Wrestle up some RODEO FUN

South Dakota High School Rodeo Finals

SDPB1

Thursday, July 10, 8pm (7 MT)

Sunday, July 13, 1pm (Noon MT)

Saddle up! Young cowboys and cowgirls are gearing up for the 2014 South Dakota High School Rodeo Finals. Highlights air on SDPB Television on Thursday, July 10, at 8pm (7 MT), and Sunday, July 13, at 1pm (Noon MT).

The program features two hours of excitement from the state competition held in Belle Fourche on June 18-22.

The SDPB Television production, with commentary from Dale Christensen and Terri Kissack, will present the highlights from this year's competition, including the top 16 in Bareback Riding, Saddle Bronc, Goat Tying, Barrel Racing, Pole Bending, Break Away Roping, Tie Down Roping, Team Roping, Bull Riding, Boys Cutting, and Girls Cutting. The program also includes interviews with saddle winners, queens, rookie cowgirl and cowboy, and all-around cowgirl and cowboy.

Each year, South Dakota's best young cowboys and cowgirls show off their skills for a chance to compete in the national finals. The contestants are all under age 20.

To qualify they must have just successfully completed 9th, 10th, 11th, or 12th grade in high school. Students qualify for the state finals by earning points at regional meets.

Tune in and lasso some fun.

The program may be purchased at Shop SDPB (click on "Shop" in the top menu at SDPB.org).

Making Music West River

How does a world-class music festival end up in Western South Dakota? Blame Michael Hill.

The Chamber Music Festival of the Black Hills, founded by Rapid City native Hill, is filling the air with concerts and educational music events in five West River counties this month. The festival features musicians of the Orlando Chamber Soloists, a Florida-based ensemble of 12 musicians with professional backgrounds from both the U.S. and Europe.

“Being a native of the Hills, it’s always been a special place to me,” says Hill, bass ace and executive director of the group. He founded the festival in 2008 at the Historic Homestake Opera House in Lead. Today, it crosses five counties and lasts 26 days.

Many of the performances will be recorded and aired later this year on SDPB Radio.

“The setting is a perfect location for a summer classical music festival,” Hill says. “It’s also our opportunity to give back to the community that gave me so much.”

Hill grew up with the sound of music. His brothers influenced his participation in band and orchestra throughout school and he was a participant in South Dakota High School All-State music events. He went on to the Black Hills Symphony, where he is still a featured soloist from time to time, and he has performed and recorded across the U.S. and internationally. One of his most memorable was at Carnegie Hall with acclaimed violinist Isaac Stern.

The South Dakota festival offers a mix of performance and educational opportunities with four distinct musical series, based in the Black Hills and the Pine Ridge Reservation.

Dawn Marie Edwards, Hill’s wife, has created the ensemble’s award-winning education program, including the very popular Teddy Bear Series for preschool and early-elementary aged children. It features “petting zoos” that give tots a chance to hear, touch and try out instruments, as well as programs that take a creative classical twist to popular icons. This year’s theme is The Gingerbread Man.

“The key to any successful educational program is based on participation,” Hill says.

The other elements of the group’s South Dakota residency are:

The Children’s Family Concert Series, for students of all ages. Under the 2014 theme of “Music of the Night Sky,” the series offers performances of works by Mozart, Debussy, and several other composers, as well as a fanciful “Attack of the Rosin Eating Zombies from Outer Space” with audience participation.

Music in Our Community features high school students performing in area churches on Sunday mornings. Students will have the opportunity to perform with members from the Orlando Chamber Soloists in different ensembles.

The Classical Music Series features three concerts – “It Had to be You,” “Celtic Visions and Miracles,” and “Tropical Fiesta Nights.” The series is the only part of the summer residency with a fee, but Hill points out that the cost ($5 to $18) is far less than you would expect for world-class performance.

One of the most creative aspects of the Orlando Chamber Soloists' summer residency is the creation of the "virtual choir." The first project took 15 months and featured more than 150 children, ages 2 to 18, from the Black Hills and Pine Ridge Reservation. Each voice and drum was recorded one at a time in places like libraries, churches and schools, then combined in "We Are South Dakota." You can check out "We Are South Dakota" by going to www.orlandochambersoloists.org. More virtual choir creations are planned for the future.

Meanwhile, Hill has one piece of advice for musicians of all ages: "Never stop practicing."

Three Cheers for the Red, White & Blue

SDPB celebrates the Fourth of July with an all-star program and fireworks with the annual A Capitol Fourth program.

The show airs live from the West Lawn of the U.S. Capitol at 7pm (6 MT) on SDPB1 Television and SDPB Radio. The TV show will repeat at 8:30pm (7:30 MT) and Radio will offer an extended two hour program.

The nation’s 238th birthday celebration includes performances by Rock and Roll Hall of Famer Frankie Valli; Grammy Award-winning music legend Patti LaBelle; recording artist and actress Jordin Sparks; five-time Grammy Award-winning singer and songwriter Michael McDonald; country music superstar Sara Evans; singer-songwriter Kendall Schmidt; and five-time Tony Award nominee and Broadway star Kelli O’Hara – with the National Symphony Orchestra under the direction of top pops conductor Jack Everly. Tom Bergeron hosts.

We’re celebrating the 200th anniversary of our national anthem, and five-time Academy Award-winning composer John Williams will debut a special arrangement for orchestra and chorus of the “Star Spangled Banner” with the National Symphony Orchestra, The Joint Armed Forces Chorus, the Choral Arts Society of Washington and the U.S. Army Herald Trumpets.

A Capitol Fourth, a holiday tradition for public broadcasters, reaches a live audience of hundreds of thousands, millions more at home, as well as our troops serving around the world on the American Forces Network.

The television finale includes one of the nation’s extravagant fireworks displays as the orchestra presents a rousing rendition of Tchaikovsky’s “1812 Overture,” complete with live cannon fire provided by the United Composer John Williams will debut a new arrangement of “The Star-Spangled Banner” for A Capitol Fourth.

States Army Presidential Salute Battery.

Also participating in the event will be the U.S. Army Ceremonial Band, members of the Armed Forces carrying the state and territorial flags and the Armed Forces Color Guard provided by the Military District of Washington, DC.

A mainstay of “geek culture” for years, cosplay – a contraction of “Costume Play” – only recently emerged from the shadows of the sci-fi convention and into the mainstream. Cosplay involves participants dressing like characters from comic books, science fiction, video games, anime or other works of fiction. Cosplay! Crafting a Secret Identity ventures into the workshops and lives of people who elevate fantasy costuming to the professional level.

Celebrate Science in Lead

Science takes center stage July 11 and 12 as the annual Neutrino Day festival gears up in Lead.

SDPB's Steven "Science Steve"

Rokusek will be one of the headliners for the July 12 event that includes activities at the Sanford Underground Research Facility (SURF) and throughout the city of Lead. Science Steve will entertain visitors with amazing and fun experiments that demonstrate scientific principles.

SDPB Science Café "Weather Whys" will take a look at the region's weather at Noon, July 12, at the Bumpin' Buffalo Café. Susan Sanders of the National Weather Service will talk about phenomena like last October's devastating blizzard.

SDPB starts the science celebration on Friday, July 11, at Noon CT (11 MT) with a Dakota Midday Innovation radio program aired from 4,850 feet below the surface at the lab.

There's plenty of fun for all ages throughout the festival, held annually by SURF.

Due to highway construction, visitors can make the day easier by taking Julius Street downtown or leaving the car at Lead-Deadwood SDPB Radio's Cara Hetland will don a hard hat to broadcast from 4,850 feet below the surface at SURF.

Milind Diwan will reveal the next steps in neutrino research.

High School on Summit Street or at the Open Cut parking lot and taking a shuttle.

Here are some of the highlights:

Friday, July 11

- 11am (Noon Central) Dakota Midday Innovation on SDPB Radio.
- 6:30pm "Space Science Musical" by Dakota Children's Theater, Historic Homestake Opera House, opening reception at 5:30pm.

Saturday, July 12

Sanford Lab activities: 8:30am to 2pm.

- Wild science demonstrations for kids by Science Steve.
- Yates Shaft hoist-room tours (sturdy footwear required, no open-toed shoes).

- Live video chats with scientists and rescue personnel a mile underground.
 - Meet scientists, engineers, technicians and rescue personnel.
- Science talks on Main Street.

- "Pushing the Limits of Detection: The Majorana Demonstrator Project" 9:30am, Homestake Opera House. Physics Professor Mary Kidd.
- "Weather Whys" Noon, Bumpin' Buffalo restaurant, 305 Main St. Doors open at 11am.
- "Long Baseline Neutrino Experiment" 1:30pm, Opera House. Physicist Milind Diwan will talk about the experiment, which will be placed at the 4,850 level.
- "The View from the Center of the Universe," 3pm, Opera House. Cosmologist Joel Primack and cultural philosopher Nancy Ellen Abrams.

Activities on Main Street: 8:30am to 2:30pm

- Black Hills Mining Museum, free admission.
- Journey Museum GeoDome Planetarium, Lead-Deadwood Middle School.
- 10:45am: Children's Theater, Opera House.

SDPB activities and the keynote speakers are supported by a grant from the John T. Vucurevich Foundation.

Science Steve fascinates all ages with a variety of experiments.

SDPB's Theme: Bob the Builder for Storybook Land Festival

SDPB will take part in the Storybook Land Festival July 25 and 26 in Aberdeen. Our theme is Bob the Builder, and the SDPB booth will feature giveaways and activities related to the PBS Kids program for young children.

SDPB's mascot Buddy will help kids celebrate the Neighborhood of Make-Believe by offering hugs, photo opportunities and Bob the Builder-related giveaways at 6:30pm Friday, July 25, near the castle in Wylie Park on the west side of the city. The event is followed by a Children's Concert and a free watermelon feed.

On Saturday, July 26, the SDPB area will feature an activities area where kids stop for some Bob the Builder coloring projects, as well as a giveaways bag and appearances by SDPB's Buddy. The park will offer a wide variety of activities and entertainment for all ages.

Kids can watch Bob the Builder on SDPB1 on Saturdays at 9:30am (8:30 MT).

SDPB's participation and Bob the Builder theme are supported by a grant from HIT Entertainment and WNET.

SDPB Partners with Outdoor University West

Head for the South Dakota Game, Fish and Parks Outdoor Campus West in Rapid City on Saturday, July 12, from 10am to 3pm. The day includes an exciting program by Todd and Terri, hosts of the SDPB outdoors program Nature Adventures and a chance for hugs and photo opportunities with Buddy the SDPB Kid.

The fun is part of GF&P's free Outdoor University featuring a variety of outdoor activities.

Nature Adventures Hosts Todd Magnuson and Terri Lawrenz.

Middle School Musicians Featured on SDPB Television

Students in grades 6-8 made music with the 2014 South Dakota Middle School All-State Band Concert, featured on SDPB1 Television on Sunday, July 13, at 3pm (2 MT). The All-State gathering, which took place Feb. 28-March 1 in Pierre, features more than 200 talented young musicians, selected by audition from across South Dakota. They performed in two bands, the Honor Band (above) and the Festival Band (below). The annual event is sponsored by the South Dakota Music Educators Association.

Malcom "Chap" Chapman

Rebecca Jirava

Julie M. Johnson

Katrina Lehr-McKinney

Four Join Friends of SDPB Board

Four new members have joined the Board of Directors for Friends of SDPB. They include Malcom "Chap" Chapman, Rebecca Jirava, Julie M. Johnson and Katrina Lehr-McKinney.

Chapman, of Rapid City, is a strong advocate for early childhood education. He is president of the Chapman Group consulting firm and a former city Alderman and member of the South Dakota Municipal League. Chapman is active in the National League of Cities and in many community organizations, including Optimists, Leadership Rapid City, United Way, Chamber of Commerce, Youth & Family Services and the Rapid City Library Foundation.

Jirava, of Brookings, is the Human Resources Manager for 3M. She has a master's degree in Human Resources & Industrial Relations from the University of Minnesota. Jirava serves on the United Way of Northeastern South Dakota Board and the Sanford Hospital Consumer Council. She is an active volunteer with South Dakota Junior Achievement and Past President of the Aberdeen Area Human Resource Association

Johnson, an attorney in Aberdeen, is Executive Director of Absolutely! Aberdeen and Prairie Vision. She has worked in state government, including Secretary of the Department of Labor, and as a lobbyist, for more than three decades. She has been instrumental in fundraising for SDPB in Northeastern South Dakota and has served on numerous state and regional boards related to development in the region

Lehr-McKinney is Media Strategist for Fresh Produce, an advertising agency in Sioux Falls. She has worked with South Dakotans for the Arts and spent nearly a decade as Executive Coordinator for the Sioux Falls Jazz & Blues Society. She founded the All Saints Neighborhood Association in Sioux Falls in 2012 and is an ardent supporter of community development, the arts and culture. She serves on the board for the Orpheum Theater.

Four members have stepped down from the Friends Board, including Paul McDonald of Aberdeen, former president of the board; Casey Murschel of Sioux Falls; Janice Homandberg Knutsen of Rapid City; and Yvonne A. Taylor of Presho.

The next Friends of SDPB Board meeting will be at 10am Friday, Aug. 15, in the Al Neuharth Media Center on the University of South Dakota campus in Vermillion.

Prairie Home Plans Two Specials

Two special A Prairie Home Companion programs are coming up in the first weekend in July.

On Friday, July 4, at 9pm (8 MT), one of the most popular programs ever is coming back to celebrate our nation's birthday. The 2006 July 4th show from Tanglewood features actress Meryl Streep.

On Saturday, July 5, at 5pm (4 MT) and Sunday, July 6, at Noon (11 MT), Prairie Home features a special three-hour 40th anniversary program from St. Paul. The show includes the regular cast plus Old Crow Medicine Show, Iris Dement, Robin and Linda Williams, the Wailin' Jennys, Butch Thompson, Jearlyn and Jevetta Steele, Gillian Welch and members of the original Powdermilk Biscuit Band.

A Prairie Home Companion broadcast its first show on July 6, 1974, from Macalester College in St. Paul. The 40th anniversary show is part of a three-day festival at the college with a variety of activities. For more details, check out prairiehome.org.

SDPB Hosts Second Stage at JazzFest

JazzFest 2014 heats up Sioux Falls on July 17-19 at Yankton Trail Park, with dozens of entertainers, two stages and music from artists ranging from international stars to regional talents.

SDPB Radio – including Jazz Nightly Host Jim Clark and other SDPB Radio personalities – will act as host for the Second Stage throughout JazzFest. The Second Stage includes local and regional acts and a variety of music, ranging from jazz to blues to funk to soul to rock.

SDPB will record a variety of artists from the extravaganza sponsored annually by the Sioux Falls Jazz & Blues Society. A Best of JazzFest program featuring a variety of artists will air statewide on television in September, and individual artists will be spotlighted throughout the year on SDPB Television and Radio music programs.

Program Funders recognize the importance of lifelong learning by providing support for SDPB programs in South Dakota. Program funders give $5,000 or more in support of SDPB programs. Thank you.

John T. Vucurevich Foundation Supports Science

Many thanks to the John T. Vucurevich Foundation for a generous gift making SDPB's participation in Neutrino Day and the Lakota Nation Invitational possible.

SDPB will participate in the annual Sanford Underground Research Facility (SURF) science celebration in Lead with a radio program from nearly a mile underground on Friday, July 11, and amazing science demonstrations and a Science Café on July 12.

In addition, the grant supports keynote presentations by Cosmologist

JOHN T. VUCUREVICH FOUNDATION

...to make a piece of the world a brighter place.

Joel Primack and cultural philosopher Nancy Abrams, and Physicist Milind Dewan.

The John T. Vucurevich Foundation honors and builds on the personal legacy of giving of John T. Vucurevich by facilitating solutions to key challenges facing South Dakota and the Black Hills Region in the areas of arts, education, and health and human services. JTVF provides funding and human resources to make a greater impact on the community through a collaborative approach that creates a sense of shared responsibility among partners and promotes long-term sustainable change.

SDPB is thankful for the Foundation's support of science initiatives in South Dakota.

Organizations and businesses interested in supporting SDPB productions and projects may call Ryan Howlett at 800-456-0556.

Joel Primack and Mary Abrams take a cosmic view for the keynote presentation.

Memorial Gifts

The Friends of SDPB has received several special gifts. Thank you.

Julie Stewart and Kevin Bliss of Vermillion have given a gift in memory of Martin Weeks. Weeks, a longtime resident of Vermillion, was a country lawyer for 52 years, during which time he served as city and state's attorney. He was an accomplished outdoorsman and strong environmentalist, and a dedicated member of Friends of SDPB for nearly 40 years.

Chuck and Ginger Scalet of Lawrence, Kan., have made a donation in memory of Jonathan Jenks.

Kari Nolte of Castlewood has made memorial gifts in honor of several people. They are Rosie Rudebusch, Donald Logan, Laura Stokke, Alvin Krause and Verna Krause.

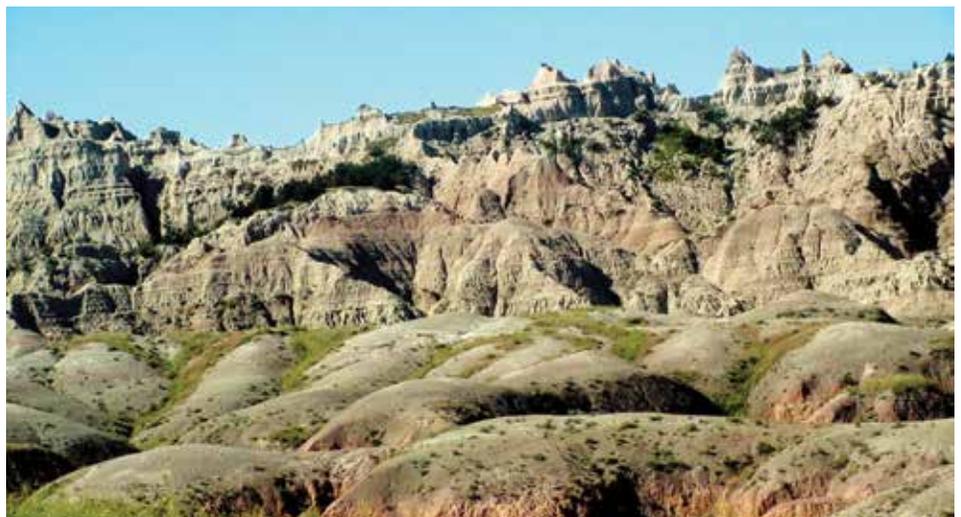

Daryl and Vonnie Cole of Fort Pierre have remembered three people with a memorial contribution: Norwin Walz of Aberdeen, Duane Osborn of Pierre, and Alice Miller of Pierre.

Friends of SDPB accepts memorial gifts, gifts that mark a special person or occasion and estate gifts. For details on special gifts, call the Friends of SDPB at 800-333-0789.

Learn about your unique home with Landscapes of South Dakota. Over the next year, SDPB is taking a journey to rediscover our unique identity and shared heritage.

Landscapes of South Dakota is showcased at SDPB.org/Landscapes. Viewers and listeners also are enjoying one-minute snapshots of the state's people, places and experiences on SDPB Radio and SDPB Television. Special reports with SDPB Radio's Dakota Midday and Dakota Digest and SDPB Television's Dakota Life also are coming up.
