

Third Quarter 2022
Issues/Program List/Public Affair

WFAX found during this quarter issues of concern to our community and broadcast the following programs in response.

Program: Help for Children with Cancer
Length: 15 minutes
Time: 9:00 to 9:30 am
Date: July 06
Issues: Fundraiser Bike Ride for Children with Cancer

Content: Mr. Antenor Rambal, a community leader and cycling enthusiast from Washington DC, invited the community to sign up for a marathon bike ride to raise funds for the treatment of children with cancer. The event is open to the whole family. The event is open to the whole family. Throughout the month of August you can register with your own goal and times, and make your donation to the Organization. The Great Cycle Challenge invites you.

Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi.

Program: Domestic Violence
Length: 30 minutes
Time: 8:00 am. To 9:00 am
Date: July 14
Issues: How to deal with domestic violence
Content: Dr. Claudia Campos, director of “Entre Mujeres” (amongst women) a women's empowerment movement, opened a call for women who suffer from domestic violence to join the movement. The movement offers psychological resources and support for women and their families to minimize the harm associated with domestic violence and create a warm and protective environment for them.

Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

Program: No Kid Hungry
Length: 15 minutes
Time: 8:00 am to 8:30 am
Date: July 22
Issues: Free meals in public schools
Content: Mariana Joyal, representative of No Kid Hungry explained how the free lunch program is being developed and offered daily in DMV public schools. With initiatives presented by the aforementioned organization has been able to ensure adequate food for children attending classes.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi & Ary Mondragon

Program: Mental Health
Length: 30 minutes
Time: 8:30 am to 9:30 am
Date: July 28
Issues: What can affect Mental Health?
Content: Pedro Biaggi in conversation with Dr. Claudia Campos uncover issues that can cause negative effects on mental health. Men and women at some point in their lives have been affected by stress in the family or at work, by sequelae as a result of Covid or by any type of illness. Dr. Campos recommended our listeners to go to health centers to seek support. In these places they will find a lot of respect and confidentiality.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

Program: Political Asylum
Length: 20 minutes
Time: 8:30 am to 9:00 am
Date: August 4, 2022
Issues: Unexpected presence of asylum seekers
Content: Jackie Reyes spoke to the entire community about the support that the City has available, and others that could be implemented, to alleviate the difficulties of work, housing and family food that immigrants, mostly from Venezuela, who were sent by surprise by the Texas government are experiencing. "Washington DC welcomes them and offers them the resources that the Mayor's Office has available, such as places to sleep and food" and I urge the community in general to treat them with respect and hospitality," were the words of Jackie Reyes, Hispanic Spokesperson for the DC Mayor's Office.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

Program: Small Business Development
Length: 15 minutes
Time: 8:15 to 8:45 am
Date: August 11,
Issues: Free advice
Content: David Diaz, Chief of Staff of The Greater Washington Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, spoke with Pedro Biaggi about the different support programs his organization offers. He highlighted the free resources and advice that are provided by specialists in the areas of business development and small business start-ups throughout the DMV.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

Program: Scholarships Available
Length: 15 minutes
Time: 8:45 am 9:15 am
Date: August 18
Issues: Arts and Crafts Education Programs
Content: Allison Kokoros, President & CEO of Carlo Rosario International Charter School, was interviewed to inform the DMV area community about the educational programs the school offers, emphasizing the scholarships for vocational training in careers such as Culinary Arts, Nursing, basic computer skills, among others. According to his explanation, the programs ensure a complete program of English classes, which facilitates students a better approach to the job market or the search for entrepreneurship. The school does not require a preliminary admission test.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

Program: Immigration
Length: 20 minutes
Time: 8.00 am to 8.30 am
Date: August 26
Issues: Political Asylum for Venezuelans
Content: Immigration Attorney Enid Gonzalez Aleman, through her program En Defensa Propia, promotes help for the Venezuelan community living in the DMV area by offering them free information on how they can begin to apply for a work permit and then acquire a Social Security number. Attorney Gonzalez Aleman gave several suggestions to improve their chances of obtaining permanent residency.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

Program: Education Grants
Length: 20 minutes
Time: 8:00 am to 8:45 am
Date: September 6,
Issues: Knowledge Based Empowerment
Content: The Vocational Training Center with its study centers located in Maryland and Virginia is offering all people who want to train in technical careers such as electrical, mechanical and carpentry, among other careers, to sign up for its scholarship program. The initiative awards scholarships to low-income people who cannot afford the cost of the courses. Between 5 and 10 scholarships are awarded by this educational organization.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

Program: Serving the Community
Length: 15 minutes
Time: 8:15 am to 8.45 am
Date: September 13
Issues: Psychological Support and Therapy for Cancer Patients
Content: Jenny Osoria, informed our audience of the treatment and community resources that her organization Nueva Vida offers. The organization provides general services to women suffering from any type of cancer. However, this day's program focused essentially on supporting women with breast cancer with resources of all kinds. It was reported that these people affected by cancer need only approach the organization, regardless of their financial situation.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

Program: Anonymous Heroes
Length: 20 minutes
Time: 8:00 am to 8:45 am
Date: September 21
Issues: An example of progress and leadership
Content: Pedro Biaggi invited Dora Escobar to tell her story. Dora, a simple and hardworking woman, known in the community as "la Chiquita" because of her short stature, is actually a giant achiever who through the various businesses she has started, provides jobs and thus helps support the livelihood of many families in the Washington DC area. She has started and developed over 17 businesses with great results. Her motivating story of hardships, dreams and effort helped her discover important initiatives necessary to achieve success. The figure of Dora Escobar, Entrepreneur and Example of Latino Overcoming, is honored at the National Museum of American History in Washington DC.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

Program: Art Exhibition
Length: 15 minutes
Time: 8:30 am to 9:00 am
Date: September 26
Issues: Donation
Content: Hector Torres, Visual Artist based in Washington DC is presenting his original work called "Living in the shadow" consisting of paintings that reflect the Hispanic presence in the Capital City of the United States. Hector Torres, born in New York, settled many years ago in DC and has now decided to donate all the proceeds from his exhibition as a contribution to strengthen the scholarship funds that Carlo Rosario School offers to the underprivileged.
Hosted by: Pedro Biaggi

