Segment One—Joy Ranch

Picture an Old West-themed summer camp for people of all ages and abilities. Joy Ranch's barrier-free design opens up the summer camp experience to everyone. Owned and operated by Lutherans Outdoors in South Dakota and located west of Watertown, Joy Ranch is one of many South Dakota summer camps offering a faith-centered outdoor experience. Producer: Cara Hetland

Segment Two—Legends of Gold

Beresford's "Legends of Gold National Training Center" offers summertime instruction and coaching for young wrestlers looking to hone their techniques and advance in the sport. Producer: Stephanie Rissler

Segment Three—USD Music Camp

The Annual "Upper Midwest Summer Music Camp", put on by the University of South Dakota Music Department, is a six day experience of fun, learning and music making. The camp has been going on for 61 years and is open to students who have completed grades 5 – 12. Musical opportunities include show choir, concert band, jazz band, guitar study, piano study and more. The camp culminates in two nights of final concerts put on by the students.

Producer: Kevin Patten

Segment Four—Lewis and Clark Scout Camp

Situated in the woods and bluffs along the Missouri River west of Yankton, Lewis and Clark Boy Scout Camp has been hosting summer camps for Scouts for more than 50 years. The rugged setting and the camp's top-quality programs have lately made the facility a "must visit" for Scout Troops from around the nation.

Producer: Brian Gevik

FORMAT: DAKOTA LIFE is half-hour, monthly magazine style program. The program features 3 segments per show, each featuring different people and places from across the state. Each half-hour program is themed and the segments all revolve around a central idea. The program is hosted by Larry Rohrer, who transitions between the segments with additional information for the viewers and informs where and how they can learn more about each segment.
