From 1947-91, the United States fought a war with the former USSR, known as The Cold War. One of the greatest weapons never to be fired was the minuteman missile. These missile sites were scattered across western South Dakota and were all dismantled, with the exception of one, which is now part of the National Park System.

FORMAT: DAKOTA LIFE is half-hour, monthly magazine style program. The program features 3 segments per show, each featuring different people and places from across the state. Each half-hour program is themed and the segments all revolve around a central idea. The program is hosted by Larry Rohrer, who transitions between the segments with additional information for the viewers and informs where and how they can learn more about each segment.
