Hello there!

I am thrilled to share a sneak peek of what's to come in the June 2023 issue of SDPB Magazine. Be sure to check out our version of the Great American Recipe. Add a few unique local ingredients to some delicious and meaty national fare, and you've got yourself a terrific buffet, sure to enrich and inspire!

At SDPB, we take pride in our journalists and crew who consistently exemplify integrity and excellence in their work. In the Keeping It Local section, we're celebrating the achievements of two key team members, and we're excited to shine a light on their hard work and dedication.

Additionally, our June membership drive is now underway. The theme this year is POWER UP SDPB. We've changed it up this time and are airing the regular schedule as much as possible during the week, with little membership breaks sprinkled between the programs. The financial needs have not decreased, so we are working to generate as much support as we did last year during the full-scale June TV Membership Drive. We're super excited to see how it works, and we hope you enjoy keeping the regular schedule on air!

We also have two fantastic ticket offers for you to take advantage of. You won't want to miss out on the opportunity to see the Fab Four: The Ultimate Tribute, one of the most exciting Beatles tribute bands around. Or, if you're in the mood for some Irish charm, catch Daniel O'Donnell, the beloved Irish singer and entertainer. Check out page 21 for more details on how to POWER UP SDPB and score your tickets.

As we embark on the summer season, we're thrilled to share this issue with you. We appreciate your continued readership and support, and we're honored to have you as part of our community.

Gratefully,

Kate Drennen Ryan
Membership Director, Friends of SDPB

Ready, Set, Summer!

Summer is upon us. Even if your little ones aren't in the classroom, they can develop and strengthen their minds before the next school year begins. SDPB is equipped with a strong and willing team of specialists who are constantly working on resources that can be utilized by parents, guardians, teachers, daycare providers, and more. Two of our Education Specialists, Steven Rokusek and Amelia Meyer, gave us some insight on current resources that you can jump into along with upcoming tools they are eager to roll out.

Steven Rokusek focuses on developing materials and providing in-service training at schools and education conferences. Our weekly education e-newsletters and updated content on our website are all thanks to Steven's dedication to bringing education to people around the state. The slowdown of outreach during the summer gives our team extra time to focus on the particulars. This summer brings updates to our pages like Native American Studies, South Dakota History (Dakota Pathways, Images of the Past), and Sanford Promise.

"We have created a new video series called How To Draw Using Perspective: By Dick Termes," says Steven. "South Dakota Public Broadcasting produced this online drawing series in partnership with Asio Studio of Rapid City. The twelve-part video series covers one-point to six-point perspective and will include a comprehensive educational website with perspective grids, activities ideas, and lesson plans. The new website will launch in the fall for the new school year."

Amelia Meyer, another education team member, specializes in Early Learning. She creates resources used by parents, early learner educators, and caregivers. She is the co-creator of our weekly ELI (Early Learning Initiative) Links newsletter and is responsible for posting content on our ELI webpage. She is currently working on making plenty of resources readily available and easily accessible.

Amelia says, "I love doing this work because people often don't know the huge variety of activities we provide, and it's so fun to see their reaction when we share all the hands-on lessons available." She continues, "SDPB got to partner with Headlights Theater in Sioux Falls to produce a series called, Create Your Own Dance Studio. It has been fun to work on because each of the five videos shows the steps to construct a place to dance and a way to create a dance for children aged 5-10. It makes dancing accessible right in your own home!"

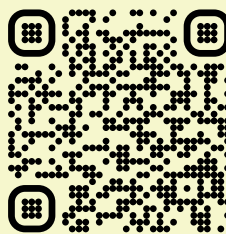

Many things are in motion in our education department, and many things are immediately available. Steven and Amelia share their personal favorite resource.

"My favorite resource to work on is our Dissection 101 series," says Steven. "Dissection 101 is an ongoing series in partnership with Dakota State University and is by far our most popular series. There are 19 videos and accompanying resources, including lesson plans, quizzes, photos, and other materials for many dissections. We developed the resources for many reasons, including reducing the number of specimens used by a class, increasing the dissection quality, and enhancing students' learning experience."

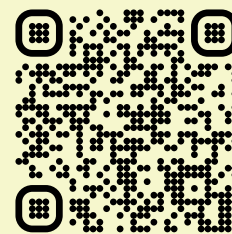

Amelia continues by saying, "I love our weekly Links Newsletter! It's designed to share one quality resource under four content areas (from the SD Early Learning Guidelines): Communication Development, Cognitive Development, Social and Emotional Development, Health, and Physical Development. It gives you just a little dose of what you can find on our website. Links come to your email inbox. You can take a quick peek at it and have a better understanding of your child's development and activities that would be appropriate for them."

School might not be in session, but learning and information always are. We hope these resources will come in handy through the season and onward.

Sign up for our education newsletter and visit our website to learn more about the resources mentioned above by scanning these QR codes!

Softball is finally here!

The journey may have been long and challenging at times, but South Dakota is finally underway with a sanctioned league of high school softball. This month, the state championship will take place in Aberdeen.

By Nate Wek, SDPB Sports Content Producer

At the beginning of the season, three inaugural games took place: Beresford vs Dell Rapids, Canton vs Dakota Valley, and Pierre vs Rapid City Central. At the Governors and Cobblers matchup in Pierre, there was a bit of a pre-game ceremony to 'cut the ribbon' for the sport. South Dakota High School Activities Association assistant executive director Jo Auch, who was a key proponent in getting softball sanctioned in the Mt. Rushmore state, was invited to throw out the first pitch. This was an important moment showcasing the beginning of a new journey for softball in South Dakota.

"It wasn't pretty," Auch said jokingly. "But I did get to throw the first pitch. So, that was really an exciting, proud moment for me, just to know that we're finally there and it's been a long time coming. And to see this come to light, I had tears in my eyes. It was something that was super exciting and just to provide that opportunity for these kids."

The Board of Directors for the SDHSAA voted to officially sanction high school softball in November of 2021 with the spring of 2023 being slated as the inaugural season. But the journey towards sanctioning the sport extends back longer than most think. Nearly two decades ago, before Jo Auch was even on the executive board, the high school activities association was tasked with finding another girls sport. Cheer, dance, and soccer were discussed as options along with softball.

"I think there was some fear that if we add softball, baseball would fly right in there, and that's not going to help our girls' numbers, things of that nature," Auch explained. "But all of those sports were kind of in the mix for that."

Cheer and Dance became a sanctioned activity in 2007, and then boys and girls soccer followed in 2012. But yet, softball was still left out.

"About six, seven years ago as I was sitting in this chair, and we're one of the few states that didn't have softball in the nation, I'm going, we are really missing the beat here," Auch stated. "So, we started that conversation at our AD's conferences and just said, 'Hey, when are we ready to get on board?' And our policy here has always been the schools need to bring that to light, but let us know when it's time for us to add an activity in this process."

The process really gained momentum three years ago. To be clear, high school softball has been a part of some of the state's member schools for some time, but it was like baseball, a club sport. This means it wasn't a school-funded athletic activity. And another key difference, high school (club) softball was played in the fall. Now that it's sanctioned, the sport is being played in the spring.

"My goal was to get 30 schools involved," Auch said. "I didn't know if we were going to have one class, two classes, three classes when this started. But when I started getting these participation forms back and schools were yes, yes, yes, I'm just going, yes, yes, yes."

For the inaugural season of softball, there are 49 teams in three classes. Class AA has 16, Class A with 19, and Class B being represented by 14 teams.

"I'm absolutely hoping and planning on this softball continuing to grow throughout our schools, throughout our A and B especially," exclaimed Auch. "I think that's where we have the potential for the most growth with this. And there'll probably be some co-op teams, and that's okay. It's just like I said; it's finding those coaches and finding those kids. We know we're going to spread kids a little thin if they want to be involved."

The state tournament for the inaugural sanctioned season of high school softball will take place in Aberdeen on June 1-3, where the sport will crown its three inaugural state champs.

Check sdpb.org/softball for updates and post tournament photos.

SDPB will stream the 3rd place and championship games from all three classes. Watch the Class AA 3rd place and championship games June 3 at 3pm (2 MT) on SDPB2.

THE GREAT AMERICAN RECIPE

South Dakota style!

Join host Alejandra Ramos and judges Leah Cohen, Tiffany Derry, and Graham Elliot as ten talented home cooks showcase signature dishes, share heartfelt stories, and compete to win the national search for The Great American Recipe. Season two of the series premieres June 19. The second season will give home cooks from around the country an opportunity to showcase their beloved signature dishes and will continue to celebrate the multiculturalism that makes American food unique and iconic.

As our own way of playing along, we offer the Great SDPB Menu. SDPB is part of your day from dawn until dusk, so, we decided to create a menu of dishes you can prepare at home.

Breakfast

Wake up with SDPB's local Morning Edition host Ryan Bozer and the "Morning Egg-ition on Rye." This recipe combines the nutty flavor of rye bread, the lightness of avocado, the smokiness of gouda, and the peppery, tangy flavor of cress. It's a breakfast that will wake you up as you swallow the news of the day.

Lunch

Lori Walsh's In the Moment combines stories and interviews from across the state. Try out the "In a Moment Salad" for lunch. The salad can be thrown together in a jiffy, and the ingredients are as diverse as Lori's guests.

Supper

The evening meal is a hearty, hardy take on some great produce available in the state. Krystal Miga, SDPB's All Things Considered host, is a fan of food from Asia, and we've created an Asian-fusion meal that will top off the day. The "All Ingredients Considered" Asian Bison burger is a tip of the hat to our woolly friends of the prairie and features an Asian slaw as a side.

Evening Sweets

Jazz up your evening with a Chokeycherry Kuchen. Karl Gehrke and Jazz Nightly wind down the evening with sweet tunes weeknights. Add some sweet to the evening with a kuchen (German for "cake") filled with native Chokeycherries.

"Morning Egg-ition on Rye"

INGREDIENTS

2 eggs
2 slices rye bread
1 avocado
2 slices Gouda cheese
1 Radish
Lemon juice

PREPARATION

Wash, clean, and slice the radishes. Chop the cress (or substitute chopped green onions).

Cut the avocado in half, remove the pit, lift the flesh out of the skin, cut into strips and sprinkle with lemon juice.

PREP CONT.

Scramble two eggs (add a touch of milk to make them fluffy). Salt lightly.

Crush the avocado with a fork and season with a little salt and pepper.

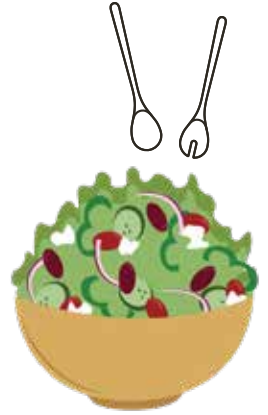

Toast the slices of rye bread. Spread avocado and cover with radishes, cheese, and egg. Serve open-faced sprinkled with cress.

"In a Moment Salad"

INGREDIENTS

Cherry tomatoes
Red onion
Cucumber
Green pepper
Kalamata olives
Feta cheese
Romaine lettuce
Greek dressing

PREPARATION

Prep and combine the romaine lettuce, cherry tomatoes, red onion, cucumber, green peppers, olives, and feta cheese in a large bowl. Adjust amounts to suit your taste.

In a small bowl, make the Greek salad dressing by whisking together the olive oil, lemon juice, oregano, salt, and pepper.

Pour the dressing over the salad and toss to combine. Add more black pepper to taste.

"All Ingredients Considered" Asian Bison Burger

INGREDIENTS

Burger

1 lb. Ground Bison
1/4 cup chopped green onion
1 tsp. freshly grated ginger
Dash of Soy sauce
Salt
White pepper
Black pepper
1 tsp. hoisin sauce
1/2 tsp. minced garlic
Sesame oil (for cooking)

Hot Mustard Sauce

1/4 cup dry mustard
1/4 cup water
Mayo, to taste
Hoisin sauce, to taste

Asian Slaw

1 bag coleslaw mix
1 bunch green onions, chopped
1 red onion, sliced
1/3 cup soy sauce
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/4 cup vegetable oil
2 tbsp. freshly grated ginger
2 tbsp. vinegar
2 tbsp. brown sugar
2 tsp. sesame oil
2 tsp. sesame seeds
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. white pepper
1/4 tsp. dry mustard

PREPARATION

For Asian Slaw: Toss coleslaw mix with onion and green onion. Mix the remaining ingredients in a small bowl and combine. Mix well.

For hot mustard sauce: Mix dry mustard with water. Add mayo and hoisin sauce until the sauce reaches desired taste.

For Bison burgers: Mix all burger patty ingredients and form into 2 or 3 patties. Pour a small amount of sesame oil into a frying pan and heat to medium. Add burger patties and cook for approximately 5 minutes on each side, until patties reach medium.

Place spinach and onion on hamburger buns. Add patty and hot mustard sauce.

Pour the Asian slaw dressing over coleslaw mixture. Serve with the burgers.

"Jazzy Chokecherry Kuchen"

INGREDIENTS

11 tbsp butter unsalted at room temperature
1/3 cup sugar
2 large eggs
2 cup all-purpose flour
1 tsp baking powder
3/4 tsp salt
2 tbsp sugar
Chokecherry filling
(substitute 2 cups of blueberries, if you wish)

Chokecherry Filling

3-4 cups water
2 cups chokecherries (fresh, frozen or dried)
1 cup honey, or to taste
1/4 cup flour

Streusel topping

1 cup flour
4 tbsp cold unsalted butter
4 tbsp sugar

PREPARATION

Filling preparation

Combine the chokecherries with water in a saucepan. Bring to medium heat, cooking until chokecherries soften. Sweeten to taste with honey. In a small bowl blend flour and enough water to make a creamy mixture and stir this slowly into fruit mixture until thickened. Allow to cool.

Kuchen preparation

Preheat oven to 350 F. Grease and line an 8-inch round springform pan with parchment paper.

In the bowl of a stand mixer using the paddle attachment, or in a large bowl using an electric mixer, combine sugar and butter. Add the eggs, stirring to combine. Sift the flour, baking powder, and salt into the mixture, beating to combine.

Scrape the batter into the bottom of the pan. Smooth the top of the batter.

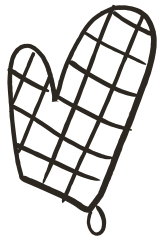

In a small bowl combine the streusel ingredients. Use your fingertips to rub the butter into the flour and sugar until coarse crumbs begin to form.

Place the chokecherry filling (or blueberries) on top of the batter, then top with streusel. Place cake in the oven, on the middle rack.

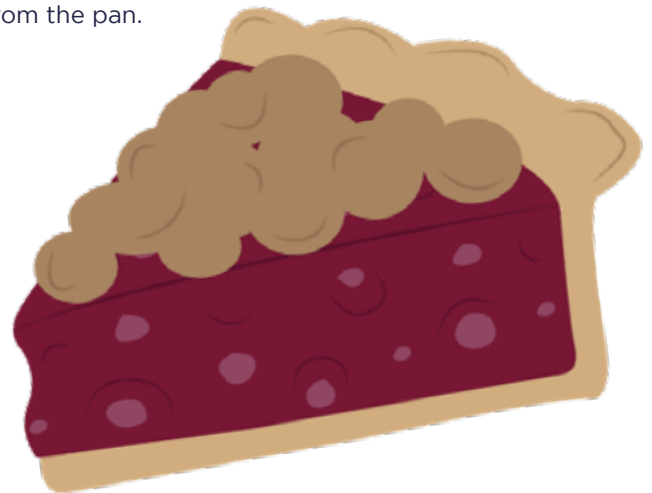

Bake 45 minutes until the top is golden brown, the filling bubbles around the edges, and the center of the cake is set.

Let cool in the pan on a wire rack.

Run a sharp knife around the edge of the pan and remove the cake from the pan.

Many of the ingredients for these recipes can be purchased at local farmer's markets. Help your meal go from farm to fork and support your local farmer by visiting a farmer's market near you. Find a list of farmer's markets in South Dakota by scanning the QR code here!

THE DEAN OF SOUTH DAKOTA BROADCASTING

Dean Sorenson's broadcasting career began as a freshly minted adult at age 18 in 1957, when he moonlighted on hometown station KORN in Mitchell as an evening announcer, filling the gap left by Gary Owens of "Laugh-In" fame. A graduate of the now-closed Brown Institute in Minnesota, Sorenson moved to Pierre to manage KGFX at age 23. In 1971, he bought KCCR radio and created Sorenson Broadcasting. He would go on to own 22 stations in South Dakota, North Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa, and Nebraska. He also has held positions on state and national boards, including the National Association of Broadcasters. Over the years he has remained engaged in radio. Sorenson is an early recipient of the Tom Brokaw and South Dakota Broadcaster of the Year awards along with the Broadcaster's Foundation of America's Pioneer Award. Sorenson's career is highlighted in a documentary produced by SDSU Journalism and Mass Communication professor Rocky Dailey.

VOICES OF THE PRAIRIE: THE LEGACY OF VERL THOMSON

Born April 26, 1906, Verl Thomson was a South Dakota broadcaster who worked for the first broadcast radio station in Sioux Falls in 1924 and later went on to be an announcer and program director for KSOO, KELO, and an announcer for NBC in Chicago. He began KSID in 1948 and sold the station in 1966. From 1962 to 1987 he was the executive director for the South Dakota Broadcasters Association. Thomson passed away July 7, 1989.

KUDOS, SDPB!

Jackie Hendry, South Dakota Focus host, was chosen for the National Press Foundation's The Future of the American Child 2023 Journalism Fellowship. The fellowship program is designed to help journalists master the complexities of public policies that affect children and how to portray those insights in their reporting. As one of fifteen journalists chosen, Jackie attended a training series and received high-level briefings on child health from experts in the area. Great work, Jackie!

The South Dakota Hall of Fame announced the inductee class of 2023, which includes SDPB's Larry Rohrer. Known as "A Voice of South Dakota," you've heard Larry on SDPB Television and Radio for many years. His impact on South Dakotans through his innovations in media programming extends to high school activities and statewide music programs. Larry and the Class of 2023 will be celebrated at the Honors Ceremony in September. A recognition most deserved! Congratulations, Larry!

SUPPORTER SPOTLIGHT

South Dakota Public Broadcasting offers extensive resources across numerous channels. We can provide this service to our state because of our generous donors, both individual and corporate. Every donor contributes to bringing our mission to action; every dollar helps form connections across the state between education, information, and our viewers. This month's spotlight is a family-run business that has been investing in public broadcasting for generations. Reptile Gardens, founded by Earl Brockelsby, is one of the world's largest reptile gardens. John "Johnny B" Brockelsby, son of Earl Brockelsby and public relations manager for Reptile Gardens, gave us insight into the motivation behind the support they offer SDPB.

"You can't go wrong with supporting SDPB. If you have children, grandchildren, nephews, or nieces, I'm telling you, their programming is the best of all. My nephews and nieces grew up with that children's programming that wasn't available anywhere else [than public broadcasting]. So, giving to SDPB should be something that you automatically do because they can't supply without the local supporters. It's just absolutely critical."

While Reptile Gardens is thankful for the awareness that partnering with SDPB has brought to their business, their primary obligation for giving is to uphold their mission statement to support organizations like SDPB.

"The reason we do it is because it's the right thing to do," says Johnny. "It's very important for businesses to support public broadcasting because of what it does for the citizens of South Dakota. It is part of our corporate philosophy that my father drilled into us, and we've tried to follow it. Many others have that same philosophy, and other businesses are supporters. Many folks believe in supporting businesses that are philanthropic in nature, so I think when they see Reptile Gardens as a proud sponsor of SDPB, that resonates well. They're team players. They're not just out for themselves; they're giving back to the community."

We cannot express enough how much we love our supporters like Reptile Gardens. These donors not only consider us when they give but every state member who gets to reap the benefits of our generous sponsors.

"ALL MEMBERS OF MY FAMILY ARE ALSO SUPPORTERS OF PUBLIC BROADCASTING.
THAT'S HOW MUCH WE BELIEVE IN IT."

VIEWERS LIKE YOU!

Attention SDPB members! We are excited to announce a special ticket offer* for TWO incredible performances coming soon to Rapid City.

First, we have the Fab Four: The Ultimate Beatles Tribute, an amazing group that has been entertaining audiences all over the world for over two decades. With stunningly accurate renditions of classic Beatles hits, this tribute band is sure to transport you back in time to the 1960s, when the Fab Four themselves were ruling the airwaves. With pitch-perfect harmonies, dazzling costumes, and an infectious energy that will have you dancing in the aisles, the Fab Four is a must-see for any fan of the Beatles or classic rock.

We are also thrilled to offer tickets before they go on sale to the public to the incomparable Daniel O'Donnell, the Irish singing sensation who has captured the hearts of fans around the globe with his beautiful voice, charming personality, and heartwarming performances. With over 30 years in the music industry and countless awards and accolades to his name, Daniel O'Donnell is a true icon of the Irish music scene, and a beloved figure among PBS viewers.

Treat yourself to a night of unforgettable music and entertainment. With either the Fab Four or Daniel O'Donnell, you're in for a truly special evening that you won't want to miss! Thank you for your support of SDPB, and we hope to see you at the show.

History Once Upon A Time in Northern Ireland

The new series from Award-Winning Director James Blumel, tells extraordinary human stories from those who lived through the troubles. The 5-part story runs chronologically from the beginning of The Troubles in the late 1960s to the Belfast/Good Friday Agreement in 1998. Interviewed at length about their experiences, the series features men and women whose lives were changed forever by the conflict.

Art & Music The Articulate Hour

The Articulate Hour makes sense of big ideas. Through conversations with artists, scholars, and other great creative thinkers, we explore our complex world through a lens of arts, culture, and science. All three episodes are available now.

Passport is available for $5/month. Visit SDPB.org/passport for details.

AMERICAN REFRAMED | FROM HERE

"Where are you really from?" Inspired by a young generation's creative response to this loaded question, From Here follows artists and activists from immigrant families coming of age in an era of rising xenophobia and political turmoil. Set in New York and Berlin, the film shows them create families, fight for citizenship, make art and forge identities, while redefining what it means to belong.

SDPB2: Thursday, June 1, 7pm (6 MT)

STORIES FROM THE STAGE | LIVING WITH CANCER

A cancer diagnosis changes lives forever. But with science, fortitude, and love, people can - and do - survive. Despite losing her hair to chemo, Leslie finds beauty in her Blackness; Daniel and his partner use humor to cope with caregiving; and Mel fights the odds to overcome leukemia to become a runner. Three storytellers, three interpretations of Living with Cancer, hosted by Wes Hazard.

SDPB2: Monday, June 5, 8:30pm (7:30 MT)

LOCAL, USA | BUFFALO SOLDIERS: FIGHTING ON TWO FRONTS

The 14th Amendment promised citizenship in exchange for enlistment, prompting many African American men. They were denied due to Jim Crow laws but still served. The film examines the profound and contradictory roles played by Buffalo Soldiers in U.S. history, and how they fought on two sets of front lines: military conflicts abroad and civil rights struggles at home.

Rick Steves Art Of The Modern Age

Rick explores how new technologies and social progress spawned a variety of artistic styles during the 1800s: freedom-loving and soul-stirring romanticism, the gauzy art of the prosperous Belle Epoque, light-chasing impressionism, and sensuous art nouveau. Then, Rick careens through Europe's tumultuous 20th century, with rule-breaking art as exciting as the times. From expressionism and cubism to surrealism and abstract, the visionary genius of artists like Van Gogh, Picasso, and Dali helped express the complexity of our modern world and our place in it.

Endeavour, the spinoff series inspired by Inspector Morse, comes to a brilliant end as Shaun Evans (as the young Morse) and Roger Allam (as his superior officer) face intriguing new crimes including an unsolved case linked to the past. With characters from former seasons popping up in a grand finale, Morse must resolve his professional and romantic future. "Classy, poignant," praised the London Times. Watch it unfold on SDPB.

The final season of Endeavour premieres on Sunday, June 18 at 8pm (7 MT) on SDPB1.
