DURATION: 00:26:48

FORMAT: South Dakotans are filled with grit and determination to overcome any challenge. The four segments included in this episode are listed below:

Trevor’s Legacy, Producer Melissa Hamersma Sievers

On August 29, 2015, in Kadoka, 17-year-old Trevor Torkelson was on his way to work at Subway when he was killed by a drunk driver. Each year, the Kadoka community gathers in the school gymnasium for “Rock the Rim,” a friendly basketball fundraiser for children in need put on by the Trevor’s Legacy Foundation. Founded by Trevor’s mother, Roxanne Vogelgesang, the organization works to carry on Trevor’s spirit of generosity and care by providing assistance for children in surrounding communities who have medical expenses from serious illness or accidents.

Elaine Doll-Dunn: It’s Never Too Late, Producer Stephanie Rissler

To celebrate her 82nd birthday this fall, Elaine Doll-Dunn plans to run 82 miles from France to Spain. Doll-Dunn began running at the age of 40 and has since completed 125 marathons. A former teacher, a mother of seven, and grandmother to 20, Doll-Dunn is the embodiment of “age is just a number.” Guests include: Elaine Doll-Dunn, Dan Olson, and Samra Trask

Match Day: Admitting Med Students to Residencies, Producer Jackie Hendry

Each year, USD’s medical students spend months applying for residency programs across the country. Anxiety runs high each spring on “Match Day,” when soon-to-be graduates learn to what residency program they’ve been accepted and where they’ll spend the next 3-5 years of their lives and careers. Join SDPB at the Sanford Campus in Sioux Falls to share the excitement of this med school tradition. Guests include: Tim Ridgway, M.D., Joe Kolba, and Kate Kondratuk

The Spirit of Six, Producer Nate Wek

The Spirit of Six honors six Rapid City High School cheerleaders who died in a plane crash March 17, 1968, at Rapid City Regional Airport as they returned from leading Cobbler fans at the state basketball championships in Sioux Falls. Jan Glaze, Shirley Landstrom, Lauren “Kay” McNutt, Terry Blanton, Diana McCluskey and Gail Flohr died, along with pilot Ivan Landstrom, his wife, Mary (Shirley’s parents) and English teacher and cheer adviser Dorothy Lloyd. SDPB traces the history and evolution of the award, from its early beginnings as a presentation in hotel lobbies to the South Dakota High School Activities Association expanding the recognition to all classes at both tournaments during a half-time Saturday night award ceremony.

FORMAT: The four segments included in this episode are listed below:

Over South Dakota in a B-25, produced by Bob Bosse

In the summer of 2019, the South Dakota Air and Space Museum at Ellsworth Air Force Base commemorated the 77th Anniversary of the famed Doolittle Raid, a mission that included two South Dakota airmen. Fly along in a restored B-25 Bomber with SDPB's Bob Bosse to learn the history of this rare and notable aircraft.

Guests include: John Mollison, Communication Dir. SD Air & Space Museum; Kim Morey, Pres. SD Air & Space Museum; Jim Lauria, Flight Mechanic B-25 Miss Mitchell

Little Matt the Wolfer, produced by Brian Gevik

Northwestern South Dakota was one of the last settled places in the American West. Big cattle drives were over but as the 20th century began, ranch-branded cattle, horses and sheep still roamed the open prairies of Meade, Ziebach, Corson, and other South Dakota counties west of the Missouri River. Livestock was big business and grey wolves were among the biggest threats to the prosperity of that business. Matt Clasen, "The King of the Wolfers" has been credited with more wolf kills than any other hunter.

Guests include: Irean Clasen Jordan, daughter; Wally Harper, Clasen grandson

Hall Century Farm, produced by Melissa Hamersma Sievers

Visit the Hall Farm near Wagner, which in fall 2019 received its Century Farm designation, the recognition that the farm has been continuously owned by a single family for 100 years or more. Marge Hall, Jan Kokesh and Sarah Carda share their memories of the farm's settler, Willy Hall, who lived to be 92.

The History of Chislic, produced by Melissa Hamersma Sievers

Learn the origins of the cubed, deep-fried meat treat. Traditionally skewered mutton or lamb cooked briefly over very high heat, chislic was christened the "state's official nosh" by the South Dakota State Legislature.

Freeman's burgeoning South Dakota Chislic Festival is quickly becoming one of the state's most popular gatherings.

Guests include: Marnette Hofer, Dir. Heritage Hall Museum; Abby Streyle, Meridian Corner Manager; Shana Smith, Menno
