SYNOPSIS:

Elle Reyes' son was bullied early in life because he didn't have a father. In response, he became a bully to others. Fortunately, his mother convinced him to channel his emotions into writing instead of fighting. He then won a national contest with his book, "Superheroes Don't Have Dads." Now, he is able to speak to kids about the dangers of bullying, and explain how he added a successful chapter to the story of his life.
