Issue	Name of Program/ Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative of How the Issue was Treated
Arts/Culture	SD High School State Rodeo Championships	7/6/2023	8pm CT	150 min	A strong part of South Dakota culture is horsemanship and ranching. Rodeo was originally based on the skills required of the working vaqueros and later, cowboys. Today, rodeo is a sporting event that involves horses and other livestock, designed to test the skill and speed of the cowboys and cowgirls, and to celebrate horse culture and farming in the area.
Arts/Culture	Wagon Master: Hansen's Hand-crafted History	7/13/2023	8:00pm CT	30 min	This is the story of how Doug Hansen learned to handcraft 19th-century wheeled vehicles, with curiosity and fortitude as his guides. Through his own ingenuity and observation, he is recovering knowledge of how to build handcrafted wagons from a bygone era.
Arts/Culture	I Really Get Into It: The Underage Architects of Sioux Falls Punk	8/28/2023	10pm CT	90 min	Largely ignored and left to their own devices, a group of unassuming teenagers in the late '80s and early '90s in Sioux Falls, South Dakota created their own culture, community, and economy. And when they moved out into the world at large, they brought what they learned along with them. An independently produced film.
Arts/Culture	Dakota Life/Hill City	9/14/2023	8pm CT	30 min	Dakota Life is a monthly magazine show that travels to different towns in the state and talks to local residents to learn what is unique about their community. In September: Hill City blossoms with stories about the annual Black Hills Film Festival, the ArtForms Gallery, an artist coop, a visit to the South Dakota Railroad Museum, and a visit with the gardening enthusiasts of the Hill City Evergreen Garden Club.
Arts/Culture	Dakota Life Detours: Tumblers, Trick-riders, and Fly tying	9/21/2023	8:30pm CT	30 min	Dakota Life wanders West River to visit Rapid City's Hans Stephenson, a fly-tying professional, to Midland to revisit the high-flying Tumblers, and examines the trick-riding legacy of a real cowgirl from White Owl, Mattie Goff Newcombe.
Arts/Culture	The Pride of the Dakotas	9/7/2023	8:00pm CT	60 min	"They come from small places, and they do a big thing." SDPB presents a documentary about the marching band at SDSU, The Pride of the Dakotas. For over 100 years the band has represented the school and the spirit of South Dakota to people across the state and the nation.
