

KTMW, Salt Lake City, Utah

2nd Quarter Issues/Programs List – 2010

- ISSUES:
1. Single Life
  2. Health Education
  3. Family Relationships

PROGRAMS

- ISSUE: Single Life
- PROGRAM TITLE: Aspiring Women
- AIR DATES/TIME: April 7, 2010 – 12:30 pm
April 9, 2010 – 7:30 pm
- DURATION: Each broadcast was 30 minutes
- SYNOPSIS:

This episode explored such topics relevant to single women, including loneliness, sex, and how single women who desire marriage but have been unsuccessful in finding a marital partner can still live fully enriched lives.

---

- ISSUE: Health Education
- PROGRAM TITLE: Aspiring Women
- AIR DATES/TIME: May 19, 2010 – 12:30 pm
May 19, 2010 – 7:30 pm
- DURATION: Each broadcast was 30 minutes
- SYNOPSIS:

This episode featured Candy Wood Lindley. At age 30, Candy was married to a successful man, had two healthy children, a beautiful home, membership in a social club and many material blessings. Then she was diagnosed with cancer in her face. She was told that she would lose most of her vision and that she would awake from surgery severely disfigured. This episode described how she survived this ordeal, in the hope that her experiences will benefit those who may also suffer devastating health problems.

---

ISSUE: Family Relationships

PROGRAM TITLE: Aspiring Women

AIR DATES/TIME: May 26, 2010 – 12:30 pm
May 27, 2010 – 7:30 pm

DURATION: Each Broadcast was 30 minutes

SYNOPSIS:

This episode featured Nancy Sebastian Meyer. She had always dreamed of marrying her very own Prince Charming, but her dream ended when her husband became verbally abusive. Determined to make her marriage work anyway, Nancy has learned how to live in a marriage that has fallen short of her expectations. She gave advice on how to make a marriage work despite a verbal abusive situation.