

QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST FOR JANUARY, FEBRUARY AND MARCH 2024

KSMU/KSMS/KSMW local daily newscasts give significant treatment to the following categories:

ARTS/ENTERTAINMENT/RECREATION

Arts and Entertainment, Fun and Games, Movies, People and Places, Performing Arts, Pop Culture, Sports, Visual Arts, Musical Performances, Theatrical Performances, Culture, Holidays, These Ozarks Hills, Gardening, Local History, Ozarks Culture, National Parks, Historical Sites, Sense of Place

BUSINESS/ECONOMY

Business, Economy

EDUCATION

Education, Engaging the Community

POLITICS/GOVERNMENT/LAW

Elections, Politics, Government, Police

SCIENCE/TECHNOLOGY

Environment, Agriculture, Science, Technology, Transportation

HEALTH/SAFETY

Health, Safety

Arts/Entertainment/Recreation	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Branson's Taney Hills Community Library has a new name: the Library Center of the Ozarks.	1/6/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:40
Several people will jump into the icy waters of Lake Taneycomo in Branson for the Polar Plunge for Hunger.	1/6/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	0:50
SoundCheck: Jimmy Rea's Confluence combines musicians spanning styles and ages together.	1/9/2024	7:45 AM 4:44 PM	4:00
Springfield's High Tide Theatrical has announced their 2024 season in their new performance space.	1/10/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	1:02
The Springfield Art Museum recently announced it will close for an extended period while the building construction takes place.	1/10/2024	7:45 AM	5:45
The first Uplift Film Fest starts this evening and runs through Saturday.	1/11/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	0:40
Father Moses Berry, who created the Ozarks Afro-American Heritage Museum in Ash Grove, has died.	1/15/2024	7:45 AM 5:30 PM	4:49 1:12
The annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Day march was cancelled yesterday in Springfield due to severe weather.	1/16/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	1:05
Submissions are open for the Springfield Art Museum's 63rd annual Watercolor USA exhibit.	1/16/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
The Ozark Mountain Daredevils have announced their farewell tour, "When It Shines."	1/17/2024 1/18/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	1:02
The Outland Complex's final shows at its downtown location took place last Friday.	1/18/2024	6:31 AM	0:35
The Springfield Art Museum will hold a public meeting this Monday to gather input on their three-year strategic plan.	1/19/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:35
Springfield's Moxie Cinema is looking for a new executive director.	1/19/2024	7:04 AM	0:52
Eagle Days at the Springfield Conservation Nature Center will feature a live bald eagle and a chance to spot the birds in the wild.	1/19/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
The City of Willard will soon boast a newly constructed inclusive playground to serve kids of all ages.	1/25/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	1:40
The Springfield-Greene County Library's Heirloom Seed Library will open February 1.	1/25/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	1:12
A community fridge at the Midtown Carnegie Library is providing fresh produce to anyone who stops by.	1/26/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	2:26
Springfield has a new theatre group focused on producing new work by area artists.	1/26/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	1:30
The Ozarks Model Railroad Association will host their first indoor sidewalk sale and open house tomorrow as part of the annual Historic Commercial Street Indoor Sidewalk Sale.	1/26/2024	4:45 PM	4:00
Tomorrow marks the 19th anniversary of International Holocaust Remembrance Day and two groups in Joplin are working together to highlight the story of two brothers, holocaust survivors who immigrated to southwest Missouri.	1/26/2024	5:30 PM	1:30

Arts/Entertainment/Recreation	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
The Kansas City Chiefs beat the Baltimore Ravens 17-10 to advance to the Super Bowl for the fourth time in five years.	1/29/2024	12:00 PM	0:43
Dickerson Park Zoo is hosting a contest for Valentine's Day, asking people to share their love stories that involve the zoo.	1/30/2024	6:31 AM	0:58
The Springfield-Greene County Library's Heirloom Seed Library opens today.	2/1/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:25
The Springfield Regional Arts Council received a record-breaking number of artist vendor applications for ArtsFest on Walnut Street this year.	2/2/2024	6:31 AM	0:51
The Springfield-Greene County Library is hosting a program called "Taking the Ozarks to Washington, D.C."	2/2/2024	7:45 AM	4:00
A recent poll asked if residents of Missouri consider themselves part of the Midwest or the South, and 94% of those surveyed responded Midwest.	2/5/2024	7:04 AM	0:42
Timmons Hall in Springfield kicked off Black History Month last week with a presentation on Lake Placid, Missouri.	2/6/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	2:10
SoundCheck: Jake Stringer is a successful country musician in the Ozarks, but he didn't start out doing country.	2/6/2024	7:45 AM 4:44 PM	4:00
Storytimes at area public libraries this month are being held as part of Black History Month.	2/8/2024	5:30 PM	0:35
Missouri State University will showcase Chinese culture by celebrating the Year of the Dragon today.	2/9/2024	6:31 AM 7:04 AM	1:49
Super Bowl LVIII will take place in Las Vegas this weekend, pitting the Kansas City Chiefs against the San Francisco 49ers.	2/9/2024	5:30 PM	0:52
David Harrison is serving as Missouri's poet laureate.	2/13/2024	7:45 AM	5:55
Kansas City will celebrate the Chief's Super Bowl win with a victory parade downtown tomorrow.	2/13/2024	5:30 PM	0:34
The Kansas City Royals have finalized plans for a new ballpark.	2/14/2024	6:31 AM	0:40
Rick Dines, a longtime leader with Springfield Contemporary Theatre, is leaving his position.	2/21/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	1:16
The City of Nixa has released an update on renovations and improvements to the Nixa Aquatics Center.	2/22/2024 2/23/2024	5:30 pm 7:31 am	0:30
Family and friends remembered Lisa Lopez-Galvan, who was killed in the shooting at Union Station after the Chiefs' Super Bowl rally.	2/26/2024	7:31 AM	0:40
Missouri Comic Con was in Springfield February 10-11 and KSMU's Ben Verstraete has a roundup of the event.	2/28/2024	7:45 AM	4:50
The Community Foundation of the Ozarks has announced open submission periods for two grant programs supporting members of the Springfield Regional Arts Council.	2/29/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
The public made a total of 325.5 million visits to national parks across the U.S. last year - an increase of 4% over 2022.	2/29/2024	7:31 AM	0:30

Arts/Entertainment/Recreation	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
The Springfield Greene-County Library District's annual One Read event kicks off today, highlighting the novel Remarkably Bright Creatures by Shelby Van Pelt.	3/1/2024	7:04 AM 4:45 PM	1:43
The Ozarks Heritage Research Center at Missouri State University-West Plains will host an interactive exhibit about African American history in the Ozarks.	3/1/2024	8:45 AM	2:52
More than 24 community faith groups will come together to celebrate the second annual Ozarks Festival of Faiths.	3/1/2024	12:00 PM	1:03
The Springfield Art Museum opened the All School Exhibition over the weekend.	3/4/2024	7:31 AM	0:52
KSMU's Meghan McKinney has been named a finalist in the NPR College Podcast Challenge.	3/4/2024	7:45 AM	5:12
SoundCheck: Setting a new challenge for himself, Seth Darby moves to Nashville.	3/5/2024	4:44 PM	4:00
West Plains-area historian and collector Toney Aid has donated nearly 1500 images from his personal collection to the Ozarks Heritage Research Center.	3/6/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
A temporary exhibit at the History Museum on the Square invites visitors to learn more about the impact of women in organizations and leadership positions throughout Springfield's history.	3/14/2024	7:04 AM 4:45 PM	2:13
The new KSMU series Municipal Matters is a show hosted by young people and focuses on community leaders in the Springfield area.	3/14/2024	7:45 AM	4:00
Folk duo My Politic is playing two sold out shows at the Royal this weekend.	3/14/2024	8:45 AM	4:43
The Missouri State University Lady Bears, number three in the Missouri Valley Conference, will take on number six Murray State.	3/15/2024	6:30 AM 7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:25
The St. Patrick's Day Parade will return to downtown Springfield and Commercial Street tomorrow.	3/15/2024	5:30 PM	0:58
Missouri State University-West Plains' athletic program is adding a co-ed rodeo team to its list of intercollegiate sports.	3/18/2024	6:31 AM	1:08
Missouri State University's Lady Bears Basketball team lost the Missouri Valley Tournament by one point Sunday.	3/18/2024	7:31 AM	0:45
Several events that take place each year at the Missouri State Fair won't happen this August due to construction of a new indoor facility.	3/22/2024	7:31 AM	0:35
An OverKnight Success: The Crazy Life of an Opera Singer , a documentary on the life of Michael Spyers, premieres tomorrow afternoon at the Gillioz.	3/23/2024	7:35 AM	3:43
The West Plains Council on the Arts will host the Sky High - Eclipse and More exhibit starting this Friday and running through May 4.	3/25/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:25

Arts/Entertainment/Recreation	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Sense of Community: The International Institute of Southwest Missouri has helped resettle 860 refugees since it opened in 2013.	3/25/2024	7:45 AM	5:55
Sense of Community: Somali refugee Najma Hadid talks about her journey to the U.S. and how she "started from zero."	3/25/2024	4:44 PM	5:59
Sense of Community: Volunteers work to welcome refugees to the Ozarks.	3/26/2024	7:45 AM	5:55
Sense of Community: From displacement to new beginnings, John Ndahiriwe from the Democratic Republic of the Congo has found a new home in the Ozarks.	3/26/2024	4:44 PM	5:59
Ozarks Public Television's newest local documentary, In Gratitude: Honor Flight of the Ozarks , will premiere this week.	3/26/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:53
Sense of Community: When refugees settle in the Ozarks, volunteers "are like a family."	3/27/2024	7:45 AM	5:55
Sense of Community: An Afghan refugee and her family have been rebuilding their lives in the Ozarks for three years.	3/27/2024	4:44 PM	5:59
Former Missouri State University head basketball coach Cuonzo Martin will lead the team again, starting next season.	3/27/2024 3/28/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:40
Sense of Community: The language and cultural barrier can be high when a refugee arrives in the U.S., but the Welcome Family Program in Springfield is helping them overcome that.	3/28/2024	7:45 AM	5:55
Silver Dollar City's new Fire in the Hole ride will reopen this weekend.	3/28/2024	4:30 PM	2:30
Sense of Community: Staff at the International Institute work to get resettled refugees into the workforce.	3/28/2024	4:44 PM	5:59
Sense of Community: Staff at the International Institute help refugees, immigrants, and asylum seekers navigate the U.S. immigration system.	3/29/2024	7:45 AM	5:55
Sense of Community: Two brothers from Tanzania share their story of life as refugees who came to the Ozarks.	3/29/2024	4:44 PM	5:59
Business/Economy	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Beginning Tuesday, the price for recycling a mattress in Springfield will increase from $15 to $20, with city officials citing rising costs as the reason.	1/5/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:15
Springfield Business Journal owner and publisher Jennifer Jackson says she's selling the business.	1/5/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
A new report commissioned by the Missouri Chamber of Commerce finds the state's tech job force is growing faster than in neighboring states.	1/9/2024 1/10/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:39

Business/Economy	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
A new report commissioned by the Hatch Foundation and the Community Foundation of the Ozarks recommends the creation of a nonprofit focused on collaborative workforce development, quality-of-life improvements and branding for a 10-county region in southwest Missouri.	1/12/2024	7:04 AM	1:00
The City of Republic is set to approve the first renewal of its contract with the Fire Fighters local 152.	1/16/2024	6:31 AM	1:10
Carthage-based Leggett & Platt announced that the manufacturing company plans to close as many as 20 of its factories, out of a total of roughly 50.	1/17/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	0:10
The Springfield-Branson National Airport saw its busiest year in 2023, according to officials.	1/19/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:35
Two southwest Missouri nonprofits are recipients of grant money to help them with facility and infrastructure improvements.	1/22/2024	7:04 AM 4:45 PM	0:50
The Community Foundation of the Ozarks is requesting proposals for the "Opportunities to Thrive" grant program.	1/22/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:35
Springfield-Greene County Park Board director Bob Belote is retiring.	1/23/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:50
Branson Mayor Larry Milton says his vision for 2024 "is to make Branson truly 'Open for Business'" by promoting more commercial investment in the town.	1/23/2024 1/24/2024	5:32 PM 7:31 PM	0:25
More workers are part of a union in the US than last year, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics data released Tuesday.	1/24/2024	7:31 AM	0:33
Six organizations are recipients of the Inclusion & Belonging Grants awarded by the Community Foundation of the Ozarks.	1/26/2024	7:04 AM	1:05
A new study finds rent has never been more costly - especially for the middle class.	1/29/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	1:00
The Marson Missouri company Magnitude 7 Metals, a major bootheel employer and one of the United States' only aluminum smelters, is set to close.	1/29/2024	7:31 AM	0:45
Missouri dispensaries sold more than $1 billion of legal recreational marijuana over the past year.	1/29/2024	7:45 AM	3:50
Branson is looking ahead and working with the public to set its economic development agenda.	1/31/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	2:00 1:34
The Missouri Senate approved a slate of appointments by Governor Mike Parson which have been held up for almost two weeks.	1/31/2024	7:31 AM	0:40
The Kitchen, Inc. has announced its 2024 board of trustees' executive officers.	2/1/2024	6:31 AM 7:04 AM	0:20
Missouri's latest sales figures for marijuana show almost $1.3 billion in legally available medical and recreational cannabis products.	2/5/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:30

Business/Economy	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
More than $9 million in tax credits will be awarded to Missouri community-based organizations to help with economic development.	2/6/2024	6:31 AM	1:16
Upgrades are being planned for East Sunshine Street in Springfield, but the plans have area businesses worried.	2/7/2024	7:45 AM	3:12
Unemployment in the five-county Springfield metro is down, according to the latest federal numbers.	2/8/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:15
Missouri's Economic Research and Information Center released new data showing Missouri had the sixth-lowest cost of living among the 50 states.	2/12/2024	12:00 PM	0:15
The Community Foundation of the Ozarks and Habitat Communication & Culture announced the release of a new report titled "Shaping Tomorrow: A Study of Young Donors' Perspectives on Charitable Giving in Southwest Missouri."	2/14/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:40
The Community Foundation of the Ozarks will buy the Missouri State University Alumni Center building in downtown Springfield for $5.8 million.	2/15/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:45
The Missouri Economic Research and Information Center recently came out with new data on language use in the state.	2/21/2024	6:31 AM	0:25
A $30 million Target store is coming to southwest Springfield.	2/27/2024	12:00 PM	1:23
According to the federal Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, credit cards have never been as expensive as they are now - especially for consumers who don't fully pay off their cards each month.	2/29/2024	6:31 AM	0:50
Anheuser-Busch has reached a contract agreement with the Teamsters union that avoids a strike at its U.S. plants.	2/29/2024	7:04 AM	0:45
The Missouri Department of Transportation will hold a job fair tomorrow in Springfield.	3/1/2024	12:00 PM	0:30
Eleven recipients of the 2024 Women of Achievement Awards were announced on Friday, and included two women from Springfield.	3/4/2024	7:04 AM	0:30
The Better Business Bureau is offering tips to avoid overdraft fees.	3/7/2024	7:04 AM	0:45
The Missouri Community Service Commission is seeking nominations for the Show Me Service Awards.	3/8/2024	6:31 AM	0:30
A $12 million building permit application has been filled out to build a B&B Theaters luxury entertainment center in Joplin.	3/12/2024	7:31 AM	0:41
Nixa utility customers will continue getting a credit for each kilowatt of electricity they use, though that credit will be smaller in the year ahead.	3/13/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:40
The Better Business Bureau is warning of scams involving the ACT and SAT tests.	3/19/2024	6:31 AM	0:45
The Community Foundation of the Ozarks announced that the St. Louis-based L-A-D Foundation has granted $54,485 to seven nonprofits.	3/20/2024	6:31 AM	0:35

Business/Economy	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Applications are now open for two stakeholder director positions on the 76 Entertainment Community Improvement District Board of Directors in Branson.	3/21/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:40
New survey results published by the St. Louis Federal Reserve show "weakening" economic conditions for low- and moderate-income residents.	3/22/2024	7:04 AM	0:40
Springfield City Utilities is warning the public about a new "door-to-door utility scam."	3/25/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:30
Six projects that rely on collaboration among Springfield-area organizations are recipients of a total of $120,000 in grant money.	3/27/2024	7:04 AM	1:50
Education	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
The Ozark School District has announced the purchase of the Dolby Laboratories building in Ozark.	1/6/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:30
The Community Foundation of the Ozarks offers scholarship opportunities for area students and the application period is now open.	1/6/2024	7:31 AM	0:40
The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is now open after a delay of about three months.	1/10/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:35 1:28
A new building planned at the Ozarks Technical Community College Richwood Valley Campus will be even larger than originally planned.	1/12/2024	6:30 AM	0:45
Public meetings on the potential closing of two Springfield elementary schools will be held Tuesday.	1/12/2024	5:30 PM	0:35
Public meetings on the potential closing of Robberson Elementary and Pershing Elementary will be held today.	1/16/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
A historically Black university in Missouri will hire an outside agency to investigate its president who is on paid leave following the suicide death of a top administrator at the school.	1/16/2024	5:30 PM	0:43
The Missouri State University Board of Governors is expected to approve the finalists in the search for the university's next president during a special meeting Wednesday.	1/16/2024	5:30 PM	0:40
Springfield Public Schools' Robberson and Pershing Elementaries will close at the end of the current school year.	1/17/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	1:04
A survey that may impact the future of the Arkansas School for the Blind and Visually Impaired, and the Arkansas School for the Deaf, is facing intense scrutiny from the Arkansas Association of the Deaf.	1/17/2024	7:04 AM	0:30
The Missouri Association of Elementary School Principals has recognized two Ozark Elementary administrators with annual awards.	1/18/2024	7:04 AM	0:30

Education	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Thousands of students in Missouri and Kansas have left public school in the last four years.	1/18/2024	7:31 AM	0:43
Missouri State University's Board of Governors has announced three finalists to replace outgoing President Clif Smart.	1/18/2024 1/19/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:40
Springfield's Baptist Bible College is changing its name to Mission University.	1/26/2024	6:31 AM	0:35
The Springfield Public Schools Board of Education has extended superintendent Dr. Grenita Lathan's contract through the end of the 2026-27 school year.	1/26/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:25
Dates have been set for the public to meet the final three candidates for president of Missouri State University.	1/26/2024	5:30 PM	0:40
Missouri State University announced Monday that it received a $377 thousand grant from a state nursing education incentive program.	1/30/2024	6:31 AM	0:20
Today marks the beginning of Black History Month and Missouri State University is hosting events to celebrate it.	2/1/2024	7:31 AM	1:05
A senior fellow at the Brookings Institution in Washington, D.C. will speak about the global synthetic drug trade at Missouri State University.	2/5/2024	12:00 PM	0:50
Missouri students who go to school just four days a week don't see a significant impact on their learning.	2/7/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:41
The Ozark Board of Education has named Sgt. John Wilderson as the new director of school police.	2/9/2024	12:30 AM	7:31
A Black History Month presentation about desegregation and the responses of past Missouri college presidents will take place on February 27 at Missouri State University-West Plains.	2/12/2024	7:31 AM 4:45 PM	1:33
Ozark Technical Community College's Springfield campus will offer classes this spring for anyone looking to find entry level positions in the manufacturing and welding industry.	2/13/2024	7:31 AM	0:40
A donation by a professor at Missouri State University-West Plains will allow students to get more hands-on education in agriculture.	2/16/2024	6:31 AM	0:50
The Springfield Public School District has made a number of new appointments in leadership positions.	2/20/2024	12:00 PM	0:30
Evangel University will host the 2nd annual Veteran Valor Appreciation Luncheon for local military veterans and active-duty service members.	2/20/2024	5:32 PM	0:20
Every one of the 250 students at Springfield's Bowerman Elementary received a brand-new pair of shoes.	2/20/2024	5:32 PM	1:53
Drury University announced this week that it's joining the Southwest Baptist University Mercy College of Health Professionals partnership.	2/21/2024 2/22/2024 2/22/2024	5:32 PM 6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:25

Education	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
One-on-one help will be available tonight for anyone with questions about the Free Application for Federal Student Aid through the Missouri College and Career Attainment Network.	2/22/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:30
The efactory at Missouri State University has received a grant to expand opportunities for students to gain real world entrepreneurial experience.	2/22/2024 2/23/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:45
Governor Mike Parson proclaimed this week as Future Farmers of America week in Missouri.	2/23/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
A program in southwest Missouri allows community leaders to go into schools and shadow principals.	2/26/2024	7:45 AM	3:09
This week, Pittsburg State University became the first four-year university in Kansas to grant two-year Associate of Arts degrees.	2/29/2024	6:31 AM	0:48
Missouri State University has announced Richard "Biff" Williams as its 12th president.	3/4/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	1:07
Students eligible for the TJ Swift House ASCEND Program at Missouri State University-West Plains will not have to pay program fees for the next two academic years.	3/5/2024	6:31 AM 7:04 AM	1:15 0:45
Pittsburg State University's Center for Reading will host Secret Codes Camp this summer for children who need help overcoming reading challenges.	3/5/2027	7:04 AM	1:08
Dr. Richard "Biff" Williams has been named the 12th president of Missouri State University, and he is looking forward to getting involved with faculty, staff, students and the community.	3/5/2024	8:45 AM	3:42
Branson High School principal Dr. Jack Harris has been named the 2024 Jim L. King Missouri High School Principal of the Year.	3/6/2024	6:31 AM	0:30
According to the U.S. Department of Education, Black girls are suspended from public schools six times more than white girls.	3/8/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
In a statement Friday, the Ozark School District announced that its Ozark Board of Education has voted to hire Robert Hedgecorth as the Executive Director of Finance & Business Operations.	3/8/2024	7:04 AM	0:30
Missouri State University is looking for a new head basketball coach.	3/8/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:50
Missouri State Treasurer Vivek Malek was in Springfield last Friday to visit Ozarks Technical Community College and promote the MOST 529 educational savings plan.	3/12/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
Dr. Jeff Frederick will be Drury University's 19th president.	3/13/2024 3/14/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:35
The Lincoln University Board of Curators released the results of its third-party investigation into the university and its president, John B. Moseley and voted to bring Moseley back from his leave of absence.	3/22/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:53
A school bus company will terminate its contract with St. Louis Public Schools a year early.	3/27/2024	6:31 AM	0:30

Education	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Ozark East Elementary second graders turned their school into a restaurant for a day.	3/28/2024	7:31 AM	1:30
Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Missouri Governor Mike Parson issued an executive order banning new land purchases by companies from foreign counties that are considered foreign adversaries.	1/5/2024	7:04 AM	0:25
Florissant, Missouri will pay nearly $3 million to settle a lawsuit accusing it of violating the constitutional rights of residents by jailing them and forcing them to pay fees, often for minor traffic violations.	1/5/2024	7:04 AM	0:25
Changes to property tax policy, recruiting and retaining more police officers, and passing Medicaid reimbursement funding are some of the priorities for House Republicans this session.	1/5/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:40
Republican leaders of the Missouri Legislature are prioritizing education and child-care policies over additional laws directed at LGBTQ+ people.	1/5/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
Missouri Senator Travis Fitzwater wants the state attorney general to oversee juvenile officers.	1/6/2024	12:00 PM	0:30
	1/6/2024	5:30 PM
Springfield City Council will hold its first regular meeting of the year and KSMU's Gregory Holman has a preview.	1/8/2024 1/8/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:32
Conservative critics of the GOP's General Assembly leadership have formed a new group to help push their agenda.	1/8/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:35
Missouri Secretary of State Jay Ashcroft said his house was swatted late Sunday evening.	1/8/2024	12:00 PM	0:40
There will not be a school board election in the Republic School District in April.	1/8/2024	5:30 PM	0:38
A man who made terroristic threats to both Missouri State University employees and an employee of The Kitchen, Inc. remains in the Greene County Jail.	1/8/2024 1/9/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	1:14
Missouri state senator Mary Elizabeth Coleman has announced her campaign for Missouri's Third Congressional District.	1/9/2024	6:31 AM	0:35
Springfield voters will soon be asked whether they want future mayors to have a longer term in office, and if they want to reform the city's ethics codes.	1/9/2024	7:04 AM	2:09
It's budget season for Greene County and elected leaders are poised to approve $284 million in spending for the next year.	1/9/2024	8:45 AM	5:58
Missouri state representative Sarah Unsicker, who has been the subject of a controversy because of her association with an accused Holocaust denier, announced that she is running for governor.	1/9/2024	12:00 PM	0:34

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Springfield voters will decide in April if they want their mayor to serve a four-year term instead of the current two.	1/9/2024	12:00 PM	0:25
SoundCheck: Jimmy Rea's Confluence gets the creative juices flowing.	1/9/2024	4:44 PM	4:00
After recent controversies, the city of Willard says it's set to take Missouri Sunshine Law training from the state attorney general's office.	1/10/2024	7:04 AM 4:44 PM	2:45
Missouri Republican legislator Adam Schnelting has reintroduced a bill that would allow concealed carry permit holders to take their firearms on public transportation, claiming it would make public transportation safer.	1/10/2024	12:00 PM 4:44 PM	0:44
The Greene County assessor is reminding residents to watch their mailboxes for their 2024 personal property and business assessment lists.	1/10/2024 1/11/2024	5:30 PM 7:34 AM	0:30
Be Kind & Merciful developers have withdrawn their request for Springfield City Council approval of a proposed commercial rezoning at Sunshine and National.	1/11/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	1:20
A federal appeals panel says a Missouri lawsuit accusing China of hoarding masks and other protective gear during the COVID-19 pandemic can move forward.	1/11/2024	12:00 PM	0:25
Members of a House education committee heard testimony this week on a bill establishing open enrollment for public schools in the state.	1/12/2024	7:30 AM	0:35
Senator Eric Schmitt is taking a dim view of a funding plan to avert a government shutdown.	1/15/2024 1/16/2024	5:30 PM 7:04 AM	0:42
The former director of the City of Springfield's Planning and Development Department begins his new job as director of Restore SGF today.	1/16/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
The League of Women Voters of Missouri will host a virtual event this week to help voters understand the changes in the state's presidential selection process.	1/16/2024 1/17/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:45
The City of Republic will put seven items on the ballot for city voters in April.	1/17/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:54
A 20-year-old Springfield man pleaded guilty in federal court on Tuesday to illegally possessing firearms.	1/17/2024	7:31 AM	0:35
A new Missouri law allowing counties to provide property tax relief for seniors may be amended this session.	1/17/2024	5:30 PM	0:42
Seven candidates have been certified to run for three seats on the Springfield Public Schools Board of Education.	1/17/2024 1/18/2024	5:30 PM 7:04 AM	0:32
Blaine Luetkemeyer is stepping aside after nearly 16 years as a congressman for central and eastern Missouri.	1/18/2024	8:45 AM	3:47

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Another abortion rights group will start circulating an initiative petition to overturn Missouri's strict ban on most abortions.	1/18/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:46
The Missouri House Emerging Issues Committee heard testimony and comment Wednesday over seven bills that place further restrictions on transgender people.	1/18/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:45
The Missouri Senate came to a halt on Thursday after a faction of members held up a set of gubernatorial appointments.	1/19/2024	7:04 AM	0:36
The Springfield court case pitting University Heights homeowners against commercial developers went to trial on Thursday.	1/19/2024	7:04 AM	1:19
		8:45 AM	3:47
		12:00 PM	1:19
The Greene County Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help in identifying the person or persons responsible for a recent animal abuse case.	1/19/2024	7:31 AM	1:12
Missouri Treasurer Vivek Malek was accepting applications for state-subsidized, low-interest loans to small businesses, farmers and affordable housing developers, but had so many requests for money that he had to cut off applications.	1/19/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
Missouri Treasurer Vivek Malek says he supports a bill known as the Foreign Adversary Act.	1/19/2024	5:30 PM	0:40
Springfield City Council will meet tonight and a key question will be if the city should allow gas station gambling machines.	1/22/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:40
About 60 Missouri corrections officers have signed a letter asking Governor Mike Parson to commute the sentence of a man scheduled to be executed on April 9.	1/23/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:34
Last night, Springfield City Council heard passionate feedback from residents on a bill that would ban video gambling machines.	1/23/2024	7:04 AM	1:57
		4:45 PM	3:08
Missouri Secretary of State Jay Ashcroft is on the defensive after the state auditor claimed he violated state law by withholding records.	1/23/2024	5:32 PM	0:30
A man incarcerated at Greene County Jail died early Monday.	1/23/2024 1/24/2024 1/24/2024	5:32 PM
		6:31 AM
		12:00 PM	0:30
United Springfield has endorsed three candidates for the Springfield Board of Education Election.	1/23/2024 1/24/2024	5:32 PM
		7:04 AM	0:40
Two GOP statewide officials are at odds over Missouri departing from a multi-state service aimed at ensuring the accuracy of voter rolls.	1/24/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:46
Dozens of Kansas lawmakers have launched an effort to direct the state's attorney general to release information from an investigation of a police raid last year on a weekly newspaper.	1/24/2024	7:31 AM	0:25
Missouri Governor Mike Parson reflected on his past wins in his final State of the State address.	1/24/2024	5:30 PM
	1/25/2024	7:31 AM	0:30

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Missouri Governor Mike Parson delivered his final State of the State address to the Missouri General Assembly.	1/25/2024	6:31 AM	0:45
Legislators in Jackson County, Missouri voted Monday to override the veto of Jackson County Executive Frank White and place the renewal of a sales tax on the April ballot to help fund a new ballpark for the Kansas City Royals.	1/25/2024	7:04 AM	0:30
Arkansas Attorney General Tim Griffin has approved the wording of a proposed ballot measure that would scale back the state's abortion ban.	1/25/2024	5:30 PM	0:40
The Missouri legislature is considering a bill that would punish plant nurseries that would sell five non-native invasive plants.	1/25/2024 1/26/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:45
Springfield residents gathered Thursday night for an update on community development codes.	1/26/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	1:19
The Greene County Sheriff's Office announced that Tuesday saw the beginning of a new law enforcement academy class.	1/26/2024	5:30 PM	0:25
The Republican leader of the Missouri Senate says she would like to expel a conservative GOP colleague who has been bogging down work in the chamber.	1/26/2024	5:30 PM	0:20
Missouri Governor Mike Parson delivered the State of the State address to Missouri's General Assembly last Wednesday, also releasing his proposed budget for fiscal year 2025.	1/26/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	0:55
For the ninth year in a row, the state auditor's office found that none of Missouri's local taxing authorities were trying to charge too much property tax.	1/30/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:30
Voting in the presidential primary in Missouri will look a lot different this year, after the Missouri General Assembly changed the process in 2022.	1/30/2024	7:04 AM 4:44 PM	2:29
A Missouri prosecutor now believes that inmate Marcellus Williams is innocent of the crime that landed him on death row and very nearly cost him his life, and is seeking to overturn his conviction.	1/30/2024	7:31 AM	0:25
The Springfield Police Department is welcoming 13 recruits to the 78th Springfield Police Academy.	1/30/2024	7:31 AM	0:35
A Senate committee met Monday to hear 12 bills regarding imitative petition reform.	1/30/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:40
A St. Louis man who has long maintained he did not commit a brutal 1998 murder will get another chance to make that argument to a judge.	1/30/2024	4:48 PM	0:40
New voter identification cards are headed to Greene County residents.	1/30/2024 1/31/2024 1/31/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM 7:04 AM	0:50
Jean Carnahan, the first woman to serve in the U.S. Senate from Missouri, died on Tuesday at the age of 90.	1/31/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:46

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Springfield City Council is debating if housing should be adopted as an official priority now that homeowners are now a minority.	1/31/2024 2/1/2024	5:30 PM 7:04 AM	1:58
Missouri lawmakers want to overhaul how the state's child welfare agency operates and how much employees get paid.	2/1/2024	6:31 AM	0:43
In a filing Tuesday, the Missouri Supreme Court formally reprimanded Jasper County Circuit Judge John A Nicholas for rude and vulgar treatment of city staff after a storm knocked down a utility cable at his home in May 2023.	2/1/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:30
Missouri Governor Mike Parson is wading into a dispute between Texas officials and the Biden administration over border security, following a recent U.S. Supreme Court ruling that says federal officials may legally remove barbed wire that Texas authorities placed at the southern border.	2/2/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:30
The Missouri House passed legislation that established an open enrollment program for the state's public schools.	2/1/2024 2/2/2024	12:00 PM 6:31 AM	0:44
Veterans awaiting records for needed services from the VA or nonprofits may see their requests pick up pace.	2/2/2024	5:30 PM	0:45
Community Partnership of the Ozarks, along with Missouri State and Drury universities, will offer free tax return clinics.	2/2/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
A sit-in is planned by LGBTQ+ advocates at a story hour by Brave Books publishing company at the Library Center.	2/2/2024	12:00 PM	0:50
A Missouri Congressman helped pass a significant overhaul of the federal tax code this week.	2/2/2024	4:45 PM	0:45
The Missouri Supreme Court is considering whether changes should be made to the state's Senate districts.	2/2/2024 2/5/2024 2/5/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:30
The Missouri attorney general is warning football fans to be careful if they plan to purchase tickets for the Super Bowl.	2/5/2024	5:30 PM	0:40
A 20-year-old Springfield man was sentenced to six years and six months in prison for illegally possessing a firearm as an unlawful drug user.	2/6/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
The Missouri House has given initial approval to a bill that would create a regulatory sandbox for businesses with innovative products.	2/6/2024	12:00 PM	0:50
SoundCheck: Jake Stringer has hit his country music stride.	2/6/2024	4:44 PM	4:00
The Missouri House and Senate held hearings over resolutions that declare the state's support of Israel.	2/7/2024	6:31 AM	0:42
At its Monday Board of Aldermen meeting, the City of Ozark moved forward on a 10- and three-year vision for the future of the city.	2/7/2024	6:31 AM	1:20
The City of Ozark approved a number of rezoning resolutions at its Board of Aldermen meeting, except for the property near the Rivers subdivision.	2/7/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	1:05

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Springfield City Council received its first update on City Hall's renovation progress.	2/7/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	2:01
Missouri State Auditor Scott Fitzpatrick announced that his office will launch an audit of the City of Joplin.	2/8/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
Missouri lawmakers are discussing a bill that would extend the statute of limitations for people who were victims of childhood sexual abuse.	2/8/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:40
Springfield just launched a new online portal so residents can have quick and easy access to how the city's money is spent.	2/8/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	1:17
Missouri Chief Justice Mary Russell is asking the general assembly to provide more mental health services for individuals charged with crimes.	2/8/2024	7:31 AM	0:41
Republic's city council approved a bid for work at Miller Park and the Rush Aquatic Center at their regular meeting Tuesday.	2/8/2024	7:31 AM	0:40
A set of childcare tax credits is on its way to the Missouri Senate after overwhelmingly winning House approval.	2/9/2024	7:31 AM	0:43
The Springfield Police Department announced a new partnership with Lights On to offer free repair vouchers instead of issuing some tickets.	2/9/2024	5:30 PM	1:07
KSMU's Gregory Holman has a preview on the major items on Springfield City Council's agenda tonight.	2/12/2024	7:45 AM 4:44 PM	2:00
Nearly two months ago, Joplin Police Department hired its first Black police chief in the city's 151-year history.	2/12/2024	5:30 PM	0:55
The Joplin Police Department recently released its 2023 crime statistics report and it showed both improvements and areas of concerns.	2/13/2024	6:31 AM	1:08
The Missouri Division of Cannabis Regulation will fund three state programs.	2/13/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:25
Last night, Springfield City Council voted to ban video lottery terminals.	2/13/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	2:18 0:46
Both of the state's political parties are unhappy that Missouri got rid of its presidential primary.	2/13/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:50
After a rally drew conservatives from across the state in favor of a resolution that would make it more difficult to amend the constitution, its sponsor brought it to the senate floor Monday for debate.	2/13/2024	12:00 PM	0:50
Reactions are coming in from around Missouri in the aftermath of Springfield City Council's unanimous vote to ban video lottery terminals.	2/14/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
Missouri Senate Democrats spent hours Monday and Tuesday stopping the advancement of a resolution that would make it harder to amend the state's constitution.	2/14/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:44

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Police say one person was killed in a shooting at the Kansas City Chiefs Super Bowl parade.	2/14/2024	5:30 PM	0:15
Yesterday, the Greene County Judge presiding over the University Heights developer lawsuit called an unusual post-trial hearing.	2/14/2024 2/15/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:58 1:35
The Missouri Supreme Court has upheld voting districts drawn for the state Senate against a challenge that claimed they had wrongly split some communities.	2/14/2024 2/15/2024	5:30 PM 7:04 AM	0:25
The Missouri Supreme Court set a June execution date for David Hosier, who is on death row for killing a Jefferson City woman in 2009.	2/15/2024	6:31 AM	0:20
A discussion in Springfield this month will focus on whether or not the U.S. needs a new constitution.	2/15/2024	7:04 AM	2:00
The Missouri Supreme Court unanimously ruled that Missouri must reimburse Planned Parenthood for Medicaid payments.	2/15/2024	7:31 AM	0:45
The City of Branson reports on the progress of its "lodging safety initiative" and has shut down six establishments.	2/15/2024 2/16/2024	5:32 PM 7:31 AM	1:05
Missouri's Speaker of the House abruptly ended a press conference Thursday after a series of questions on gun control.	2/16/2024	6:31 AM	0:42
Greene County is reminding the public that county offices and departments, along with courts of the 31st Circuit, will be closed Monday in observance of Washington's Birthday.	2/16/2024	5:32 PM	0:10
This week, the Biden administration announced nearly $1 billion in grants from the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law passed in 2021.	2/16/2024	5:32 PM	0:25
Some Kansas City-area leaders are demanding the Missouri legislature pass stricter gun laws following the Chiefs parade shooting.	2/16/2024	5:32 PM	0:40
Missouri's Republican candidates for governor clashed at a candidate forum over the weekend.	2/20/2024	12:00 PM	0:45
The Springfield Police Department now has a comfort dog.	2/21/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:58
Columbia City Council voted to become a "safe haven" for LGBTQ+ individuals.	2/21/2024	7:04 AM	0:51
Missouri Governor Mike Parson announced he's sending members of the Missouri National Guard and Highway Patrol to the U.S.-Mexico border in Texas.	2/21/2024	7:31 AM	0:45
Yesterday's lunchtime Springfield City Council study session included an update on the city's plans to restore Jordan Creek downtown.	2/21/2024	7:30 AM 12:00 PM	0:55
Southwest Missouri Republican congressman Eric Burlison says GOP candidates should embrace early voting.	2/21/2024 2/22/2024	5:32 PM 7:04 AM	0:42

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
One of the men charged in a Kansas City Chiefs Super Bowl victory celebration shooting that killed one person and injured two dozen others made a first appearance in court.	2/22/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:35
The Daily Citizen and KOLR 10 reported earlier this week that Eden Village is suing the maker of its concrete 3D printers, accusing the company of breach of warranty, fraud, and misrepresentation.	2/22/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:30
Springfield Police are conducting their second homicide investigation this year.	2/22/2024 2/22/2024 2/23/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:30
Missouri Senator Lincoln Hough has announced his campaign for lieutenant governor.	2/22/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
Absentee voting is underway for Greene County voters who will be unable to cast ballots at their regular polling place on April 2.	2/22/2024 2/23/2024	5:30 PM 7:04 AM	0:45
Greene County candidate filing for the August 4 primary will begin on February 27.	2/23/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:55
Greene County Clerk Shane Schoeller says that a "bipartisan team" is key to election integrity.	2/23/2024	7:04 AM	1:28
Forty-five Lincoln University alumni gathered for a rally at the Missouri Capitol Thursday to honor the late Antoinette Candia-Bailey and call for the removal of university president John Moseley.	2/23/2024	12:00 PM	0:50
Republican lawmakers have voted to make it more difficult to amend the state's constitution.	2/23/2024	5:30 PM	0:35
Two more camps of unhoused people have been cleared by law enforcement in the Springfield area.	2/23/2024	5:30 PM	0:40
Springfield City Council will meet tonight with a full agenda.	2/26/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	1:13
Two of three issues that will be decided by Springfield voters on April 2 have been endorsed by the Springfield Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.	2/26/2024 2/27/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:30
Springfield Police Chief Paul Williams updated City Council on public safety and how the police department is addressing gun violence this year.	2/27/2024	7:04 AM	2:36
At least 10 local residents addressed City Council on the topic of housing Monday night.	2/27/2024	7:31 AM 5:32 PM	1:20
Candidate filing for the August Primary Election opened today in Missouri.	2/27/2024	5:32 PM	0:50
Ferguson, Missouri, where Michael Brown was fatally shot by a police officer, has agreed to pay $4.5 million to settle a class-action lawsuit that accused it of operating a so-called debtors' prison.	2/28/2024	6:31 AM	0:40

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Candidate filing for the August Primary Election opened Tuesday and there were four people waiting outside the Greene County Clerk's office to file just before the doors opened at 8 am.	2/28/2024	7:31 AM	0:50
State Representative Sarah Unsicker was blocked from running for governor as a Democrat.	2/28/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:35
Over 430 candidates have filed to run in Missouri's primary elections.	2/28/2024	12:00 PM	0:40
The Missouri Republican Party will hold presidential caucuses on Saturday.	2/29/2024	7:04 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
The Missouri House gave initial approval Wednesday to legislation that would stop public funds from going to abortion providers or their affiliates.	2/29/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	0:45
The GOP presidential caucus is Saturday and concerns about voter confusion and turnout have state lawmakers considering the future of the election process.	2/29/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:44
While the overturning of Roe v. Wade ended legal abortion access in Missouri, birth control has still been available across the state and Democratic Senator Greg Razer has introduced a bill that would explicitly clarify that contraceptives are legal to purchase within the state.	2/29/2024	12:00 PM	0:50
The Missouri GOP will host local caucuses tomorrow in counties across the state as well as the City of St. Louis.	3/1/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:45
Springfield city leaders are beginning work on the municipal budget for 2025.	3/1/2024	7:04 AM 7:31 AM	0:50
Former President Donald Trump won a massive victory in Saturday's Missouri Republican presidential caucus.	3/4/2024	6:31 AM	0:43
The voter registration deadline is tomorrow for the April 2 General Municipal Election.	3/5/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:30
The Missouri House has passed legislation that would stop public funding from going to the state's Planned Parenthood clinics.	3/5/2024	7:04 AM	0:35
Jackson County Prosecutor Jean Peters Baker is calling the commutation of the sentence of Britt Reid a self-serving politician action by Missouri's governor.	3/5/2024	7:31 AM	0:38
The Springfield Police Department has expanded the minimum qualifications to allow more people to apply to become law enforcement officers.	3/5/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:50
At its Monday meeting, the Ozark Board of Aldermen heard the first reading of a bill that could help fund connections on the Finley River Trail System.	3/5/2024 3/6/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	1:08

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Dozens of Springfield residents me up Tuesday evening to learn more about city plans to widen out a major road in the Galloway neighborhood.	3/6/2024	7:04 AM	1:33
A regularly scheduled audit of Cedar County is underway by the Missouri State Auditor's Office.	3/6/2024	7:04 AM	0:35
The Ozark Board of Alderman approved annexing 50 acres of undeveloped property near the corner of West Garton Road and Highway 65.	3/6/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:49
One of the most contentious topics for members of Congress right now is whether the U.S. should continue giving military support and money to Ukraine.	3/6/2024	7:45 AM	3:51
An employee of the rural Missouri boarding School ABM Ministries is accused of bloodying a boy's face while boxing.	3/7/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:50
Missouri Governor Mike Parson has offered his "deepest sympathy" to the family of a five-year-old girl who was seriously injured in a drunken driving crash, after facing criticism for releasing from prison the drive who caused the crash, former Kansas City Chiefs assistant coach Britt Reid.	3/7/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
A bill in a Missouri Senate committee would create a state of election crimes and security.	3/7/2024	7:04 AM	0:30
At the state Capitol, a bill heard in a committee Wednesday would seek to exempt Missouri municipalities from having to enforce federal gun control laws.	3/7/2024	7:31 AM	0:57
Candidate forums are underway for the Springfield Public Schools Board of Education.	3/7/2024	7:45 AM	4:20
The City of Nixa is gathering public input as it develops its new comprehensive plan.	3/7/2024 3/8/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:35
Arkansas Governor Sarah Huckabee Sanders has proposed a $6.3 billion budget for the coming year, with most of the increase in spending going toward a school voucher program.	3/7/2024 3/8/2024	5:30 PM 7:04 AM	0:30
Absentee voting is underway for the April 2 Municipal Election.	3/7/2024 3/8/2024	5:30 PM 7:31 AM	0:45
Missouri State University student organization Paws to the Polls held a voter fair this week.	3/8/2024	7:04 AM	1:25
The Missouri House passed a supplemental budget bill containing funding for Governor Mike Parson's plan to send troops to the Texas-Mexico border.	3/8/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:44
The Missouri Democratic Party is gearing up for its Presidential Primary, which will be held on March 23.	3/8/2024 3/11/2024	5:30 PM 7:04 AM	0:35
On April 2, Republic voters will decide on the election of a mayor for a four-year term and elect eight city council members.	3/11/2024	6:31 AM	0:55

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Missouri Senate majority leader Cindy O'Laughlin is expecting a critical bill that funds the state's Medicaid program to pass this year.	3/11/2024	6:31 AM	0:45
On April 2, Nixa voters will decide on a proposed 3% adult use recreational marijuana sales tax and will also elect city council positions.	3/11/2024	7:31 AM	0:50
On April 2, Ozark Voters will choose two Board of Education seats and three members of the Christian County Health Department's Board of Trustees.	3/11/2024	7:31 AM	0:45
The Greene County Sheriff's Office is warning of a scammer claiming to be an official at the office.	3/11/2024 3/12/2024	12:00 PM 6:31 AM	0:30
A Jackson County judge denied release and a bond reduction for one of the accused men in the Super Bowl Parade shootings.	3/12/2024	7:04 AM	0:39
A local union of people who rent their homes criticized Springfield City Council for considering whether to use more COVID-19 relief money on plans to improve Cooper Park and Killian Park, despite Springfield's issues with poverty and housing.	3/12/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	1:36
The City of Bolivar will hold a public hearing on Proposition Public Safety tonight at city hall.	3/12/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
Missourians pay a higher tax on diapers and period supplies compared to other essential items, and advocacy groups want to change that.	3/12/2024 3/13/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:40
Nixa's City Council is considering clarifying and expanding the city's regulations on food trucks.	3/12/2024 3/13/2024	5:30 PM 7:31 AM	0:55
Some state lawmakers are taking extra steps to prevent noncitizens from voting over their concerns that illegal border crossings could lead to voter fraud.	3/13/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:25
Three Black women filed a lawsuit this week saying the state of Missouri's control of the Kansas City Police Department singles out people by race and creates an unequal system.	3/13/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:34
Three Kansas City men were charged Wednesday with federal firearms trafficking in connection with weapons recovered from the scene of the mass shooting at the Super Bowl rally.	3/13/2024	12:00 PM	0:40
Police in Tennessee are searching for a University of Missouri student from Springfield who was last seen by friends at a Nashville bar Friday night.	3/13/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
More than half a million Missourians could have their criminal records sealed under the Missouri Clean Slate Initiative.	3/14/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:45
The search continues in Nashville for a 22-year-old University of Missouri student from Springfield who went missing Friday night.	3/14/2024	12:00 PM	0:25

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
The U.S. Forest Service announced that a man from Poplar Bluff has admitted to setting fires in November 2022 that spread to 220 acres of mostly public land near Beaver Lake in the Mark Twain Forest.	3/15/2024	6:31 AM	0:30
Voters in the Bolivar city limits will decide a 3/4 cent sales tax increase for police and firefighters on April 2.	3/15/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	1:49
Arkansas will no longer allow residents to use "X" instead of male or female on state-issued driver's licenses or identification cards, officials announced this week under new rules that will also make it more difficult for transgender people to change the sex listed on their licenses and IDs.	3/15/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
The Missouri Senate has passed an education bill expanding the state's K through 12 tax credit scholarship program.	3/15/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
Much tighter security is expected this weekend at Kansas City's St. Patrick's Day parade.	3/15/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
The 2024 Missouri legislative session has hit the half-way point, with lawmakers spending a week away from the Capitol beginning today.	3/18/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
The only bill Missouri Governor Mike Parson vetoed last session was an omnibus bill centered on public safety, citing a provision giving restitution to wrongfully incarcerated people as a reason why.	3/18/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:43
No-excuse absentee voting begins today in Missouri for the upcoming Municipal Election on April 2.	3/19/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
The Springfield Police Department is out with its 2023 annual report.	3/19/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:50
Juvenile authorities say a 16-year-old boy is facing a new felony charge from the mass shooting at the Kansas City Chiefs' Super Bowl celebration.	3/20/2024	6:31 AM	0:30
Over the last couple of legislative sessions, efforts to legalize sports betting in Missouri have gotten held up in the Senate over disagreements on whether the state should also authorize video lottery terminals.	3/20/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
The no-excuse mail-in voting ballot request deadline is 5 pm today.	3/20/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
Bills to outlaw all child marriages are pending in California, Missouri and South Carolina.	3/21/2024	7:04 AM	0:30
Bills working through both chambers of Missouri's Legislature aim to create tax credits for people investing in early-stage companies.	3/21/2024	7:04 AM	0:45
New proposals for the controversial Sunshine and National business project were set to be the subject of a neighborhood meeting, but now that meeting is off the table for now.	3/21/2024	12:00 PM	1:02

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
The Missouri Supreme Court declined to halt the execution of Brian Dorsey, who is scheduled to die next month for killing his cousin and her husband 18 years ago.	3/21/2024	12:00 PM	0:30
The Arkansas National Guard will send about 40 guardsmen to Texas to support border control efforts along the nation's southern border per Governor Sarah Huckabee Sanders' direction.	3/21/2024	5:30 PM	0:40
In the wake of reports that vandalism, including white nationalist stickers, has been appearing around Springfield in recent days.	3/21/2024 3/22/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:35
Greene County election officials have added another polling place for in-person absentee voting ahead of the April 2 elections.	3/22/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	12:30
The body of missing University of Missouri student and Kickapoo High School graduate Riley Strain was found this morning in the Cumberland River near Nashville.	3/22/2024	12:00 PM	0:35
The Missouri GOP is suing to remove a gubernatorial Candidate with ties to the Ku Klux Klan from the Republican ballot.	3/25/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:25
A third man has been charged with second-degree murder in connection with the shooting during the Kansas City Chiefs' Super Bowl rally.	3/25/2024	7:04 AM	0:25
Springfield City Council will meet tonight with several items on the agenda, including the redevelopment in the historic Commercial Street and Midtown areas.	3/25/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	1:25
Two senate bills that would allow half a million Missourians to get their criminal records automatically sealed had their first public hearing.	3/26/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:44
Springfield City Council considered whether to approve a new Commercial Street redevelopment plan - this one seeking tax breaks through a blight designation.	3/26/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	2:05
Missouri Senate Pro-Tem Caleb Rowden says he is no longer running to become the next secretary of state because he's putting his family first.	3/26/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
This week, the Justice Department announced a civil lawsuit against Springfield landlord Jimmie Bell.	3/27/2024	7:31 AM	0:40
The final two days of Missouri candidate filing brought about last-minute entries to the secretary of state contest.	3/27/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
President Joe Biden prevailed in last weekend's Missouri Democratic Party presidential primary.	3/27/2024	12:00 PM	0:30
The Missouri Senate has passed a bill that prohibits foreign entities from acquiring farmland in the state.	3/27/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:40
Missouri's candidate filing period is in the books.	3/27/2024	12:00 PM	0:30
As a crucial sales tax is set to expire in Springfield, Mayor Ken McClure announced a new citizens commission.	3/27/2024 3/28/2024	5:32 PM 7:04 AM	2:44

Politics/Government/Law	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
ABM Ministries' Lighthouse Christian Academy, a rural Missouri boarding school at the center of abuse allegations, has closed its doors.	3/28/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
Voters in Jackson County will vote on the renewal of a 3/8-cent sales tax for funding of a new downtown ballpark for the Kansas City Royals.	3/28/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:35
Republicans in the Missouri House passed a bill that would place marks on driver's licenses indicating U.S. citizenship.	3/28/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:45
No-excuse absentee voting for the General Municipal Election will be available in-person at the Greene County Elections Center tomorrow.	3/28/2024	5:30 PM	0:40
Science/Technology	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
The director of the Missouri Department of Conservation will retire in June.	1/5/2024 1/6/2024	12:00 PM 7:31 AM	0:35
A beef packing business north of Pleasant Hope has withdrawn its permit application to discharge up to 350,000 gallons of treated water a day into the Pomme de Terre River.	1/6/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:35
The public may now comment on plans to realign a curve on US 160 in Dade County.	1/8/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:25
There will be lane closures as crews work to replace concrete pavement around Battlefield Road and Luster Avenue in Springfield.	1/9/2024	7:31 AM	0:35
The City of Ozark is evaluating its major traffic corridors.	1/9/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	1:55
Winter weather is impacting life in the Ozarks.	1/9/2024	12:00 PM	0:45
The EPA is considering new regulations on PFAS chemicals in drinking water, and City Utilities is taking steps to stay proactive.	1/11/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	1:56
City Utilities says it is taking steps to avoid impacts to customers from the extreme cold that's heading our way.	1/12/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:45
The Joplin Area Transportation Study Organization is seeking comments during a public comment period for amendments to the 2022-2025 Transportation Improvement Program.	1/12/2024	5:30 PM	0:47
The City of Joplin is planning a project to widen and improve 20th Street west of Schifferdecker Avenue.	1/25/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
Changes could be coming soon to the bus system in Springfield.	1/29/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	1:28
After the Ozark Parks and Recreation Department had to remove 24 ash trees due to the emerald ash borer, new trees are being planted.	1/31/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
The Missouri Department of Transportation is seeking public input for proposed changes to Sunshine Street in Springfield.	2/2/2024	7:31 AM	0:49

Science/Technology	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Greene County announced that construction on Phase 1 of the big Kansas Expressway Extension project is almost complete.	2/2/2024	12:00 PM	0:49
Kansas Expressway from Republic Road south to Weaver Road will open to motorists tonight at 6 pm.	2/2/2024	4:45 AM	0:30
The Missouri Department of Transportation is preparing for a $10.7 million project to improve Sunshine Street between Glenstone east to Farm Road 199.	2/5/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:40
In an update Friday morning, the National Weather Service in Springfield reported that drought conditions in the Ozarks region have improved or stayed consistent over the last month.	2/5/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
The Missouri State Fair Foundation is offering competitive grants to young people to exhibit livestock at the state fair.	2/5/2024	7:04 AM	0:30
The City of Joplin began working this week on replacing trees along Main Street, swapping invasive callery pears for ivory silk Japanese lilac and spring snow crabapple trees.	2/6/2024 2/7/2024	12:00 PM 7:04 AM	0:30
Christian County has permanently closed a historic bridge over the Finley River.	2/9/2024	7:04 AM	0:45
The Missouri Department of Agriculture is seeing more mycotoxins in last year's Missouri corn crop.	2/12/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	1:11
The Department of Natural Resources will offer regenerative agriculture workshops this month.	2/14/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	1:00
To celebrate Drinking Water Week, the Missouri Department of Natural Resources has a poster contest for Missouri 5th graders.	2/15/2024 2/16/2024	5:32 PM 7:04 AM	0:30
Next week, agriculture producers will convene for a conference on regenerative practices in Springfield.	2/16/2024	7:04 AM	1:56
The City of Republic is partnering with Drury University architecture students to study the city's Main Street for improvements.	2/16/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:25
In Springfield, the Missouri Department of Transportation has closed Sunset and Crestview Streets east of Glenstone for paving as part of the Glenstone Avenue Safety, Operation, Pedestrian and Pavement Project.	2/20/2024	12:00 PM	0:20
The Missouri Department of Agriculture recently announced changes to animal health requirements for cattle and swine exhibitors at fairs and exhibitions in the state.	2/21/2024	6:31 AM	0:30
The City of Republic is taking steps to secure funding to address decades-long issues with wastewater treatment.	2/22/2024	7:04 AM	1:27
Members of the agriculture community came together for a conference on regenerative farming.	2/23/2024	5:30 PM	1:21
The Missouri Department of Conservation's Sons Creek Conservation Area has had 160 acres donated to it.	2/26/2024	6:31 AM	0:57

Science/Technology	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
Cherry Street in Springfield is closed between Glenstone and Dysart Avenue today and tomorrow for replacement of concrete pavement.	2/26/2024	6:31 AM	0:10
The Missouri Department of Natural Resources' Waste Management Program has issued a construction permit to allow Doty Trash Services to construct a solid waste processing facility in Lawrence County.	2/26/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:40
More than 742,000 households in the Midwest could lose access to the internet unless Congress extends funding that's set to end in May.	2/26/2024	5:30 PM	0:42
Two consultants have been chosen by the Missouri Department of Transportation to lead the I-44 Corridor Study.	2/27/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:49
Lane closures and traffic delays are expected to continue through Saturday on Hearnes Boulevard in Joplin.	2/27/2024	6:31 AM	0:30
There is more than $27 million available for Missouri school districts to address lead in drinking water.	2/28/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
Two wildfires in the Mark Twain National Forest spread quickly on Wednesday.	2/29/2024 3/1/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:30
New AI technology at Mercy is making it easier for employees to find information about their benefits.	3/1/2024	4:47 PM	1:33
Even though the area got a little bit of precipitation overnight, the region remains dry.	3/1/2024	5:30 PM	0:45
Watershed, formerly Watershed Committee of the Ozarks, is celebrating 40 years, and the nonprofit is kicking off a campaign to allow it to do even more to protect water quality and educate the public.	3/4/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	1:36
This week is Severe Weather Preparedness Week in Missouri.	3/4/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:30
An effort to remove invasive tree species in downtown Joplin and replace them with non-invasive trees continues.	3/8/2024	6:31 AM	0:30
The City of Springfield is soliciting bids for rehabilitating the 122-year-old Jefferson Avenue Footbridge.	3/8/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:35
The History Museum on the Square in Springfield is testing out technology to help those with visual impairments and anyone who doesn't speak English to have more access to the facility and its exhibits.	3/13/2024	7:04 AM	1:32
A total solar eclipse is coming to North American on April 8.	3/13/2024	5:30 PM	0:25
Southern Missouri could see severe storms this afternoon and evening.	3/13/2024	12:00 PM 5:30 PM	0:25
Registration is underway for a program in Missouri that's targeting an invasive species of tree.	3/15/2024	7:31 AM	0:45

Science/Technology	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
The Missouri Department of Transportation will host an event for the public to share their thoughts on future improvements to the I-44 corridor.	3/18/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
The City of Springfield is in the very beginning stages of a project to update its biogas production potential at the Noble Hill Sanitary Landfill and Southwest Wastewater Treatment Plant.	3/18/2024	7:04 AM 5:30 PM	1:25
After two wildfires consumed more than 1,000 acres of the Mark Twain National Forest in late February, the U.S. Forest Service underscores the importance in planned burns that kept the fires from spreading further.	3/20/2024	9:45 AM	3:59
The Missouri Department of Natural Resources' Waste Management Program has issued a permit to City Utilities of Springfield to construct and operate the Calhoun Transfer Station solid waste processing facility.	3/21/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:35
The Springfield-Branson National Airport has been awarded $3.5 million from the Federal Aviation Administration to reconstruct the apron at the airport.	3/22/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
Health/Safety	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
CoxHealth hopes changes it's making to its Electronic Health Record will significantly improve the patient experience with its patient portal.	1/5/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:25
Five people were killed in traffic crashes in Missouri during the 2024 New Year's holiday counting period.	1/5/2024	5:30 PM	0:10
The Resolved to Get Involved Campaign from Ozarks Food Harvest is aimed at recruiting volunteers.	1/5/2024 1/6/2024	5:30 PM 7:04 AM	0:45 1:04
Missouri is among several Midwestern states where wastewater is showing elevated levels of COVID-19.	1/6/2024	6:30 AM	0:25
A 61-year-old man with schizophrenia is still missing three weeks after the St. Louis nursing home where he lived abruptly closed.	1/8/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:25
A new tool is being used at Mercy's Orthopedic Hospital in Springfield for patients undergoing total knee replacement.	1/8/2024	7:04 AM	1:26
After missing for more than three weeks, a man with schizophrenia has been found.	1/10/2024	7:31 AM	0:30
CoxHealth has entered into a joint venture with Select Medical to build a new inpatient rehabilitation hospital in the Springfield area.	1/11/2024	6:31 AM	1:14
Twelve nonprofits addressing child abuse and neglect, most in southwest Missouri, have been awarded $670,000.	1/11/2024	6:31 AM	0:30
The Missouri State Highway Patrol's Commercial Vehicle Enforcement Division is taking part in a five-day Human Trafficking Awareness initiative through today.	1/12/2024	7:30 PM	1:00

Health/Safety	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
As temperatures drop today and wind chills fall as low as 21 below this weekend, anyone who must be outside for long stretches will be at risk for hypothermia.	1/12/2024	12:00 PM	1:10
A new campaign is underway from the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services to help Missourians become healthier.	1/18/2024	7:04 AM	1:18
The Springfield-Greene County Health Department will temporarily move some services to the Cox Medical Tower, as it renovates its own building.	1/18/2024	7:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:49
The Every One Counts Campaign is underway in three area counties to get an idea of how many people are without permanent housing.	1/24/2024	7:04 AM	1:29
In its latest state-of-tobacco report, the American Lung Association gives Missouri "F" grades for programs amid at curbing smoking and reducing second-hand smoke.	1/24/2024	5:30 PM	0:45
For the second year in a row, the Missouri Veterans Commission has been awarded a federal grant to help retain nurses at its seven Veterans Homes.	1/24/2024	5:30 PM	0:45
A newly published statewide plan in Missouri is aimed at lowering the risk of suicide in families and communities.	1/30/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
Christian County Homeless Alliance will host a fundraiser to help those experiencing homelessness in Christian County.	2/2/2024	4:45 PM	4:00
It's National Burn Awareness Week, and the focus this year is preventing burn injuries caused by flammable liquids like cooking oil and gasoline.	2/5/2024 2/6/2024	5:30 PM 7:31 AM	1:10
Roadway fatalities in Missouri declined last year for the first time since 2019.	2/5/2024 2/6/2024	5:30 PM 6:31 AM	0:45
Missouri's Summer Food Program is one way the state is working to fight childhood hunger.	2/8/2024	6:31 AM	0:40
ARC of the Ozarks is providing more services to people with disabilities now that its new Autism and Neurodevelopment Center in Springfield is open.	2/12/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	1:13
A technique being used at Barnes-Jewish Hospital is allowing previously discarded livers to be transplanted into patients.	2/14/2024	7:31 AM 7:45 AM	1:20 4:57
David Argueta, president of Mercy Springfield Communities, was recently named to two hospital boards.	2/15/2024	7:31 AM 12:00 PM	1:08
The Springfield-Greene County Office of Emergency Management announced this week that it will host a Community Emergency Response Team Basic Academy in April.	2/21/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:20
February is Earthquake Preparedness Month in Missouri - a time when anyone who might be affected by a major earthquake in the New Madrid Seismic Zone is encouraged to learn more.	2/26/2024	7:04 AM	2:04
The Springfield-Greene County Health Department is moving temporarily, and some services will not be available this week.	2/26/2024	5:30 PM	0:50

Health/Safety	Air Date(s)	Time(s)	Duration
APO has decades of experience fighting epidemics of stigmatized diseases in the Ozarks, and their latest mission is a new front on the war on opioids and substance abuse.	2/28/2024	7:04 AM 5:32 PM	2:36
The Alliance for Healthcare Education has its first executive director - Shallina Goodnight.	3/4/2024	6:31 AM	0:25
The latest Check Out Hunger campaign to raise money for Ozarks Food Harvest brought in nearly $48,000.	3/4/2024	6:31 AM 5:30 PM	0:30
The Springfield Police Department has issued an endangered person advisory for an 11-year-old boy.	3/5/2024	7:31 AM	0:20
Missourians say medical debt is affecting both their mental and physical health, according to the Missouri Foundation for Health.	3/7/2024	7:04 AM 12:00 PM	0:45
The Ozark School District has a new storm shelter.	3/11/2024 3/12/2024	12:00 PM 6:31 AM	0:30
Ozarks Food Harvest recognized volunteer Don Landon, 93, for contributing 2,000 hours of service.	3/13/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
The Missouri Rural Health Association published a Needs Assessment Report earlier this year and found barriers to healthcare in rural Missouri.	3/14/2024	7:31 AM 4:44 PM	1:34
Six emergency medical districts in Missouri will soon distribute an opioid addition medication as part of a state-funded pilot program.	3/14/2024	5:30 PM	0:40
The Springfield Police Department is asking for the public's help in finding an endangered missing person.	3/15/2024	6:31 AM	0:30
Last November, CoxHealth and Mercy announced a partnership to expand pediatric services in the region, but now that partnership is over.	3/19/2024 3/20/2024	5:30 PM 7:04 AM	1:58
A new dashboard available through the state is designed to help families find bed availability in long-term care facilities in Missouri.	3/20/2024	6:31 AM 12:00 PM	0:40
A kayaker from Michigan died and two other people are missing after an outing on Stockton Lake.	3/22/2024	6:31 AM 7:31 AM	0:30
Mercy Springfield Communities announced it has chosen Children's Mercy Kansas City to elevate pediatric care in southwest Missouri.	3/22/2024	7:31 AM	0:40
A donation from a local egg producer will help Ozarks Food Harvest feed families facing hunger in the Ozarks.	3/25/2024	5:30 PM	0:30
A Missouri state agency says a jump in measles cases nationwide shows the need to vaccinate kids against the illness.	3/25/2024 3/26/2024	5:30 PM 7:31 AM	1:45
The Jordan Valley Community Health Center Board of Directors has announced that Dr. Matthew Stinson will be the new president and CEO.	3/27/2024	6:31 AM 7:04 AM	0:45
The Salvation Army is urging the community to donate to its food pantry.	3/28/2024	5:30 PM	0:30