

Quarterly Report for October 1, 2018 – December 31, 2018
Vince Winkel

Oct. 2. Former Sears Converted Into Recovery Center at Mall

Oct. 3. State Officials Say Continue Caution When It Comes To Water

Oct. 8. CFPUA To Vote On $46 Million Expansion This Week

Oct. 15. 2018 Elections: Joanne Levitan Is Big On School Safety For Brunswick County

Oct. 16. 2018 Elections: Kenneth Lanier Looks To Continue On Pender County School Board

Oct. 24. 2018 Elections: Rob Zapple Wants 2nd Term As New Hanover County Commissioner

Oct. 25. 2018 Elections: Eric Lytle Running For New Hanover County Board Of Commissioners

Oct. 31. 2018 Elections: Pender County's Cindy Faulk Fontana Seeking Board of Education Seat

Nov. 1. 2018 Election: June Robbins Hoping For District 4 Seat on Pender County School Board

Nov. 2. 2018 Election: Ken Smith Eyes District 4 Seat on Pender County School Board

Nov. 7. David Rouzer Defeats Kyle Horton in U.S. Congressional Race

Nov. 7. Harper Peterson Narrowly Defeats Sen. Michael Lee For North Carolina Senate

Nov. 7. Republicans Dominate Pender County Races For Office

Nov. 14. GenX: Exposure Study Results Released In Wilmington

Nov. 20. Member Of CFCC Board Of Trustees Resigns

Nov. 23. FEMA Offering Free Post-Hurricane Counseling Services

Nov. 26. GenX: November Was A Busy Month For Water Issues

Nov. 29. GenX: DEQ Explains The Proposed Consent Order

Dec. 3. Barfield Elected Chair Of New Hanover County Board Of Commissioners

Dec. 4. NHC Commissioner Majority Changes - Does It Matter?

Dec. 7. GenX: CFPUA Responds To EPA's Draft Toxicity Assessment

Dec. 11. Lawsuit To Prevent Seismic Testing In Atlantic Ocean Filed In South Carolina

Dec. 13. GenX: Consent Order Is "A First Step"

Dec. 18. Wilmington Settles With Johnny Small For $7 Million

Dec. 21. FEMA Closes Wilmington Center, Still Offers Support

In addition – two appearances on WUNC's State of Things, and hosting ATC last two weeks December.

#