Issues of Concern to Listeners Within the WDOT-FM Coverage Area Third Quarter, 2022

WDOT-FM broadcasts the nationally syndicated program “eTown”. The show's mission is to “...educate, entertain and inspire a diverse audience through music and conversation in order to create a socially responsible and environmentally sustainable world.” WDOT-FM feels that listeners in our area place significant value in diversity, and environmental sustainability. Accordingly, we feel this program is pertinent to individuals with those concerns. Additionally, the program covers other topics which benefit humankind globally.

July

eTown - #2226

Sunday, July 3, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

We continue our dive into the eTown archives with this exceptional 2010 rebroadcast (full episode) with the Indigo Girls, Emily Saliers and Amy Ray. This was originally an ‘eTown on the road’ show done from the Lincoln Center in Fort Collins, Colorado, with a bit of intrigue thrown in: When Amy misses her plane, Nick, Helen, and the rest of the eTones are enlisted to fill in in her absence. While they make beautiful music with Emily in the first set of the show, the question arises: will Amy make it to the theater in time to join Emily for their second set in the show? Tune in and find out. Also on the program for his first eTown visit is now iconic singer-songwriter Nathaniel Rateliff, who was an up-and-coming young artist at the time. The E-Chievement Award honors a dedicated Fort Collins citizen who shares his story about helping abused children with us.

eTown - #2227

Sunday, July 10, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

This week, we bring you one of our favorite programs from the archives (we couldn’t resist sharing it in its entirety). While both Derek Trucks and Susan Tedeschi had made solo stops in eTown over the years, this visit is a first for the newly-formed husband and wife duo’s all-star band. Also, Joseph Arthur, a virtuoso musician, painter and poet (in no particular order), takes the stage. And we’ll share the story of a grassroots hero from Illinois. A classic etown to be sure! This week’s eChievement Award winner works for Backpack Buddies Club to provide toiletries, school & comfort items for homeless kids.

eTown - #2228

Sunday, July 17, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

eTown's anniversary celebration series continues, as we serve up great musical and conversational moments from the show's three decades of past programs. Sounding as fresh and remarkable as they did originally, it's so great to be able to revisit these exceptional, one-of-a-kind performances and conversations.

eTown - #2229

Sunday, July 24, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

We continue our deep dive into the eTown archives, with more great moments from our treasure trove of musical and conversational gems. This week, we'll hear from Teddy Thompson, Suzanne Vega, Mohammed Alidu & The Bizung Family, Cyndi Lauper, and more! Plus, we'll revisit our conversation with a 2011 eChievement Award winner from Denver, Colorado!

eTown - #2230

Sunday, July 31, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

This week, we bring you another of our favorite episodes from the eTown archives. Nick & Helen Forster welcome special guests The Civil Wars. Joy Williams & John Paul White had a several-year run as a wildly popular indie duo before going their separate ways to pursue solo projects. Also with us, Sarah Jarosz, one of the most talked about singer/writers today. This week's eChievement Award winner works for The Ten Dollar Club that inspires people to donate $10/month pooled to a charity.

August

eTown - #2231

Sunday, August 7, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

Nick & Helen welcome renowned Canadian singer and songwriter, Dallas Green, who performs under the moniker City and Colour. He has an unmistakable sound, both instrumentally and vocally, he's wildly popular, and we're excited to have him with us for his first visit to eTown. Also joining us for the first time is the dynamic duo Birds of Chicago, which consists of talented musicians JT Nero and Allison Russell (two emerging artists gathering a following in American Roots music). This week's eChievement Award winner works for WOW - Worth Our Weight to provide food & management training for at risk youth with a "Pay what you can" café.

eTown - #2232

Sunday, August 14, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

Nick & Helen welcome indie sensation Kristian Matsson (who performs under the moniker The Tallest Man on Earth). Kristian hails from Sweden and, of late, has burst onto the US music scene, building a huge fan base in an astonishingly short amount of time. He brings his stripped down, soulful sound (which often gets him compared to Bob Dylan) to the show. And relative newcomers The Spring Standards join us this week as well. They were childhood friends and reunited after college to continue creating their uniquely original sound; they're currently enjoying an underground following and growing buzz in the industry. This week's eChievement Award winner works for Feeding Minds-Enriching Lives, a school pantry for kids and their families.

eTown - #2233

Sunday, August 21, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

eTown's anniversary celebration series continues, as we serve up great musical and conversational moments from the show's three decades of past programs. Join us this week as we share more highlights, both musical and conversational, from eTown's 2012 season!

eTown - #2234

Sunday, August 28, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

We continue our deep dive into the eTown archives, with more great moments from our treasure trove of musical and conversational gems. This week, we're back with more highlights from our incredible 2012 season of shows including performances by: Elephant Revival, Shovels & Rope, Elle King, Justin Townes Earle, Civil Twilight and more!

September

eTown - #2235

Sunday, September 4, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

Nick & Helen welcome back some old friends: brothers Luther and Cody Dickinson of North Mississippi Allstars fame. They bring their special Southern blues sound, this time as a duo (Nick & Helen and the eTones lend musical support as well for them). There's more great music from first time eTown visitor Big Al Anderson. Al's known for his time (23 years as lead guitarist) with the iconic band NRBQ. He's a gifted singer, guitarist and songwriter, whose work is a dynamic fusion of County, Rock, Blues and Soul. This week's eChievement Award winner works for Harmonikids that provides Music Therapy for special needs kids.

eTown - #2236

Sunday, September 11, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

This week, as we continue to celebrate 30 years on the air, eTown hosts Nick and Helen Forster welcome two world-class artists, Marcia Ball and Paul Thorn for an episode from 2013 that's steeped in the musical traditions of the American south. Marcia is truly an iconic blues player, writer and singer. And talented, funny and insightful singer/songwriter Paul Thorn will have you laughing, especially in his chat with Nick. This week's eChievement Award winner works for Art Road, an organization that promotes art in schools that do not have the budget for art programs.

eTown - #2237

Sunday, September 18, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

Grammy-nominated singer/songwriter John Fullbright graces the eTown stage with his powerful keyboard and vocal skills. This young Americana/ folk musician and blues artist has been compared to the likes of Woody Guthrie. Canadian indie artist Afie Jurvanen, performing under the moniker “Bahamas,” also joins us to share a few of his intimate, stripped-down acoustic originals. This week’s eChievement Award winner works for The Joy of Sox to distribute socks to the homeless.

eTown - #2238

Sunday, September 25, 2022

7:00 PM – Duration: 1 Hour

This week, we continue with eTown’s ‘look back’ with a collection of highlights from eTown’s 30 seasons featuring some amazing artists: Joe Ely, The Wood Brothers, City And Colour, Kat Edmonson, Max Gomez, Leon Russell, Dave Alvin, Kate Earl, and The Head And The Heart. Magnificent music and memorable conversations galore are coming your way!
