

Date (Month/	Reporter	Category	Segment
7/1/2021	Medlin	Politics	Time is running out for an energy deal that could keep 2 IL nuke plants open. How do Byron residents feel?
7/1/2021	Boose	Health	Northern Illinois experts talk about why mask guidelines for the fully vaccinated are so perplexing right now
7/2/2021	Stephens, S	Arts & Life	Under Rocks explores some unique 4th of July celebrations in northern Illinois
7/5/2021	Medlin	Education	Rockford Public Schools expanded their summer activities for students
7/13/2021	Medlin	Education	One pandemic idea that might stick around: a food program that goes through the summer instead of ending with the academic year
7/15/2021	Medlin	Education	How did the pandemic affect school discipline?
7/16/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	An Aurora teen held her 10th annual lemonade stand to raise money for her local food pantry
7/19/2021	Medlin	Arts & Life	Two NIU physics professors explain the science behind some of your favorite summer Olympic events
7/19/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	Experts offer tips to keep kids safe from human traffickers online
7/23/2021	Subramony	Arts & Life	The Sycamore State Theater reopened two weeks ago today. The new owner sees it as an important part of the community.
7/28/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	A DeKalb artist has learned how to thrive in the midst of dealing with a mental illness
7/28/2021	Medlin	Health	Checking in with contact tracers after 1 year on the job
7/29/2021	Medlin	Arts & Life	A northern Illinois athlete is a member of the US womens soccer team competing for gold in the olympics
7/30/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	A Cherry Valley nurse has written two books to educate kids on the pandemic, starring her farm animals
8/4/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	A northern Illinois stained glass artist mirrors his father
8/11/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	317 Art Collective features two local artists in its Winners exhibit
8/12/2021	Medlin	Education	Illinois is the first state to require news lit courses in every high school. (NPR)
8/12/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	Chicago area Girl Scouts celebrated last weekend with S'mores and a pandemic time capsule
8/23/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	Suzanne Degges-White talks about "crying Karens"
8/23/2021	Ramirez-Franco	Business	Chemtool employees aren't sure what their severance packages will include
8/30/2021	Medlin	Education	Education officials are fighting to save the Byron and Dresden nuke plants.
8/31/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	A new exhibit at Aurora's Alley Art Festival gave graffiti artists a chance to show off their skills
9/1/2021	Ramirez-Franco	Environment	Months after the ChemTool fire in Rockton, what is the effect on the health of the Rock River?
9/2/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	A Freeport theater is staging a story based on the lives of the "Radium Girls" factory workers from Ottawa
9/10/2021	Medlin	Education	The first Rockford Promise scholars are attending NIU this fall.
9/14/2021	Boose	Arts & Life	Kitefest fans are loving its new DeKalb location
9/17/2021	Stephens, S	Environment	The Under Rocks team goes out in search of pawpaws
9/28/2021	Medlin	Education	A program encourages Illinois high school students to enact change on a global scale
9/29/2021	Ramirez-Franco	Environment	The endangered Rusty Patched Bumblebee halts development of a rare prairie at the airport in Rockford -- but only temporarily