

Date (Month)	Reporter	Category	Segment
1/12/2022	Medlin	Education	Some schools, including West Chicago, have been forced to go all remote, thanks to Omicron.
1/13/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	A northern Illinois literary magazine is looking for youth poets to take part in a contest
1/17/2022	Medlin	Health	We reconnect with a nurse one year after entering the field during the pandemic
1/20/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	An Elgin library is one of 16 in the US to receive a prestigious honor for serving its community
1/21/2022	Stephens, S	Arts & Life	Under Rocks conversation with Illinois Enthusiast John Kokoris about county seals
1/24/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	Giulyana Gamero is Rockford's new youth poet laureate
1/24/2022	Medlin	Education	How do high school history classes look back at January 6th one year later?
1/27/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	Poet Bear Wolf uses his platform to help the voices of black, indigenous, and people of color get heard
1/31/2022	Boose	Health	A Winnebago County group is working to figure out why the infant and maternal mortality rates are so high for Black residents
1/31/2022	Medlin	Education	The teacher shortage is getting worse, and many districts don't have subs to fill the gaps
2/2/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	Beloit Intl Film Fest teams up with a film festival in Laos
2/4/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	Northern Illinois entrepreneurs discuss starting their business during the pandemic
2/11/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	The Woodstock Folk Festival paid tribute to Bill Staines
2/14/2022	Ramirez-Franco	Environment	Legislation would allow the Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation to receive a settlement for lands illegally auctioned almost 200 years ago
2/14/2022	Medlin	Health	Part 1 of our series on lead contamination
2/15/2022	Medlin	Health	Part 2 of our series on lead contamination
2/16/2022	Medlin	Health	Part 3 of our series on lead contamination
2/18/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	Beloit native Nick Simon is making it in the film industry in Asia
2/21/2022	Medlin	Education	Many parents have been confused on if masks are still required at their kids' school
2/22/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	A Black historian spotlights his childhood home in a new Elgin library exhibit.
2/24/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	An out of state production company held auditions in Rockford Saturday
2/25/2022	Tritt & Stephens, S	Arts & Life	The Under Rocks crew goes curling in Triumph, IL
2/28/2022	Ramirez-Franco	Politics	Applications are open for Rockford's citizen-led police review board, but some details remain unclear.
2/28/2022	Medlin	Health	Winnebago County Health Department talks about services for kids with lead poisoning and federally-funded mitigation programs
3/3/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	A Rockford teen takes her songwriting skills all the way to K-Pop fame
3/11/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	A Rockford businesswoman uses her skills to help other small businesses thrive.
3/15/2022	Medlin	Education	A look at problems with school discipline
3/16/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	A Naperville woman is working to finish a film that her late husband started
3/18/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	A 23-year-old Rockford woman returned home to pursue a childhood dream
3/29/2022	Boose	Arts & Life	A Naperville group connects neighbors through storytelling
3/30/2022	Medlin	Education	Illinois is thinking about changing how often students take standardized tests