

KTMW, Salt Lake City, Utah
2nd Quarter Issues/Programs List – 2008

- ISSUES:
1. Health Education
 2. Environment
 3. Family Relationships

ISSUE: Health Education

PROGRAM TITLE: “In Focus”

AIR DATE/TIME: Broadcast on June 25th and June 26th at 9 pm and 7:30 pm

DURATION: Each broadcast is 30 minutes.

SYNOPSIS:

1. June 25th and 26th

The guests were Tamara Anderson, Executive Director of the Pregnancy Resource Center of Salt Lake City, and Joan Manning, Nurse Manager. They described the services provided by the Center free of charge, including counseling, ultrasound images, referrals and additional support for women and families facing unplanned pregnancies.

ISSUE: Environment

PROGRAM TITLE: “In Focus”

AIR DATE/TIME: Broadcast each week on Wednesdays at 9:30 pm and Fridays at 7:30 pm during the quarter

DURATION: Each broadcast is 30 minutes.

SYNOPSIS:

April 8th and 10th

Neka Roundy, Chairman of the Great Salt Lake Bird Festival, and Bill Fenimore, author and bird expert, discussed the importance of the Northern Utah ecosystem for bird populations, especially migratory birds. Northern Utah is classified as an “Important Bird Area.” Viewers were informed about the Great Salt Lake Bird Festival, which draws guests from around the world for the chance to visit diverse bird habitats.

ISSUE: Family Relationships

PROGRAM TITLE: “Ancient Paths”

AIR DATE/TIME: Broadcast each week on Thursday at 8 pm

DURATION: Each broadcast is 30 minutes.

SYNOPSIS:

1. April 2 -- Pastor Wallace interviewed Kevin Swanson, who was the keynote speaker at a recent Christian home education convention. He discussed the necessity for parents to provide a strong Christian education for their children.
2. April 9 – Pastor Wallace discussed some of the practical implications of Christian doctrine. Specifically, he showed how the Christian view of God, man and sin affect a Christian’s attitude toward marriage.