Fascinating Stories

Trustworthy news

Great entertainment

Peter Sagal of Wait, Wait ... Don't Tell Me leads laugh-out-loud radio at SDPB.

Get ready to get fit!

Through fit, you can access and experience a suite of resources for parents and kids, all designed to help families make fit choices and stay healthy.

For parents

The Sanford fit/WebMD website gives parents the tools and resources they need to become healthy role models. Log on to explore healthy recipes, fit family challenges and connect with a community of parents and experts for support. Go to webmd.com/parenting/raising-fit-kids.

For kids

The website also offers an experience just for kids. Let them log on and discover entertaining and educational games, videos and challenges. No matter their age, the site has something for all kids to help them make fit choices every day and stay fit for life. Go to fit.sanfordhealth.org.

On the go

Take fit with you wherever you go! Though a series of free and engaging apps, you are never far away from fit activities. MOVE2Draw connects fun, friends and fit and is a simple and interactive way for kids to move and create their own unique drawings. eMOODicam helps not only capture the moment but also the emotion by allowing kids to bring their feelings to life and share with their friends in an easy-to-use app. Download in your app store today!

SDPB Radio

– A Ticket to Places Around the World

Public Radio take us places. It takes us inside conflicts in the Middle East and Africa and Ukraine. It tells us the stories of the news through the eyes of everyday people and world leaders. It takes us across South Dakota as we learn more about our friends, our neighbors and our leaders.

We depend on Public Radio for the news in context. We hear the stories that reveal the thoughts and the hopes of people here and across the globe. We expand our knowledge about science, politics, world events, culture and more.

Every day, we learn more about South Dakota, the United States and the world.

Your support of public radio makes that possible.

- Tune in for South Dakota news – Dakota Midday, local news reports, features, Statehouse.
- Tune in for superb storytelling and trustworthy news – This

American Life, Radiolab, Marketplace, All Things Considered, Morning Edition, Science Friday, Fresh Air.

- Tune in for laughter – Car Talk, Wait, Wait ... Don't Tell Me!, A Prairie Home Companion, Wits, Ask Me Another.
- Tune in for ideas – On Being, TED Radio Hour, On the Media.
- Tune in for music – Morning Classics, Jazz Nightly, On Record, American Routes, World Café.

We make all of it possible with our membership contributions to the Friends of SDPB. We'll be asking for your support on the air Oct. 18-25. Thank you.

HOME

Home: First place My Sunset Kayaker by Lisha Bairey of Chamberlain (left) “was taken at sunset on the Missouri River south of Chamberlain. ... this is our home away from home.” Second place goes to Home Away From Home by Zack Hagen of Aberdeen: “a duck slough feels more like home to me than anything else.” Third place is Open House, by LaTonya Johnson of Custer. “Hospitality is paramount to being a true South Dakotan!”

WORK

Work: Look Up When You Work! (left) from the State Capitol Building earned first place for Keith Hemmelman of Pierre. “The State Capitol building is not only a beautiful piece of architecture, it is also a place where a lot of work gets done for the benefit of South Dakota’s citizens. ... In this photo, you will notice that the stained glass panels are not installed in the rotunda. This is because they are being repaired & cleaned and will be reinstalled prior to the 125th anniversary of SD becoming a state.” Second place Spreading the Word! by Erica Harvey of Rapid City, shows John Halverson at 6am along Skyline Drive in Rapid City, with Elise, a red-tailed hawk. Third place Where the Corn Grows by Kendra Perry-Koski of Winner pays tribute to the ag industry.

CONNECTIONS

Connections: Prairie Connections (left), showing the Oahe Chapel that overlooks the Oahe Dam near Pierre, earned first place for Keith Hemmelman of Pierre. “This church originally was located near the Peoria flats and served not only as a church where families could connect with each other, but also as a school.” Second place Morning Coffee and Donuts at Weimer’s by Linda Chaplin of Sturgis, shows a bakery that has been connecting friends in Sturgis for more than 65 years. Third place Birds of a Feather by Erica Harvey of Rapid City, has two meanings for the photographer. The iconic Dinosaur Park in Rapid City connects us with childhood memories, Harvey says. And the red-tailed hawk is a descendent of dinosaurs, “though not the concrete kind she is sitting on.”

People across the state submitted photos – all taken on Aug. 19 – in four categories:

South Dakota: What “Being South Dakotan” means to me.

Home: Photos related to where and how we live.

Work: Photos related to where and how we work.

Connections: Photos related to everything that connects us to each other.

Go to SDPB.org/Landscapes for links to SDPB’s yearlong Landscapes project and the photo gallery reflecting A Day in South Dakota. Tune into SDPB Radio from Oct. 18-25 to hear how you can get a 2015 calendar based on the photos when you support Friends of SDPB.

South Dakota: Christian Begeman of Sioux Falls was west of Watertown in the Long Lake area when he captured Starry Night, the first-place winner (windmill at left). “A clear night sky with the Milky Way, a prairie windmill and a shooting star. It doesn’t get a much more South Dakota than that!” A visitor to South Dakota – Henry Kraft of Beachwood, Ohio – took second place in with Phoenix Rising (left), showing a proud stallion near Piedmont.

In an era of smart-phones and GPS, how can a 270-ton passenger jet vanish into thin air? NOVA examines the mystery in Why Planes Vanish. NOVA tells the inside story of the search for Flight MH370 and meets the key players, from all corners of the globe, who have spent months searching for the lost plane. How easy is it to make a plane disappear? Can new technology guarantee that, in the future, nothing will ever be "lost" again?

International stars are making music as SDPB Television presents highlights from the 2014 Dakota Sky International Piano Festival on SDPB 1, Sunday, Oct. 5, at 2pm (1 MT).

The two-week event attracts top performers from around the world, including some of the world's foremost pianists and educators. The Dakota Sky International Piano Competition was founded by internationally acclaimed pianist, and Sioux Falls native, Paul Tuntland Sánchez.

Featured performances for this year's festival include pianists Jacob Ertl, Gregory DeTurck, Adam Golka, Angelina Gadeliya and Jon Kimura Parker, plus and a Salon Recital featuring Sánchez, DeTurck, Ertl, and Gadeliya on piano, with soprano Kayleen Sánchez, Laudon Schuett on lute, Christian Zamora on violin, and Kathryn Hufnagle on cello.

Major support for the Dakota Sky International Piano Festival and the SDPB Television program comes from Dakota Sky, First Premier Bank/ Premier Bankcard, RBC Wealth Management, the Washington Pavilion of Arts & Science, and Augustana College. Sponsors include the South Dakota Arts Council, the Sioux Falls Area Community Foundation, along with businesses and individual donors throughout the state.

Jon Kimura Parker is one of the featured performers.

Dakota Life Stops at Tourist Destinations

Be a tourist with Dakota Life in October as we climb Harney Peak, stroll around Rapid City, take a trip along U.S. Highway 83 and stop by Wall Drug. The program premieres on SDPB1 Television on Thursday, Oct. 2, at 8pm (7 MT).

Segments include:

- Harney Peak Renovation – A historic observatory is getting new windows and an update.
- Walk of Presidents – Rapid City displays statues of the U.S. Presidents throughout downtown. Learn about the idea, the sculptors and more.
- Replica Independence Hall – Founding Fathers Black Hills, a new tourist attraction near Rapid City, highlights the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

- U.S. Route 83 – The highway crosses central South Dakota along its 1,885-mile journey from the Canadian border to Mexico.
- Wall Drug – The tourist icon is part of the South Dakota landscape.

Dakota Life examines the people, places and history of South Dakota each month. The half-hour program travels throughout the state to strengthen our knowledge about the state and the bonds between people who live here. This year, the program also features the Landscapes of South Dakota, SDPB's yearlong effort to share many facets of our unique identity as the state celebrates 125 years of statehood.

The program airs several times throughout each month to give viewers an opportunity to tune in. Past programs are available on-demand at SDPB.org/DakotaLife.

On April 25, 2005, a Japanese commuter train crashed into an apartment building and killed 107 people. Afterward, an official report concluded the cause of the accident was over-speeding when the train's driver tried to make up an 80-second delay. Independent Lens Brakeless looks at Japanese society and asks whether the national virtues of punctuality and loyalty to protocol are always virtues.

ELECTION 2014

Election 14 Debates Dominate on SDPB

The campaign season is heating up and SDPB examines the candidates and the issues on Television, Radio and Online.

Three one-hour debates and a program looking at several statewide election choices are on the schedule. After each program has aired, you can watch on-demand at SDPB.org/Election14.

Governor – The candidates for South Dakota’s Governor – incumbent Republican Dennis Daugaard, Democrat Susan Wismer and Independent Michael Myers – will confront the issues in a live debate on SDPB1 Television and SDPB Online on Thursday, Oct. 9, at 8pm (7 MT). The debate will repeat on SDPB Radio on Friday, Oct. 10, at Noon (11 MT) and on SDPB1 TV on Sunday, Oct. 12, at 1pm (Noon MT).

U.S. House – The candidates for the state’s U.S. House seat – incumbent Republican Kristi Noem and Democrat Corinna Robinson – will debate live on SDPB1 Television and Online on Thursday, Oct. 16, at 8pm (7 MT). The debate repeats on SDPB Radio on Friday, Oct. 17, at Noon (11 MT) and on SDPB1 TV on Sunday, Oct. 19, at 1pm (Noon MT).

U.S. Senate – Four candidates are expected to talk about their vision for the U.S. Senate – Democrat Rick Weiland, Republican Mike Rounds and two Independent candidates: Gordon Howie and Larry Pressler. They are seeking the seat held by Sen. Tim Johnson (D), who is retiring. The debate will be live on SDPB1 Television and Online on Thursday, Oct. 23, at 8pm (7 MT). It repeats on SDPB Radio on Friday, Oct. 24, at Noon (11 MT) and on SDPB Television on Sunday, Oct. 26, at 1pm (Noon MT).

Statewide choices – SDPB takes a look at PUC, Attorney General and Secretary of State candidates as well as ballot issues – on SDPB1 TV and Online on Thursday, Oct. 30, at 8pm (7 MT) and on SDPB Radio on Friday, Oct. 31, at Noon (11 MT).

SDPB Radio

Stay tuned to SDPB Radio in October as Host Karl Gehrke interviews candidates and examines the ballot issues – giving listeners a chance to ask questions on Dakota MIDDAY on weekdays at Noon (11 MT). SDPB Radio will keep you up to date on election news on Dakota MIDDAY and with news features throughout the election season. Election programs and stories will be archived at SDPB.org/Election14 so you can tune in on-demand.

Meet the Candidates

For details on South Dakota Legislature hopefuls, go to SDPB.org/Election14 for SDPB’s Meet the Candidates series. All South Dakota Legislature candidates who chose to participate offer a two-minute talk about their plans and/or campaign platforms.

SDPB’s election coverage is supported by AARP South Dakota and the South Dakota Newspaper Association.

A New Take on a Classic – the SDPB&J

SDPB will be on the scene as the Taste of South Dakota heats up from 2 to 6pm on Saturday, Oct. 11, at Main Street Square in Rapid City.

Stop by and chat with network staff and we’ll even invite you to try an SDPB&J sandwich featuring toasted bread with SDPB’s logo, sunflower “peanut” butter and South Dakota-made jam or jelly.

The Taste includes South Dakota game samples, local music, professional bass fisherman Hank Parker, the Mount Rushmore Mascots, local delicacies, South Dakota grown produce, cooking competitions, giveaways, outdoor sporting exhibits, vendors, and more. You could even learn how to improve your barbecue skills. Kids can work off some of their energy with a Kid Zone featuring inflatables, games and more.

The fun takes place at Main Street Square and Sixth Street and extends into Memorial Park. Check out the details at mainstreetsquarerc.com.

SDPB Radio Explores Writing with Book Club

SDPB.org/BookClub

A book based on the life of a South Dakota pioneer is the focus of the next featured work for SDPB Radio's Dakota Midday Book Club.

On Wednesday, Oct. 22, at Noon (11 MT), Host Karl Gehrke will interview Dawn Wink, author of "Meadowlark."

Based on a true story, the book tells about 16-year-old Grace and her hopes, her dreams and the challenges of ranching on the South Dakota prairie. Wink, an associate professor at Santa Fe Community College, based the book on her great grandmother.

You can read the book ahead of time to prepare or join the book club and get a copy from Friends of SDPB. The book club is open to Friends of SDPB supporters who donate $300 annually, or $25 per month. When you choose the book club as your thank you gift, you receive four books over the course of a year. You can even become an Evergreen Member, with automatic monthly donations, and your membership in the club will be renewed automatically. Go to SDPB.org/BookClub or call 800-333-0789 to join.

About six weeks to two months after you receive a featured book, Gehrke features the author on air, and listeners even have the option of calling in during the program with questions and comments.

The club, started last year, has featured authors Darcy Lipp-Acord with "Circling Back Home," Patrick Hicks and "The Commandant of Lubizec" and Kathleen Norris and her classic "Dakota" in special interviews thus far. The focus is on regional authors and/or books about our region.

Program Funders

Program Funders recognize the importance of lifelong learning by providing support for SDPB programs in South Dakota. Program funders give $5,000 or more in support of SDPB programs. Thank you.

Dakota Sky Presents Top Classical Talents

Highlights of the 2014 Dakota Sky International Piano Festival air on SDPB Television in October thanks to the generosity of Dakota Sky and its major funders. The one-hour program airs on Sunday, Oct. 5, at 2pm (1 MT).

Paul Sanchez

Major support for the Dakota Sky International Piano Festival and the SDPB Television program comes from First Premier Bank/Premier Bankcard, RBC Wealth Management, the Washington Pavilion of Arts & Science, and Augustana College. Sponsors include the South Dakota Arts Council, the Sioux Falls Area Community Foundation, along with businesses and individual donors throughout the state. The festival was founded by internationally acclaimed pianist Paul Tuntland Sanchez, a Sioux Falls native.

in the classical music world. You can tune into some of the great performances from 2014 and learn more at www.dakotasky.org.

South Dakota performance, history, beauty, people and places are at the heart of great programming at SDPB. As a Program Funder, you can be a part of upcoming projects.

To become a Program Funder or to find out more about upcoming SDPB projects, contact Ryan Howlett at 1-800-456-0556.

SDPB Boards to Meet near Spearfish

Two SDPB boards will meet at the Spearfish Canyon Lodge on Oct. 9-10. Board meetings are open to the public.

The South Dakota Board of Directors for Educational Telecommunications, the network's governing board, will meet at 1pm Thursday, Oct. 9. For information, call 800-456-0766.

The Friends of SDPB Board of Directors, which oversees fundraising and advocacy, will meet at 10am Friday, Oct. 10. For information, call 800-333-0789.

Correction

Travel with Friends of SDPB

Friends of SDPB is going to Branson in November and Great Britain next year. Join us.

The Branson trip leaves by bus from Sioux Falls on Nov. 19 and returns on Nov. 23, leaving three full days to see acts like Daniel O'Donnell, the Gatlin Brothers, the Oak Ridge Boys and more.

The second bus is filling fast, so make your reservations soon. Cost is $700 per person for a double, $669 per person for a triple and $792 per person for a single and payments are due by Oct. 19.

Next year, Aug. 29-Sept. 5, we fly to Great Britain. We're visiting Highclere Castle, better known as "Downton Abbey," and some of Great Britain's most iconic sights, including Buckingham Palace, the Tower of London and Stonehenge. Our tour includes a lot of walking and stair-climbing, so be prepared.

Even the hotel is historic. We'll spend six nights at the 4-star Hendon Hall in London. The 16th century mansion, converted to a hotel in 1911, is known for its beautiful terraced gardens.

Call for costs.

For details on our Friends of SDPB trips, contact Pam Pfeifer, Group Travel Experts, at 605-271-0140 or ptpfeifer@aol.com.
