Issues of Concern to Listeners Within the WDOT-FM Coverage Area Fourth Quarter, 2022

WDOT-FM broadcasts the nationally syndicated program “eTown”. The show's mission is to “...educate, entertain and inspire a diverse audience through music and conversation in order to create a socially responsible and environmentally sustainable world.” WDOT-FM feels that listeners in our area place significant value in diversity, and environmental sustainability. Accordingly, we feel this program is pertinent to individuals with those concerns. Additionally, the program covers other topics which benefit humankind globally.

eTown - #2239

Sunday, October 2, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

We're back this week with more from our 2013 season including songs from Lord Huron, Joe Purdy, Terry Allen, Aoife O'Donovan, The Milk Carton Kids, Gregory Alan Isakov, Caitlyn Rose, and Solas! Nick also sits down with Terry Tempest Williams to discuss education and environmentalism. Join us as we continue to savor special musical and conversational moments throughout eTown's decades of programming.

eTown - #2240

Sunday, October 9, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

Thurston Moore joins us with his blend of alternative, experimental rock, and post-punk for this encore airing. Popularly known as the singer, songwriter, and guitarist of Sonic Youth, Moore was listed as one of Rolling Stone Magazine's “100 Greatest Guitarists of All Time.” The talented Texas R&B/soul duo Greyhounds is also with us, and our eChievement Award winner shares her story of “rescuing” food that would otherwise go to waste in order to feed the hungry in her community.

eTown - #2241

Sunday, October 16, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

We look back fondly to our 2014 season with this special re-broadcast featuring two young and extremely talented performers: Alejandro Rose-Garcia, (performing under the moniker Shakey Graves) and Heather Maloney. We'll also share a great eChievement Award story of a young Canadian woman building safe classrooms for children, particularly girls, in Afghanistan

eTown - #2242

Sunday, October 23, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

Join us as we continue celebrating 30 years of spectacular eTown shows! This re-airing from 2014 brings the energetic California-based trio The Devil Makes Three to the eTown stage. And singer/songwriter Parker Millsap joins us too, with his dynamic mix of blues, folk, and roots (he was all of 19 years old at the time this show originally took place!). Plus an inspiring E-Chievement Award story about the cofounder of a project countering bullying by teaching elementary kids about acceptance and understanding.

eTown - #2243

Sunday, October 30, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

This week, we bring you some of the best moments from our 2014 season. The variety of talent that we welcomed to the eTown stage that year was astounding. We've got, among others, the danceable Cumbia of Los Lobos, the delicate vocals of Jesca Hoop and Laura Marling, the energy of Lake Street Dive and Rodney Crowell and the thoughtful poetry of hip hop artist, Atmosphere. As usual, it's all tied together with Nick Forster's thoughtful conversation and the pacing and excellent production of the eTown team. This is a good one – don't miss it!

November

eTown - #2244

Sunday, November 6, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

eTown favorite and American musical legend, David Bromberg joins Rockabilly legend, Wanda Jackson for an unforgettable eTown show from our 2014 season. Bromberg's versatile variety of bluegrass, blues, and country is a perfect foil for Wanda's unmistakable take on her classic songs she made famous in the 50s, back when she was on tour with Elvis, Carl Perkins, Jerry Lee Lewis, and Johnny Cash. Bromberg, who got his start playing with his own set of legends like Jerry Jeff Walker and Bob Dylan, joins Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Wanda Jackson at the end of the show, but their conversations with host Nick Forster make great radio. Great music, insightful conversation and an E-Chievement Award winner who is feeding her Idaho community in a sustainable way. Be sure to join us!

eTown - #2245

Sunday, November 13, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

In this classic eTown program from 2015, Nick and Helen welcome Swedish indie folk artist José González to the eTown stage. Also with us is the North Carolina-based husband and wife musical duo Mandolin Orange. Plus there's a great eChievement Award story about a woman who is keeping office supplies out of landfills and getting them into the hands of teachers.

eTown - #2246

Sunday, November 20, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

On we go with eTown's special 30th-anniversary series, serving up highlights from the past three decades of programming. This week we revisit some of eTown's most stellar live performances featuring guests from our 2015 season, including musical icon Robert Earl Keen, the hilarious Matt the Electrician, smooth jazz vocalist Kat Edmonson, the intimate sound of Iron & Wine, the innovative collaborative duo Aimee Mann and Ted Leo, the legendary genre-bending artist Ben Folds and more. And of course, great conversations abound as always! It's that delicious potpourri of music and discussion, for which eTown is so well known, with gifted host/musician Nick Forster at the helm.
