Since early 2007 some folks have been trying to incorporate the small community of Ballentine to make it an official town so they can have more say on where their money goes but it hasn't happened in 50 years in Richland County. In 12 hours more than 1300 people came to the polls. Now both supporters and critics say no matter how folks voted, people in Ballentine show they care about their small communities future. The voters have spoken - there will be no new town in Richland County anytime soon. Saturday night the residents in Ballentine White Rock and the Hilton area voted against the plan. About 950 voted in the referendum almost 700 people voted against establishing a roughly 5 and half square mile town in the area. Opponents worried the plan could lead to higher taxes

The House has given key approval to a 7.2 billion dollar budget. House members will give their final vote today on the budget before sending it to the senate. The plan relies heavily on raiding 'reserve accounts' and cutting spending by more than 4%. Governor Mark Sanford is criticizing the plans to take money from surplus accounts. Under the bill, nearly 900 kids may be dumped from a day care program that helps foster parents and women living in shelters. The State Department of Social Services cut a request for more money by $6 million. Nearly half of that came from program that provides childcare vouchers for women on welfare programs and parents living below the poverty level. DSS cut the money request to conform to Governor "Mark Sanford's" philosophy to not fund new programs without a steady source of revenue.
