

ISSUES AND PROGRAM LISTS FOR 4th QUARTER 2014

“What’s Up Utah” a weekly half-hour program hosted by Greg Johnson, is directed toward the needs and concerns of our Utah Community. The program airs twice per week Wednesdays at 10:30pm and reruns Fridays at 7:00pm. During the 4th Quarter of 2014 these were among the subjects discussed:

Politics: We met several political candidates from Congressional Districts of Utah.

Public Service: We had a program dealing with an event to support “Feed My Starving Children” and another program about the annual “Festival of Trees” that Benefits the Primary Children’s Hospital.

Family Fun Things to Do: A look at the special Christmas activities planned this year at Thanksgiving Point.

Meet our City Officials: In continuing our series of interviews with Mayors and local area city officials, we met the mayor of Midvale, and the Salt Lake City Sheriff.

The week of Oct 1, 2014

Greg Johnson interviewed Doug Owens, Utah’s 4th district congressional candidate. On this show, Doug discussed his initiatives, including economic growth for the middle class. Greg and Doug also discussed bi-partisanship and Doug’s background in law.

We have also invited additional candidates running for this office to have equal time on this program including the Republican candidate Mia Love. Mia Love had scheduled to appear on the program, but cancelled before the event because of a conflict to her schedule.

The Week of October 6, 2014

Greg Johnson, Greg interviewed Rob Bishop, 1st District Congressman. On this show, Congressman Bishop discussed federalism, Monday’s Supreme Court decision on not hearing the appeal regarding legalizing same sex marriage in Utah and how he is seeking a 7th term in office.

KTMW produces and airs a number of live locally produced studio productions each week. Each program has open phone line available for viewers to call-in to talk with the host and guests to ask questions or make comments. Among the programs are:

"This Week in the Word" Mondays 11am and repeated at 8pm ....which includes a discussion between various local area Church Ministers dealing subjects of interest to the Christian Community. During the program, the pastors also discuss verse by verse different bible passages and how it relates to us today. During the past several quarters, they are studying life application principles from the book of John and how the teachings affect our daily lives today. They also discuss the weekly activities planned in the local area churches.

Wednesdays at 8pm the hour long live studio program "Ancient Pathways", hosted by Jason Wallace, brings in local people for discussions of different issues of concern to Utah people today. They have discussed many issues from racialism to areas dealing with Christianity and Mormonism, living in a Mormon Community.

This quarter, the program featured several programs on doctrinal differences between various evangelical Christian groups. Callers are encouraged to call to add to the discussion or voice opposition or ask questions.

Thursdays at 8pm Doris Hansen hosts “What Love is This” dealing with people involved in polygamy. Each week the program has people on the program who have been involved in various polygamy communities around Utah. A number of guests appear on her program including many former polygamists who openly described the physical abuse they’ve received while involved in the groups. They also described what led up their departure and escape. Phone lines are open for viewers to call in questions or comments during the program.

The station has several Utah churches airing their local Sunday Church Services.

Weekly Sunday programs include:

Faith Baptist Church of Layton, 60 minutes;
