletic Association, advocating support for students involved in athletics and the performing arts, both by attending events and filling a shortage of game officials.

WAJH aired the following long-form programs, dealing at length with significant community issues:

- Cultural Enrichment: Jazz – WAJH aired a daily (weekdays at noon), one-hour program featuring traditional jazz music. The program was hosted by jazz author Bart Grooms, who discusses artist biographies and places them and the music in its historical context in the development of American culture. The program also emphasizes contributions made to jazz by local and regional artists.
- Cultural Enrichment: Local Jazz and Education – WAJH aired daily (once per hour) music from Alabama artists, giving some mention and biographical information on the artists. The program intends to educate and remind people of the contributions made to music by local musicians, in keeping with the mission of the Alabama Jazz Hall of Fame.

Each Sunday at 10 am, WAJH provided the community with the live broadcast of the Vestavia Hills Baptist Church worship service.
