

KTMW- TV, Salt Lake City, Utah

3rd Quarter Issues/Programs List – 2012

- ISSUES:
1. Education
 2. Self-Improvement through Religion
 3. Governmental Services

ISSUE: Education

PROGRAM TITLE: “What’s Up, Utah?”

AIR DATE/TIME: Broadcast each week on Wednesdays at 9:30 pm and Fridays at 7:00 pm during the quarter

DURATION: Each broadcast is 30 minutes.

SYNOPSIS:

1. August 1st, August 3rd, August 22nd and August 24th
The host interviewed Eric Juhlin, the chief executive officer of Stevens Henegar College, about the College’s activities and programs.

ISSUE: Self-Improvement through Religion

PROGRAM TITLE: “What’s Up, Utah?”

AIR DATE/TIME: Broadcast each week on Wednesdays at 9:30 pm and Fridays at 7:00 pm during the quarter

DURATION: Each broadcast is 30 minutes.

SYNOPSIS:

1. August 8th and August 10th
The host interviewed Ron Williams about faith and physical fitness.

2. July 18th and July 20th
The host interviewed Tim Drisdorn about the activities of the Salt Lake City Mass Choir.

ISSUE: Governmental Services

PROGRAM TITLE: “What’s Up, Utah?”

AIR DATE/TIME: Broadcast each week on Wednesdays at 9:30 pm and Fridays at 7:00 pm during the quarter

DURATION: Each broadcast is 30 minutes.

SYNOPSIS:

1. August 29th and August 31st
The host of the program discussed upcoming local and national political races, including the 4th District contest between Doug Owens and Mia Love.
2. September 12th, September 14th, September 19th and September 21st
The host of the program interviewed Donna McAleer, a candidate in the 1st Congressional District for Utah. Ms. McAleer advocated increased funding for schools and decried the use government shutdowns as a political device.
3. September 26th and September 28th
The host of the program interviewed Russ Wall, the Mayor of Taylorsville, Utah about issues in his city, including improvements in communications and greater energy efficiency.