

MINNESOTA PUBLIC RADIO NEWS AND INFORMATION SERVICE
FCC QUARTERLY PROGRAMMING REPORT OF OCTOBER — DECEMBER, 2017
 KNCM~KNSEK~KNBJ~KBPN~WIRN~WSCR~KNSR~KLNI~WIRC~ KNWF~WLSN~KGRP
 WINH~WGGL~KITF~ KXLC~KNOW~KCCD~KRFI~KZSE~KRXW~KAUR~KNGA~KNTN~KNSW

Start Time	Duration min: sec	Issue Addressed	Title and Narrative
			MONDAY OCTOBER 2, 2017
9:06	14:22	Crime	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie: Tragedy in Las Vegas, and gun politics in America. Kerri spoke with Ken Rudin and Bruce Shapiro, Exec. Dir. of the Dart Center for Journalism and Trauma at Columbia University.
9:20	25:22	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why media law matters to all Americans, not just journalists and sources. Kerri spoke with the NY Times' lawyer, deputy general counsel David McCraw, about his letter in response to Trump's threat to sue for libel in the wake of the Times story about the two women who said they had been groped by now-President Trump and what it means to defend free of speech in today's political climate.
11:06	54:00	Crime	MPR News with Tom Weber: National coverage of the mass shooting in Las Vegas, NV
12:06	54:00	National Government	MPR News Presents: The Supreme court: the 'least dangerous' branch of government? Harvard law and history professor Annette Gordon-Read is a Pulitzer Prize-winning author and this hour in a Chautauqua Lecture she explores the origins, and th evolution, of the nation's highest court.
			TUESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 2017
9:06	14:00	Crime	MPR News with Kerri Miller: When do we call it terrorism? The Las Vegas shooting has reignited a debate abut when an incident should and should not be labeled an act of terror. Washington Post senior political reporter Aaron Blake weighs in.
9:20	28:41	Social Psychology	MPR News with Kerri Miller: On using meditation to open doors in our everyday lives. In his new book, "Why Buddhism is True," Robert Wright, a visiting professor of science and religion at Union Theological Seminary, explores the relationship between science and meditation and why meditating can help us see the world more clearly.
11:06	15:14	Agriculture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Peterson on Farm bill: No extra dollars to boost safety net. U.S. Rep. Collin Peterson says the 2018 Farm Bill needs an improved safety net for farmers, but money is tight.
11:21	33:05	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Individual rates will be stable in MN in 2018, but what about MinnesotaCare? MPR reporter Mark Zdechlik gave Tom an overview, then state Sens. Tony Lourey, DFL-Kerrick, and Jim Abeler, R-Anoka discussed the uncertain fate of MinnesotaCare with the Trump administration.
12:06	54:00	Crime	MPR News Presents: Gabrielle Giffords and Mark Kelly on stopping gun violence. Former congresswoman Giffords and husband Mark Kelly founded an organization to reduce gun violence, called "Americans for Responsible Solutions."

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 4, 2017
9:06	16:46	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Wisconsin gerrymandering and the future of American elections. The Supreme Court is back in session and the justices are hearing a case on gerrymandering in WI. Guest: Boston Herald chief Washington reporter Kimberly Atkins is guest.
9:22	30:15	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The re-segregation of American schools. Nikole Hannah-Jones has watched the evolution of segregation in schools as a student, parent and reporter. She sees segregation returning.
11:06	30:26	Economics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Is Minnesota a contender for the next Amazon headquarters? Gov. Dayton is working with Greater MSP CEO Michael Langley and DEED Commissioner to review all proposals on the table. DEED Comm. Shawntera Hardy joined the show to talk about the proposal.
11:36	18:46	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: With uncertain future, 'Dreamers' face a deadline. Kara Lynum, lawyer, talked about the importance of the Thursday (10/5) deadline for DACA young people to get a work permit, a social security number, driver's license and even loans for houses.
12:06	54:00	Health Care	MPR News Presents: Intelligence Squared debate: Is the U.S. health care system terminally broken? Three doctors and a public health expert debate the motion, recorded in Rochester at the Mayo Clinic Ctr for Innovation.
THURSDAY OCTOBER 5, 2017
9:06	45:09	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Presidential leadership in tragedy. Princeton's Chair of the Center for African American Studies, Eddie Glaude, and the Dir. Emeritus of the H. Hoover Pres. Library, Timothy Walch, look back at great presidential speeches in times of national mourning.
11:06	32:00	Crime	MPR News with Tom Weber: What happens if you accidentally take someone else's life? In a recent issue of The New Yorker, Alice Gregory wrote a compelling piece about the lifelong pain that comes with accidentally killing someone. It can happen in a car accident, a boat disaster or by momentarily looking away from a child.
11:39	16:45	Environment	MPR News with Tom Weber: Is Gov. Dayton's proposal for clean water by 2025 a pipe dream? Gov. Dayton hopes legislators will back his proposals to improve MN's water quality 25 percent by 2025. He has spoken in 10 town hall meetings about this and what happens next.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: APM Special Report: 'Vietnam and the Presidency.' Some of the nation's foremost historians, journalists, veterans and presidential advisers were convened at the JFK Presidential Library in Boston to discuss the lessons and legacy of the Vietnam War.
FRIDAY OCTOBER 6, 2017
9:06	51:12	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: The politics of American's guns. Pools suggest Americans support stricter gun control laws, but gun legislation doesn't move forward in Washington D.D. Why? Guests: Robert Spitzer: of SUNY-Courland and author of "Guns Across America; Brian Levin, Dir. of the Study of Hate and Extremism at California State University, San Bernardino; Adam Winkler, UCLA Law Professor and author of "Gunfight: The Battle over the Right to Bear Arms in America."

11:06	14:34	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: On infrastructure, now what? Trump's turn away from public-private model brings uncertainty. With private money at a record level and projects ready to go, the President decides the partnerships are "more trouble than they're worth," leaving states to make their own deals with investors and to hope for federal funding.
11:20	35:37	Technology	MPR News with Tom Weber: The fallout of the Equifax data breach. Tom spoke with NPR's Chris Arnold and U of M Ext. Educator Sharon Powell about the Equifax breach and what people should do now.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Jacqueline Woodson 'Talking Volumes.' A conversation with Jacqueline Woodson, Author of "Another Brooklyn" and "Brown Girl Dreaming."
MONDAY OCTOBER 9, 2017
9:06	34:42	Mechanics/Journalism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How does the American press look to journalists from other countries? Kerri spoke to Ekaterina Ivashenko (Russian news), and Eltaf Najafizada Afghanistan-based reporter for Bloomberg News about how the American media looks to journalists from other countries.
9:40	14:01	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie: Gun control, Harvey Weinstein and 'World War III.' Ken Rudin discussed gun control legislation, the political hypocrisy or newsmakers like Harvey Weinstein and Rep. Tim Murphy, and Sen. Bab Corker's comment that President Trump's behavior could set America "on the path to WWII."
11:06	29:32	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Should agriculture be taught in schools.? MPR reporter Elizabeth Dunbar joined the program to discuss how some people struggle to connect the food on their plate to the farm where it was produced.
11:35	20:17	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota State's interim chancellor on the system's role in a new economy. Devinder Malhotra is the interim chancellor of Minnesota State, a system of 30 community and technical colleges and 7 universities that serves more than 350,000 students around the state.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: Truth, Politics and Power: The Politics of Disaster. Neal Conan explores the role of the Army Corps of Engineers, the national flood insurance program, and the secret history of FEMA.
TUESDAY OCTOBER 10, 2017
9:06	31:24	Social Relationships	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Fenty Beauty, Dove and colorism in the cosmetics industry. Fenty Beauty is Rihanna's new makeup line. It has 40 shades of foundation and darker shades quickly sold out. Jasmine Harris (Sociology at Ursinus College) and Natalie Bullock Brown, (St. Augustine's University) discuss beauty and women of color.
9:37	16:51	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op Ed: Tax cuts don't mean economic growth. Bruce Bartlett, domestic policy adviser to Pres. Reagan, says the gospel of trickle-down growth just doesn't hold up.
11:06	31:35	Discrimination	MPR News with Tom Weber: 20 years later, Beverly Daniel Tatum asks again: 'Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria?' Tatum discusses her new book and what is happening in our schools.

11:37	17:50	Environment	MPR News with Tom Weber: Environmental groups denounce Trump override of climate plan. Michael Noble, executive director of Fresh energy, discussed what this news means for Minnesota.
12:06	54:00	Education	MPR News Presents: Is there free speech on college campuses? Joanna Williams is a British academic who says there is less freedom of speech on college campuses than in society at large and is troubled by the desire of many students to be protected from ideas they find uncomfortable. She spoke at the Inst. For Freedom and Community at St. Olaf College in Northfield. She teaches at the University of Kent in the U.K.
WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 11, 2017
9:06	49:35	Social Relationships	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 11 ways to talk politics with someone who disagrees. Kerri spoke with family social science professor Bill Doherty about his experiments in fostering dialogue with members of opposing political tribes.
11:06	15:26	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Listen: What's it like to be a chess master? Tom talked with Wesley so, Minnetonka chess grandmaster who last month claimed the title of U.S. chess champion.
11:21	17:18	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Percy, the trucker cat: Lost and found. Percy the cat, hid under his owner's semi for 400 miles. Owner Paul Robertson, adopted Percy from Twin Cities animal shelter and was devastated when he thought his cat was lost.
11:38	14:58	Language/Etymology	MPR News with Tom Weber: A look at how to try to save a language. Tom spoke with Twin Cities writer and artist Vincent Moniz Jr., who is one of the people trying to keep the Mandan language, Nu'eta, alive.
12:06	54:00	American History	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: American values embodied in the Constitution. TV producer Norman Lear and Khizr Khan, an American citizen from Pakistan talk about the American Values embodied in the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence.
THURSDAY OCTOBER 12, 2017
9:06	52:53	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Flyover: The myth of a 'bootstraps' America. Guests: Stephen Henderson, Detroit Free Press and WDET radio host and Linda Tirado, Author: "Hand to Mouth: Living in Bootstrap America." Grit, determination and hard work is not enough. You need money!
11:06	42:24	Medicine	MPR News with Tom Weber: Author: How the Mall of America could become 'as toxic and uninhabitable as Chernobyl'. Guest Michael Osterholm, former state epidemiologist for Minn. Discusses Mark Olshaker's new book, "Deadliest Enemy: Our War Against Killer Germs."
12:06	54:00	American History	MPR News Presents: Intelligence Squared debate: Is Western democracy in danger? Do populist and nationalist uprising signal Western democracy's certain decline? For: Bernard-Henri Levy, French philosopher and journalist and Yascha Mounk, Lecturer, Harvard University and senior fellow at New America. Against: Clive Crook, columnist for Bloomberg View and Kori Schake, research fellow at the Hoover Institution.

FRIDAY OCTOBER 13, 2017
9:06	48:10	Medicine	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: “What Patients say, What Doctors Hear.” Guest Renee Crichlow, M.S., at University of Minn. Family medicine department and teaching better communication between doctors and their patients.
11:06	46:13	Social Relationships	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: Minnesota’s Puerto Rican Community responds. Panelists discuss race, identity, social justice and culture in a region grappling with demographic changes. Panelists: Hlee Le, a media artist; Don Eubanks, Assist. Prof. at Metropolitan State Univ.; Anthony Galloway, a race equity advocate in the west metro; Aiyana Sol Machado, Minn. Alliance of Comm. For Puerto Rico.
11:52	5:06	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota Joins lawsuit over Trump health payments. State Attorney General Lori Swanson said Minn. Will join other states in a lawsuit aimed at protecting federal health care subsidies for insurance companies.
12:06	54:00	American History	MPR News Presents: APM Reports: ‘Historically Black’ series. Objects hold history. They’re evocative of stories stamped in time. Objects brought to the Smithsonian’s National Museum of African American History and Culture, tell stories
MONDAY OCTOBER 16, 2017
9:06	15:00	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the President’s recent executive actions, tax reform and what Steve Bannon meant when he declared “a season of war against the GOP establishment”
9:21	27:50	Science	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: Why most of your ideas about aliens are probably wrong. Kerri spoke with Jim Al-Khalili, the editor of “Aliens: The World’s Leading Scientists on the Search for Extraterrestrial Life” for the latest science on the quest for life off planet earth.
11:06	22:02	People & places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Somalia truck bombing toll over 300, scores remain missing. A Bloomington, MN father of 3 was killed. He had returned to his native country hoping to help his countrymen.
11:28	18:35	Social Relationships	MPR News with Tom Weber: Flood of ‘Me Too’ brings attention to sexual harassment and assault. Tom talked to Teri Walker McLaughlin, Exe. Dir. of the MN Coalition against Sexual Assault and Gavin Grivna, Assist. Dir. of the U of M’s Aurora Center for Advocacy & Education about fighting sexual assault and harassment in MN.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: The creative genius of Leonardo da Vinci. Biographer Walter Isaacson talks about his new book on Leonardo da Vinci, the ultimate Renaissance man.
TUESDAY OCTOBER 17, 2017
9:06	33:49	Employment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Life on the Road. Finn Murphy speaks about his life on the road as a long-haul trucker and his new memoir, “The Long-Haul.” Rebroadcast: membership drive.
11:06	51:05	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Homecoming: Experiences of Korean-American adoptees who returned to Korea to live. Kaomi Goetz is an American journalist and a Korean-American adoptee who spoke to Tom about her research into the legacy of the Korean international adoption program.

12:06	54:00	Civil Right	MPR News Presents: Walter Mondale on the struggle for civil rights. The struggle to pass the 1964 Civil Rights Act is the focus of a Tony Award-winning play on stage this month at the History Theater in Downtown St. Paul, called, 'All the Way.'
WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 18, 2017
9:06	48:10	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Dina....."Refugee," her novel. Author interview
11:06	36:12	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rebroadcast of Tom's interview with Louie Anderson and His winning an Emmy for the fictional portrayal of his mother who raised 11 kids whose ages ranged two decades apart, in a St. Paul housing project.
12:06	54:00	Prejudice	MPR News Presents: Anti-Semitism in Minneapolis history. In the 1930's and 40's, Minneapolis had the dubious distinction of being one of the most anti-Semitic cities in America. MPR producers John Biewen and Beth Friend explored the unsavory part of MN past in a documentary titled, "No Jews Allowed."
THURSDAY OCTOBER 19, 2017
9:06	47:54	Discrimination	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to handle workplace sexual harassment. Susan Chira told Kerri Miller, "Sexual harassment is really about power as much as it is about sex, if not more." Sheerine Alemzadeh, an attorney and co-founder of Healing to Action, an organization that works to end gender violence also spoke.
11:06	16:12	International Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota Somali community working to help Mogadishu Bombing victims. Minnesota's large Somali community are grieving those lost in the recent bombing in Mogadishu and the death of a local man. Guest: State Rep. Ilhan Omar, DFLMinneapolis; her husband Ahmed Hirsi, who was there at the time; Mohamed Omar, Exec. Dir. of the Dar Al-Farooq Center in Bloomington.
11:22	33:31	Discrimination	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota's Gretchen Carlson on how to confront, report and end sexual harassment. Anoka native Gretchen Carlson, (Miss America 1989,) sued Fox for sexual harassment, discussed her new book, "Be Fierce," which offers practical advice for women dealing with workplace harassment.
12:06	54:00	Education	MPR News Presents: Schools struggle to hold on to teachers they need. This APM Reports documentary "Keeping Teachers" show that black men and teachers in rural areas are in especially short supply.
FRIDAY OCTOBER 20, 2017
9:06	51:09	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Closing the gender gap in STEM. The problem of failing to equally recognize women for their work is pervasive enough that it has its own name: The Matilda Effect. "Girls and women get messages that they aren't expected to be as good as men and boys at science and math," said U of W River Falls physics Prof. Rellen Hardtke.
11:06	4:20	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: What does it mean to live a good life, the Ojibwe way? Linda LeGrade Grover's new essay collection was inspired by her 75 th grandchild. She writes about the importance of the Ojibwe connection between the generations and the land.
11:10	42:00	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Sheila E. opens up about her new album, her memories of Prince and healing in Minneapolis. Sheila E. visited the Current studio to talk with tom and Andrea Swensson about her new album, "Iconic: Message 4 America."

12:06	54:00	Immigration	MPR News Presents: APM reports: College dreamers in Trump's America. Trump's ending a program that allowed some young, undocumented immigrants to stay and work in the US means the some, the end of a dream of going to college.
MONDAY OCTOBER 23, 2017
9:06	18:22	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie on Gold Star families, Bush's speech and tax reform.
9:25	29:29	Social Relations	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What we can learn about our parents at the end of their lives. In her latest book, "Never Coming Back," Alison McGhee writes about the complex and delicate process of truly understanding who your parents are.
11:06	32:17	Internet	MPR News with Tom Weber: Is Sharing caring? What parents should consider about children's online. privacy. Susan Walker, Dir. of Parent and Family Education at the U of M, and Linnette Attai, founder of PlayWell LLC, offered practical tips for parents to consider when it comes to posting about their children.
11:39	15:57	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Party like it's 1992? The last Mpls. Super Bowl show didn't age well. After Justin Timberlake announced he will perform at Superbowl LII, Tom revisited another Superbowl show 25 yrs earlier.
12:06	54:00	Education	MPR News Presents: History shows slavery helped build many U.S. colleges and Universities. As more schools begin to confront their participation in slavery, they also consider how to make amends.
TUESDAY OCTOBER 24, 2017
9:06	10:54	Discrimination	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-Ed: Sexism and the political left. Journalist James Kirchick (in a recent op-ed for the Daily Beast) argues the disgraced producer is one of many powerful men whose left-leaning politics have "Coexisted harmoniously" with misogyny.
9:11	31:37	Employment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'She-canic' Patrice Banks on making room for women at the auto shop. How one woman went from being a self-described 'auto airhead' to running her own shop.
11:06	52:00	Mechanics of journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Joshua Johnson on journalism in tumultuous times. Tom spoke with 1A host Joshua Johnson.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: Live at noon: Ari Melber on "Politics Governing and the Law." Lawyer and MSNBC legal correspondent Ari Melber will speak at a live Westminster Town Hall Forum.
WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 25 2017
9:06	41:35	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How medical professionals can bring up weight, without 'fat-shaming.' Kerri talked to patient advocate Patricia Nece and physician William Dietz about how to have productive and compassionate conversations about weight.
11:06	14:42	Economy	MPR News with Tom Weber: What do sun Country Baggage changes mean for passengers? Guest Robert Mann, aviation consultant, discussed what Sun country's announced changes to its fee structure means for passengers.
11:23	29:37	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Michele Norris on race and cultural identity. Michele Norris, MN native and former NPR host on race and cultural identity since the election of Pres. Trump, discusses "The Race Card Project."

12:06	54:00	Family Life	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Amy Tan’s “Where the Past Begins.” Amy talks with Kerri Miller about her new book about her parents.
THURSDAY OCTOBER 26, 2017
9:06	48:30	Discrimination	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What men need to know about sexual harassment. Kerri spoke to anthropologist Jose Santos, who researches masculinity, and Robin Schooling, a human resources expert, about how people can start to change the culture surrounding harassment.
11:06	8:26	Public Policy	MPR News with Tom Weber: What’s the future of flood diversion in Fargo-Moorhead? Gov. Mark Dayton continues his efforts to salvage a flood control project for the Fargo-Moorhead area. Guest MPR’s Fargo-Moorhead correspondent gave update on the project.
11:15	27:47	Social Relations	MPR News with Tom Weber: This former Catholic is trying to clear up misconceptions about Islam. John Emery is a U.S. Army veteran—and former Catholic—who travels around MN speaking about the cultural similarities between Muslims and non-Muslims. He is a convert to Islam and speaks for the Islamic Resource Group.
11:45	14:11	Nature/Wild Life	MPR News with Tom Weber: The future of Minnesota’s only national park. Bob DeGross, Superintendent of Voyageurs National Park, talked about his first year on the job and the future of Voyageurs.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: Truth Politics and Power: Gun rights and gun control. As the nation struggles with the mass shooting in Las Vegas, host Neal Conan delves into the history of the debate between gun rights and gun control with UCLA Constitutional Law Specialist Adam Winkler.
FRIDAY OCTOBER 27, 2017
9:06	51:57	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: The First Amendment on college campuses. Guests Danielle Allen, Government prof. at Harvard University; Peter Berkowitz, senior fellow at the Hoover Inst.; and Brian Rosenberg, President of Macalester College discuss freedom of speech on college campuses.
11:06	50:36	Social Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: Why do most Americans feel they are discriminated against? This is a look at a poll by NPR that examines Americans experience of discrimination. Panelists: Hlee Lee, media artist; Don Eubanks, Metropolitan State U. assistant professor; Anthony Galloway, owner of Umoja Consulting; Luz Maria Frias, President and CEO of YWCA-MN.
12:06	54:00	American History	MPR News Presents: Why LBJ couldn’t, or wouldn’t, extricate America from the Vietnam War. The documentary “LBJ’s War” features archival audio of Pres. Johnson and others which shows he and others knew was unwinnable.
MONDAY OCTOBER 30, 2017
9:06	17:58	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie on Manafort indictment. Ken speaks to the Paul Manafort and Rick Gates charged with “conspiracy against the U.S.”
9:21	30:27	Terrorism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Will there be an end of Terrorism. Robin Wright, a journalist and joint fellow at the US Institute of Peace and the Woodrow Wilson International Ctr for Scholars, explores this question.

11:06	54:00	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minneapolis candidates for mayor spar on housing issues. MPR's MN Mayoral Forum: Candidates are Ray Dehn, Jacob Frey, tom Hoch, Betsy Hodges, Nekima Levy-Pounds.
12:06	54:00	State Politics	MPR News Presents: MPR New Minneapolis Mayoral Forum: Extension of Tom Weber hour
TUESDAY OCTOBER 31, 2017
9:06	19:25	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What to expect as ACA open enrollment begins. Stephani Becker, senior policy specialist at the Sargent Shriver National Center on Poverty Law, about what the Trump changes to the ACA mean for consumers shopping for an insurance plan.
9:25	26:34	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The 'Afterglow' that pets leave behind. In her new memoir "Afterglow," the poet Eileen Myles recounts life with Rosie, a dog Myles adopted in 1990. Myles uses their relationship to explore spirituality, mortality and love.
11:06	20:53	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: MNsure open enrollment kicks off this week. MNsure's CEO, Allison O'Toole, joined the program to answer questions about open enrollment and what has changed with the Trump administration.
11:30	28:22	Crime	MPR News with Tom Weber: How criminalizing sex work can make people unsafe. One sex worker explained why she wants the public's social and legal views of her industry to change so that workers can be safe.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: What should we do about confederate monuments? Two University of St. Thomas deans took up the issue as part of the university's "Hot Topics: Cool Talk" series.
WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 1, 2017
9:06	12:37	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Trump-Russia probe 101. Euan Kerr filled in for Kerri Miller and spoke to Atlanta's David Graham about what next with Robert Mueller's investigation.
9:22	35:49	People & Places	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The life and legacy of the 'lightning rod' Judge Miles Lord. Euan Kerr filled in for Kerri Miller and spoke to Roberta Walburn, who worked for Lord as a law clerk and recently wrote a book about his life and political influence titled: "Miles Lord: The Maverick Judge Who Brought the Corporate America to Justice."
11:06	31:09	National Government	MPR News with Tom Weber: Should the government give everyone a basic income? Finland is experimenting with giving all citizens, employed or not, a flat monthly sum to cover basic needs...not strings, or special conditions. Tom invited listeners to comment.
11:40	17:51	Resources	MPR News with Tom Weber: Local nurse calls for more aid to Puerto Rico. Lindsey Smith, a nurse based in Savage, MN used her vacation time to help treat residents who have lost everything in hurricane that devastated the island. Rep. Melisa Franzen, DFL-Edina joined in.
12:06	54:00	Sports	MPR News Presents: Intelligence Squared debate: Pay College athletes. Debaters for the motion: Joe Nocera, columnist at the Bloomberg View and Andy Schwarz, economist and partner at OSKR. Debaters against: Christine Brennan, sports columnist at USA Today and Len Elmore, Attorney and former All-American college basketball player and NBA player.

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 2, 2017
9:06	12:34	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Would a merit-based visa system make the U.D. Safer? Trump wants to make immigration harder to make America safer. Senior MPR producer Stephanie Curtis asked Stephen Legomsky if this change would make America safer. Legomsky is the former chief counsel fo the UD Citizenship and Immigration Services for the Dept. Of Homeland Security.
9:21	36:45	Sports	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The secret sauce behind the best teams isn't what you think. Senior MPR Producer Steph Curtis talked to The Wall Street Journal's founding sports editor, Sam Walker, about his book "The Captain Class." Which he believes is the most important factor in a sports team's success.
11:06	105:11	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: St. Paul mayor candidates draw distinctions, address critics. Ton hosts 2-hour debate with Melvin Carter, Elizabeth Dickinson, Tom Goldstein, Pat Harris and Dai Thao.
12:06	54:00	State Politics	MPR News Presents: continuation of the St. Paul Mayor candidates' debate with Tom Weber
FRIDAY NOVEMBER 3, 2017
9:06	52:14	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Read beyond your comfort zone: titles to stretch your mind. Kerri talks to Anitra Budd, writer and visiting assistant professor at Macalester College; Sarah Park Dahlen, assoc. Professor of library and information science at St. Catherine Univ.; Matt Keliher, manager at Subtext Bookstore in downtown St. Paul talk about books to read outside your comfort zone.
11:06	17:41	Nature/Wild Life	MPR News with Tom Weber: As hunting season opens; Minnesota Wildlife officials ponder future of deer. MN Dept. of Natural Resources is in the process of creating a statewide deer management plan. This will go beyond the annual hunt.
11:24	32:21		MPR News with Tom Weber: Life after lockup: An inmate's first year out. Elizer Darris spoke about his first year out of prison with his mentor, Shane Price and host Tom Weber.
12:06	54:00	Health	MPR News Presents: National Press Club: FDA Chief Dr. Scott Gottlieb. Gottlieb discussed the opioid crisis in America, Vaccine safety and other concerns.
MONDAY NOVEMBER 6, 2017
9:06	33:50	Economics/Energy	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How the energy market influences American politics. Guest host Chris Farrell spoke to Harvard professor and energy expert Meghan O'Sullivan about her new book, "Windfall: How the New Energy Abundance upends Global Politics and Strengthens American's Power."
10:06	15:07	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin discussed the possibility of new gun control legislation following Sunday's mass shooting at a Texas church and the tax cut proposal recently unveiled by House Republicans.
11:06	11:33	Terrorism	MPR News with Tom Weber: More news about the mass shootings in Texas
11:20	38:40	Medicine	MPR News with Tom Weber: HCMC experiments with new ways to detect and treat brain injuries. The Brain Injury Research Lab at Hennepin County Medical Center is studying better ways to detect and treat brain injuries. Tom spoke to the lab's leader, neurosurgeon Dr. Uzma Samadani, about her team's latest findings.

12:06	54:00	Health	MPR News Presents: Live National Press Club: VA Secretary Dr. David Shulkin. VA Secretary answers questions about how he is trying to improve the VA medical system and other services for veterans. He is the only holdover from the Obama Administration.
TUESDAY NOVEMBER 7 2017
9:06	18:32	Mental Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Public perception of mass violence and mental illness often misguided. Jonathan Metzl, Dir. of the Ctr. For Medicine Health and Society at Vanderbilt Univ. talked about gun violence, mental health and public perception. Per a Vanderbilt study, fewer than 5% of fatal shootings in the US were committed by people diagnosed with mental illness.
9:24	30:02	Nature	MPR News with Kerri Miller: A look inside the beautiful, bizarre world of jellyfish. Science writer Juli Berwald talked about the mysterious, ethereal organism she writes about in her book, “Spineless: the Science of Jellyfish and the Art of Growing a Backbone.”
11:06	11:40	MN History	MPR News with Tom Weber: The man who was mayor of Minneapolis for just one day. Dick Erdall held the seat after the city’s elected mayor resigned early. Erdall was the last Republican to be mayor of Minneapolis (12/31/73) because of a blip at New Year’s.
11:24	33:21	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: From slaughterhouse to bus depot to rock club: The history of First Ave. Longtime Star Tribune music writer and critic Chris Riemenschneider has captured the nightclub’s history in a new book: “First Avenue.” An session of reminiscing.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: An election day look back at our founders’ disagreements. Andrew Shankman (Rutgers University history professor), explains the political, economic and constitutional ideas of Alexander Hamilton, Thomas Jefferson and James Madison.
WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 8, 2017
9:06	48:36	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: American’s opioid crisis: what health care providers can do better. Kerri spoke to tow health care practitioners involved with a new report recommending urgent action on this crisis: Pat Gleason and Andrew Kolodny.
11:06	13:34	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: U. of W regents to vote on restructuring plan. The plan would merge the two-year institutions to address declining enrollment. Karen Herzog, a Milwaukee Journal Sentinel discussed how the change would affect students and the University of Wisconsin system.
11:34	22:36	Racism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Are racial economic gaps getting worse? Guests Steven Belton, Pres. And CEO of the MN Urban League, and Amalia Moreno Damgaard, writer, chef and founder of the Amalia LLC, spoke about the economic crisis facing communities of color in the Twin Cities which is ranked the second worst city in the U.S. for racial disparities.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: The life of Catholic social activist Dorothy Day. A documentary produced by David Freudberg for the Humankind series, in association with WGBH Boston tells the story of journalist and social activist Dorothy Day who established soup kitchens and housing in the Great Depression of the 1930’s.

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 9, 2017
9:06	48:11	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to protect yourself from infection when you go to the hospital. Dr. Dimitri Drekonja, Assoc. Prof. of Medicine at U of M and Dr. Arjun Srinivasan, Assoc. Dir. for Healthcare-Associated Infection Prevention Programs at the DCD discussed the best practices.
11:06	49:18	Sexism	MPR News with Tom Weber: theater companies face unique challenges dealing with sexual harassment and assault. MPR News guest host Marianne Combs looked at the unique circumstances that make reporting sexual assault in the world of theater difficult. She spoke with performer Hannah Wydeven from Fair Play, an organization working for gender inclusive improv community in the Twin Cities; MPR News reporter Catharine Richert, who has covered sexual harassment allegations at the Rochester Civic theatre and Caroline Palmer, public and legal affairs manager at MN Coalition Against Sexual Assault.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Ron Chernow on Ulysses S. Grant and the reason for the Civil War. Features Kerri Miller's "Talking Volumes" interview with Pulitzer Prize-winning author Ron Chernow.
FRIDAY NOVEMBER 10, 2017
10:06	50:40	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: What does party loyalty mean today? Guests to discuss this questions were: Kathryn Pearson, Assoc. Prof. of Political Science at the Un of M.; Marissa Luna, communications Director for Alliance for a Better MN; Annette Meeks, a conservative and Founder and CEO of the Freedom Foundation of MN.
11:06	15:06	Native Americans	MPR News with Tom Weber: North Dakota Sen. Heitkamp on 'Savanna's Act' Tom spoke with the Senator about her legislation to address the problem of missing and murdered Native American women and girls. "Savanna's Act," is named after Savanna LaFontaine-Greywind, a native woman from Fargo who was 8 mos. Pregnant when she was murdered.
11:20	8:34	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Signs reading 'It's OK to be white' posted at several U.S. campuses. Last week, students and staff at Concordia College in Moorhead found several signs saying, "It's OK to be white." Tom spoke with William Craft, the president of Concordia College about these signs and how the school is reacting.
11:33	26:13	Sexism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Allegations of sexual misconduct build at the Minnesota Capitol. Women have accused Rep. Tony Cornish, R-Vernon Ctr, and Sen. Dan Schoen, DFL-St. Paul Park, of sexual harassment. Tom spoke to Briana Bierschbach from MinnPost and Patrick Coolican from the Star Tribune.
12:06	54:00	National Security	MPR News Presents: Former National Security Advisor on US role in the world. A conversation with President Obama's National Security Advisor Tom Donilon and former Vice President and Ambassador to Japan, Walter Mondale.
MONDAY NOVEMBER 13, 2017
9:06	20:00	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie on Roy Moore, Elections. Ken Rudin discussed sexual misconduct allegations against Republican Candidate Roy Moore and last week's elections.

9:26	28:06	Mental Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What are we learning about how to treat PTSD? The U of M is researching resilience and post-traumatic stress disorder. Brain Engdahl, Professor of Neuroscience and Psychology, shared what they've found
11:06	52:30	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Ground Level: Minnesotans upbeat even as problems, politics swirl. Though many Minnesotans are divided on many issues, they are overwhelmingly hopeful about the state's future. Ground Level, is an MPR project using opinion surveys to guide in-depth reporting.
12:06	54:00	Environment	MPR News Presents: A bipartisan solution for saving nature. Frederic Rich is the author of "Getting to Green. Saving Nature: A Bipartisan Solution." He says when it comes to keeping the environment clean, it's all about building bridges and remembering our shared values.
TUESDAY NOVEMBER 14, 2017
9:06	16:58	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-ed: Roy Moore and Alabama voters. Kerri talked to Eric Velasco, and Alabama journalist whose article covered, "Why Alabamans are Defending Roy Moore," just published in Politico.
22:00	31:14	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What happens when evolution stop? When the president of the US signed, an order blocking federal funding for international charities that discuss abortion, Louise Erdrich was enraged. She channeled her anger into a new project, her new book "Future Home of the Living God."
11:06	52:00	Criminal Justice / Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Host Tom Weber and APM Research Lab talk about trust in media and police.
12:06	54:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: Made in America: Trade policy in the Trump era. An exploration of the ways the U.S. uses international trade to influence other countries and promote stability, and how it balances domestic economic interests with our foreign policy interests.
WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 15, 2017
9:06	48:22	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why does Russian meddling matter? John Brennan, the former CIA director, responded on CNN's "State of the Union" saying, "By not confronting the issue directly and not acknowledging to Putin that we know you're responsible for this, I think he's giving Putin a pass." Other guests: Molly McKew, consultant for Fianna Strategies; Nicholas Weaver, UC Berkeley lecturer and researcher at the Intn'l computer Science Institute.
11:06	7:13	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: Ground Level: On immigration issues, MN shows deep divides. Our survey shows that urban people are more likely to have positive attitudes toward immigrants and refugees.
12:06	54:00	Environment	MPR News Presents: Climate One: Aligning profits with the planet. Is a win for the environment a loss for the economy? Experts explore that question in a program from the Commonwealth Club of California's "Climate One" series, hosted by Greg Dalton.
THURSDAY NOVEMBER 16, 2017
9:06	16:25	Mental Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Mental health and Minnesota's criminal justice system. Kerri spoke to health care reporter Mark Zdechlik, and Mark Anderson, Exec. Dire. Of the Barbara Schneider Foundation, to learn more about the challenges of providing adequate mental health care across the justice system.

9:22	31:08	Environment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's happening to the American wolf? Award-winning author Nate Blakeslee joined Kerri to discuss “American Wolf,” a story about a beloved Yellowstone wolf named O-Six.
11:06	5:32	Sexism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Woman says Franken forcibly kissed, groped her during '06 USO tour. Leeann Tweeden posted her allegations, including a photo of Franke and her, on the website of KABC where she works as a news anchor for a morning radio show.
12:06	54:00	Economy	MPR News Presents: Neal Conan special: the history of tax reform. MPR host Neal Conan explores the ways our tax system evolved, and why. Is it fair? Was it ever?
			FRIDAY NOVEMBER 17, 2017
9:06	46:48	Environment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: What does the city of the future look like? Kerri talked to three who think a lot about urban—and suburban—design.: Eric Weiss, senior planner for the City of Shakopee; Maria Wardoku, planner for Alta Planning; C Terrence Anderson, equity manager for Metropolitan council.
11:06	21:13	Economy	MPR News with Tom Weber: Xcel CEO predicts rosy future as energy moves away from coal. Ben Fowke, Xcel energy's CEO, outlined the goals and plans for MN's largest utility. By 202, Xcel Energy's power grid will use 35 percent renewable sources, and less than a quarter of energy will come from coal.
11:26	30:17	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: After allegations against Sen. Franken, what comes next? Franken and Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell have called for an ethics investigation in the Senate. However, calls for resignation aren't extensive.
12:06	54:00	Sexism	MPR News Presents: Sexual Harassment: A Moment of Reckoning. NPR host Lulu Garcia-Navarro looks at the significance of this moment and what it could mean for the culture.
			MONDAY NOVEMBER 20, 2017
9:06	48:40	Sexism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joined Kerri with Megan McArde to discuss the current national political and social scene, and what needs to change to make sexual misconduct truly unacceptable in American society.
11:06	47:45	Racism/Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: How racism affects your health. Panelist Luz Maria Frais, an attorney with a public policy background, Don Eubanks, Assist. Prof. at Metropolitan State Univ. and cultural consultant., Anthony Galloway, a race equity advocate in the west metro discussed racism and health.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: The Water Main: 'Know Water, Know Beer'. Folks in the MN craft beer industry are laser-focused on water conservation, quality and availability.
			TUESDAY NOVEMBER 21, 2017
9:06	48:46	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why are African-Americans and Latinos underrepresented in elite U.S. colleges? Dr. Andrew Nichols, Dir. of Higher Ed. Research and Data analytics for the Education Trust and Gregory Anderson, Dean of Higher Ed. At Temple Univ.'s college of Ed discussed a NY Times analysis about underrepresented groups at top universities in the U.S.
11:06	41:36	Mental Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: The connection between sleep and mental health. Dr. Michael Howell, Dir. of Fairview Sleep Services in Edina, and Dr. Brent Nelson, the co-director of the Ctr. For Neurotherapeutics, discuss the connection between sleep and mental health.

11:52	7:11	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: What happens to the tradition of Somali storytelling when it moves to Minn.? Many Somalis can recite poetry going back hundreds of years. So what is the power of Somali storytelling when they come to MN?
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: A new era for 'The Presidents Club'. Nancy Gibbs and Michael Duffy are co-authors of "The Presidents Club: Inside the World's Most Exclusive Fraternity," they spoke with former NPR host Neal Conan, for his "Truth, Politics and Power" series.
WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 22, 2017
9:06	47:58	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The future of Medicaid. Andy Slavitt, a former acting administrator for the Ctrs for Medicare and Medicaid Services joined Kerri for a conversation about Medicaid's uncertain future.
11:06	11:25	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: St. Paul schools see hope in 'restorative' discipline. Host Tom Weber spoke to reporter Solvejg Wastvedt about six local schools that started using restorative justice.
11:18	32:26	Social Relationships	MPR News with Tom Weber: Should girls join the Boy Scouts, now that they can? Tom spoke with Liana Tessum, capacity building director for Girl Scouts River Valleys, and Kent York, Dir. of Communications at the Boy Scouts Northern Star Council, about how these changes will affect Twin Cities boy and Girl Scouts troops in our region.
11:51	8:47	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: An update on that purple dinosaur sweatshirt on 'Stranger Things.' Tom spoke with museum president and CEO of the Science Museum about their purple sweatshirt with an image of a long-necked dinosaur and reads: Brontosaurus, "Thunder Lizard," and its appearance on Netflix show "Stranger Things," and has it created an interest in all things dinosaur
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: Just in time for Thanksgiving: StoryCorps founder on the importance of listening. StoryCorps founder David Isay launched "The Great Thanksgiving Listen," an app intended for kids to interview elders about their lives.
THURSDAY NOVEMBER 23, 2017 Thanksgiving Day, Holiday Programming
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Giving Thanks: a celebration of fall, food and gratitude. APM's John Birge presents classical music, stories and special guests in this contemporary celebration of gratitude.
FRIDAY NOVEMBER 24, 2017 Company Holiday, Holiday Programming
9:06	52:16	Family Life	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Vanned from the dinner table? Here's advice for talking politics during the holidays. Prof. Bill Doherty, (U of M Family Social Science dept.) joins Kerri with some concrete advice for making conversations about divisive topics productive during the holidays.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Stephen Greenblatt and Mark Bowden. The Thread Book Hour featured Stephen Greenblatt on "The Rise and Fall of Adam and Eve," and Mark Bowden on "Hue, 1968."
MONDAY NOVEMBER 27 2017
9:06	17:16	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Franken's apology spurs mixed reactions. Ken Rudin weighed in on Sen. Franken's first public interviews about the sexual harassment allegations against him.

9:23	30:24	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: If you don't have money for college, how far can 'grit' get you? In her book, "When Grit Isn't Enough," Linda F. Nathan writes that grit "is not the holy grail that is has been cracked up to be, and it certainly is not the cure-all it has been portrayed as in so much education literature."
11:06	25:03	Sexual Harassment	MPR News with Tom Weber: Lobbyist: Wider probe needed into Capitol harassment. Lobbyist Sarah Walker's story of being sexually harassed by state Rep. Tony Cornish helped lead to his downfall. But she's after bigger change at the Capitol.
11:33	25:53	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: How postcards shaped the fairy tales we know today. Jack Zipes, author of "Tales of Wonder: Retelling Fairy Tales through Picture Postcards" discussed the influence postcards from the late 1800s had on iconic fairy tale images we know today, like Snow white's blood-red apple and Cinderella's missing slipper.
12:06	54:00	Racism/Health	MPR News Presents: David Williams: racism is damaging our health. Harvard University sociology and public health prof. David Williams talked about how racism and discrimination, unconscious or otherwise, is damaging the physical and mental health of all Americans. Also present was MN Health Comm. And Allina Exec. Jan Malcolm and Sahra Noor, a nurse and CEO of People's Ctr Health Services.
TUESDAY NOVEMBER 28, 2017
9:06	47:52	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What we're learning about the science of sleep. Kerri ran down the latest in sleep science with Dr. Yo-El Ju, an assistant professor of neurology at Washington U. in St. Louis, and Matthew Walker, a professor of neuroscience and psychology at UC Berkeley...and Walker's new book is "Why We Sleep."
11:06	39:20	Addiction	MPR News with Tom Weber: A heart-breaking consequence of the opioid crisis: Addicted babies. Guests: Jean Donnell, a family and children services cases mgr. at Red Lake; Kami Kelm, First Step to Healthy Babies case manager and social worker with Beltrami Ctr. Health & Human Services; Alyssa Bruning, registered nurse at the Sanford Health in Bemidji.
11:47	11:49	Agriculture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Helpline offers support, advice to Minnesota farmers. Meg Moynihan of the MN Dept. of Ag. Spoke about why this hotline exists and what kind of help farmers can find there.
12:06	54:00	Crime/Racism	MPR News Presents: Westminster Town Hall Forum: Crime and punishment in black America. The Westminster Town Hall forum featured James Forman, Jr. a law professor at Yale University and author of the book, "Locking Up our Own."
WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 29, 2017
9:06	47:54	Sexual Harassment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What happens when women challenge powerful men? Like many of the women who have spoken out about alleged harassment, MPR hosts have had their credibility questioned and been accused of political calculations. When it comes to sexual harassment, do we have one standard for politicians and a different one for everyone else. Caitlyn Flannigan, contributing editor at the Atlantic and author of "Girl Land" and "To Hell With All that," Atlanta Monthly; Professor of English lit at St. Kate's University, and Tie Coleman, St. Catherine University join Kerri.
11:06	28:38	Civil Liberty/Privacy	MPR News with Tom Weber: Should police be able to use your cell phone to track where you've been? Do members of law enforcement need to get a search warrant to look at cellphone location data? The Supreme Court will consider this. Tom spoke with University of Minnesota Law School Prof. William McGeeveran about the case and how it could affect Minnesotans.

11:40	17:36	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Stras to get confirmation hearing for Appeals Court. Ted Sampsell-Jones of Mitchell Hamline School of Law joined the program to talk about if Stras is eventually confirmed, his seat on the state Supreme Court would be filled by Gov. Mark Dayton.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: The transformation of American politics since 1968. Lawrence O'Donnell is the author of "Playing with Fire: The 1968 Presidential Election and the Transformation of American Politics."
THURSDAY NOVEMBER 30, 2017
9:06	24:18	Sexual Harassment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How sexual harassment decisions affect the workplace. Founder and Exec. Dir. of Human Systems Dynamic Inst., Glenda Eoyang, joined Marketplace senior economics contributor Chris Farrell for a discussion on why companies have to act quickly, and the long-term impact these decisions have on employee morale and a company's reputation.
9:31	24:37	Internet	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why net neutrality matters and what the internet would look like without it. Guest host Chris Farrell spoke with Nate Foster, from Cornell Univ. about why net neutrality rules were established and what the web would look like without them.
11:06	29:12	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesotans rip MPR over decision to drop Keillor. Hundreds of Minnesotans are expressing anger, disappointment and disbelief over MPR's decision to cut ties with Garrison Keillor following what MPR's parent company described as Keillor's inappropriate behavior.
11:35	23:02	Climate Change	MPR News with Tom Weber: Caron-dioxide removal: A fix for climate change? Tom spoke with Elizabeth Kolbert about her article in the most recent issue of The New Yorker: "Can Carbon-Dioxide Removal Save the World?"
12:06	54:00	Health Care	MPR News Presents: How the Canadian health system works, and doesn't. From the Humankind series, an exploration of the Canadian health care system, and what it might tell us about the best ways to change, or not change, our American Health care system.
FRIDAY DECEMBER 1, 2017
9:06	45:57	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: MPR News with Kerri Miller: The cube Critics talk about movies that jingle. MPR's Cube Critics, Stephanie Curtis and Euan Kerr, spoke to listeners about their holiday film traditions, including some unconventional ones like the 1988 Bruce Willis blockbuster, "Die Hard."
11:06	38:26	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: GOP nears Senate OK of tax bill after flurry of final deals. Party leaders hoped for Senate approval later Friday on a measure that focuses the bulk of its tax reductions on businesses and higher earning individuals.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Dan Brown, author of "Origin." Kerri Miller interviews best-selling author Dan Brown about his latest novel, "Origin," for the Talking Volumes series.

MONDAY DECEMBER 4, 2017
9:06	16:32	Sexual Harassment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Will sexual harassment allegations bring change to D.C.? Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the latest sexual harassment news in Washington. MPR News digital producer Nancy Yang also read some recent mail from listeners.
9:24	32:20	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: In divided times, a lesson on the ‘Art of Thinking.’ In his new book, “How to Think: A Survival Guide for a World at Odds.” Alan Jacobs explores an act—thinking—that’s familiar to all of us and the need to employ more critical thinking.
11:06	10:25	Environment	MPR News with Tom Weber: Update on mining projects in northern Minnesota with reporter Dan Kraker.
11:16	35:42	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Mayor-elect Jacob Frey looks to the future. The Minneapolis mayor-to-be joined us to talk about his plans for the city’s future.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: Dan Rather on ‘What Unites Us: Reflections on Patriotism.’ Former CBS News anchor Dan Rather speaks in Minnesota about the ideas in his new book, “What Unites Us: Reflections on Patriotism.”
TUESDAY DECEMBER 5, 2017
9:06	37:21	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Charter schools and the desegregation of American public education. Kerri spoke with Cornell professor Noliwe Rooks about this modern school segregation and the effects of the charter school movement.
11:06	19:23	Public Policy	MPR News with Tom Weber: Duluth adopts budget with new money for streets. Duluth Mayor Emily Larson spoke about how the money will be used and her vision of a healthy, prosperous, sustainable, fair and inclusive community for all neighborhoods.
11:25	29:56	Internet	MPR News with Tom Weber: How the end of net neutrality would change how to use the internet. Guest New York Times tech reporter Cecilia Kang about how these changes will affect Minnesotans, including those who live in rural areas that already have slow internet connections.
12:06	54:00	Racism	MPR News Presents: The Invention of Race. How, why and when was the notion of “race” developed? This program explores various concepts of race Is it anthropological nonsense or is it real? It was produced and hosted by John Biewen of the Ctr of Documentary Studies at Duke. He produces the Scene on Radio podcast.
WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 6, 2017
9:06	18:44	Economy	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The good and bad in the mortgage interest tax deduction. Tax law scholar and assistant professor at the Law School at the Univ. of Chicago, Daniel Hemel, broke down the good and the bad of the MID which is on the Republican tax overhaul is on the chopping block.
9:24	40:00	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: National coverage of the call for Al Franken’s resignation
11:06	14:40	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Congress lets funds expire for children’s insurance program. Congress did not renew the CHIP insurance for 125,000 MN women and children. The state is now funding the program putting the state budget out of whack according to Emily Piper, Commissioner of the Dept. of Health and Human Services.

11:20	44:00	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: National coverage of call for Al Franken's resignation
12:06	54:00	National Economy	MPR News Presents: Economists size up the economy at years' end. Luis Johnston and Chris Farrell size up the conditions of the economy at year's end and look into the crystal ball at the annual St. John's University annual event.
THURSDAY DECEMBER 7, 2017
9:06	60:00	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: National coverage of Al Franken's resignation
11:06	57:07	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: National coverage of Al Franken's resignation
12:06	50:27	Sexual Harassment	MPR News Presents: Sexual harassment and a moment of reckoning for our culture. NPR Weekend Edition Sunday host Lulu Garcia-Navarro looks at the significance of this moment and what it could mean for the culture.
FRIDAY DECEMBER 8, 2017
9:06	49:09	Sexual Harassment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Does Franken's resignation signal a change in harassment culture? Three members of Congress resigned this week. Are these and others indicate our political moment, or are they the next steps in a long-lasting cultural movement? Guest: Kelly Dittmar, assistant prof. of Political science at Rutgers University-Camden, and Julian E. Zelizer, a professor of history and public affairs at Princeton University.
10:06	48:46	International Affairs	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday roundtable: The state of international affairs. Three guests look at the state of international affairs given that many international diplomats have been forced out by the Trump administration. Guests: Mary Curtin, diplomat-in-residence at the Univ. of M's Humphrey School of Public Affairs; John Radsan, professor of law at Mitchell Hamline School of Law and former assist. General counsel at the Cia; James van Geldern, Prof. Of Russian and Intern'l Studies at Macalester College.
11:06	21:12	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: How will Trump's travel ban affect Minnesotans? John Keller of the Immigrant Law Center and Jaylani Hussein of CAIR joined the discussion about what the Supreme Court's decision to allow the travel ban to take effect immediately means to local immigrants.
11:27	17:27	National Economy	MPR News with Tom Weber: A perspective on pipelines, from Alberta. If you fill your gas tank in MN, that gas came from Alberta, specifically from the Alberta tar sands. Guest: Shannon Phillips, the Envir. Minister for the provincial government of Alberta, about her government's climate plan which, among other things, caps emissions from those tar sands.
12:06	55:06	National & Global Economy	MPR News Presents: Economists size up the economy at year's end. Louis Johnston and Chris Farrell look at what's happening to jobs, trade, wages, taxes, and the local, national and global economy.
MONDAY DECEMBER 11, 2017
9:06	16:15	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie. How much does 'moral authority' matter to voters? Ken Rudin weighs in on Al Franken's resignation.
9:24	32:00	Sexual Harassment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What are younger women hearing in the conversation around sexual harassment? Discussion with guests Carina Chocano, author of "You Play the Girl," and Karla Altmayer, the co-founder and co-director of Healing to Action, about what young women are hearing and thinking in this #MeToo moment.

11:06	7:48	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Where are we at on filling Al Franken's Senate seat? MPR News reporter Mark Zdechlik joined host Tom Weber to talk about Franken's options and the big decision Gov. Mark Dayton must make about filling Franken's seat.
11:14	8:59	Business	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota's bid for Amazon offers fewer perks than other states. MN/St. Paul Business Journal senior reporter Nick Halter said the city of Bloomington has both land and money to add to the deal to make the state's offer to Amazon more appealing.
11:23	31:53	Mental Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Protecting your mental health during the holidays. Guests Kirsten Lind Seal, family and marriage therapist, and Brent Nelson, Adult interventional psychiatrist offered suggestions on how to combat the seasonal blues.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: The fading hope of democracy in the Middle East. Steven Cook of the Council on Foreign Relations says hopes for democracy in the Middle East have all but faded away. His new book: "False Dawn: Protest, Democracy, and violence in the New Middle East."
TUESDAY DECEMBER 12, 2017
9:06	14:25	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How voting laws could influence Alabama's Senate election. The Atlantic's Vann R. Newkirk II says Alabama has a history of voter suppression, which will make it difficult for the Democratic candidate to get the black voters he needs.
9:20	34:55	National Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Decoding the tax bill. Today: state and local deductions. Guests: Sandra Block, Senior Editor at Kiplinger Personal Finance; Nicole Kaeding, Economist with the Tax Foundation.
11:06	16:06	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: As transgender pioneer, Danica Roem also wants to focus on 'boring' issues. Roem was the first openly transgender person to be elected to the VA General Assembly.
11:25	33:40	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: The Steeles reflect on their musical upbringing in Gary, Ind. The Steeles performed several songs from their current album. Will be at the Fitzgerald theater Friday and Saturday night.
12:06	54:00	Faith/Religion	MPR News Presents: Celebrating the first night of Hanukkah. From NPR, Susan Stamberg and Murray Horwitz host their 27 th annual edition of "Hanukkah Lights," and from APM, Mindy Ratner hosts "Candles Burning Brightly," an audio of Hanukkah music, foods and traditional activities.
WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 13, 2017
9:06	41:11	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How totalitarianism reclaimed Russia. MPR host Stephanie Curtis spoke with author Masha Gessen about her new book, "the Future is History: How Totalitarianism Reclaimed Russia," which takes a deep look at the Russian mindset and the generational trauma that defines Russian politics and culture today.
11:06	50:00	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: News Conference with Gov. Dayton's appointment of Lt. Gov. Tina Smith as the next Senator from MN to replace Sen. Franken. MPR political editor Mike Mulcahy commented. R.T. Rybak, former Minneapolis Mayor who worked with Tina Smith. Catherine Pearson, also weighed in.

12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: IQ2 debate: Do liberals hold the moral high ground? A new debate from the Intelligence Squared series.
			THURSDAY DECEMBER 14, 2017
9:06	52:30	Geriatrics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Protecting the elderly. Exe. Dir. of the MN elder Justice Ctr, Amanda Vickstrom, and Program Manager for Volunteers of America Minnesota and Wisc., Anita Raymond joined MPR news senior producer Stephanie Curtis discussion on elderly rights in and out of state-licensed nursing homes.
11:06	17:32	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Tax reform for Christmas. Tom spoke with Heather Long of the Washington Post about how Republicans are finding common ground so they can pass tax reforms before Christmas.
11:22	32:20	Technology	MPR News with Tom Weber: Don't worry, technology gifts aren't scary. Giving tech gifts careful consideration and you won't need a lot of cash, said Mark Reilly, managing editor of the Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal. Do your research, keep the receipt.
12:06	54:00	Immigration	MPR News Presents: History Forum: 'The immigration problem: 1917 and 2017. Katherine Benton-Cohen takes a historical look at immigration policies in the U.S. since the passing of the Immigration and Nationality Acts of 1917 and 1924.
			FRIDAY DECEMBER 15, 2017
9:06	48:36	Culture/Literacy	MPR News with Kerri Miller: No Kidding: The best kids' books to give this holiday season. Lisa Von Drasek and Holly Weinkauf joined MPR News senior producer Stephanie Curtis for a round up of the very best children's books to give and receive this holiday season.
11:06	13:17	Law enforcement	MPR News with Tom Weber: Should Minneapolis police recruits get more psychological screening? Curtis Gilbert of APM reports investigated the MN Police Dept.'s screening procedures for new recruits.
11:20	36:43	Criminal Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Emily Baxter is pretty sure you've committed a crime. Emily Baxter, executive director of We are All Criminals , has been looking at the complex world of being a criminal.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: Chef Ann Kim's restaurant and entrepreneurial tips. Chef Ann Kim shares restaurant and entrepreneurial tips with Chris Farrell
			MONDAY DECEMBER 18, 2017
9:06	14:34	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the Republican tax bill and the latest from Washington, D.C.
9:20	34:45	People & Places	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Muhammad Ali's life inside and outside the ring. Jonathan Eig's new biography of the heavyweight champ, "Ali A Life," doesn't just examine the boxer as a sports figure but follows his transformation from Cassius Clay to Mohammed Ali.
11:06	31:36	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Conversations with outgoing CEOs: U.S. Bank's Richard Davis. Richard Davis, the former CEO of Minneapolis-based U.S. Bancorp, spoke about his career and changes in banking since he started as a teller at age 18.
11:40	18:35	Criminal Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Marlon James reflects on race and police in 2017. Minnesota author and professor, Marlon James, said in a Facebook post, "I go out of my way to avoid police, because I don't know how to physically act around them.

12:06	54:00	People & places	MPR News Presents: ‘Bill Nye the Science Guy’ on a mission to save the planet. Bill Nye is on a mission to stop the spread of anti-scientific thinking, particularly about climate change and the environment.
TUESDAY DECEMBER 19, 2017
9:06	48:38	Racism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The radical right’s impact on American Muslims. Hate crimes in the US rose by just under 5% last year. A recent FBI report shows that the majority of those crimes were committed by right wing extremists. MPR hosts Jana Shortal talked to BuzzFeed News’ Hannah Allam, and David Neiwert, author of “Alt-America: The Rise of the Radical Right in the Age of Trump.”
11:06	32:30	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Conversations with CEO’s: Pentair’s Randall Hogan. Hogan is retiring as CEO of Pentair and is a former chairman of the board of the Federal Reserve Bank of MN. He announced that Pentair intends to split into two independent companies.
11:41	18:17	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: ‘Sights, Sounds, Soul’: A look back at Twin Cities black culture of the ‘70’s and ‘80s. Scholar Davu Seru put words to photos that were taken by the late Charles Chamblis.
12:06	54:00	International Relations	MPR News Presents: Brinkmanship: The U.S. and North Korea. Leading experts on North Korea discuss the challenges surrounding North Korea’s nuclear and missile capabilities.
WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 20, 2017
9:06	49:09	International Relations	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Three views: the latest from Zimbabwe, Venezuela and Germany. MPR Host Stephanie Curtis looked at three countries America should pay attention to in 2018. Guests: Peter Godwin, raised in Zimbabwe; Dany Bahar, a fellow at the Brookings Insit. And his insights re: economic turmoil in Venezuela; Jeffrey Anderson, Dir. of the BMW Ctr. For German and European Studies and his views on Germany.
11:06	48:58	Religion	MPR News with Tom Weber: Ground Level: Here and elsewhere, people of faith lean Republican. MPR Host Marianne Combs spoke with reporter David Montgomery, Rabbi Marcia Zimmerman, Pastor Kevin Meyer and author Michael Wear about the influence of religion on Politics.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: How American Presidents use the ‘bully pulpit’. Linguist James McWhorter and Paul Glastis, speech writer for Pres. Clinton and Peter Robinson, speechwriter for Pres. Reagan talk about a president’s use of the “bully pulpit” to persuade, console, encourage and inspire.
THURSDAY DECEMBER 21, 2017
9:06	48:49	Social Relationships	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rewriting the masculine script. In a moment when women are being empowered to speak out, how do you change a culture that says men aren’t supposed to express their emotions or be close to other men? Writer Andrew Reiner, and Ted Bunch, co-founder of “A Call to Men” joined guest host Jana Shortal to discuss redefining masculinity.
11:06	23:25	Art / Social Relationships	MPR News with Tom Weber: Separating the art from the artist. No artist is perfect, but some are a great deal more flawed than others. Does their character affect the way we view their art? Should it? From Shakespeare’s anti-Semitism to Louis C.K.’s sexual misconduct, we examine the complexities of viewing art with a moral lens. MPR host Marianne Combs talks to Megan Garber, staff writer at The Atlantic.

11:32	25:41	Social Relationships	MPR News with Tom Weber: When should we forgive? MPR host Marianne Combs discusses the nature of forgiveness with Fred Luskin, Director of the Stanford University Forgiveness Projects, in the wake of several high-profile scandals costing politicians and entertainers their careers.
12:06	54:00	Environment	MPR News Presents: A winter solstice special: Tick, Tock, Circadian Clock. Host Molly Bloom explores circadian rhythms, animal hibernation, the ticking clock inside us all and how light and dark affect all life on Earth.
FRIDAY DECEMBER 22, 2017
9:06	60:15	People & Places	MPR News with Kerri Miller: MPR Day in Moorhead celebrates Minnesota food traditions. Kerri Miller assembled a panel of food experts from the region to talk about the traditions and ingredients that inspired them in the kitchen. Guests: Amy Thielen (James Bard Award-winning writer); Andrea Baumgardner (Fargo); and Bruce Engebretson and Bud Parker (Osage, MN).
11:06	50:42	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota choral music wouldn't be the same without VocalEssence. Conductor Philip Brunelle and 16 members of the professional choral group talked and sang in the Maud Moon Weyerhaeuser studio.
12:06	54:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: APM Marketplace tax reform special: 'Now What?' Special coverage from APM's Marketplace, with detailed analysis of the impact of the new tax law.
MONDAY DECEMBER 25, 2017 Christmas Day, Holiday Progaming
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: David Brooks on 'The Second Mountain'. Highlights from the 2017 Aspen Ideas Festival: David Books on life's challenges.
TUESDAY DECEMBER 26, 2017
9:06	16:39	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joined MPR News contributor Chris Farrell to give his perspective on the Republican tax plan and the chances of bipartisan collaboration in 2018.
9:25	33:01	Science	MPR News with Kerri Miller: An 'asteroid hunter' shares her job description. Scientist and author Carrie Nugent describes her job of hunting for asteroids—and why it has an impact on Earth.
11:06	60:00	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Joshua Johnson on journalism in tumultuous times. As part of MPR's Broadcast Journalist Series, Tom Weber spoke with 1A host Joshua Johnson.
12:06	54:00	Race & Class	MPR News Presents: Henry Louis Gates Jr. on race and class in America. Henry Louis Gates, Jr: What would we tell Martin Luther King Jr. if he came back and wanted to know what had happened?
WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 27, 2017
9:06	12:35	Immigration	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Does nixing the individual mandate kill the ACA? Can a provision in their recently passed tax law effectively kill the Affordable Care Act? Chris Farrell spoke with Brookings Institution's Kavita Patel about the effects of removing the ACA's individual mandate.

9:18	36:13	Economy	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How will the new tax bill affect you? The “Tax Girl” and senior editor at Forbes, Kelly Erb, and Jared Walczak, a senior policy analyst at the Tax Foundation discuss the new law with MPR News contributor Chris Farrell.
11:06	51:26	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: MPR News with Tom Weber: Living legend Cornbread Harris shares stories and songs from his seven-decade career. At 90 years old, the rock ‘n’ roll pioneer visited The Current’s studios to record an in-studio session with Local Show host Andrea Swensson and Tom Weber
12:06	52:02	National Politics	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Bill Bishop on political polarization. Bishop says some of our political polarization comes from the fact that we’re ideologically inbred—we don’t know, can’t understand and can barely conceive of people who live just a few miles away.
THURSDAY DECEMBER 28, 2017
9:06	45:49	Minorities in Businesses	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Minority-owned businesses are growing, but they’re still struggling. Chris Farrell hosted a roundtable on what’s driving the growth in minority-owned businesses. Guests: Bruce Corrie, Concordia U.; Joanna Ramirez Barrett, Metropolitan Economic Dev. Assoc.; Ken McCraley, owner of KMS Air Duct Cleaning.
11:06	20:18	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Conversations with CEOs: Great Clips’ Rhoda Olsen. Olsen, President and CEO of Great Clips, which grew from 1000 salons in 1998 to more than 4,000 last year, will step down at the end of this year.
11:26	31:41	Racism	MPR News with Tom Weber: 20 years later, Beverly Daniel Tatum asks again: ‘Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting together in the Cafeteria?’ Tatum’s groundbreaking book took on this question of self-segregation and explored the realities of race in public education system.
12:06	52:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Opportunity and social mobility in America. Former NPR host Michele Norris moderated a discussion about race, inequality and the future of democracy and if opportunity and social mobility still possible in America.
THURSDAY DECEMBER 29, 2017
11:06	25:53	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: 2017 through the eyes of comedian Lizz Winstead. MN comedian and satirist Winstead performs her annual year-end show at the Cedar Cultural Ctr. In MN. She stops by MPR to talk with Tom Weber about the year that was.
11:34	23:20	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: For Sonny Knight, cancer diagnosis is a moment of reckoning. Knight joined host Tom Weber before he died.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: American values embodied in the Constitution. Norman Lear and Khizr Khan speak at the Aspen Ideas Festival about the American values embodied in the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence.

FCC Requirements:

Start Time of segment

Length of segment

Headline

Short Narrative

includes the programming tag — MPR News with Kerri Miller / MPR News with Tom Weber / MPR News Presents — plus a narrative of the Questions:

Are the names of guests required? Always / sometimes / never

If so, is it acceptable to simply list the names of guests or should background info / professional qualifications / context be included? Is it important to provide that identifying information?

Former direction: “There's no rule on high for categories, it's to show local relevance for our listeners.” Addiction Agriculture Arts & Culture Behavioral Health / Science / mental health / Neuroscience Books is not an “issue” Find what the book addresses: literacy / climate change / politics / immigration / “Arts & Culture” sometimes works or use Fiction / Biography / Autobiography, Memoire, etc.? Business / Economics Civil Liberty / Privacy Climate Change / Climate / Environment Conservation Crime / Criminal Justice / Juvenile Criminal Justice Culture Demographics or race / ethnicity / ageism / class Discrimination Education Employment / Labor / Careers Ethics Etymology Evolution Exploration	Issues While often used on MPR Presents websites as a descriptor; DO NOT USE ISSUES Labor Language Language / Etymology Law & Justice Leadership Linguistics Literacy Media - How news is reported Media is not an issue, but Melissa Block on 10/1, might be “the work/mechanics of journalism” Medicine Mental Health Miscellaneous (DO NOT USE THIS CATEGORY) Mortality National /Politics / Government National Security Nature / Wild Life Neuroscience Nutrition Parenting / Family Life / Divorce People & Places Philanthropy Privacy / Civil Liberty Public Policy Resources Science	From Melodie Virtue at Garvey Schubert Barer Law Firm she weighed in below following conversation/emails with Rocky: I’ve skimmed through your report, and had a couple of comments on broadening the description of the “issues” to sound more like public affairs issues. For instance, I’d describe film, movie or music critiques as Arts and Culture. It’s hard to say that a movie or a piece on music is an issue of public importance to the community unless you are referring to the recent Sony hack over the “Interview.” Books or movies that explore a specific topic like Racism / Terrorism / Finance / Self-help / and are not really about the art form of writing / poetr
---	---	---

Faith / Religion Finance Gastronomy Gender Roles / Sexism Genealogy Geriatrics Health / Science Health Care History History / Music History Human Rights Immigration / Citizenship International Politics Government / Diplomacy Internet	Social Issues Social Media Social Psychology Social Relationships Sports (and Leisure) State Politics / Government Technology Terrorism Tourism War /Military Wild Life / Conservation
--	--	--

The staff on the website seems to put “Arts & Culture” as a descriptor on most segments related to books. Yes / No / Should we try to zero in on the content / genre / ?? / of the book?

The story about the school bus crash and effect on school and community was labeled “education” Why?

Arts community talks about race labeled as Arts & Culture

Photographing war zones labeled Arts & Culture vs. War / Journalism

Hodges response to Atlantic “Miracle of Minneapolis” labeled business ????

The state of American journalism labeled Arts & Culture Media / Journalism?

World of homicide reporting labeled Arts & Culture Policing / Journalism?

Abbreviations: are they o.k.? UofM / HCMC / USC / St. Ben’s / St. John’s /

How important / unimportant are the guests that appear on the segments? Is name important / position or expertise important / are both necessary?

Narrative to include both the official title (MPR News with Kerri Miller / MPR News with Tom Weber / MPR News Presents or segment) and a brief narrative (one or two sentences).

Question: Is it acceptable to simply list the names of guests or do I need to provide background info/qualifications/context for their participation on the show? I usually identify guests in the program description (without their name to minimize redundancy) and then list their names only in the guest column. Is it important to provide that identifying information?

Editing of FCC report

Bold Face MPR News with Kerri Miller: Title of the segment

(No punctuation used after the heading)

Russ’s Word style is set up to:

Flag instances of two spaces between sentences, use only one space.

Use “smart quotes”

Highlight misspellings. The big challenge is getting words and names spelled correctly. Words or names not in the dictionary are highlight and will pop out. However, many names are not in the dictionary. I add the correct spelling of all names to the dictionary so as not to have to guess whether or not I had confirmed the correct spelling. Given the diverse population included on the news shows, it's really difficult to keep track of correct spellings unless you have a way to confirm accuracy — and I have discovered that not all names on the websites are spelled correctly. Report misspellings to WEBTEAM.

If the program originates from a non—MPR source, for example the BBC, IQ2 Debate, JFK Library, America Abroad, LIVE Broadcast, National Press Club, The Commonwealth Club, etc., credit the source in boldface followed by a colon and then the program title or segment. Do not repeat this credit in the body of the copy.

If the program is a rebroadcast, precede the credits and titles with Rebroadcast: in bold face.

In the instances of program content for the Kerri Miller and Tom Weber entries, I refer to them as “Kerri” or “Tom” to minimize copy. It’s redundant to refer to them as “MPR’s Kerri Miller” or “MPR’s Tom Weber.” If there is a guest host, I do identify, them as “MPR’s _____” or “Today’s guest host is (fill in the name), etc.

To create the template for the next quarter report,

Once you have made your entries and BEFORE you do a final edit and repaginate for Rocky (explanation follows), using the file you have just completed for the quarter, do a “Save As” and rename and save the completed quarterly report with a new file name for the new quarter. For example, the second quarter report is saved as a newly named file with the third quarter file name.

Go to the top of the new file and be sure that you have entered the correct dates for the new quarter in the heading:

MINNESOTA PUBLIC RADIO NEWS AND INFORMATION SERVICE FCC QUARTERLY PROGRAMMING REPORT OF OCTOBER — DECEMBER, 2017 KNCM~KNSEK~KNBJ~KBPN~WIRN~WSCN~KNSR~KLNI~WIRC~ KNWF~WLSN~KGRP WINH~WGGL~KITF~ KXLC~KNOW~KCCD~KRFI~KZSE~KRXW~KAUR~KNGA~KNTN~KNSW
Start Time	Duration min: sec	Issue Addressed	Title and Narrative

Go through the spreadsheet, highlight and delete all of the copy between the DAY, MONTH, DATE, YEAR headings.

For example, the copy for FRIDAY APRIL 1, 2017 showed as follows:

		FRIDAY APRIL 1, 2017 http://live.mprnews.org/Event/onmprnews/248053715
9:06	52:46	Mortality	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: A young doctor confronts his own death Paul Kalanithi was in his final year of a neurosurgery residency when he was diagnosed with stage four lung cancer. His memoir asks: What makes life worth living in the face of death? Three people are in the studio and they reflect on “When Breath Becomes Air.” Kalanithi died of lung cancer last year. Joining Kerri are Syl Jones, resident fellow in narrative medicine at Hennepin County Medical Center, the Rev Deb DeMeester, a clinical faculty member at the Univ. of St. Thomas and Mahmoud Nagib, the president of Neurosurgical Associates, Ltd.

10:17	15:29	International	MPR News with Kerri Miller: “Putin Country: A Journey into the Real Russia” MPR’s Euan Kerr interviews Ann Garrels about her new book about Russia, a country she has visited Russia over the decades and witnessed huge change. She decided to focus her reporting on a small polluted town a thousand miles east of Moscow called Chelyabinsk. A lot of people thought she was crazy, but there was method in her madness.
11:06	42:30	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Mpls. Federal Reserve President wants to shrink mega-banks Monday, the Mpls. Federal Reserve Bank will hold the first in a series of events centered on reducing our economic reliance on big banks. President Neel Kashkari, who made headlines earlier this year with the suggestion that we should still be considering breaking up the nation’s biggest banks, joins us to talk about this effort.
11:49	09:05	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: An update on Real ID Tom spoke with Department of Public Safety spokesman Bruce Gordon about the bill the Governor signed yesterday that launched a study into a federal law called “Real ID.”
12:08	49:17	Health Care	MPR News Presents: BBC Reith Lecture Series: Dr. Atul Gawande: How systems can help prevent medical mistakes Gawande spoke about why doctors fail, and how good systems and checklists can help prevent mistakes and lead to better medical care. He's the author of “The Checklist Manifesto: How to Get Things Right.”

Next, delete all copy between each date heading and, if a link that a date is included, delete the link

			FRIDAY APRIL 1, 2017

Next, go through the file to be sure there are seven spaces between each date.

Because there may not have been seven entries per day in the old file, may need to add lines, some days, you’ll need to delete lines.

			FRIDAY APRIL 1, 2017

Starting with the first date, enter copy that can be pasted into every date of the quarter.

			FRIDAY APRIL 1, 2017
9:06			MPR News with Kerri Miller:

			MPR News with Kerri Miller:
10:06			MPR News with Kerri Miller:
			MPR News with Kerri Miller:
11:06			MPR News with Tom Weber:
			MPR News with Tom Weber:
12:06			MPR News Presents:

Paste this copy into every day for the quarter.

Now, “Ctrl H” to find and replace the names of the months for the new quarter

In our example, replace the first month of the 2nd quarter, “APRIL,” with the first month of the new 3rd quarter, “OCTOBER”

			FRIDAY OCTOBER 1, 2017
9:06			MPR News with Kerri Miller:
			MPR News with Kerri Miller:
10:06			MPR News with Kerri Miller:
			MPR News with Kerri Miller:
11:06			MPR News with Tom Weber:
			MPR News with Tom Weber:
12:06			MPR News Presents:

Replace “MAY” with “NOVEMBER”

Replace “JUNE” with “DECEMBER”

When you complete the fourth quarter, be sure to replace “2017” with “2017” for the first quarter of 2017.

Now, go through and make adjustments to specific days/dates.

Now that you’ve cleaned everything and you’re ready to go, why not do a “Save As” and save clean files for the subsequent quarters before you make entries for this new quarter. Or save it simply as a “template” and it’s ready for the next quarter.

The most time-consuming aspect of copying and pasting from the various websites to this spreadsheet involves removing hyperlinks and then reformatting the text to be consistent with the rest of the spreadsheet. Sometimes it’s possible to copy and drag from the websites into the spreadsheet and formatting automatically assumes that of the spreadsheet. BUT, that is rare especially with copy from the podcasts.

As an example, in the following copy, do a right-click on the copy and “Remove Hyperlink”

Gov. Dayton is back in the Twin Cities this week, after a tour around the state pitching the need for a special legislative session to pass a tax bill and bonding bill. He spoke with host Marianne Combs about whether a special session will happen and his priorities if it does.

Now you can reformat the typeface and font. The current format is Garamond 11 point. Place your cursor in the body of copy, click on the “HOME” button, and choose “AaBbCcD Normal”. The text should now be in Garamond 11 point non-bolded type.

Gov. Dayton is back in the Twin Cities this week, after a tour around the state pitching the need for a special legislative session to pass a tax bill and bonding bill. He spoke with host Marianne Combs about whether a special session will happen and his priorities if it does.

Finishing the quarterly report and sending off to Rocky Rothrock after you have renamed the file and saved it as the basis for creating the next quarter's template:

Go to the completed quarterly file,

Delete any copy that appears before this heading which should be the first thing at the top of the page:

(Note: be sure your heading includes the correct date for the months being reported).

MINNESOTA PUBLIC RADIO NEWS AND INFORMATION SERVICE FCC QUARTERLY PROGRAMMING REPORT OF APRIL — JUNE, 2017 KNCM~KNSEK~KNBJ~KBPN~WIRN~WSCN~KNSR~KLNI~WIRC~ KNWF~WLSN~KGRP WINH~WGGL~KITF~ KXLC~KNOW~KCCD~KRFI~KZSE~KRXW~KAUR~KNGA~KNTN~KNSW
Start Time	Duration min: sec	Issue Addressed	Title and Narrative

Next, Delete all copy at the very end of the spreadsheet that may follow the last entry for the quarter. It's a handy place to make notes while you're working but it shouldn't be a part of the finished report. (There is a long list of instructions as well as a list of "ISSUES"

The completed file should end with the last official entry

Next: The final step involves final editing and some paginating before sending to Rocky. She does not want any entry to break from one page to the next.

Edit to be sure you have included timings for all entries and that you have defined the "Issue" being covered. We've accumulated a long list that should be looked over, but be sure it really is an "issue." For example, the following are NOT issues: Miscellaneous / Authors / The Thread / Fiction / Poetry. Try to find what the author is addressing, or what the poetry is about. This is a conversation with Rocky about what is acceptable.

There are two ways to fix the break of copy from one page to the next. (It helps if you set the view so you see formatting, (paragraph symbols, etc.)

1. Try to edit the copy on the page before the break. Take out a few words or phrases of text and you may reduce enough content that the overlap of an entry from one page to the next doesn't occur. Look for the end of entries where maybe a single word is on a line. You can usually remove something to free up that line where only one or a few words show.
2. Failing that, go to the "Layout" tab and choose "Split Table." A paragraph mark will be visible and just be sure that entry following that mark is fully on the next page. Sometimes more than one line is necessary.

Send to Rocky as a Word document. She will look over, make her own revisions and turn it into a PDF.

Good luck!

Daily/Weekly Rewind <http://live.mprnews.org/Event/onmprnews>
MPR News with Kerri Miller <http://www.mprnews.org/topic/kerri-miller>
Kerri's podcasts <http://www.mprnews.org/podcasts/kerri-miller>
MPR News with Tom Weber <http://www.mprnews.org/topic/tom-weber>
Tom's podcasts <http://www.mprnews.org/podcasts/tom-weber>
MPR News Presents <http://www.mprnews.org/topic/mpr-news-presents>

MINNESOTA PUBLIC RADIO NEWS AND INFORMATION SERVICE
FCC QUARTERLY PROGRAMMING REPORT OF JULY — SEPTEMBER, 2017
 KNCM~KNSEK~KNBJ~KBPN~WIRN~WSCN~KNSR~KLNI~WIRC~ KNWF~WLSN~KGRP
 WINH~WGGL~KITF~ KXLC~KNOW~KCCD~KRFI~KZSE~KRXW~KAUR~KNGA~KNTN~KNSW

Start Time	Duration min: sec	Issue Addressed	Title and Narrative
			MONDAY JULY 3, 2017
9:06	19:45	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie with Ken Rudin.
9:26	28:35	Discrimination	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Driving attention to women’s rights in Saudi Arabia. Manal al-Sharif talks about her book with Marcheta Fornoff.
11:06	30:13	Privacy/Civil Liberty	MPR News with Tom Weber: One software engineer’s fight for transparent government. Tony Webster, freelance software engineer discusses his advocacy for open governments.
11:32	26:19	Citizenship	MPR News with Tom Weber: Could you pass the citizenship test? Host Tom Weber shared some questions with the audience.
12:06	54:00	Mechanics of journalism	MPR News Presents: 1A Host Joshua Johns talks with Charlie Sykes, Melissa Block, James Fallow. The best ways to listen to America.
			TUESDAY, JULY 4, 2017 Holiday Programing
9:06	16:53	Military	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Women in new military jobs. Author of “Shoot Like a Girl,” Mary Jennings Hegar.
9:22	32:46	Military	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Women in new military jobs cont. Author of “Love My Rifle More Than You,” Kayla Williams.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: David McCullough on American History and values. McCullough discusses his new book: “The American Spirit: Who We Are and What We Stand For.”
			WEDNESDAY JULY 5, 2017
9:06	52:02	Mechanics of journalism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is the media Biased? Thomas Patterson (Harvard Prof) and Hadas Gold (Politico reporter) answer questions from Kerri and listeners.
11:06	25:05	Crime	MPR News with Tom Weber: MN’s progress on police body cameras. The progress on the use of body cameras was discussed with MPR news reporter Brandt Williams and Burnsville Police Chief Eric Gieseke.
11:33	24:14	Economy	MPR News with Tom Weber: Truckers forced to work for pennies per hour. USA Today reporter Brett Murphy discusses his investigation into the exploitation of truckers.
12:06	54:00	Technology	MPR News Presents: aspen Ideas Festival: the social downside to technology. MIT professor Sherry Turkle was interviewed by Pete Dominick, host of “Stand Up with Pete Dominick” on impact on society of technology.
			THURSDAY JULY 6, 2017
9:06	17:49	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What options does the U.S. have in North Korea? Kerri discusses N. Korea with David Kang, director of the Korean Studies Institute, University of Southern California.
9:23	31:22	Crime	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Addressing distrust and disparities in the criminal justice system. Kami Chavis, former prosecutor and David Thomas, retired police officer discuss policing communities of color.

11:06	52:17	Crime	MPR News with Tom Weber: Castile, a year later: Tragic doesn't begin to cover it. Joining the was Police Chief Blair Anderson of St. Cloud; state Sen. Jeff Hayden (DFL-MN); and Judge John Tunheim, MN Chief U.S. District judge.
12:06	54:00	Social Psychology	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Why millennials work the way they do? Katie Couric discuss this issue with authors Simon Sinek and Adam Grant.
			FRIDAY JULY 7, 2017
9:06	48:15	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: What if community college were free? Topic was discussed with Brian Rosenberg, Macalester College President, Tim Wynes, President of Inver Hills Community College, and Antoinette Flores, senior policy analyst at the Center for American Progress.
11:06	51:26	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Living legend Cornbread Harris shares stories and songs. Harris recorded an in-studio session with local host Andrea Swensson and Tom Weber to kick off The Current summer music series.
12:06	54:00	Book: Politics	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: How presidents prepare for Armageddon. Historian Garrett Graff talks about his new book: "Raven rock:..."
			MONDAY JULY 10, 2017
9:06	18:33	Health Care/ International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie talks health care and Russia. Kerri and Ken Rudin, talk health care reform bill and President Trump's meeting with Putin at G-20 summit.
9:23	31:30	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The health care Congress collaborates on. Reporters Russell Berman and Paige Winfeild discuss what Congress could agree on in terms of health care.
11:06	38:04	Conservation	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minn. oil pipeline fight stokes threats, fears of Standing Rock. News host Tom Weber spoke with Enbridge's Lorraine Little and Tara Houska, National Campaigns Director, Honor the Earth.
11:33	13:48	Criminal Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rep. Cornish on Police Training. Rep. Cornish is author of bill that would increase funding for officer training.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: David Brooks annual lecture. The Second Mountain
			TUESDAY JULY 11, 2017
9:06	12:45	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Europe defense spending show it's not worried about Russia. Kerri talks to Doug Bandow, senior fellow at the Cato Institute.
9:22	36:48	Social Relationships	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to fall in love with anyone. NY Times Columnist Mandy Len Catron talks about her book: "How to Fall in Love with Anyone.
11:06	13:10	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: DFL Congressman Keith Ellison talks about impact on Minnesotans of pending health care legislation. He also spoke about Donald Trump Jr.'s meeting with Russian lawyer.
11:28	36:12	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Louis Anderson's Youth in St Paul helped form an Emmy-winning character. Louie talks about the basis for his FX series "Baskets."
12:06	54:00	Social Relationships	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Bill Bishop on why we live with people just like ourselves. Bill discusses how political polarization comes from being ideologically inbred, namely we live near those like ourselves.
			WEDNESDAY JULY 12, 2017

9:06	52:31	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to assess a journalist's use of anonymous sources. Kerri talks with Dana Priest, Washington Post reporter; Mei-Ling Hopgood, Professor at northwestern University's school of Journalism and Barton Gellman, senior fellow at the Century Foundation.
11:06	18:45	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rondo Days festival celebrates 34 years this weekend. Tom spoke with Marvin Anderson, a former Rondo resident and director of Rondo Ave.
11:27	31:58	Environment	MPR News with Tom Weber: Documentary: How Ely has navigated environmental, economic concerns.
12:06	54:00	Social Relationships	MPR News Presents: The Thread Book Hour with Dani Shapiro and Jeff VanderMeer. Memoirist Dani Shapiro spoke to Kerri Miller about her latest, "Hourglass," and the fragile strength of marriage. Jeff VanderMeer discussed his sci-fi hit, "Borne."
THURSDAY JULY 13, 2017
9:06	47:33	Employment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: Career Advice for misfits. Jennifer Romolini joins Kerri Miller to discuss her new book, "Weird in a World That's Not."
11:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Live broadcast from Ely, Minn.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: Listen live to the MPR-50 broadcast from Ely, MN. Panelists and audience tell us what they think the rest of the state doesn't understand about life in Ely.
FRIDAY JULY 14, 2017
10:06	52:30	Environment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Environmental Justice, Kerri talks with three guests, Terry Tempest Williams (newest book "The Hour of Land."); Nicole Rom, Exe. Dir. For Climate Generation: A Will Steger Legacy; and Mitch Hedlund, Exe. Dir. for Recycle Across America.
11:06	9:23	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: St. Louis Park may raise tobacco purchase age. Tom Weber talked with Sue Sanger, a St. Louis Park City Council member who is sponsoring the ordinance.
11:16	43:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Reina Del Cid talks about her musical evolution. Reina Del Cid and her band visited The Current's studio to record a session with Local Show host Andrea Swensson and MPR News host Tom Weber as part of Tom's Summer Music Series.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: StoryCorps founder David Isay on the importance of listening. According to Isay, telling our stories reduces fear and increases hope.
MONDAY JULY 17, 2017
9:06	17:11	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	31:08	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: What you need to know about single-payer health plans. Kerri talks to Gerald Kominski, director of the UCLA center for Health Policy and Archelle Georgiou, author of "Healthcare choice: 5 Steps to Getting the Medical Care You Want and Need."
11:06	36:18	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: UMN president Eric Kaler says UMN will stay competitive even with tuition hike.
11:42	15:20	Crime	MPR News with Tom Weber: Councilmember Linea Palmisano reacts to police shooting of Justine Ruszczuk.
12:06	54:00	Government	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Has Democracy Run Its Course? Political philosopher Michele Moody-Adams, Pulitzer Prize-winning historian Jack Rakove and German-born, Yascha Mounk talk about the value of participatory government and how it can be renewed.
TUESDAY JULY 18, 2017

9:06	11:05	Media: How news is reported	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-Ed: Does the media have a martyr syndrome? Gary Abernathy discusses his Washington Post op-ed titled: The Media's Martyr Complex is Embarrassing.
9:18	41:25	Media: How news is shared	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How you share news and do you know if it is fake or real. Kerri talked to Vox media's Jeff Guo and NPR's Elizabeth Jensen.
11:06	10:01	Criminal Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Australians see woman's shooting by police as U.S. nightmare. Tom talks about Sydney newspaper headline "AMERICAN NIGHTMARE." Philip Alpers, a gun policy analyst, University of Sydney writes about stark differences in gun laws between US and Australia.
11:19	40:23	Science	MPR News with Tom Weber: What can we learn from new research into opioid addiction? New research into opioid addiction is discussed by Dr. Joseph Lee of Hazelden Betty Ford Institute
12:06	54:00	Crime	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Stopping the violence in American's cities. A Cook County Sheriff, a pastor and former high school principal talk about violence in our cities
WEDNESDAY JULY 19, 2017
9:06	15:22	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: What's happening with the health care bill? Kerri talks to Politico reporter Paul Demko about Trump plan to let Obamacare fail.
9:25	33:08	Finance/Ethics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: How to find a good financial planner. Kerri talks to financial educator Ruth Hayden on new Labor Dpt. Regulations requiring he/she act in your best interest.
11:06	32:23	Social Relationships	MPR News with Tom Weber: Reformed extremist now fighting hate. Christian Picciolini, the author of "Romantic Violence: Memoirs of an American Skinhead" is a former member of a violent far-right hate group.
11:39	19:48	Crime	MPR News with Tom Weber: 74 Seconds Podcast: To be black and armed in Minnesota.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Rural Realities, Problems and Opportunities. Three speaker suggest ways small communities can find a better future: Molly Hemstreet of Morganton, NC, Rob Riley of NH, and Kelly Ryan of Wisconsin Rapids.
THURSDAY JULY 20, 2017
9:06	41:10	Terrorism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: How has Terrorism Changed since 9/11? Kerri talks to former FBI special Agent Ali Soufan about his book, "Anatomy of Terror."
11:06	50:59	Immigration/citizenship	MPR News with Tom Weber: Homecoming: Experiences of Korean-American adoptees who returned to Korea to live. Kaomi Goetz, an American Journalist and Korean-American adoptee speaks about her podcast series, Adapted.
12:06	54:00	Science	MPR News Presents: BBC special: The Rise of the Robots. Three of the world's leading roboticists talk: Ayanna Howard, Paul Newman and Ashitey Trebi-Ollennu.
FRIDAY JULY 21, 2017
10:06	51:45	Media Mechanics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable on the media: Guests Gayle Golden, Senior Lecturer at Univ. of Minnesota's Hubbard School; Naaima Kahn, program director at the Bush foundation; Pat Lopez, editorial writer for the Star Tribune.
11:06	51:03	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Manchita performs emotional new solo EP in The Current studio. Manchita sings and talks about her solo project, One .
12:06	54:00	Health Care	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Prescriptions for a better Health future. Dr. Ezekiel Emanuel, oncologist, and Dr. Ken Davis, CEO of Mt. Sinai Health system discuss how to improve our health care system.
MONDAY JULY 24, 2017

9:06	15:14	National politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin talks Spicer, Kushner and health care. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:22	33:48	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: How much are we willing to pay for healthcare? Kerri talked to Elizabeth Bradley, Vassar College President and Renee Crichlow, from U of M School of Medicine.
11:06	38:08	Criminal Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: The shooting of Justine Ruszczyk. Panelists media artist Hlee Lee, attorney Luz Maria Frais and Metropolitan State University assistant professor Don Eubanks discuss recent shooting of Justine Ruszczyk.
11:43	15:29	Business/Economics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Metro Transit rate hikes could be approved Wednesday. Outgoing Met Council chair Adam Duinick discussed proposed rate hikes.
12:06	54:00	Criminal Justice	MPR News Presents: Fear as an element of police culture. Kerri Miller hosts today with Susan Gaertner, former Ramsey County attorney; Jim Bueermann, President of the Police Foundation; MPR reporter, Brandt Williams; Minn. City Council member Linea Palmisano and Ginger Charles, former police officer.
TUESDAY JULY 25, 2017
9:06	16:11	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-Ed: What President Trump gets right about the Middle East. Kerri talked to Steven A. Cook-senior fellow from the Council on Foreign Relations about his article, "What Trump Gets Right about the Middle East."
9:22	32:10	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'How to be Muslim: An American Story.' Kerri talked to author Haroon Moghul about his new memoir, "How to be Muslim: An American Story."
11:06	14:34	Criminal Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: State wide hate crime hotline already getting a range of calls. Minneapolis has launched a new statewide hotline to report potential hate crimes. Tom talks with Velma Korbel, Director of the MN Civil Rights Dept.
11:19	37:27	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Sting Ray bikes and eight track tapes: New memoir remembers Bloomington in the 1970's. Sports Illustrated writer Steve Rushin has authored a new memoir of growing up in Bloomington, MN during the 1970's.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: Sen. Al Franken on what he's learned serving Minnesota. The senator talks about his new memoir and marrying comedy and politics
WEDNESDAY JULY 26, 2017
9:06	14:30	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: The latest on health care politics. Jennifer Haberkorn of Politico discussed the latest vote on Affordable Care Act.
9:22	33:49	People & Places	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: The life of a long-haul trucker. Kerri spoke to trucker Finn Murphy about his new book, "The Long Haul."
11:06	7:06	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Listen: An update on Senate efforts to repeal Obamacare. Mary Agnes Carey, senior correspondent with Kaiser Health News discussed ACA.
11:12	5:38	Law & Justice	New policy expands required use of body cams by Mpls. Cops. Reporter Brandt Williams discussed the new policy.
11:17	25:10	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's the future of the student loan forgiveness program? Shahien Nasiripour Bloomberg News education reporter tries to make sense of loan forgiveness programs and what is next.
11:47	12:40	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Remembering Anna Gibbs. Anton Treuer teachers Ojibwe at Bemidji State University and he spoke about Gibbs' legacy and life.

12:06	54:00	Employment/careers	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Job skills for now and the future. Penny Pritzker, former Commerce Secretary; Rom Fanning, CEO of Southern Company; Peter Orszag, co-head of health care at Lazard Freres & Co Orszag all agree re-training and lifelong learning are required for future employment.
THURSDAY JULY 27, 2017
9:06	45:27	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: What you need to know about Russia. Fianna Strategies' Molly McKew and The Atlantic's Julia Ioffe shared the latest on Russia.
11:06	15:07	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Tribal leaders: Red Lake Reservation faces drug crisis. Salena Beasley, project director of Red Lake Chemical Health program discusses growing heroin and opiate crisis and few resources for rehabilitation.
11:17	35:35	Environment / Agriculture	MPR News with Tom Weber: As foodies seek local, Midwest farmers go global. Reporter Elizabeth Dunbar and photographer Maria Cardona discussed their latest work around the agriculture in Minnesota.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Five GPO governors share ideas on health care, education and more. Scott Walker (WI), Doug Burgum (ND), Mary Fallon (OK), Phil Bryant (MI), and Eric Greitens (MO)
FRIDAY JULY 28, 2017
10:06	51:45	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: The Health Care discussion we're not having. Guests discuss ways to improve the American Health care system: Larry Jacobs (U of M; Dr. Courtney Baechler (Allina's P. G. Institute; Dr. Rajiv Shah (CEO of My Meds.); Dr. Deb Dittberner (Alexandria Clinic.)
11:06	52:23	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Soul singer PaviELLE talks musical heritage, what being an artist means to her. PaviELLE French stopped in to perform in The Current Studio from her latest album.
12:06	54:00	Technology	MPR News Presents: What your interactions with robots say about your character. NPR's Shankar Vedantam talked with Kate Darling of MIT about how we interact with machines
MONDAY JULY 31, 2017
9:06	14:58	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Tom Weber fills in for Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene and the change of staff in the White House.
9:20	34:05	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: Where we stand on the politics of health care. Tom Weber fills in for Kerri and talks with Cicily Hampton, Dir. of Health Policy (SOPHE) and Sarah Gollust, Assoc. Prof. at the U. of M. School of Public Health.
11:06	39:13	Medical	MPR News with Tom Weber: Does playing football lead to brain disease? Tom talked with Dr. Michael Alosco, one the authors of the JAMA research on this issue.
11:47	11:30	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesotans get a glimpse at next year's health care rates. Head of the Minnesota Council of Health Plans, Jim Schowalter, discussed the preliminary rates released by insurers for 2018.
12:06	54:00	Privacy/Civil liberties	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Living in the surveillance economy. What are the pros and cons of living in what people are calling a "surveillance economy?" Julia Angwin, Rebecca MacKinnon, Anita Allen.
TUESDAY AUGUST 1, 2017
9:06	12:49	Health/Science	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How the opioid crisis is affecting infants. Story audio: Jacqueline Ann Dionne, MN Dept. of Health's Dir. of Am. Indian Hlth, and Jeff Schiff, Medical Dir. for the MN Dept. of Human Services discuss MN programs aimed at helping opioid-addicted infants.

9:23	34:33	People & Places	MPR News with Kerri Miller: A demagogue, a massacre and the ‘Road to Jonestown.’ Investigative reporter speaks to MPR producer Marcheta Fornoff about his new book, “The Road to Jonestown: Jim Jones and Peoples Temple.”
11:06	52:23	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Photos: Looking back at the I-35W bridge collapse.
12:06	54:00	Medical	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Can DNA help us grapple with the past? Michele Norris (a MN native) and sociologist Alondra Nelson offer some answers to the question.
WEDNESDAY AUGUST 2, 2017
9:06	52:11	Criminal Justice	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: How to make the justice system more restorative. Kerri talked to author Baz Dreisinger
11:06	23:15	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Keillor, not slowing down, still crisscrossing U.S. with big tour. Euan Kerr talks with Garrison Keillor as he embarks on a 28-city tour, he says will be his last.
11:30	29:00	Accident	MPR News with Tom Weber: Special coverage: Minnehaha Academy explosion.
12:06	54:00	War/Military	MPR News Presents: Warrior Diplomats: A look into U.S. Special Operations. Hosted by Madeleine Brand featured Adm. William McRaven, who oversaw the raid in Pakistan that took our Osama ben Laden.
THURSDAY AUGUST 3, 2017
9:06	52:30	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Here’s what you need to know about election fraud. Kerri talked to Vann Newkirk, a writer at the Atlantic and Justin Levitt, a law professor at Loyola about previous voter fraud studies.
11:06	27:01	Mental Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: MN struggles to catch up as minority mental health needs grow. Willie Garrett, Pres. Of the MN Ass. Of Black Psychologists talks about the shortage of mental health providers overall and especially those of color.
11:13	17:04	Mental Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: David Perry: ‘Why I won’t raise my son in Illinois.’ David Perry left a well-paid, tenured university job in Illinois to move his wife and son with Down Syndrome to Minneapolis because he believes he can get better care for him in MN.
12:06	54:00	Race	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Being Latino in America today. Former San Antonio Mayor Henry Cisneros, Maria Hinojosa host of the public radio program Latino USA, Janet Murguia, president and CEO of the National Council of La Raza, moderated by Monica Lozano.
FRIDAY AUGUST 4, 2017
10:06	51:23	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: When books get made into films. A rebroadcast of Kerri’s discussion with three bibliophiles about favorite books that have made it to the big screen.
11:06	7:47	Agriculture	MPR News with Tom Weber: North Dakota Farmers Union wants federal disaster payments. Mark Watne, Pres. Of the N.D. Farmers Union discusses federal disaster payments to assist farmers through one of the worst droughts in the state since the 1980’s.
11:14	44:41	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rapper Allan Kingdom on what it means to be an artist from St. Paul. Before his appearance at the Pizza Luce Block Party, rapper Allan Kingdom reflects on his journey from coming up in the St. Paul scene to collaborating with Kanye
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: National Book Award finalists at Concordia College. NPR’s John Ydstie interviews tow National Book Awards finalist: Karan Mahajan, author of “The Association of Small Bombs” and Andres Resendez, Author of “The Other Slavery: The Uncovered Story of Indian Enslavement in America.”
MONDAY AUGUST 7, 2017

9:06	14:57	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:22	33:42	Medicine	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why are drug prices so high? And What can be done? Kerri talked with two experts on the high cost of drugs in the U.S.: Dr. Kvita Patel (Brookings Institution), and Leigh Purvis (AARP Public Policy Inst.)
11:06	47:24	Discrimination	MPR news with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: Affirmative action in higher education. Panel explores whether colleges' admissions programs discriminate against white and Asian-American applicants. Panelists: Hlee Lee, Luz Maria Fraiss, Anthony Galloway
11:53	6:07	Discrimination	MPR News with Tom Weber: Tom talks with Mohamed Omar, Executive Director of the Dar Al-Farooq Islamic Center
12:06	54:00	Science	MPR News Presents: Scientists quest for "The Rules of Life." Richard Paul produced a documentary, profiling scientists looking for the code that holds the keys that govern every aspect of every living thing on Earth.
TUESDAY AUGUST 8, 2017
9:06	14:45	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-Ed: What President Trump is accomplishing. Kerri Miller talks to The Atlantic's David Frum about the President's accomplishments thus far.
9:22	33:22	Politics / Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The influence of conservative media. LA Times editor Jackie Calmes and senior editor at The Federalist, David Harsanyi about the world of conservative media.
11:06	14:17	Environment	MPR News with Tom Weber: How will the White House respond to new climate report? Tom talks with Dr. Peter Gleick, a member of U.S. National Academy of Science and President of Pacific Institute.
12:06	54:00	Environment	MPR News Presents: Al Gore speaks about new movie, 'An Inconvenient Sequel: Truth to Power.'
WEDNESDAY AUGUST 9, 2017
9:06	12:45	Addiction	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The legal opioid dilemma. Kerri spoke to MN resident Malia Cole for another perspective on prescription drugs.
9:22	35:22	Social Relationships	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Importance of names, ancestry and legacy with Camille Dungy. Kerri talks with Camille Dungy and her new book of nonfiction, "Guidebook to Relative Strangers: Journeys into Race, Motherhood, and History."
11:06	34:46	Parenting	MPR News with Tom Weber: Top 5 questions to ask about your birth hospital. Tom talked to Univ. of MN associate professor Katy Kozhimannil and Sawtooth Mtn. Clinic doctor Sandy Stover to learn more.
11:18	13:36	Agriculture	MPR News with Tom Weber: What we learned at Farm fest. MPR's Elizabeth Dunbar went to MN Farm fest.
11:33	12:15	Social Psychology	MPR News with Tom Weber: How can information about who buys sex help prevent trafficking? Tom followed up a report on this by Dan Kraker last week, with Dr. Lauren Martin.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Being Muslim and American in 2017. Two American Muslims, Haris Tarin and Rabia Chaudry share their experiences as Muslims in America.
THURSDAY AUGUST 10, 2017
9:06	47:25	Mechanics of journalism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: MPR news Exe. Dir. Nancy Cassutt took on tough questions from the audience about the editorial process at MPR
11:06	21:59	Public Transportation	MPR News with Tom Weber: Met Council Chair, Alene Tchourumoff: Southwest light rail work should start in the next year. She laid out the bipartisan agenda for transportation and infrastructure, including the new light rail line.

11:30	28:03	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Weekend celebration marks Capitol building reopening. Guests Denis Gardner (author: Our Minnesota State Capitol), and Marjorie Pearson, architectural historian (author of Approaching the Capitol: The Story of the MN State Capitol Mall) that appeared in the Minnesota History Magazine.
12:06	54:00	American History	MPR News Presents: America's history of impeaching presidents. NPRR legal affairs reporter Nina Totenberg explains the presidential impeachment process, and our past two experiences: the trials of Andrew Johnson and Bill Clinton
			FRIDAY AUGUST 11, 2017
9:06	51:34	Health & Science	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: How to have a fruitful conversation about infertility. Elyse Ash, founder of Fruitful Fertility; Linda Hammer Burns, a licensed psychologist and Assoc. Prof. at U of M Medical School; and Dr. Elizabeth Stewart, chair of the div. of reproductive endocrinology and infertility at the Mayo Clinic discuss the latest science, misunderstandings and support for couples or individuals struggling to have biological children.
11:06	510:56	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Summer Music Series: Thelonesomekid performs in the Current studio. Painter and punk poet Gretchen Seichrist talks to Tom and the Current's Andrea Swensson.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Authors take on American empathy and the edge of the world. Conversations with novelist Stephanie Powell Watts about race, class and life in small-town America and Ashley Shelby and her novel, "South Pole Station."
			MONDAY AUGUST 14, 2017
9:06	54:00	Social issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Charlottesville and the legacy of slavery. Kerri discussed what the violence in Charlottesville reveals about American's struggle to reconcile the country's legacy of slavery with Michael Fauntroy, political science assoc. prof at Howard University, Khalilah Brown-Dean, Assoc. Prof. of Poly Sci at Quinnipiac University.
11:06	49:45	Social issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesotans react to Charlottesville rally. Guests: Carin Mrotz, Exe. Dir. Jewish Community Action; DeWayne Davis, senior pastor, All God's Children Metro Comm. Church; Tony McAleer, co-founder of Life After Hate; Keith Mayes, prof. of African American and African Studies, U. of M..
12:06	54:00	National Government	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Reclaiming the democratic virtues of moderation, civility and compromise. Amy Walter moderates a panel with Michael Gerson, David Brooks and Peter Wehner.
			TUESDAY AUGUST 15, 2017
9:06	29:42	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: Documenting the Ferguson protests. Host Euan Kerr speaks with Sabaah about her book: "Whose Streets" by Sabaah Folyan is an "unflinching look at the Ferguson uprising."
9:45	19:31	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How serious is the nuclear threat from North Korea? Euan Kerr spoke with Sheila Smith, senior fellow for Japan studies at the Council on Foreign Relations.
11:06	25:44	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: What happens now? In the final episode of 74 Seconds, we trace some of the lingering impacts of the Philando Castile case and how Castile's death fits into the larger issue of police shootings around the country.
11:31	25:00	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Charlottesville rally spark conversation about free speech. Jane Kirtley, Professor at the U. of M School of Journalism discussed the First Amendment.
12:06	54:00	Social Issues	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Henry Louis Gates, Jr. on race and class in America. Gates discusses "The America I Know: Black in America Since Martin Luther King." What would we tell MLK if he came back and wanted to know what happened?

WEDNESDAY AUGUST 16, 2017
9:06	16:28	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: Political Junkie talks Charlottesville. Ken Rudin discusses Charlottesville
9:24	31:31	Psychology	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How the books you read growing up still matter. Author Hood discusses the books that have stayed with her from her earliest years of reading.
11:06	14:38	Social Relationships	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump ends manufacturing panel after 3M CEO exits. Trump disbands manufacturing panel after Inge Thulin and Campbell Soup CEO Denise Morrison resigned.
11:23	35:09	Social Relationships	MPR News with Tom Weber: Boomer downsizing. Bill Lehman co-owner of Gentle Transitions.
12:06	54:00	American History	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Jon Meacham on presidential character and temperament. Historian Jon Meacham says a knowledge of history “tames” presidents and is essential for leadership.
THURSDAY AUGUST 17, 2017
9:06	46:43	Immigration	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What it’s like to be an immigrant in a time of uncertainty. Novelist, Dina Nayeri, who left Iran when she was 10, explores the themes of isolation, assimilation and immigration in her new book “Refuge.”
11:06	21:20	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnehaha Academy head: ‘I don’t ask God why’ blast happened. Donna Harris, the school’s president, who survived the gas explosion that killed two staffers, speaks to Tom about her response.
11:28	27:08	Science	MPR News with Tom Weber: How to enjoy the eclipse, and not burn out your eyes. Tom and Sally Brummel, of the Bell Museum of Natural History, discussed the upcoming eclipse
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Walter Isaacson on how we can be more like da Vinci. Isaacson, President and CEO of the Aspen Institute says “genius isn’t just a function of intelligence—it’s also about curiosity and creativity.
FRIDAY AUGUST 18, 2017
9:06	51:44	Careers	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to get more women into corner offices. Kerri spoke with 3 female business leaders: Janet Dolan, Pres. Of Act 3 Consulting; Mary Pokluda, CEO of Bumblebee Personal Assistants; Susan Boren, former mgr. at Spencer Stuart, exec. Search firm.
11:06	49:07	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Summer Music Series: Tufawon shares his experiences as an artist and activist. Tufawon visited the Current’s studio and talked with Andrea Swensson and Tom about his experiences as a globetrotting hip-hop artist and activist.
12:06	54:00	Science	MPR News Presents: NPR’s Richard Harris on the dangers of sloppy science. Harris discussed the state of medical science with author Mary Roach during a 7/13/17 program at the Commonwealth Club of CA, aired Friday 8/18/17.
MONDAY AUGUST 21, 2017
9:06	29:54	Social Relationships	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to be more than a bystander. Kerri talked to Aimee Allison, Pres. Of Democracy in Color and Amos Guiora, Law Prof. at University of Utah, author of “The Crime of Complicity: The bystander in the Holocaust.”
10:06	18:04	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Bannon is out, but is his influence over? Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
11:06	10:16	Environment	MPR News with Tom Weber: Line 3 oil pipeline environmental review released. MPR’s Dan Kraker of Duluth bureau discusses the final environmental impact statement of the so-called “Line 3” project.

11:16	36:15	Mechanics of journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Editorial Cartoonist Steve sack on 36 yrs. of commentary caricature. Pulitzer-Prize winning cartoonist Steve Sack talks about his new book, “First and Only Book of Sack,” looking back at political history in caricature
12:06	54:00	Astronomy	MPR News Presents: Listen live to NPR special: solar eclipse across America. NPR hosts Robin Young and Meghna Chakrabarti follow the Eclipse across the nation.
TUESDAY AUGUST 22, 2017
9:06	13:47	War/Military	MPR News with Kerri Miller: America’s longest war continues. David Schanzer, director of the Triangle Ctr on Terrorism and Homeland Security at Duke University talked about the president’s plans.
9:06	34:54	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Pop Culture’s mixed messages to women. Kerri talked with Carina Chocano, author of “You Play the Girl,” a collection of essays that examines the kind of messages about women portrayed by popular media.
11:06	8:52	Tourism	MPR News with Tom Weber: MSP check point in Terminal 1 closed for three weeks. Patrick Hogan, director of Public Affairs and Marketing at the Metro Airport Comm. Talked about the changes to security.
11:15	42:19	Mental Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: A psycho Professor asks: Have smartphones destroyed a generation? Jean Twenge talks about her book: “iGen: Why today’s Super-Connected Kids are growing Up Less Rebellious, More Tolerant, Less Happy—and Completely Unprepared for Adulthood—and What that Means for the Rest of Us.”
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Truth, Politics and Power: A North Korea update. Former NPR host Neal Conan explores the diplomatic and military situation with a former negotiator, a former high level Pentagon Official and a historian: Christopher Hill-ambassador, Sheila Miyoshi Jager-Professor, Michele Flournoy-former Undersecretary of Defense of Policy.
WEDNESDAY AUGUST 23, 2017
9:06	14:41	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Do school voucher systems work? Since Education Sec’t Betsy DeVos champions school vouchers, Kerri talked to Tulane University economics professor Douglas Harris about school reform.
9:20	33:34	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is President Trump fulfilling campaign promises? Kerri talked to Reed Galen (Jedburghs LLC) and Wendy Schiller, Chair of Political Science Dept. at Brown University about President Trump’s recent rally and erosion of his support among Republicans.
11:06	21:09	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: The incredible life of the MN State Fair Police Chief. Tom talks to Art Blakey about his 37 years as state fair police chief as he retires this year.
11:37	28:40	Race Relations	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: How can white allies help fight hate? Panelist Hlee Lee, Luz Maria Fraiss and Don Eubanks talked about how white allies can help fight against hate and for racial equity.
12:06	54:00	American History	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Are the founding fathers overrated? David Rubenstein, co-CEO of the Carlyle Group, regent of the Smithsonian Institution and Chair of JFK Center of Performing Arts wondered this because they could not resolve slavery.
THURSDAY AUGUST 24, 2017
9:06	42:08	State Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: A Q&A with Governor Dayton at the State Fair. MN Gov. Dayton talked about is 40years of government service and his plans for his future.
11:06	52:33	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Franken, Klobuchar deny blocking Trump’s federal nomination. The senators say they’re still considering state Supreme Court justice David Stras’ nomination to a federal post.

12:06	54:00	Race Relations	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: When colorblindness renders me invisible to you. Moderator Michele Norris talks with Darren Walker and Jeff Raikes about race and color blindness and it's consequences.
FRIDAY AUGUST 25, 2017
9:06	52:43	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: What are the consequences of rising college costs? Kerri talks to Sharon Smith-Akinsanya, founder of the People of Color Career Fair, Trey Williams, Dir. of TRIO/Student Support Services at Carleton College and Isaac Jahraus, Pres. Of Lead MN.
11:06	46:04	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Indie-folk group Fathom Lane lets listeners slow down. The expansive indie-folk group Fathom Lane, accompanied by the Laurels String Quartet, visited the studio for Summer Music Series.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: Cathy Wurzer Hosts TPT's Almanac at MPR State Fair Booth. Cathy and Eric Eskola talked with MPR political reporter Brian Bakst, U of M climatologist Mark Seeley, story teller Kevin Kling, MPR's political debates moderator Gary Eichten.
MONDAY AUGUST 28, 2017
9:06	52:16	Medicine	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: Dr. Jon Hallberg and host Tom Crann at the State Fair. D. Jon Hallberg and Dr. Andrew Kiragu discussed big themes in medicine.
11:23	30:31	International Refugee Relief	MPR News with Tom Weber: Drought, humanitarian crisis continues in Somalia. Mohamed Idris, Executive Director of American Relief Agency for the Horn of Africa discussed the continuing drought and famine in Somalia and Yemen.
12:06	54:00	Business/Economics	MPR News Presents: Climate One: Tesla and the future of cars. This is a new program from the Commonwealth Club's "Climate One" series about electric cars, autonomous vehicles and the eccentric entrepreneur Elon Musk.
TUESDAY AUGUST 29, 2017
9:06	18:31	Environment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What climate science says about hurricanes. Kevin Trenberth, senior scientist at the National Ctr for Atmospheric Research discussed how climate plays a hand in major climate events.
9:25	29:52	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The lives of those within 'The Force.' Don Winslow is the author of "The Cartel" and he talked to Kerri about his new novel, "The Force."
11:06	51:43	Environment	MPR News with Tom Weber: MPR News with Tom Weber: Weather quiz: Have you kept an eye on Minnesota's skies? Dr. Mark Seeley present his annual Fair weather quiz.
12:06	54:00	Race	MPR News Presents: NAACP President Derrick Johnson speaks on race in America. His talk to the Nat'l Pres Club will be: "Beyond Charlottesville: The Policies Undergirding Trump's White Supremacist Agenda."
WEDNESDAY AUGUST 30, 2017
9:06	53:28	Mental Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How can colleges help depressed students? Kaz Nelson (U. of M.'s dept. of Psychiatry and Gregory Eells (Cornell Univ. counselling Services, shared what colleges are doing to help students and what signs of depression parents should look for in their children.
10:06	53:20	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Q&A with Republican leader Paul Gazelka. GOP Senate Majority Leader Paul Gazelka, R-Nisswa, talked about the messy end to the 2017

11:06	52:10	Environment	MPR News with Tom Weber: Live at the Fair: Explorer Ann Bancroft on her plans to travel the Mississippi. Bancroft wants to bring environmental awareness to North America by traveling down the Mississippi. She was joined by fellow educator Patrick Nunnally, Coord. of the river Life program.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Bill Bishop on political polarization and ‘The Big Sort’. Bill Bishop says some of our political polarization comes from we are ideologically inbred and can’t conceive of people who live just a few miles away.
			THURSDAY AUGUST 31, 2017
9:06	14:29	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie on Hurricane Harvey. Ken Rudin talked about Pres. Trump’s visit to Harvey-ravaged Texas and Congress’ agenda for their upcoming session.
9:21	27:58	Climate/Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Kerri talked to Ike Brannon of the Cato Institute and Laura Lightbody of the Pew Charitable Trusts about America’s flood insurance programs.
11:06	48:31	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: A torn Trump still weighing fate of young immigrants. Tom talked with two brothers from Guatemala and their attorney about Trump’s promise to end the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program (DACA.)
12:06	54:00	Behavioral Health	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: David Brooks on the ‘annunciation moments’ in life. David Brooks’ annual Aspen Ideas Festival Lecture: “The Second Mountain: The Next Big Challenge in Your Life.”
			FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 1, 2017
9:06	52:29	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: The power of live performance, part 1. Kerri spoke with Tai Coleman, Assistant Prof at St. Catherine University and St. Paul Mayor Chris Coleman.
11:06	52:44	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Jeremy Messersmith performs live at the Minnesota State Fair. Messersmith joined Tom and the Current’s Andrea Swensson at Dan Patch Park.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: MPR Day at the State Fair: How well do you know Minnesota? Cathy Wurzer of MPR and Sean McPherson of The Current had a news quiz featuring local celebrities: Minn. Mayor R.T. Rybak, KARE-11 reporter and co-host Jana Shortal and MPR’s Tom Weber.
			MONDAY SEPTEMBER 4, 2017
9:06	45:46	Employment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Could modern-day apprenticeships boost wages, opportunity? Chris Farrell, senior economics contributor talked to Andrew Hanson (Georgetown University’s Center on Education and the Workforce, and Angela Hanks, assoc. director of workforce development policy at the Center for American Progress about the value of apprenticeships to reduce youth unemployment and producing skilled labor.
11:06	45:46	Employment	MPR News with Tom Weber.
12:06	54:00	People & Places	MPR News Presents: Labor Day special: The Working Tapes of Studs Terkel. Radio Diaries producer Joe Richman selected several of Terkel’s interview subjects, some of which spoke again more than 40 years later, for the documentary: “The Working Tapes of Studs Terkel.”
			TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 5, 2017
9:06	14:49	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Congress is back, with a jam-packed schedule. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.

9:21	34:12	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What should we make of the situation in North Korea? Tom Weber filling in for Kerri, talked to Sherry Gray, Director of the International Fellows and Scholars Program at U of M's Humphrey School of Public Affairs, and Sung-Yoon Lee, Assist. Prof. of Korean studies at Tufts University.
11:06	17:01	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump ends 'Dreamers' immigrant protections, tells Congress to act. The Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals granted legal protections to roughly 800,000 people. This will expire in 6 months unless Congress acts.
11:24	17:47	Discrimination	MPR News with Tom Weber: Why do missing Native American women go unreported? Nicole Matthews, Exe. Dir. of the MN Indian Women's Sexual Assault Coalition talked to Tom Weber after the murder of Savanna Greywind in Fargo.
11:41	16:52	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Lawmakers open bipartisan health care hearings this week. Julie Rovner from Kaiser Health News joined discussion about how to stabilize current markets and especially the individual health care market.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: Truth, Politics and Power: Voter fraud. NPR host Neal Conan explores the history of voting rights, voter fraud and the current investigations. Guests: Ron Hayduk, Political Science at San Francisco State Univ.; Linda Chavez, political commentator; Julia Azari, Political science at Marquette University.
WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 6, 2017
9:06	52:39	Environment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Harvey, Irma and the mounting costs of climate-enhanced weather events. MPR chief meteorologist Paul Huttner talked to Angela Fritz, deputy weather editor at the Washington Post, about "the fingerprint of climate change on every weather event now." Other guests: Noah Diffenbaugh, Newsha Ajami, Amir Jina, Andrew Siffert.
11:06	4:52	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Diversity grows in MN schools, but not on school boards. Observers say it's crucial school boards reflect the racial and ethnic diversity of district kids. Abdi Sabrie, A Somali-American joined the discussion.
12:06	54:00	Science	MPR News Presents: Ancestry's Catherine Ball on your broader human family. An exploration of what makes up our human family. Ball says genetic research can help us understand how immigration, geography, religion and even politics have shaped our individual, and shared history.
THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 7, 2017
9:06	52:29	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What can we expect from Congress this session? Guest host Chris Farrell talked to political reporters: Russell Berman, Sr. Assoc. editor at the Atlantic, and Sean Sullivan, Nat'l political reporter for the Washington Post.
11:06	17:01	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Big question in health care: Can congress come together? MNsure CEO Allison O'Toole shared her thoughts on the state of the country's health care and her upcoming testimony to Congress.
11:23	18:30	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: State education commissioner on ACT scores, teacher diversity. Brenda Cassellius discussed big issues facing education in MN.
11:39	19:33	Criminal Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Life after chief: Jane Harteau on what's next. Former MN police chief Harteau reflects on her years in law enforcement and her new focus...to have a larger impact on the profession.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: House Speaker Paul Ryan on congressional priorities. Ryan says No. 1 priority this fall.
FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 8, 2017

9:06	48:44	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: The Power of live performances, part 2. Kerri spoke to 3 musicians about the performances that shaped their careers: Brother Ali, hip hop artist and activist; John Munson, a bassist and songwriter; and Cameron Kinghorn, leader of the funk ensemble Nooky Jones.
11:06	13:37	Crime	MPR News with Tom Weber: Alexandria celebrates teen's homecoming after monthlong captivity. Tom spoke to Alexandria Police Chief Wyfells about the kidnapping and assault of a 15 y.o. teen, three men held captive for a month.
11:20	38:36	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Electronic musician blends Middle Eastern, Western rhythms. Ho Syrain musician, Samer Saem Eldahr, has made a home and music in Minnesota.
12:06	54:00	Education	MPR News Presents: National Press Club: Former school lunch lady now heads NEA. Lily Eskelsen Garcia, once a school lunch lady, then Utah's Teacher of the Year is now President of the NEA.
MONDAY SEPTEMBER 11, 2017
9:06	10:15	Science	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Irma: The science behind the storm. John Abraham, University of St. Thomas, talked about the science behind the two enormous storms, Harvey and Irma.
9:20	41:18	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rep. Tom Emmer talks tax reform. Tax reform is a top priority for Congressional Rep. this fall according to U.S. Congressman Tom Emmer.
11:06	25:14	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: How colleges handle sexual assault cases could be changing soon. Sec't of Ed. Betsy DeVos said her dept. is re-evaluating how sexual assault accusations are investigated on college campuses. Caroline Palmer of the MN Coalition Against Sexual Assault is concerned that the progress made under the Obama Administration will be lost.
11:35	23:43	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Big questions in health care: What can the U.S. learn from the rest of the world? Author T.R. Reid traveled the world with a bum shoulder to see what other countries provided for health care and how the United States stacked.
12:06	54:00	Immigration	MPR News Presents: APM reports: Shadow Class: College Dreamers in Trump's America. The attorneys general of 10 states have threatened to sue the Trump administration if it doesn't phase out DACA by Sept. 5th
TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 12, 2017
9:06	14:36	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie: The art of the political deal. Political Junkie Ken Rudin talked about the week in politics, including Trump's recent deal with Democratic leaders "Chuck and Nancy."
9:20	36:18	Health/Addiction	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Surviving a family member's drug addiction. "Mayhem," is new memoir by Sigrid Rausing about her brother's and sister-in-law's descent into drug addiction.
11:06	15:42	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: Attorney: DACA recipients should contact lawyers ASAP. Attorney Jorge Saavedra F. said no matter when your authorization expires, DACA recipients should reach out to a lawyer.
11:32	33:27	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Big questions in health care: Can Minnesota support single-payer? Sen. John Marty, DFL-Roseville, has put forward a proposal called the MN Health Plan, a single -payer health care system in which the state finances basic health care costs from all residents through taxation
12:06	54:00	Education	MPR News Presents: Schools struggle to hold on to teachers they need. The APM reports documentary "Keeping Teachers" shows that black men and teachers in rural areas are in especially short supply.
WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 13, 2017
9:06	10:21	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-ed: How Trump may get the U.S. to 3 percent GDP growth. CNBC Finance Editor Jeff Cox says recent data shows how this might be within reach.

9:17	41:11	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What reforms health insurers want. Sabrina Corlette of Georgetown Univ.'s Health Policy Institute and J.B. Silvers of the Weatherhead School of Management talked about what health insurers want.
11:06	9:36	Transportation	MPR News with Tom Weber: Gubernatorial race could determine Southwest light rail's fate. MPR news reporter Brian Bakst looks at the week's political news, including the time crunch on the Green Line extension and how a Republican governor could stop the project and Gov. Dayton's state Supreme Court victory.
11:06	42:17	Employment	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: New report shows racial inequities in MN. The latest report from 24/7 Wall St. publication shows racial inequities in MN. Guests were: Hlee Lee, a media artist; Luz Maria Frias, an attorney with public policy background; Don Eubanks, Assist. Prof. at Metropolitan State University and cultural consultant.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: Shackled Legacy: Universities and the slave trade. A growing number of colleges and universities in the eastern US are confronting their historic ties to the slave trade.
THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 14, 2017
9:06	45:23	Immigration	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The changing politics of DACA. Priscilla Alvarez, Assist. Editor at The Atlantic and Tom Wong, Assoc. Prof. of Political Science at UC-San Diego discuss Trump work with Democrats and how Congress will react.
11:06	5:19	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Law enforcement, citizens gather to honor officer Bill Mathews. Reporter Tim Nelson described the services for Mathews.
11:12	30:46	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Big questions in health care: What is the conservative vision? Robert Moffit, senior fellow at the Heritage Foundation's Center for Health Policy Studies, discussed the effort to fix health insurance.
11:44	14:02	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: St. Paul poet Danez Smith shines in the national spotlight. This week, Smith's latest book, "Don't Call Us Dead," landed on the longlist for the National Book Award. Smith writes eloquently with what it means to be a young black gay man in America.
12:06	54:00	Education	MPR News Presents: Hard to Read: How American schools fail kids with dyslexia. This SPM Reports documentary explores how improving things for dyslexic kids could help all students learn to read better.
FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 15, 2017
9:06	51:54	Health/Addiction	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: A candid conversation about addiction. How to recover and live with its aftermath was discussed by Claire E. Wilson (MN Dept. of Human Services), Jacqueline Dionne, (MN Dept. Health's American Indian Health), Dr. Joseph Lee, Medical Director, Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation Youth services; DFL State Sen. Chris Eaton, Rep. of 40 th District of MN.
11:06	4:49	National Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump tries to strike a deal with the Dems over DACA. In her podcast, "Shadow Class," APM producer Sasha Aslanian follows young immigrants who want to live the American Dream.
11:10	47:36	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Chorus unites people living with Alzheimer's. The Giving Voice Chorus is made up of Alzheimer's patients and their caregivers.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Conversations with Claire Messud and Nicole Krauss. MPR host Kerri Miller interviews novelists Claire Messud and Nicole Krauss about two of their books: "The Burning Girl," and "Forest Dark."
MONDAY SEPTEMBER 18, 2017

9:06	13:25	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene. And President Trump's ideological compass
9:20	34:08	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The state of gerrymandering in America. Journalist Emily Bazelon, and lawyer Michael Li talk about historic gerrymandering cases and the future of gerrymandering in American politics.
11:06	28:22	Demographics/age	MPR News with Tom Weber: Breaking down the numbers on children's poverty in Minnesota. Patina Park, of the MN Indian Women's' Resource Ctr and Stephanie Hogenson of the state Children's Defense Fund spoke with Tom.
11:37	15:16	Health	MPR News with tom Weber: Nurses union exec suggests U.S. Asks: is health care a right or a privilege? Tom spoke to Rose Roach, Exec. Dir. of the MN Nurses Association about the impact of health insurance on patient care.
11:53	16:12	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: A Hautman brother takes the duck stamp...again. The national contest to design a federal postage stamp has gone to the Minnesotan Hautman family three years in a row.
12:06	54:00	American History	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: The legacy of James Madison. James Madison is considered the "father of the Constitution," and Harvard Law Professor Noah Feldman spoke about Madison's legacy.
TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 19, 2017
9:06	13:06	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What to make of Trump's 'America First' speech at the UN. Kerri spoke with Andrew Bacevich, Prof. Emeritus of history and international relations at Boston University following the broadcast of the address.
11:06	22:35	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: How healthy are Minnesota's pension plans? The vice chairs of the Legislative Comm. On Pensions and Retirement discussed Bloomberg's findings on the state of MN public pensions. Guests: Rep. Tim O'Driscoll, R-Sartell, and Sen. Sandy Pappas, DFL-St. Paul
29:00	29:24	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Will GOP reinsurance plans lower premiums for Minnesotans in 2018? Sen. Michelle Benson, R-Ham Lake, believes the best way forward in the health care debate is not repeal and replace but to stop health insurers from leaving the market.
12:06	54:00	Environment	MPR News Presents: Live: Carl Pope at Westminster Presbyterian Church Town Hall Forum. Environmental leader Carol Pope speaks to: "Can we Save the Planet?"
WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 20, 2017
9:06	47:23	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The science of weight loss. De. Kevin Hall, of the Nat'l Inst Of diabetes and Digestive and kidney diseases, and Victoria Jarzabkowski Lindsay, a dietitian and the owner of District Nutrition discuss the complications of weight loss.
11:06	16:31	Mental Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Online therapy an option for people seeking relief from mental illness. If technology can ease the suffering through mental illness, what should shoppers look for? MPR's Mark Zdechlik spoke to Dr. Karen Cassiday about how she uses online therapy in her practice.
11:22	33:07	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Big questions in health care: Will the bipartisan hearings reform ACA? Andy Slavitt, former acting admin. Of the Ctrs for Medicare and Medicaid Services spoke on this.
12:06	54:00	Diplomacy	MPR News Presents: Intelligence Squared debate: Foreign policy in the Trump era. Former CIA Dir. David Petraeus and military historian Max Boot open with a key note conversation. Also present, Ian Bremmer (Eurasia Group.); Elizabeth Economy (Asia Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations); Noah Feldman (Harvard Law School.); David Shambaugh (China Policy Program at George Washington University.).
THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 21, 2017

9:06	10:51	Environment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: the science behind Mexico's recent earthquakes. What is happening in Mexico which is having multiple earth quakes. John Vidale, Earth sciences Prof. at USC.
9:16	41:08	Linguistics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Should we abolish the adverb? Etymologist Anatoly Liberman answered questions about adverbs and other English language conundrums.
11:06	9:21	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Photos: A look back at a summer at group home for disabled adults. Tom talked to journalist Evan Frost about life at Diane Road, where managers deal with political debates and caregivers get on with helping people with disabilities.
11:15	39:45	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Big questions in health care: What role should insurance companies have? Mary Brainerd, former CEO of HealthPartners, discussed health care reforms and the role of insurance companies in health care.
12:06	54:00	American History	MPR News Presents: George Washington's warning to future generations. Jon Avlon is the author of "Washington's Farewell: The Founding Father's Warning to Future Generations," in which he warns against hyper-partisanship, excessive debt and entanglements in foreign wars.
FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 22, 2017
9:06	48:00	National Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Putting 'America First' at the UN. President Trump spoke before the UN for the first time on 9/19. Today's roundtable, a conversation about how US allies view President trump's "America First plan." Guests: John Radsan, law professor at Hamline School of Law; Laura Bloomberg, Dean at U of M 's School of Public Affairs; James von Geldern, Chair of Russian Studies at Macalester and human rights lawyer.
11:06	15:17	Climate	MPR News with Tom Weber: Puerto Rico faces weeks without electricity after Maria. The eye of Hurricane Maria was nearing the Turks and Caicos early Friday as Puerto Rico sought to recover from the storm's devastation.
11:22	20:41	Agriculture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minn. Grown apples from the U will hit stores soon. The U of M researcher, Dave Bedford and his team developed an apple, "First Kiss," which will be available in 2018. MN signature apples are: Honeycrisp, Sweetango and Zestar.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: Former GOP presidential candidate Jeb Bush in MN. Former Fl. Governor Jeb Bush was interviewed by retired MPR host Gary Eichten about a wide range of current issues, from hurricanes and earthquakes to immigration and health care.
MONDAY SEPTEMBER 25, 2017
9:06	21:26	Discrimination	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie: Protests on the football field. Kerri spoke with Political Junkie Ken Rudin and Washington Post sports reporter, Cindy Boren about the latest from Washington and the football field.
9:27	26:32	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What can we learn from the Chinese education system? In "Little Soldiers," journalist Lenora Chu relays the experience of enrolling her son in a Shanghai Kindergarten, and what she learned about "cultivating a superstar student in China."
11:06	24:35	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: Grappling with the legacy of historic atrocities. MPR News Correspondent Doualy Xaykaothao spoke with Tom about historical injustices along with Portia Johnson a civil rights activist based in Duluth and Sai Sanneh, an attorney at Equal Justice Initiative.
11:31	25:45	American History	MPR News with Tom Weber: Should sacred sites be given back to Native Americans? In June, leaders of the Newport United Methodist Church in MN agreed to return a sacred rock to the Dakota people. Guests:

			Co-host, Doualy Xaykaothao and Tom spoke to Graci Horne of the Sisseton Wahpeton Dakota and Hunkpapa Dakota and Tamara St. John, archivist at the Tribal Historic Preservation office.
12:06	54:00	Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Sherman Alexie on the aftermath of the ‘Native American Apocalypse.’ Kerri interviews author Sherman Alexie as part of the “Talking Volumes” series at the Fitzgerald theater.
			TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 26, 2017
9:06	47:13	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What the latest from D.C. could mean for your health care. Kerri spoke with Mary Agnes Carey of Kaiser Health News, and Dr. Kavita Patel, of the Brookings Institution about the latest developments in health care legislation.
11:06	54:00	Media: The Work of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: The White House through April Ryan’s eyes. Ton interviewed April Ryan, the only black female reporter covering urban issues from the White House and is the author of “The Presidency in Black and White,” and “At Mama’s Knee: Mothers and Race in Black and White.
12:06	54:00	National Politics	MPR News Presents: CNN health town hall featuring four key U.S. senators: Rep. Senators Lindsey Graham and Bill Cassidy and Dem. Senator Amy Klobuchar and Independent Senator Bernie Sanders.
			WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 27, 2017
9:06	52:27	Education	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to raise a reader. Kerri talked to NY Times Book Review editor Pamela Paul and Gene Luen Yang, National Ambassador for Yung People’s Literature, about how to raise a reader.
11:06	10:02	Environmental	MPR News with Tom Weber: Puerto Rico: Communication with the island and an update. Co-Hosts Doualy Xaykaothao and tom checked in with Javier Morillo, a labor leader with ties in Puerto Rico about the MN Puerto Rican community’s effort to raise awareness and money to help.
11:16	10:40	Privacy/Civil Liberty	MPR News with Tom Weber: Coding for Change. Sharon Kennedy Vickers, of Code Switch Minnesota talked about using techies and non-techies to work on projects that will change their communities, i.e. connecting the homeless with open shelter beds.
11:26	29:51	Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: It’s my love, it’s my life’: Minnesota musician, Jarrelle Barton, a young black man, is devoted to Chinese zither.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Truth, Politics and Power: The United States and Iran. Neal Conan and several experts explore the historical context for the troubled relationship between the UD and Iran.
			THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 28, 2017
9:06	51:12	People & places	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Northern Minn. Food traditions. Kerri hosts a “foodie roundtable” exploring the tastes and traditions of the Northland. With their guests, she looks at how the history and geography of northern MN have shaped the food of this region. Guests: Amy Thielen, chef, TV cook and James Beard Award-winning writer; Andrea Baumgardner, a Fargo native, Chef and do-owner of BernBam’s; Bruce Engebretson and his husband Bud Parker from Osage, MN with deep roots to the north country.
11:06	28:50	Race	MPR News with Tom Weber: Al McFarlane on race, media and his long career. McFarlane is the publisher of Insight News, a black-owned newspaper he founded back in the 1970’s.
11:35	20:33	Public Transportation	MPR News with Tom Weber: What will it take to make biking equitable? Anthony, local activist and member of The League of Am. Bicyclist’s Equity Advisory Council.is working to make bicycling more accessible to people of color in the Twin cities.
12:06	54:00	Climate	MPR News Presents: Harvey, Irma, Maria: A hurricane’s human fingerprints. Scientists are looking at the connection between warming oceans, rising sea levels and other factors that are contributing to the intensity of storms. Guests: US Sen. Brian Schatz, D-HI; Ben Santer, Lawrence Livermore Nat’l Labs; John

			Englander, author, “High Tide on Main Street;” Angela Fritz, Mgr.-Weather Underground; Kathryn Sullivan, former NOAA Admin. And astronaut; Hunter Cutting, Climate Nexus, Don Cameron, Terranova Ranch.
			FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 29, 2017
9:06	51:12	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Curbing the effects of Alzheimer’s. Today Kerri’s guests discuss new frontier of Alzheimer’s research. Dr. Ron Petersen, Mayo Clinic’s Alzheimer’s Res. Ctr; Phillis Ferrell, Global Alzheimer’s Platform Team Leader for Lilly BioMedicines; Dr. Michael Rosenbloom, Dir. of the Ctr. for Memory & Aging at the U of M
11:06	52:58	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: The legacy of the Vietnam War. Co-host Doualy Xaykaothao and Tom talk with several guests about the effects of the war on generations of Laotian Americans, Cambodian Americans and Vietnamese Americans. Guests: Lisa Blackstone, TPT Dir. of “Minnesota Remembers Vietnam: America’s Secret War;” Chanida Phaengdara Potter, editor of Little Laos on the Prairie; Kosol Sek of Intn’t Khmer Assembly; and MK Nguyen, of Saint Paul Promise Neighborhood.
12:06	54:00	Business	MPR News Presents: Business Executive Susan Marvin on values and purpose. Susan spoke At St. John’s University about the importance of keeping a healthy and vital rural America and about purpose, values and the importance of reputation.

MINNESOTA PUBLIC RADIO NEWS AND INFORMATION SERVICE
FCC QUARTERLY PROGRAMMING REPORT OF APRIL — JUNE, 2017

KNCM~KNSEK~KNBJ~KBPN~WIRN~WSCR~KNSR~KLNI~WIRC~ KNWF~WLSN~KGRP
WINH~WGGL~KITF~ KXLC~KNOW~KCCD~KRFI~KZSE~KRXW~KAUR~KNGA~KNTN~KNSW

Start Time	Duration min: sec	Issue Addressed	Title and Narrative
			MONDAY APRIL 3, 2017
9:06	16:58	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	31:12	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The uncertain future for Medicaid. Kerri Miller talks with Mary Agnes Carey from Kaiser Health News and Henry J. Aaron from Brookings Institution about what populations Medicaid really serves and what the future holds for the program.
11:06	25:46	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Getting people to care about the caucuses. Star Tribune reporter Adam Belz has been covering the city council races and he explained why the caucuses matter. Organizer Ashley Fairbanks co-founded an effort called "Give a S---, Mpls," also joined the program to discuss how people can engage in this political process.
11:35	16:43	Finance	MPR News with Tom Weber: VP of Minneapolis Federal Reserve Bank steps down after 40 years. James Lyon joined the program to discuss his career and his work on the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, which was passed by President Obama in response to the financial crisis of 2007-2008.
11:51	6:47	Sports	MPR News with Tom Weber: Paying tribute to Minnesota Twin Tom Kelly. MPR producer Jim Bickal recounted his conversation with the legendary Tom Kelly.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: Understanding King's complex legacy five decades later. APM Reports and American RadioWorks put together a documentary on King's final years, produced by Kate Ellis and Stephen Smith, called "King's Last March."
			TUESDAY, APRIL 4, 2017
9:06	48:36	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: An author asks: What's wrong with the Democratic party? Author Thomas Frank spoke with MPR News host Kerri Miller about his new book, "Listen, Liberal."
9:53	6:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread question: What are your summer reading plans? Thread producer Tracy Mumford joined hosts Kerri Miller and Stephanie Curtis to talk about which books they're most excited about this summer.
11:06	49:24	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Exploring 'The Story of Autism.' A new book, "In a Different Key: The Story of Autism" by John Donvan and Caren Zucker, explores the history of the diagnosis.
12:06	54:00	Economy	MPR News Presents: AFL-CIO president talks best ways to create jobs. AFL-CIO president Richard Trumka answers questions at the National Press Club about the best ways to create jobs, reduce income inequality and improve the economy and the lives of the working people of America.
			WEDNESDAY APRIL 5, 2017
9:06	19:54	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is there a new housing bubble on the horizon? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with senior economics editor Chris Farrell about the likelihood of another bubble.

9:29	29:07	Psychology	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is age nothing but a mindset? Psychologist Ellen Langer spoke to MPR News host Kerri Miller about how the way we think influences the way our bodies age.
11:06	36:41	Social Issue	MPR News with Tom Weber: Can legislation really create racial equity? Co-hosts Tom Weber and Doualy Xaykaothao spoke to Brett Grant, director of research and policy at the Voices for Racial Justice, Steven Belton, president of Urban League Minneapolis and Bo Thao-Urabe, co-founder and network director of Coalition of Asian American Leaders (CAAL).
11:46	12:47	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Will the Senate 'go nuclear' over Gorsuch? MPR News co-hosts Tom Weber and Doualy Xaykaothao got the latest on the fight over Gorsuch from Kimberly Atkins, chief Washington reporter and columnist for the Boston Herald.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: The Thread Hour: Authors Molly Brodak and Paul Auster. MPR's Kerri Miller interviewed author Molly Brodak about her memoir, "Bandit: A Daughter's Memoir" and MPR's Euan Kerr interviewed Paul Auster about his latest novel, "4 3 2 1."
THURSDAY APRIL 6, 2017
9:06	49:04	Foreign Policy	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Foreign policy analysis of Trump's early days as president. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with David Kang from the University of Southern California and Stephen Sestanovich from the Council on Foreign Relations about how a new administration quickly forms its foreign policy.
11:06	8:56	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Yanez trial awaits venue decision. MPR's Riham Feshir shared the latest on the trial of Jeronimo Yanez, a St. Anthony police officer charged in the shooting death of Philando Castile.
11:16	13:39	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Mobile home park case could have implications statewide. Burnsville's attorney, Paul Reuvers, and the resident's attorney, Valerie Sims, discussed the findings and the ramifications for housing laws elsewhere in Minnesota.
11:32	17:11	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: The unexploded bombs littering Laos. Channapha Khamvongsa, founder and executive director of the Washington D.C. non-profit Legacies of War joined the program.
11:50	8:27	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: WWI history. A rebroadcast of a piece by reporter Dan Olson about a commission of public safety.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: The 'enemies among us' in World War I Minnesota. Annette Atkins is a retired professor of history at St. John's University and the College of St. Benedict. She spoke January 18, 2014 at the Minnesota Historical Society's History Forum.
FRIDAY APRIL 7, 2017
11:06	54:00	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: Protest bill, POCI and budget. Host Mike Mulcahy discussed the issues surrounding enhanced penalties for protests, a new DFL group that wants to work for racial equity, and the partisan gulf on the state budget. He spoke to Representatives Nick Zerwas, Melissa Hortman and Peggy Flanagan.
12:06	54:00	Social Issues	MPR News Presents: Speakers: Here's how to build trust between police, public. A panel of community leaders met for a discussion about trust and policing. Report Brandt Williams spoke to Cathy Spann, Jason Sole, Janee Harteau and Mark Kappelhoff.
MONDAY APRIL 10, 2017
9:06	16:15	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.

9:23	31:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Growing fractures in the Republican party. MPR News Host Kerri Miller spoke with The Atlantic's McKay Coppins and University of Miami political science professor, Joseph Uscinski about the growing fractures in the Republican Party.
11:06	33:52	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: The Pepsi ad and the all-male card club. This month, the Counter Stories hosts, Hlee Lee, Luz Maria Frias, and Anthony Galloway, focused on the Pepsi commercial that raised all sorts of controversy—and on a comment by Minnesota's House Minority Leader about who does, and doesn't, have the attention of the Legislature.
11:43	14:39	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Tribal leader reflects on Obama administration. Karen Diver is a well-known leader in Minnesota tribal politics. She discussed her time with the administration.
12:06	54:00	Global Politics	MPR News Presents: President Trump's approach to the Middle East. Middle East and national security scholars analyze President Trump's approach to the multiple problems in the Middle East, including Syria, Iran, Israel and ISIS.
TUESDAY APRIL 11, 2017
9:06	15:05	Global Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Dispatches from a Syria war correspondent. MPR News host Kerri Miller interviewed Janine di Giovanni, author of "The Morning They Came for Us: Dispatches from Syria."
9:23	33:19	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What the 'princess effect' means for young women. With Disney's recent remakes of Beauty and the Beast and Cinderella, Kerri Miller explored "princess culture" with Salem State University's Rebecca Hains and Peggy Orenstein author of "Girls and Sex" and "Cinderella Ate My Daughter."
11:06	12:43	Economics	MPR News with Tom Weber: More fallout from Wells Fargo sales scandal. New York Times reporter Stacy Cowley joined Tom Weber for the latest.
11:22	29:42	Police	MPR News with Tom Weber: Maplewood police chief on police culture, reform. MPR News host Tom Weber talked with Maplewood Police Chief Paul Schnell, who will soon leave his post.
11:52	6:17	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City.' Matthew Desmond talked about his experience reporting "Evicted."
12:06	54:00	Social Issues	MPR News Presents: Rev. Otis Moss on ways to build community. Rev. Moss is the senior pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ in Chicago, the former church home for then-Senator Barack Obama. He spoke April 11, 2017 at the Westminster Town Hall Forum in Minneapolis — the speech was titled "Building the Beloved Community."
WEDNESDAY APRIL 12, 2017
9:06	54:00	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What is the most effective political activism? What is the best way for concerned citizens to make sure their voices are heard? MPR News Host Kerri Miller talks to University of California Irvine sociology professor David S. Meyer about effective political activism.
11:06	56:07	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Latino USA's Maria Hinojosa on Trump, deportations, media coverage, and self-care. Hinojosa joined host Tom Weber for a conversation as part of MPR's Broadcast Journalist series.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: In rural Wisconsin, researcher found roots of Trump's revolution. University of Wisconsin political science professor Katherine Cramer on the urban rural divide in Wisconsin. Cramer followed her speech with a Q&A session, moderated by professor Larry Jacobs.
THURSDAY APRIL 13, 2017
9:06	47:43	Conservation	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Are we living through the sixth extinction? Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Elizabeth Kolbert joined Kerri to discuss climate change and mass extinctions. Her latest book is "The Sixth Extinction."

9:53	6:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread Question with Tracy Mumford.
11:06	20:04	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Emmer: Republicans and Democrats must work together on health care. 6th District Republican Tom Emmer joined MPR News during Congress' recess.
11:26	18:27	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Hennepin Co. human services head on rising child abuse numbers. Jennifer DeCubellis, deputy administrator of Health and Human Services in Hennepin County, talked about why the numbers are rising and what can be done about it.
12:06	54:00	54:00	MPR News Presents: Experts debate: Does Walmart help or hurt America's economy? Experts took on these questions in an Intelligence Squared debate using the motion: 'Long live Walmart.'
FRIDAY APRIL 14, 2017
9:06	52:11	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Rural politics, special elections and the partisan divide. As President Trump draws close to his hundredth day in office, MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with Javier Morillo, president of SEIU Local 26, Annette Meeks, Founder and CEO of the Freedom Foundation of Minnesota, and Larry Jacobs, Chair for political Studies at the University of Minnesota's Humphrey School, about what we've learned since the end of the 2016 election.
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: The legislative session so far, the 'Trump Effect' and Speaker Daudt. Mike Mulcahy talked through the legislative session so far with former GOP House Minority Leader Marty Seifert and public affairs consultant Todd Rapp. And he checked in with GOP Speaker of the House Kurt Daudt.
12:06	54:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: Finnegan's CEO and co-founder talks turning beer into food. Jacquie Berglund, the co-founder and CEO of Finnegan's beer is Chris Farrell's guest for this episode in his series, "Conversations on the Creative Economy."
MONDAY APRIL 17, 2017
9:06	16:16	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	33:09	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rethinking the DFL. The Democrats lost big in the 2016 election. After ceding control of the House, Senate and White House to Republicans, Democrats are now facing divisions and a crisis of leadership. MPR's Kerri Miller talks to political scientist Thomas Schaller and former Bernie Sanders press secretary, Symone Sanders about the way forward for the DFL.
11:06	4:51	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Affidavit: Doctor prescribed meds for Prince in another name. Reporter Tim Nelson shared the details with host Tom Weber.
11:10	20:06	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: 20 years after epic flood, Red River towns no longer dread the spring. Reporters Tim Nelson and Dan Gunderson discussed what it was like covering the historic flood.
11:30	20:00	Nature / Wild Life	MPR News with Tom Weber: Spring in Minnesota. Wildlife experts Sharon Stiteler and Phil Jenni discussed what to do if interacted with wildlife.
12:06	54:00	History / Conflict	MPR News Presents: A story half told: Looking at the genocide in Cambodia 42 years later. MPR's Greg Barron reported from the refugee camps on the Thai-Cambodia border and produced a 1979 documentary titled, "Trampled Grass." He revisits that story in his new documentary, "Follow the Moon."
TUESDAY APRIL 18, 2017
9:06	12:00	Global Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Professor David Kang talked about the dynamics between South and North Korea.

9:22	35:36	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why higher education doesn't close the gender wage gap. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with Elise Gould, senior economist at the Economic Policy Institute, and Rhonda Vonshay Sharpe, President and Founder of Women's Institute for Science, Equity and Race, about the history and economics of the gender wage gap in the United States.
11:06	7:43	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump visits Kenosha to promote U.S. jobs. Shawn Johnson, capitol bureau chief at Wisconsin Public Radio, talked about President Trump's visit to Kenosha, Wis.
11:15	17:30	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rep. Paulsen on town halls, health care and Trump's taxes. Republican Rep. Erik Paulsen joined MPR News host Tom Weber for an interview. Here's what the congressman had to say on a few key issues.
11:33	23:57	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: The making of the documentary 'Untouchable.' Tom Weber spoke with David Feige about his documentary "Untouchable," a film about efforts of a Florida lobbyist to pass tougher sex offender laws. Joining them was Eric Janus, professor at Mitchell Hamline School of Law.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: 100 years ago: Music and movements from WWI America. "The War That Changed Us - Songs and Stories of World War I America," is a show created by Minnesota musician and writer Dan Chouinard, featuring an all-star cast of local performers.
WEDNESDAY APRIL 19, 2017
9:06	10:08	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why did a Democrat almost win this hugely Republican district? National Review columnist John Fund says an upcoming special election in Georgia is a bellwether for how voters feel about Republicans' performance in Washington DC.
9:38	38:44	Family Life	MPR News with Kerri Miller: A look at the power dynamics of marriage in 'The Unmade Bed.' Stephen Marche and his wife Sarah Fulford explore the roles men and women play in modern relationships.
11:06	24:05	Conservation	MPR News with Tom Weber: Study: Salty lakes in Twin Cities mean no fish by 2050. Brooke Asleson of the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency discussed this research on rising salt levels in lakes. They were joined by Steven Lund, Minnesota Department of Transportation state maintenance engineer, and the co-author of the "Salting our freshwater lakes" report Mindy Morales- Williams
11:30	16:55	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rep. Keith Ellison's vision for the Democratic Party. The deputy chairman of the Democratic National Committee joined Tom Weber to discuss the party's future.
11:47	25:26	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Oscar-winning film producer Sarah Pillsbury, on her career and Minnesota roots.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: 100 years later: What America learned in WWI. "The War That Changed Us - Songs and Stories of World War I America," is a show created by Minnesota musician and writer Dan Chouinard, featuring an all-star cast of local performers.
THURSDAY APRIL 20, 2017
9:06	26:54	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Are oligopolies bad for the U.S. economy? MPR News chief economics editor Chris Farrell spoke with Derek Thompson from The Atlantic and Luigi Zingales, professor at Chicago's Booth School of Business, about the effect oligopolies - airlines, cellphone carriers, internet providers - have on micro and macro economies in the U.S.
9:36	29:45	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Economist editor-in-chief on populism, technology and aging around the world. Zanny Minton Beddoes is the first female editor-in-chief of global publication. MPR News chief economics editor Chris Farrell spoke to her ahead of her visit about the pressing economic issues she's watching.
11:06	15:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rep. McCollum on climate agreement, budget prospects.

11:24	18:00	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Female genital mutilation. Fartun Weli heads the Minneapolis non-profit Isuroon which works to educate people and speak out against FGM. Robin Phillips is executive director of an organization of a group called Advocates for Human Rights. Welcome back.
11:42	18:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'First Daughter and the Black Snake.' Winona LaDuke is from the White Earth reservation in northern Minnesota. She joined the program along with filmmaker Keri Pickett.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Washington Post reporter calls Trump-Russia story 'astonishing.' Washington Post investigative reporter Tom Hamburger, who says that, despite his long career following politics and money, the Trump administration is unlike anything he's covered before.
FRIDAY APRIL 21, 2017
9:06	52:29	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Remembering Prince one year later. Guests shared their experiences, their perceptions and their memories of Prince on the one year anniversary of his death.
11:06	51:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Simulcast from Paisley Park. Andrea Swenson, Andre Cymone, and Donna Grantis joined the program.
12:06	54:00	Social Psychology	MPR News Presents: Jane Goodall on resilience of nature and the indomitable human spirit.
MONDAY APRIL 24, 2017
9:06	18:38	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:33	31:23	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How changes to Title X funding might impact public health. Public health professional Elizabeth Dawes Gay and Gretchen Borchelt of the National Women's Law Center discussed.
11:06	27:09	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'Hell to Heartland': Minnesota reporter on her journey to Dadaab.
11:35	24:22	Health / Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: For Sonny Knight, cancer diagnosis is a moment of reckoning.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: Holocaust Remembrance Day: Elie Wiesel on what makes us moral.
TUESDAY APRIL 25, 2017
9:06	19:39	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-ed: John Carney on the case for Trump's 'Buy American' policy. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Breitbart writer, John Carney about his recent op-ed, "The Libertarian Case for Trump's 'Buy American' order."
9:24	9:24	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump administration plans for high drug prices. Dr. Walid Gellad and MIT professor of economics Sara Ellison discussed drug pricing and what changes, if any, we may see to rising drug costs.
11:06	22:24	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: A look inside the measles outbreak in Minnesota. Kris Ehresmann, Minnesota Department of Health infectious disease director, joined MPR News host Tom Weber to talk about the current outbreak.
11:27	11:36	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: A Minnesotan's reflections on his work with Obama. Joe Paulsen is a Minnesota native, he joined MPR News today to talk about his work as a personal aide to former President Barack Obama.
11:45	13:29	Economics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Career fair focuses on people of color, as employment gaps persist. Sharon Smith-Akinsanya spoke with MPR News about the People of Color Career Fair, which takes place this Thursday at the Minneapolis Convention Center.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: David Grann on 'Killers of the Flower Moon.'

WEDNESDAY APRIL 26, 2017
9:06	49:11	Economics / Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's the best way to reform American taxes? Caroline Bruckner of American University and tax analyst Joseph Thorndike discussed.
11:06	4:07	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Scarsella, the Clark protester shooter, faces 19 years in jail at sentencing today. Reporter Brandt Williams gave details.
11:14	18:37	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: What happens to kids whose parents are incarcerated? Rebecca Schlafer is a child psychologist at the University of Minnesota Medical School. She joined the program to share the psychological effects on children whose parents are in incarcerated.
11:32	33:30	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Improv pioneer Dudley Riggs on comedy, jazz and the flying trapeze. Dudley Riggs new memoir, "Flying Funny," documents his life in the circus.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: How we got into a nuclear standoff with an impoverished dictatorship. A special report from Neal Conan on the historical background and context for the nuclear standoff with North Korea.
THURSDAY APRIL 27, 2017
9:06	48:45	Finance	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Exerting control over a budget. Personal finance expert Ruth Hayden spoke to MPR News Host Kerri Miller about managing debt.
11:06	10:21	Law & Justice / Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: New rift opens between Minneapolis mayor, police chief. Reporter Brandt Williams had the details.
11:14	15:02	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: U of M Prof: At 100 days, Trump still facing ethics issues. Richard Painter said that President Trump selling off some assets and placing the rest in a blind trust do not go far enough.
11:31	23:19	Science	MPR News with Tom Weber: The man behind the Mars rover on exploring space. Kobie Boykins can say he's explored Mars.
12:06	54:00	Climate Change	MPR News Presents: Climate change means too much water for some, too little for others. This APM Reports documentary explores some of the most salient problems and solutions regarding water by visiting two countries where water issues are critical: India and Israel.
FRIDAY APRIL 28, 2017
9:06	52:29	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: When books get adapted for the screen. Four bibliophiles discuss when Hollywood adaptations went right and when they went terribly wrong.
11:06	52:58	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: Dayton says GOP plan cuts too much in taxes. As GOP leaders release an outline of their spending plans, Gov. Mark Dayton says their tax numbers don't add up.
12:06	54:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: Louis Johnston and Chris Farrell on the economy under Trump.
MONDAY MAY 1, 2017
9:06	13:34	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	36:01	Social Issue	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Workplace sexual harassment happens beyond Fox News.
11:06	13:28	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: GOP chooses Minneapolis businesswoman as new state party chair. Jennifer Carnahan is new to the committee and the founder of the a chain of boutique clothing stores called Primrose Park. She beat out three Republican insiders.
11:26	31:15	Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Unpaid traffic tickets leave people with low-incomes in debt. Rep. Nick Zerwas, R- Elk River, University of Minnesota professor Chris Uggen, and the CEO of Diversion Solutions, Scott Adkisson discussed why this spiral of debt disproportionately affects low income households and people of color.

12:06	54:00	Climate Change / Politics	MPR News Presents: Newseum event explores politics of climate change. A panel discussion was held at the Newseum on the day of the People's Climate Movement March in Washington.
			TUESDAY MAY 2, 2017
9:06	15:56	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump voters happy with their choice. MPR News guest host Tiffany Hanssen spoke to Republican strategist Reed Galen and Mary Kate Cary, senior fellow for Presidential Studies at the University of Virginia's Miller Center.
9:25	34:15	Technology	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Asking big questions about our technological future. Guest host Tiffany Hanssen interviewed David Rothkopf, CEO and editor of Foreign Policy and author of "The Great Questions of Tomorrow."
11:06	7:48	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: How milk could spur a trade war with Canada. MinnPost reporter Sam Brodey recently wrote a story detailing how the Trump administration may be setting up a trade war with Canada — over milk.
11:14	44:50	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Reformed extremist now fighting hate. Christian Picciolini discussed what it was like to participate in a hate group and how he's helped others leave that life behind.
12:06	54:00	Mental health / Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: Mental health and the criminal justice system: Can Minnesota do better? Sue Abderholden of the National Alliance on Mental Illness/Minnesota, Corrections Commissioner Tom Roy, and Dr. Eduardo Colon of HCMC suggest various ways Minnesota can do better, through early diagnosis and effective treatment, better crisis intervention, reducing stigma, and providing transitional help.
			WEDNESDAY MAY 3, 2017
9:06	12:17	Healthcare	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The AHCA flopped. What's next for healthcare reform? Mary Agnes Carey, senior correspondent for Kaiser Health News, joined MPR News guest host Jana Shortal for a conversation about the newest iteration of the American Health Care Act and it's political viability.
9:22	36:39	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The weird world of sleep. MPR News guest host Jana Shortal spoke to two experts about what happens to our brains when we sleep.
11:06	12:11	Demographics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Not thinking about the 2020 Census yet? You should be. Joan Naymark, executive director of MACS 2020 (Minnesotans for the American Community Survey and 2020 Census), told MPR News host Tom Weber why she thinks planning for the Census must begin soon and why her group is pushing for state funds three years ahead of time.
11:22	37:32	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: As opioid deaths increase, is anyone changing their behavior? An addiction specialist discussed Minnesotans and their struggles with opioid addiction.
12:06	54:00	Health	MPR News Presents: Former CDC chief says we're losing focus on public health priorities. Dr. Julie Gerberding says there's a lot of consensus about how to prevent the spread of infectious diseases.
			THURSDAY MAY 4, 2017
9:06	16:48	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump's foreign policy strategy: Reactionary, nimble, or both?
9:25	28:08	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: A new memoir explores belief, doubt and faith in Hollywood. "My Adventures with God" by actor Stephen Tobolowsky follows the arc of the Torah in five sections.
9:55	3:42	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread question: What's behind the plunge in e-book sales? Consumer e-book are down in both the U.K. and the U.S. Publishing industry experts say it may be the affect of screen fatigue. Physical book sales are rising while e-books sales are dropping.
11:06	7:23	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's happening in the race for St. Paul mayor? Reporter Tim Nelson had details.

11:14	44:28	Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: The fatal shooting of 15-year-old Jordan Edwards. The Counter Stories hosts discussed the fatal shooting of a 15-year-old Texas boy by police.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Richard Haass at Westminster Town Hall Forum. A broadcast from the Westminster Town Hall Forum featuring diplomat Richard Haass, the president of the Council on Foreign Relations.
			FRIDAY MAY 5, 2017
11:06	51:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: End of legislative session. This week we'll get the perspective of two first-time lawmakers. Mike Mulcahy will talk with two senators, one Republican and one Democrat, who also happen to be medical doctors. He'll also be joined by Republican Rep. Paul Torkelson for a look at the debate over transportation funding– and proposed cuts to metro transit. And finally, political reporters Tim Pugmire and Brian Bakst will wrap up the week and look ahead to the next.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: The rise of populism and the threat to the EU and NATO. Timothy Garton Ash of Oxford and Steve Erlanger of the New York Times explore the prospects for a united Europe in the face of a wave of nationalism and populism, internal divisions and the struggle to integrate nineteen diverse economies.
			MONDAY MAY 8, 2017
9:06	23:43	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:33	25:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What to pay attention to in the Russia investigations. MPR News guest host Jana Shortal spoke to foreign policy adviser, Molly McKew and The Washington Post's Tom Hamburger about investigations into Russian meddling in the 2016 election.
11:06	52:12	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Tales of covering the Trump White House with NPR's Tamara Keith. Keith joined MPR News for a discussion on covering both the Obama and Trump White Houses and the role of a journalist in the current political climate.
12:06	54:00	Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: Police: Not Trained to Not Kill. The investigative reporting of MPR's Curtis Gilbert of APM Reports, looks at training police to de-escalate a crisis.
			TUESDAY MAY 9, 2017
9:06	24:02	Healthcare	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The health care repeal and replace bill goes to the Senate. Sally Pipes of the Pacific Research Institute, and Julie Rovner of Kaiser Health News joined MPR guest host Tiffany Hanssen to discuss what the American Health Care Act would mean for people with pre-existing conditions.
9:32	24:37	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Working in the Obama White House. MPR guest news host, Tiffany Hanssen spoke to Alyssa Mastro Monaco, the former assistant to the President in the Obama White House about her memoir, "Who Thought This Was a Good Idea."
11:06	5:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Legislative update from political reporters.
11:11	17:52	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Meet the next St. Paul schools superintendent. Joe Gothard starts his new job in July, and he will face significant challenges in St. Paul schools.
11:31	27:44	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's next for former U.S. Attorney Andrew Luger? Andrew Luger will step down, along with other U.S. attorneys, as the Trump administration settles in.
12:06	54:00	Law & Justice / Race	MPR News Presents: A civil conversation on politics, race, religion and character. Cornel West calls for a commitment to what he calls "soul craft." Ross Douthat says we need to live our lives courageously without falling into a "palsy of anxiety and victimization" when bravery and heroism are called for.
			WEDNESDAY MAY 10, 2017

9:06	18:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Context around Comey's ouster. Former federal prosecutor and Mitchell Hamline Law Professor John Radsan joined MPR News reporter Marianne Combs to discuss what will happen to the Russia investigation in the wake of Comey's removal.
9:25	30:15	Ars & Culture / Mental Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Discussing depression, suicide and '13 Reasons Why.' Is the hit Netflix series spurring a conversation about suicide? Or causing more harm than good? MPR News guest host Marianne Combs spoke with Dr. Ron Avi Astor, a behavioral health professor, and Phyllis Alongi, clinical director for the Society for the Prevention of Teen Suicide.
11:06	19:25	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Comey sought more Russia probe resources before firing. Donald Kettl is professor and former dean in the School of Public Policy at the University of Maryland.
11:26	27:30	Conservation	MPR News with Tom Weber: What are insecticides doing to Minnesota bees? MPR News host Tom Weber was joined by MPR News reporter Dan Gunderson, entomologist Judy Wu-Smart, and Tom Slunicka, the head of the Minnesota Soybean Growers Association, to discuss these legal developments and how insecticides effect bees.
12:06	54:00	Education / Economics	MPR News Presents: Economist says early childhood education spending has big payoff. Economist Arthur Rolnick says we're under-investing in our most vulnerable kids, and that paying for early childhood programs is not just morally right, it's economically smart.
THURSDAY MAY 11, 2017
9:06	14:22	Conservation	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Grass isn't always 'greener.' Why is it that Americans are so obsessed with their green lawns? And what is this cultural infatuation doing to the environment? MPR News chief meteorologist Paul Huttner spoke to professor Joan Nassauer about lawns, and alternatives to green sod.
9:30	29:15	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Climate Cast: How cities are preparing for climate change. Many cities around the country are already beginning to deal with the practical effects of climate change. MPR Chief meteorologist Paul Huttner spoke with environmental reporter Elizabeth Dunbar about how city planners are adjusting to the increase in rainfall. Then he spoke with Minneapolis Sustainability Program coordinator Kelly Muellman and Varun Sivaram, who is the acting director of the Program on Energy Security and Climate Change for the Council on Foreign Relations.
11:06	52:39	Healthcare	MPR News with Tom Weber: How would the House health care bill affect you? Two experts discuss the possible implications of the GOP's Obamacare replacement plan at national and local levels.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Kao Kalia Yang. Award-winning author Kao Kalia Yang speaks about her books and the Hmong experience in Minnesota.
FRIDAY MAY 12, 2017
11:06	52:53	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Listen: Politics Friday on budget bills, veto threats and Trump's new voting commission. Three political reporters and the Minnesota Secretary of State joined MPR News host Tom Weber to discuss the latest at the Minnesota Legislature and at the U.S. Capitol.
12:06	54:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: The creative economy in Duluth's craft district. Chris Farrell's "Conversations on the Creative Economy" series comes this time from Duluth, featuring three people who founded small businesses in Duluth.
MONDAY MAY 15, 2017
9:06	22:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.

9:31	27:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What it means to be an America: Eddie Glaude. This is a rebroadcast of a conversation between Kerri Miller and Eddie Glaude in which they discuss racism, patriotism, and what it means to be an American.
11:06	34:56	Jobs	MPR News with Tom Weber: Why we don't hear about the decline in retail jobs. Derek Thompson, a senior editor at The Atlantic where he writes about economics and labor markets, has some ideas.
11:43	15:26	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's it like to be a chess master? MPR News host Tom Weber talked with Wesley So, the Minnetonka chess grandmaster who last month claimed the title of U.S. chess champion.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Russia: friend, foe or ??? Two Russia experts explore answers to the question, "Is Russia a friend, foe, or something else?"
TUESDAY MAY 16, 2017
9:06	22:50	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Answering your questions about reported Trump leaks. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Mitchell Hamline law professor John Radsan about the reports President Trump gave classified information to the Russians.
9:24	25:59	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Are we in a new housing bubble? Over the last 15 years the housing market has gone from bubble to bust, and is now back in a boom. Two housing experts discussed whether we might be headed for another housing bubble.
11:06	33:24	Politics / Resources	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump infrastructure investments. APM Reports reporter Tom Scheck spoke about the kinds of projects that the Trump administration might be interested in giving money to. Charles Marohn, an urban planner who formed the organization Strong Towns, thinks a $1 trillion federal infrastructure package is a bad idea.
11:43	15:54	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: To fight measles, Somali leaders want sustained engagement. Anab Gulaid, founder of the Somali Health Coalition.
12:06	54:00	Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: Former Minn. Supreme Court Justice Alan Page on life, education, football and the law.
WEDNESDAY MAY 17, 2017
9:06	52:28	International Relations	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Foreign policy and Trump's first Presidential trip abroad. President Trump leaves later this week for his first trip abroad in office. With all the news about leaks coming from the White House there are questions about how things will go while he's out of the country. MPR News host Kerri Miller invited two experts to talk about Trump's foreign policy and what we can expect from his upcoming trip.
11:06	4:00	Nature	MPR News with Tom Weber: One person was killed in a trailer park during tornado. Reporter Tim Nelson had the story.
11:10	31:52	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: The dental crisis across Minnesota and the country. Dentist Kevin Dens, president of the Minnesota Dental Association, and journalist Mary Otto, whose new book "Teeth" explores America's dental crisis, discussed the dental care industry and how its structure creates disparities.
11:43	14:33	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: 90 years ago, Charles Lindbergh changed aviation history. Minnesota Historical Society exhibit developer Brian Horrigan talked about that storied flight and Lindbergh himself.
12:06	54:00	Mental Health	MPR News Presents: IQ2 debate: Will video games make us smarter? In this Intelligence Squared debate, experts discussed the topic with the motion: "Video games will make us smarter."
THURSDAY MAY 18, 2017

9:06	12:43	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why special counsel is not enough in Trump Russia probe. Kerri Miller asked Peter Zeidenberg. He served as an assistant special counsel in the prosecution of Scooter Libby, spent 17 years in the Department of Justice, and is currently a partner at Arent Fox LLP.
9:25	25:00	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The princess effect. Researchers have found that the emphasis and marketing around princess stuff encourages girls to behave in stereotypical feminine patterns. So, with Beauty and the Beast out now and Disney's Cinderella on the horizon, Kerri Miller explored the pros and cons of "princess culture". This is a rebroadcast.
9:50	10:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread question: What are your summer reading plans? Thread producer Tracy Mumford joined hosts Kerri Miller and Stephanie Curtis to talk about which books they're most excited about this summer.
11:06	51:00	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Latino USA's Maria Hinojosa on Trump, deportations, media coverage, and self-care. Maria Hinojosa discussed the place and purpose of journalism in this political moment and her own journey. This is a rebroadcast.
12:06	54:00	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News Presents: NYT Frank Bruni on 'Media in the Age of Misinformation.'
FRIDAY MAY 19, 2017
9:06	21:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR's Mara Liasson on the Trump, Russia investigation.
9:27	32:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: An author asks: What's wrong with the Democratic party? Author Thomas Frank spoke with MPR News host Kerri Miller about his new book, "Listen, Liberal." This is a rebroadcast.
11:06	37:20	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Four days to go: Will they make it? Lawmakers must adjourn the 2017 legislative session by midnight on Monday (May 22), and they still have a lot to agree on if they're going to pass a new state budget before then. MPR's Mike Mulcahy and Brian Bakst join Tom Weber for the latest from the Minnesota Capitol.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Mondale and Durenberger: 'When Politics was Not a Blood Sport.' Former Vice President Walter Mondale and former U.S. Senator David Durenberger talk about the need to restore civility in politics and seek the common good.
MONDAY MAY 22, 2017
9:06	14:08	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:25	37:00	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The number of women in prison is rising. Why? Nicole Gonzalez Van Cleve, an assistant professor in Temple University's criminal justice department, and Valena Beety, an associate professor of law at West Virginia University, joined MPR News host Kerri Miller to discuss the factors behind the numbers.
11:06	27:35	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Indigenous authors month: Waziyatawin. MPR News host Tom Weber spoke with Waziyatawin, a Dakota woman who lives on the Upper Sioux reservation near Granite Falls.
11:22	18:17	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Indigenous authors month: 'We Are Still Here.' American Indian Movement history was written in a book by Laura Waterman Wittstock and included decades of photos from Dick Bancroft. The book is called "We Are Still Here." Tom Weber spoke with Wittstock.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: In Saudi Arabia, Trump says fight against terrorism a 'battle between good and evil.' In his first foreign trip as president, Trump stressed to leaders of Arab and Muslim-majority countries that "nations of the Middle East cannot wait for American power to crush this enemy for them."
TUESDAY MAY 23, 2017

9:06	12:14	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-ed: 'Removing Trump won't solve America's crisis.' Every week we interview a conservative voice on a current topic. This week MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Robert Merry - political editor of "The National Interest" - who recently wrote a piece for The American Conservative titled, "Removing Trump Won't Solve America's Crisis."
9:28	30:00	Family Life	MPR News with Kerri Miller: A look at the power dynamics of marriage in 'The Unmade Bed.' Stephen Marche and Sarah Fulford joined us to discuss "The Unmade Bed," a new book about modern marriage. This is a rebroadcast.
11:06	53:00	Mental Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Mental health and the criminal justice system: Can Minnesota do better? This panel hosted by MPR's Tom Crann includes Sue Abderholden of the National Alliance on Mental Illness, Minnesota Corrections Commissioner Tom Roy, and Dr. Eduardo Colon of HCMC.
12:06	54:00	Social Psychology	MPR News Presents: Jane Goodall on resilience of nature and the indomitable human spirit.
WEDNESDAY MAY 24, 2017
9:06	15:00	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: BBC broadcast.
9:21	37:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What it means to be an American: Rosanne Cash. Singer, songwriter Rosanne Cash on what it means to be an American. First in a series. This is a rebroadcast.
11:06	43:08	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: 74 Seconds episodes one and two. Reporters from MPR News are following the case of officer Jeronimo Yanez, who is being charged with manslaughter after shooting Phildano Castile during a traffic stop.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Former President Barack Obama speaks about courage.
THURSDAY MAY 25, 2017
9:06	54:00	Politics / Religion	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Indivisible rebroadcast. We invited Reverend Jennifer Bailey from the Faith Matters Network and Krista Tippett, the host of OnBeing to think about the intersection of faith identity and politics.
11:06	37:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: 74 Seconds episode three and a debrief with reporters.
12:06	54:00	Climate Change	MPR News Presents: Fond du Lac 'Water in a Time of Climate Change' event. Scientists, elders and community members from the Fond du Lac Band of Lake Superior Chippewa spoke recently at a gathering entitled, "Water in a Time of Climate Change."
FRIDAY MAY 26, 2017
11:06	37:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Legislative wrap. Political editor Mike Mulcahy, and two political analysts discussed the end of the session.
11:43	17:21	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: What happens to victims after a sex trafficking ring is busted? Tom Weber speaks with Assistant U.S. Attorney Laura Provinzino and Panida Rzonca, with the Thai Community Development Center in Los Angeles, about Thursday's indictments in one of the largest prosecutions ever of a global sex trafficking ring.
12:06	54:00	Social Psychology	MPR News Presents: James McGregor says one word describes the Chinese people: Ambition.
MONDAY MAY 29, 2017
11:06	53:27	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: Memorial Day special: The last men of Luverne prepare for a toast. It's Memorial Day, and we're remembering people in the armed forces who died. MPR News host Tom Weber opened the phones and invites Minnesota veterans and their loved ones to call in and share their Memorial Day stories in a special live hour.

12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: On JFK's 100th birthday, 'We Knew JFK: Unheard Stories from the Kennedy Archive.'
			TUESDAY MAY 30, 2017
9:06	21:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:27	30:33	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Answering your questions about the FBI. Host Tom Weber discussed what we should expect from the new director of the FBI, whoever that may be. He was joined by two former agents, Lauren Anderson and Ron Hosko.
11:06	17:29	Arts & Culture / Race	MPR News with Tom Weber: Dakota community ponders how to remove Walker sculpture. Kate Beane, a Dakota outreach and program manager for Native American Initiatives team at the Minnesota Historical Society, discussed the kinds of things the Dakota community might consider for the controversial installment at the Minneapolis Sculpture Garden, which the Walker Art Center over the weekend said would come down.
11:22	22:39	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: New York Times reporter on his life and work in Africa. Pulitzer Prize-winning Jeffrey Gettleman is the East Africa correspondent for the New York Times.
11:46	12:44	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Why police trials are so rare. Officer Jeronimo Yanez faces manslaughter charges in the death of Philando Castile. As the trial gets underway criminologist Philip Stinson joined the show to discuss why so few officers go to trial after shootings.
12:06	54:00	Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: NPR Kelly McEvers 'Embedded' special on police videos.
			WEDNESDAY MAY 31, 2017
9:06	52:46	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Hazing: group bonding tradition or deadly safety hazard? MPR News host Kerri Miller talked to hazing prevention advocate Lianne Kowiak who lost a 19-year-old son due to fraternity hazing, and journalist Hank Nuwer, who's written many books on the subject of hazing.
11:06	40:41	Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: Separation ordinance and Walker's 'Scaffold' installation. Three of the Counter Stories hosts--Hlee Lee, Don Eubanks and Luz Maria Frias--joined Tom Weber along with guest Sharon Smith-Akinsanya to discuss the Portland attack, separation ordinance, and reactions to the Walker's "Scaffold" sculpture.
11:43	15:10	Politics / Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: New Franken memoir marries comedy and politics...finally. "Al Franken: Giant of The Senate" paints the picture of a new U.S. senator trying to be taken seriously.
12:06	54:00	Climate Change	MPR News Presents: 'America Abroad:' Global approaches to climate change. From the "America Abroad" series, a look at the approaches various countries around the world are taking to address climate change: China, India, Canada and Morocco.
			THURSDAY JUNE 1, 2017
9:06	16:13	Conservation	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Will the U.S. pull out of the Paris Climate agreement? Richard Alley, professor at Penn State University's Earth and Environmental Systems Institute, joined MPR News host Kerri Miller to discuss the importance of President Trump's announcement on the Paris agreement.
9:23	31:24	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Doctor-patient communication. Danielle Ofri is the author of "What Patients Say, What Doctors Hear," a new guide on bridging the gulf between people and their care providers. She joined the program to talk about bridging the gulf between people and their care providers.
11:06	28:39	Healthcare	MPR News with Tom Weber: Caregivers need help too. Cynthia Orange the author of "Take Good Care" talked about the life choices that care givers make daily with MPR guest host Marianne Combs.

11:38	21:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Leaving Ten Thousand Things behind. Michelle Hensley, artistic director of Ten Thousand Things Theater spoke to MPR host Marianne Combs about her decision to retire after the 2017-2018 season.
12:06	54:00	Religion / Politics	MPR News Presents: Who says religion and politics don't belong in polite conversation? There are two subjects etiquette rules say we shouldn't talk about in polite conversation: religion and politics. But political science professor Amy Black of Wheaton College says it's both valuable and essential to discuss our political and religious world views.
FRIDAY JUNE 2, 2017
9:06	51:29	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable on America's place abroad. The afterglow of President Trump's first overseas trip--generally thought to be successful--didn't last long when he returned to the crisis enveloping his son-in-law Jared Kushner and his contacts with Russia. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to three experts on the state of international affairs.
11:06	51:05	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Friday Politics: Defund the Legislature? 'See you in court,' Daudt tells Dayton. Governor Mark Dayton and House Speaker Kurt Daudt made back-to-back appearances on MPR News with host Mike Mulcahy. Later in the hour, former Minnesota Attorney General Mike Hatch weighed in on the constitutional questions around Dayton's move to defund the legislature.
12:06	54:00	Mental Health	MPR News Presents: Dr. Vivek Murthy says emotional health key to physical health.
MONDAY JUNE 5, 2017
9:06	14:38	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:22	35:54	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Context on Russia ahead of Comey testimony. Michael Flynn, Jared Kushner, James Comey. The investigation into Russia's meddling in the 2016 presidential election continues to grow. But what should we be paying attention to? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to foreign policy advisor and Russia expert, Molly McKew for the latest on the Russia investigations.
11:06	51:57	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: What we can learn from 'Scaffold' and similar controversies. Three guests spoke with MPR News guest host Marianne Combs about how public art and monuments — whether at Fort Snelling, in paintings at the Capitol, or in the Walker Sculpture Garden — have sidestepped brutal Native American history, and how to change this pattern going forward.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Eddie Glaude Jr. explores what it means to be American.
TUESDAY JUNE 6, 2017
9:06	38:32	Terrorism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: ISIS and modern terrorism. Graeme Wood, author of "The Way of Strangers: Encounters with the Islamic State" and Charlie Winter, senior research fellow on homegrown radicalism, internet, and terrorism joined the program.
9:53	4:30	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: BBC broadcast.
11:06	12:48	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: An update on the trial of Jeronimo Yanez. 74 Seconds podcast producer Tracy Mumford spoke to guest host Marianne Combs about the latest in the trial of St. Anthony Police Officer Jeronimo Yanez.
11:21	22:17	Arts & Culture / Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Sculptor, Walker director reflect on what they've learned. MPR's Euan Kerr talked with Walker Art Center director Olga Viso and artist Sam Durant.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Eddie Glaude Jr. on what it means to be American. Part 2.

WEDNESDAY JUNE 7, 2017
9:06	21:27	Terrorism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How vulnerable are U.S. elections to hacking? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Nicholas Weaver, a lecturer at UC Berkley and researcher at the International Computer Science Institute for more information on cyber security and hacking the American vote.
9:28	28:39	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'American War' and empathy. "American War" is the first novel by award-winning journalist Omar El Akkad. It's set in an America that has been plunged into a second Civil War.
11:06	33:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Is satire dividing the nation? MPR guest host Marianne Combs spoke with two guests: Caitlin Flanagan, correspondent for The Atlantic and author of "Girl Land" and "To Hell With All That", and standup comedian Raghav Mehta, who writes for the comedy production firm Above Average.
11:41	12:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: For the poet Bao Phi, a violent past is never far away. Bao Phi's new book of poetry, "Thousand Star Hotel," is published by Coffee House Press.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: Documentary: 'Little War on the Prairie.' Although Mankato native and former MPR reporter and documentary producer John Biewen grew up in Mankato, he heard next to nothing about the U.S.-Dakota War of 1862 during his childhood there.
THURSDAY JUNE 8, 2017
9:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR News special coverage.
11:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR News special coverage.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: A history of the FBI and former American presidents. The program, titled "You're Fired," is part of Neal Conan's "Truth, Politics and Power" series from PRX.
FRIDAY JUNE 9, 2017
11:06	3:56	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Defense makes their case in Yanez trial. In the trial of Officer Jeronimo Yanez, the prosecution has rested and the defense is arguing their case. Officer Yanez faces manslaughter charges in the shooting death of Philando Castile. 74 Seconds podcast producer Tracy Mumford gave insight into the defense's case and discussed when Officer Yanez will take the stand.
11:12	36:48	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Ask an expert: Summer gardening. Now that summer has arrived, how do you make sure your garden stays in bloom? MPR News guest host Marianne Combs asked University of Minnesota Extension horticulturist Julie Weisenhorn for practical advice on caring for your garden, summer planting, and how to be pesticide-free and bee-friendly. But, not all "would-be gardeners" have a garden. Gardening Matters' Seth Kuhl-Stennes joined Combs to talk about the challenges of setting up a community garden and what it means to grow sustainable, local foods.
11:38	9:47	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: All-night art festival is back with focus on climate change. MPR News guest host Marianne Combs talked with Steve Dietz, president and artistic director of Northern Lights.mn, which runs the festival.
12:06	54:00	Technology	MPR News Presents: Amory Lovins on the future of personal mobility. An exploration of the ways we'll get around in the future.
MONDAY JUNE 12, 2017
9:06	16:59	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	32:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's next in D.C. politics? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Brown University professor of political science, Wendy Schiller and Howard University politics professor, Michael Fautroy.

11:06	6:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Update on the Yanez trail with producer Tracy Mumford.
11:12	44:04	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Distracted driving causes 70 deaths in MN each year. A father who lost his daughter to distracted driving and a member of the State Patrol joined the program to talk about efforts to curve these deadly habits.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture / Politics	MPR News Presents: "The American Spirit: Who We Are and What We Stand For." Two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning historian David McCullough is out with a new book.
TUESDAY JUNE 13, 2017
9:06	14:54	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-ed: 'Terror and the Teddy Bear Society.' Op-Ed columnist Theodore Dalrymple, who argued British society is making too many concessions to extremists within the Islamic faith.
9:23	35:23	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Questions on credibility and ethics in Washington. Attorney General Jeff Sessions will testify before the Senate Intelligence Committee today. Two experts helped demystify the hearing process, discussed what's happening today, what actions come next and what are the rules around government ethics.
11:06	29:44	Technology / Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Will changes to net neutrality regulation affect you? Washington Post technology reporter Brian Fung joined MPR News host Tom Weber to talk about the Federal Communications Commission's plan to roll back regulations on high-speed internet.
11:38	9:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Reporter Tim Pugmire on the end of session.
11:47	4:27	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Red River strangers share their stories, find common ground. Careful listening is the idea behind a Fargo-Moorhead project that aims to break down barriers and build empathy between people who might think they have little in common. Dan Gunderson reports.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: APM Reports: Thurgood Marshall Before the Court. Listen to an APM Reports documentary, "Thurgood Marshall Before the Court."
WEDNESDAY JUNE 14, 2017
9:06	16:00	Politics / Terrorism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: BBC and NPR coverage.
9:22	27:50	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why most of your ideas about aliens are probably wrong. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Jim Al-Khalili, the editor of "Aliens: the World's Leading Scientists on the Search for Extraterrestrial Life."
11:06	12:29	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Hennepin, Ramsey Counties vote to raise sales taxes for transit. Star Tribune Janet Moore reporter gave an update on transit funding.
11:24	38:26	Trade	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'Containers': How global trade has changed us. Tom Weber spoke with Alexis Madrigal, host of the podcast "Containers" about how those containers have transformed us and our world.
12:06	54:00	Technology	MPR News Presents: IQ2 debate: Tech companies, private data and law enforcement. A new debate from the Intelligence Squared series. Four experts debate if tech companies should help law enforcement gain access to your private digital data.
THURSDAY JUNE 15, 2017
9:06	17:39	Law & Justice	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's happening in the jury room? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Susan Gaertner for insight into the mysteries of the deliberation room.
9:21	32:37	Mental Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Paula Poundstone and 'The Totally Unscientific Study of the Search for Human Happiness.'
11:06	44:59	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: A look at the minimum wage proposal in Minneapolis. Tom Weber talked with three guests about proposals to raise the minimum wage to $15 an hour in Minneapolis.

11:50	8:57	International Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump expected to reverse Cuba policy. The President isn't a fan of the Obama-era deal with Cuba. Gary Prevost, a professor emeritus at the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University, talked about what the reversal would mean for Cuba and for the U.S.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Beyond the Border: The Future of U.S.-Mexico Relations. Monica Serrano, professor of international relations at the College of Mexico, and Rodrigo Cervantes, Mexico City bureau chief for Arizona public radio station KJZZ.
			FRIDAY JUNE 16, 2017
10:06	48:10	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Communication better health. Dr. Danielle Ofri. Dr. Ofri wrote a book called "What Patients Say, What Doctors Hear" about the importance of communication in healthcare. We asked two physician and one patient to read and reflect on her book as well as their own personal experiences.
11:06	12:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Update on the Yanez trial.
11:19	15:49	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 2023 World's Fair one step closer to Minneapolis. Former Minnesota Secretary of State Mark Ritchie is the chief executive of the Minnesota World's Fair Bid Committee. Ritchie joined the program to talk about what this news means.
11:42	17:51	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minneapolis middle school gets a new name. Alexander Ramsey Middle School will be renamed for the state's first black Supreme Court justice, Alan Page.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Sheryl Sandberg on post-traumatic growth. Kerri Miller's interview with Facebook COO Sheryl Sandberg.
			MONDAY JUNE 19, 2017
9:06	49:35	Politics / Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to talk to someone who disagrees with you on politics. Political tensions are sky-high in the U.S. and it's difficult to have meaningful discussions about politics that don't devolve into arguments. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke Bill Doherty, a professor of Family Social Science, who has been experimenting with ways to foster dialogue with members of opposing political tribes.
11:06	51:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Yanez not guilty on all counts. Tom Weber spoke to Reporters Jon Collins and Riham Feshir, professor Phil Stinson, the Roseville Police Chief and others .
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Chairman of Joint Chiefs of Staff speaks at National Press Club. U.S. Marine Corps General Joseph Dunford was appointed by President Obama and re-appointed by President Trump.
			TUESDAY JUNE 20, 2017
9:06	13:05	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-Ed: 'Mueller should recuse himself.' Special counsel Robert Mueller should recuse himself from the Russia investigation, says Georgetown University Law Center professor William G. Otis.
9:21	37:04	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is there still bipartisan support for criminal justice reform? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to two experts about Attorney General Session's proposed changes and how people on both sides of the aisle are responding.
11:06	17:39	Healthcare	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's the impact of the of GOP health care bill? Julie Rovner of Kaiser Health News joined the program to discuss the bill.
11:22	16:06	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: A conversation with Yanez defense attorney Tom Kelly. A conversation with Yanez defense attorney Tom Kelly
11:39	18:29	International Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: The state of refugees. On Tuesday, World Refugee Day, MPR News host Tom Weber spoke with Daniel Wordsworth of the Minnesota-based aid organization American Refugee Committee (ARC) about the state of refugees around the world, the future of refugee aid and ARC's efforts around the globe.

12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel at the National Press Club.
			WEDNESDAY JUNE 21, 2017
9:06	16:59	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	33:28	Healthcare	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How are Republicans repealing and replacing the Affordable Care Act? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with healthcare policy experts to try and figure out what's in the Senate healthcare bill that few people have seen. She was joined by Dr. Kavita Patel, fellow at the Brookings Institute, and Leighton Ku, director of the George Washington Milken Institute of Public Health.
11:06	47:22	Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: Reflecting on the Yanez verdict and dashcam video. The Counter Stories hosts reacted to the dashcam video from the Jeronimo Yanez case.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Neal Conan special: How Do Civil Wars End? A program from former NPR host Neal Conan's new series, "Truth, Politics and Power." This edition is called "How and Why Do Civil Wars End?"
			THURSDAY JUNE 22, 2017
9:06	45:51	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is Trump putting America back to work? President Donald Trump prioritized American jobs in the first month of his presidency, so what's his administration done to bring back manufacturing, re-shore companies, and put Americans back to work? Economics experts Gordon Gray and Lisa Cook discussed.
11:06	33:19	Disparities Gender	MPR News with Tom Weber: 45 years of Title IX: what's changed? Mary Jo Kane, professor at University of Minnesota's Tucker Center for Research on Girls and Women, discussed what has changed since the law's implementation.
11:42	14:39	Trade / Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: The future of U.S. trade with Canada. Ralph Goodale, a member of Canada's Cabinet, was in town to speak at the University of Minnesota's Carlson School of Management.
12:06	54:00	Education	MPR News Presents: Dr. Mae Jemison on the need for science literacy.
			FRIDAY JUNE 23, 2017
9:06	52:13	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Should we geo-engineer the atmosphere to fix climate change? How far should we go to 'fix' climate change? Should we attempt to alter the atmosphere? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to three experts about climate change during the Friday Roundtable.
11:06	35:12	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Yanez juror: 'Nobody was OK with it.' The juror spoke with MPR News host Tom Weber on the condition that he remain anonymous, because he said he is afraid of retribution.
11:45	12:38	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Reflections on the Yanez verdict one week later. MPR News host Tom Weber invited listeners to call in with their thoughts and questions. Weber was joined by Tracy Mumford, producer of the 74 Seconds podcast, and Brandt Williams, a reporter with MPR News' metro unit.
12:06	54:00	Health	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Spotlight on health. The host of the PBS Newshour Judy Woodruff interviewed speakers on the opening day of the Aspen Ideas Festival's "Spotlight on Health," discussing the proposals from Congress and the Trump administration to replace the Obama administration's Affordable Care Act.
			MONDAY JUNE 26, 2017
9:06	16:42	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.

9:23	31:52	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why don't women run for political office? Women are politically motivated and they win elections as often as men. But in the U.S. they are far less likely to run for political office. Why is that? And what will it take to get more women to run?
11:06	7:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Philando Castile family reaches $3M settlement in death. Reporter Brandt Williams discussed the settlement.
11:14	31:45	Business	MPR News with Tom Weber: What does Amazon's purchase of Whole Foods mean for Minnesotans? MPR News host Tom Weber spoke to Derek Thompson, senior editor at The Atlantic, about the impact the Amazon-Whole Foods combination could have on the Twin Cities and big grocery sellers.
11:47	10:41	Demographics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Twin Cities population growth lags behind other major U.S. cities. Tom Weber talked with Eric Roper, who analyzed the data and wrote about this story in the Star Tribune.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: The Thread book hour: Authors find unique inspiration in Minnesota. Authors Lesley Nneka Arimah and Neil Gainman.
TUESDAY JUNE 27, 2017
9:06	51:51	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's the future of President Trump's travel ban? Two experts discussed what the Court said and what its decision to hear the case means.
11:06	24:45	Politics / Transit	MPR News with Tom Weber: Debate: Should Minnesota spend money on trains, buses and bike lanes? President of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce and the President of the Center of the American Experiment discussed what's best for the state.
11:34	27:15	Arts & Culture / Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Sonny Knight rebroadcast. The artist died of cancer.
12:06	54:00	History / Politics	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Norman Lear and Khizr Khan on American values and the Constitution.
WEDNESDAY JUNE 28, 2017
9:06	51:51	Healthcare	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Health care bill on hold. Gerald Kominski is a professor at UCLA's Department of Health Policy and Management. Avik Roy, President of The Foundation for Research on Equal Opportunity. Jennifer Haberkorn, a Senior Health care reporter for Politico.
11:06	11:59	Politics / Conservation	MPR News with Tom Weber: Deb Swackhamer, University of Minnesota professor, discussed her testimony for the EPA.
11:18	39:59	Recycling	MPR News with Tom Weber: Recycling: You're doing it wrong. Tom Weber spoke with Paul Singer, Washington correspondent for USA Today, and Wayne Gierde, recycling market development coordinator for the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, about what happens to our household recycling and how recycling companies are struggling to stay afloat.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Conservatism in the Trump era. Two well-known conservatives, William Kristol of the Weekly Standard and Ramesh Ponnuru of the National Review are joined by author and journalist McKay Coppins of The Atlantic to explore conservatism and the future of the Republican party in the era of President Donald Trump.
THURSDAY JUNE 29, 2017
9:06	52:30	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's happening in Syria? The war in Syria has been ongoing for six years and counting. MPR News host Tom Weber talks to some experts to figure out what is happening now.

11:06	52:38	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: The lingering trauma of police shootings. Tom Weber was joined by Brandon Jones, integrated services manager at NorthPoint Health & Wellness Center, and Resmaa Menakem, clinical social worker at Unbound Therapy Resources, to discuss the trauma that follows police shootings.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: What you need to know about Martin Luther King. Clarence B. Jones worked along side Martin Luther King Jr. during the Civil Rights movement. He recounted the amazing stories behind some of King's most famous speeches and writings.
			FRIDAY JUNE 30, 2017
9:06	51:49	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: The making of a great chef. MPR News host Kerri Miller talks to author of "Give a Girl a Knife," Amy Thielen, the co-owner of Pimento Jamaican Kitchen, Tomme Beevas, and Ann Kim, the owner of Pizzeria Lola and Young Joni, about how a chef's memories and imagination influence the food they make.
11:06	40:45	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 40 years later, Glensheen murders still grip Duluth. The History Theatre musical, "Glensheen." Creator Dan Hartman spoke to Tom Weber.
11:17	11:08	International Politics / Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota student musicians play in Cuba this week. Tom Weber talked with Manny Laureano, the conductor of the Minnesota Youth Symphonies and principal trumpet for the Minnesota Orchestra, and 18-year-old Christopher Schulte, one of the students on the trip.
12:06	54:00	Politics / Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: 'Examining the Rule of Law.' Former Attorney General Sally Yates gained notoriety for her decision to not defend President Trump's travel ban. She discussed that at the Aspen Ideas Festival with law professor Geoffrey Stone and Supreme Court lawyer Neal Katyal.

MINNESOTA PUBLIC RADIO NEWS AND INFORMATION SERVICE
FCC QUARTERLY PROGRAMMING REPORT OF JANUARY — MARCH, 2017
 KNCM~KNSE~KNBJ~KBPN~WIRN~WSCN~KNSR~KLNI~WIRC~ KNWF~WLSN~KGRP
 WINH~WGGL~KITF~ KXLC~KNOW~KCCD~KRFI~KZSE~KRXW~KAUR~KNGA~KNTN~KNSW

Start Time	Duration min: sec	Issue Addressed	Title and Narrative
MONDAY, JANUARY 3, 2017
9:06	52:26	Science	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 2017: Looking ahead to the year in science. Maggie Koerth-Baker, senior science writer for fivethirtyeight.com. Susan Wolf, professor of law, medicine and public policy at the University of Minnesota
10:06	59:47	History	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Author Colson Whitehead: 'I'm on a very odd streak.' Author Colson Whitehead discussed his book "Underground Railroad."
11:06	52:12	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Music show mashup. Several local musicians joined the program over the summer, this are their best moments.
12:06	50:30	Behavioral Health	MPR News Presents: Tips to help you become a wiser, better you in 2017. Author Mark Bittman and podcast host Megan Tan discuss how to make the best of 2017.
TUESDAY, JANUARY 4, 2017
9:06	53:28	Law & Justice	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The future of private prisons. David Dayen, a freelance journalist who has reported on the privatization of prisons. Arjun Sethi, a writer, civil rights lawyer, and adjunct professor at Georgetown Law, also joined the conversation.
10:06	16:05	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie: 2016 is a year to remember. Politically, 2016 compares to no other, said Ken Rudin.
10:22	34:15	Environment	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'The Unnatural World': How innovation could reshape the environment. David Biello's new book looks at how technological innovations could rewrite our environmental future.
11:06	52:55	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Lawmakers kick off 2017 session. MPR News political editor Mike Mulcahy hosted a program live from the new MPR bureau in that renovated Capitol. Mulcahy talked with both legislative leaders and DFL Gov. Mark Dayton, who will have to bridge a philosophical divide with the Republican-controlled Legislature. Mulcahy was also joined by key lawmakers on main issues facing the legislature in coming months.
12:06	55:21	Science	MPR News Presents: How humans can get to Mars, and why we'd want to go. Pascal Lee and Andy Weir talk about the promise and peril of humanity's first in-person exploration of an alien planet: Mars.
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 2017
9:06	53:00	Behavioral Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What do we know about bipolar disorder? Dr. Frank Mondimore, and professor Kathryn Cullen joined the program to discuss bipolar disorder—the stigma, the treatments, and the latest research.
10:06	37:24	Behavioral Health / Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How's your relationship with money? Claudia Hammond's new book, "Mind Over Money," looks at the psychology of how we relate to money.
10:40	8:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: ScreenTime. Stephanie Curtis joined the program to talk about the latest movies.
11:06	52:14	Behavioral Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Experts: Children lack access to mental health resources. Three guests joined MPR News host Marianne Combs. Bea Officer, Christie Hausteine, and Emily Piper looked at the impact of undiagnosed mental health problems in children at home and in schools.

12:06	48:19	War	MPR News Presents: The tide may be turning against ISIS. Harnessing the power of social media, ISIS cells are spreading around the world. But journalist Joby Warrick says as more Islamic leaders call for tolerance, the battle for public opinion is beginning to turn.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 6, 2017
9:06	43:20	Finance	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to buy yourself more time. Financial expert Ruth Hayden joined the program.
10:06	12:46	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Climate Cast: Renewable energy under Trump. Chief meteorologist Paul Huttner spoke to Harvard's Jody Freeman about how much power the federal government actually has to influence renewable energy development.
10:22	31:54	Politics / Race	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'Here Comes the Sun': A look at the other side of paradise. Nicole Dennis-Benn's portrait of Jamaica goes beyond what you'll find on a postcard. In "Here Comes the Sun," the island nation is marked by sandy beaches, gorgeous waterfalls -- but also by poverty, racism and classism.
11:06	52:00	Gender / Race	MPR News with Tom Weber: New takes on gender and race: Two podcasts worth listening to. Gene Demby and Levi Weinhagen discuss their podcasts that cover gender and race.
12:06	49:55	People & Places	MPR News Presents: 5 steps to growing 'originals' in an organization. Professor Adam Grant spoke at the Aspen Ideas Festival about people who stand up to authority.
FRIDAY, JANUARY 7, 2017
9:06	53:29	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday, Roundtable: Does social media inspire creativity or stifle it? Three artists from different disciplines considered how social media shapes their creative pursuits and their public image.
11:06	53:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Roundtable: Self-proclaimed nerds on whitewashing and what to watch on the big and small screens. Three self-described "nerds of color" joined MPR News host Marianne Combs to talk about the missteps — and the steps forward — they see across genres.
12:06	53:54	History	MPR News Presents: Franklin D. Roosevelt and the meaning of freedom. Jeffrey Engel's speech at the Minnesota Historical Society's "History Forum."
MONDAY, JANUARY 9, 2017
9:06	52:42	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Russia's long-term strategy is bad news for the west. Molly McKew, a foreign policy and strategy consultant, and Stephen Sestanovich from the Council on Foreign Relations discussed the Russian long-view and how a Trump presidency may help or hurt our battle in the new Cold War.
10:06	12:49	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
10:23	35:09	Religion	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'Dry rules in dusty books need to make sense in life': A father advises his young Muslim sons. In "Letters to a Young Muslim," Omar Saif Ghobash writes to his sons about the importance of exploring, and questioning, one's religion.
11:06	44:16	Race	MPR News with Tom Weber: How the Twin Cities can attract and retain professionals of color. Peter Frosch, Greater MSP Vice President of Strategic Partnerships, Matt Kramer, President and CEO of the St. Paul Chamber of Commerce and Sharon Smith-Akinsanya, founder of The People of Color Career Fair discussed the topic.
12:06	54:00	Health	MPR News Presents: Outgoing HHS Secretary Sylvia Burwell talks future of Obamacare. Health and Human Services Secretary Sylvia Burwell spoke at the National Press Club in Washington about the likely repeal of the Affordable Care Act, and what it means for health care in America.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 10, 2017
9:06	48:10	Law & Justice	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The number of women in prison is rising. Why? What's behind the drastic increase? Nicole Gonzalez Van Cleve, an assistant professor in Temple University's criminal justice department, and Valena Beety, an associate professor of law at West Virginia University, joined MPR News host Kerri Miller to discuss the factors behind the numbers.
9:53	5:17	People & Places	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread Question. Thread producer Tracy Mumford joined the show to answer a book question.
10:06	13:13	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-Ed be careful what you wish for. Cornell University Economics Professor Robert Frank warns repealing Obamacare "would unleash the awesome power of loss aversion."
11:06	23:20	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: GOP lawmakers are acting quickly to pass relief for some Minnesotans facing high health insurance premiums. Rep. Tina Lieblich and Rep. Matt Dean.
11:33	10:09	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Update: 'In the Dark's' Madeleine Baran on the latest in Stearns County.
11:43	13:07	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Confirmation hearings begin Tuesday for some of President-elect Trump's key nominees.
12:06	50:20	Environment	MPR News Presents: Here's where your electronic waste is landing. It's not pretty. The Center for Investigative Reporting followed the global trail of America's electronic cast-offs. Here's what they found.
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 11, 2017
9:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Analysis of President Obama's farewell address from his hometown, Chicago. Reed Galen, Republican strategist and commentator and Khalilah Brown-Dean, Professor in the Political Science department at Quinnipiac University.
10:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Donald Trump press conference.
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Analysis of Donald Trump's press conference continued. Eric Schwartz, the dean of the University of Minnesota's Humphrey School, provided immediate analysis following Donald Trump's press conference
12:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Rebroadcast of President Obama's farewell address.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2017
9:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political analysis of President Trump's press conference. MPR News reporter Mark Zdechlik spoke with Aaron Blake, senior reporter for Washington Post blog The Fix, Republican strategist Susan Del Percio, founder of Susan Del Percio Strategies, and McKay Coppins, staff writer for the Atlantic, about Trump's press conference.
10:06	22:42	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Climate Cast: Can scientists predict the effects of climate change? Guest: Angela Fritz, Washington Post deputy weather editor.
11:06	38:25	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: New administration and transportation. Met Council chair Adam Duininck joined the program.
11:47	11:19	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Lawmakers aren't happy with the use of luxury suites. Reporter Rochelle Olson broke the news that there might be misuse of the luxury suites at the new Vikings stadium.
12:06	42:07	Politics	MPR News Presents: 5 lessons (so far) from the Trump transition. What does the future hold for American politics? Political reporter Gabriel Debenedetti took on the question following President-elect Donald Trump's news conference Wednesday. Here's what he had to say.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 2017
9:06	52:57	Law & Justice	MPR News with Kerri Miller: FRIDAY, Roundtable: Criminal justice series: Reform from within. U.S. District Judge John R. Tunheim, Washington County Attorney Pete Orput, and Assistant Hennepin County Public Defender Maria Mitchell discussed bail, plea bargains and the use of clemency.
11:06	25:56	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: The legislative session is off to a busy start. Reporters Briana Bierschbach, Ricardo Lopez and Brian Bakst discuss the week in politics.
11:30	28:34	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Football player suspensions. Athletic director Mark Coyle of the University of Minnesota discussed the fallout from football team members being involved in a sexual assault.
12:06	47:12	Climate Change	MPR News Presents: Climate One series: The Trump administration and climate change. From the Commonwealth Club of California's Climate One series: "Political and Climate Disruption."
MONDAY, JANUARY 16, 2017
9:06	52:05	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why are nationalist politicians winning elections all over the world? MPR's Kerri Miller spoke to American University professor, Robert Kelley and University of Minnesota's diplomat-in-residence, Mary Curtin to find out.
10:06	19:50	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
10:29	30:42	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Book of Harlan rebroadcast. Interview with Bernice McFadden from last summer. Her novel, "The Book of Harlan."
11:06	35:55	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'A Good Time for the Truth' rebroadcast. Featuring editor Sun Yung Shin and two contributors to the collection, Bao Phi and Venessa Fuentes.
11:48	12:25	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'Song Poet' rebroadcast. Author Kao Kalia.
12:06	54:00	Civil Liberty	MPR News Presents: Broadcast of the morning keynote speech at the Minneapolis Convention Center: Civil rights activist Myrlie Evers-Williams.
TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 2017
9:06	48:21	Law & Justice	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Hennepin County Attorney Mike Freeman on criminal justice Reform.r
9:53	7:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread question with Tracy Mumford.
10:20	35:17	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'Kadian Journal: A Father's Memoir.' Author Thomas Harding.
11:06	38:21	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: The fight against sex trafficking in the Twin Cities. John Choi is the Ramsey County Attorney and Lauren Ryan is the director of Safe Harbor/No Wrong Door at the Minnesota Department of Health.
11:47	11:40	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Is trust in journalism busted? Jeremy Olson is a reporter at the Star Tribune; Jacqui Banaszynski is a former reporter at the St. Paul Pioneer Press; Robin McDowell is a reporter for the Associated Press and Steve Sack is an editorial cartoonist at the Star Tribune.
12:06	49:28	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News Presents: President and press: the roots of a feisty, complex relationship. A BBC documentary.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2017
9:06	50:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump's conflicts of interest. Former Bush White House Chief Ethics lawyer, Richard Painter, Washington Post money and politics reporter, Tom Hamburger, and Project on Government Oversight's Policy Counsel, Liz Hepowicz.
10:06	41:28	Family	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The incredible story of two brothers kidnapped by the circus. Beth Macy's book, "Truevine."
11:06	5:37	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Prince tax deadline looms. Star Tribune reporter Emma Nelson.
11:14	34:56	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Closing the rural, urban poverty gap. Growth & Justice President Dane Smith and Granite Falls Mayor Dave Smiglewski.
11:47	11:17	International Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Closing the world's largest refugee camp is a complicated process. Ben Rawlence, author of "City of Thorns: Nine Lives in the World's Largest Refugee Camp."
12:06	50:33	Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: Statistics and experiences clash in debate on bias in policing. Intelligence Squared series, two former cops and two lawyers explore the recent incidents, the statistics and the public controversy surrounding race and policing.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2017
9:06	47:56	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Analysis of President Trump's inauguration. Julian Zelizer, professor of history and public affairs at Princeton University and Washington Post reporter Janell Ross, talked about the history of presidential inaugurations and what they'll be watching for on Friday.
10:06	14:55	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Climate Cast: Getting to know Scott Pruitt, Trump's pick to lead the EPA. Robinson Meyer, an associate editor at The Atlantic, discussed Pruitt with MPR chief meteorologist Paul Huttner and host Kerri Miller.
10:23	35:49	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'The Return: Fathers, Sons and the Land in Between' rebroadcast. Author Hisham Matar.
11:06	31:25	Public Policy	MPR News with Tom Weber: St. Paul recycling bins contain controversial tracking chip. Reporter Tim Nelson and Bill McGeeveran from the University of Minnesota Law School.
11:40	6:28	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Senator Al Franken questioning Governor Rick Perry, Trump's pick to lead the Department of Energy.
11:47	11:35	History / Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: 40 years ago, a Minnesotan was sworn in to the White House. Tom Weber looks back at Walter Mondale's time in the White House.
12:06	52:52	Politics	MPR News Presents: This Russia expert thinks Trump is being blackmailed. Russia expert and history professor Nick Hayes shed some light on the recent allegations concerning Russia and the 2016 presidential election.
FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 2017 SPECIAL COVERAGE President Trump's inauguration
9:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR cover of President Trump's inauguration.
11:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: NPR cover of President Trump's inauguration.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: NPR cover of President Trump's inauguration.
MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 2017 *From this day on, the 10am will usually be a new program, 1A from WAMU.
9:06	13:25	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.

9:23	31:30	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Analysis of Trump's inauguration. Wendy Schiller of Brown University and Michael Fauntroy of Howard University.
11:06	12:32	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Standing Rock tribe asks protesters to leave. Reporter Jenni Monet.
11:20	31:00	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: The one sentence from 1977 that explains the complicated reality of Ely, Minn. Tom Weber traveled to Ely to look back at the environmental debates of the past 50 years, and ahead to the next 50 years.
11:51	6:44	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: We asked local musician Jeremy Messersmith to write a song to mark the MPR's 50th anniversary.
12:06	52:27	History	MPR News Presents: Special: 50th anniversary of Minnesota Public Radio. MPR hosts Tom Crann and Cathy Wurzer mark the 50th anniversary of Minnesota Public Radio with archive coverage of history-making events and special guest interviews.
TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2017
9:06	46:24	Law & Justice	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What criminal justice looks like in Native American communities. Colette Routel, co-director of the Indian Law Program at Mitchell Hamline School of Law, Matthew Fletcher, director of the Indigenous Law and Policy Center and law professor at Michigan State University, and Jill Doerfler, associate professor and department head of American Indian Studies at the University of Minnesota-Duluth.
9:54	4:15	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread Question with producer Tracy Mumford.
11:06	4:33	Politics / Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Physician lawmaker quickly reacted to help Dayton. MPR's Cathy Wurzer spoke with Sen. Scott Jensen, R-Chaska.
11:15	44:18	Race	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: The 'Hidden Figures' of history. The Counter Stories team watched the Academy Award-nominated movie "Hidden Figures" and gave their reviews.
12:06	46:03	Politics	MPR News Presents: Hear Governor Mark Dayton's 2017 State of the State Address.
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2017
9:06	17:23	Immigration	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What will the Mexican border wall mean for immigration? Jessica Vaughan, director of policy studies at the Center for Immigration Studies.
9:22	31:12	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The impending repeal of Obamacare. Daniel Dawes, author of "150 Years of Obamacare" and Sally Pipes, president of the Pacific Research Institute.
11:06	18:27	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: How Trump's immigration plans could effect Somali-Americans. Jane Graupman, executive director of the International Institute of Minnesota, discussed what this would mean for Minnesota's Somali community. She was joined by Star Tribune blogger Jamal Abdulahi who has written extensively about Minnesota's Somali community.
11:22	9:39	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Local doctor discusses prostate cancer. Dr. Badrinath Konety, chair of the Department of Urology at the University of Minnesota.
11:36	21:33	Environment	MPR News with Tom Weber: New river rules protects Mississippi River corridor. Republican lawmaker Marty Seifert, Dan Petrik, a land use specialist with the DNR and Friends of the Mississippi River Executive Director Whitney Clark.
12:06	1:03:04	History / Discrimination	MPR News Presents: August Wilson examines the ugly contradictions in American history. A talk given in Minnesota by the late August Wilson, a two-time Pulitzer Prize-winner and now an Academy Award nominee for the movie "Fences."

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 2017
9:06	52:30	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What does an 'America First' foreign policy look like? Former U.S. Ambassador to Croatia, Peter Galbraith, and professor of law at Mitchell Hamline School of Law, John Radsan.
11:06	24:51	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Storied Minneapolis restaurants to close with Macy's. Restaurant critic Rick Nelson.
11:32	15:57	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: Party like it's 1992? The last Mpls. Super Bowl show didn't age well. Tom Weber on a hokie halftime show.
11:48	11:02	Science	MPR News with Tom Weber: UMD grad student finds rare galaxy. Burcin Mutlu-Pakdil, a graduate student.
12:06	49:28	Politics	MPR News Presents: Americans to Trump: Here's what you need to know. The BBC and American Public Media recently asked Americans in Minnesota and other states what they wanted the new president to know about their lives.
FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 2017
9:06	52:30	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: FRIDAY, Roundtable: President Trump's first week. Kathryn Pearson is a political science professor at the University of Minnesota. Mike Zipko is the founder of Zipko Strategy and a public relations consultant. Alondra Cano represents the 9th ward on the Minneapolis City Council.
11:06	52:51	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: What happened this week at the Minnesota Capitol. Commissioner Emily Piper of the Minnesota Department of Human Services. Sen. Michelle Benson Minnesota (R-Ham Lake), chair of the Health and Human Services Finance and Policy Committee in the Senate. Secretary of State Steve Simon.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Listen to President Trump's and Prime Minister May's press conference.
MONDAY, JANUARY 30, 2017
9:06	16:05	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:22	33:10	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political veterans weigh in on the immigration ban, ACA and more. Mary Kate Cary, is a columnist and political writer and former speechwriter for President George H.W. Bush. Christina Greer, author and political science professor at Fordham University.
11:06	49:43	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump ban creates chaos for travelers in, out of the country. Multiple local stories about the impact of Trump's immigration order, and an interview with immigration expert Josh Keller.
12:06	52:00	Crime & Justice	MPR News Presents: In the Dark: The Crime. Part 1, from APM Reports "In the Dark" radio series.
TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 2017
9:06	47:08	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump set to announce Supreme Court nominee. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to UCLA law professor Eugene Volokh and Boston Herald's Kimberly Atkins about who Trump will nominate.
9:55	5:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread question with producer Tracy Mumford.
11:06	7:25	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: Reporter Jon Collins on Trump's executive order.
11:14	47:56	Technology	MPR News with Tom Weber: Are virtual personal assistants helping your life, or intruding on it? Ben Sauer, a digital product designer and strategist at Clearleft, and Cyborg Anthropologist Amber Case, who studies the relationship between humans and technology.
12:06	51:59	Crime & Justice	MPR News Presents: In the Dark: The Circle. APM Reports "In the Dark" radio series examines how law enforcement handled the kidnapping of Jacob Wetterling, an 11-year-old Minnesota boy -- a case that went unsolved for nearly 27 years.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2017
9:06	15:11	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Analyzing President Trump's Supreme Court nominee. Nicole Austin-Hillery, director of the Brennan Center for Justice's Washington, D.C. office, and Margaret Russell, a professor at the Santa Clara Law School, discussed what this appointment means for the future of the court.
9:22	33:50	Immigration	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Do Trump's immigration policies make us safer? Michael Hurley, former CIA officer and national security expert, and Sharon Burke, senior international security adviser at the New America foundation, talked about the impact of the executive actions on our national security.
11:06	53:00	Gastronomy	MPR News with Tom Weber: What we do and don't know about food allergies. MPR News host Marianne Combs spoke with dietitian Kristi Winkel and Dr. David Stukus about what we know, and what we still have to learn, about food allergies and intolerances.
12:06	51:59	Crime & Justice	MPR News Presents: In the Dark: The One Who Got Away. APM Reports "In the Dark" radio series examines how law enforcement handled the kidnapping of Jacob Wetterling, an 11-year-old Minnesota boy - a case that went unsolved for nearly 27 years.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2017
9:06	49:01	Immigration	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Behind the numbers on immigration detentions. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to immigration law expert Kevin Johnson from the University of California, Davis and Erika Lee, director of the Immigration History Research Center at the University of Minnesota.
11:06	37:42	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'The Highwaymen' tells the story of St. Paul's Rondo neighborhood. MPR News host Marianne Combs spoke with playwright Josh Wilder and director Jamil Jude. They were joined by Marvin Anderson, a resident of the Rondo neighborhood whose story was one of those that inspired the play.
11:47	11:06	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Jomama Jones is preaching love and acceptance at the Penumbra. Playwright Daniel Alexander Jones joined MPR News host Marianne Combs to talk about his alter ego, Jomama Jones.
12:06	51:59	Crime & Justice	MPR News Presents: In the Dark: Person of Interest. APM Reports "In the Dark" radio series examines how law enforcement handled the kidnapping of Jacob Wetterling, an 11-year-old Minnesota boy -- a case that went unsolved for nearly 27 years.
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2017
9:06	52:29	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: FRIDAY, Roundtable: What is feminism today? Nancy Lyons is the co-founder and CEO of the tech company Clockwork, Tai Coleman is an assistant professor of American Multicultural Literature, Rev. Lisa Sharon.
11:06	53:01	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: 5 issues Minnesotans are talking about. Political editor Mike Mulcahy and local political reporters talk over the topics of the week, locally and nationally.
12:06	51:59	Crime & Justice	MPR News Presents: In the Dark: What's Going on Down There? APM Reports "In the Dark" radio series examines how law enforcement handled the kidnapping of Jacob Wetterling, an 11-year-old Minnesota boy - a case that went unsolved for nearly 27 years.
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2017
9:06	13:12	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie: A history-making second week for President Trump. Ken Rudin joined MPR's Chris Farrell to talk about Trump's whirlwind second week as President.
9:25	35:24	Business	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Finding common ground in a sea of corporate regulation. MPR chief economics commentator Chris Farrell spoke with Michael Mandel at the Progressive Policy Institute in Washington and Richard Revesz, director of the Institute for Policy Integrity at NYU School of Law.

11:06	52:59	Religion	MPR News with Tom Weber: In a nation divided, can faith unite Americans? MPR News host Marianne Combs was joined by religious leaders from four different faiths to discuss that question and consider what it means to be a religious American.
12:06	50:30	Politics	MPR News Presents: Experts debate: Is giving President Trump a chance open-minded or dangerous? With President Trump now over two weeks into his presidency, Intelligence Squared Debates posed the question: Should we give Trump a chance?
			TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2017
9:06	52:28	Public Policy	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What do sanctuary cities really offer? At what cost? MPR News host Marianne Combs spoke with Cesar Cuauhtemoc Garcia Hernandez, assistant professor University of Denver Sturm College of Law, and Phil Torrey, supervising attorney for the Harvard Immigration Project, about the confusion and the potential outcome for families, neighborhoods, communities and their safety.
11:06	50:36	Philanthropy	MPR News with Tom Weber: Do arts grant-givers overlook artist of color? MPR News host Marianne Combs spoke with several guests about how racial inequities in funding are affecting local arts groups and how some grant givers are trying to change the status quo in light of our growing diversity.
12:06	52:00	History / Race	MPR News Presents: Old pictures, cherished items reveal stories of African-American life. The Washington Post last year asked people across the country to submit photographs of family objects that connect them personally to black history. Then journalists worked to tell the stories behind them.
			WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2017
9:06	50:50	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is feminism alienating conservative women? MPR News host Marianne Combs discussed the split between feminists with conservative and liberal values with Mary FioRito of the Ethics and Public Policy Center, and Gina Messina, professor of religious studies at Ursuline College.
11:06	24:15	Public Policy	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minneapolis public housing head retires after 25 years. Cora McCorvey joined the program to talk about her tenure with the Minneapolis Public Housing Authority.
11:33	14:58	Linguistics	MPR News with Tom Weber: A look at how to try to save a language. Writer and artist Vincent Moniz Jr. is trying to save the Nu'eta language after the last known speaker died in December.
11:48	10:05	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Bill Cooper, ex-Minnesota GOP leader and TCF Bank chief, dies. Former governor Arne Carlson and Dane Smith covered Cooper in those days with the Star Tribune.
12:06	56:35	Immigration	MPR News Presents: "What just happened?" - A closer look at President Trump's travel ban. "This American Life" explores President Trump's executive order on immigration and refugees. What happened, how was it implemented, and why was it ordered?
			THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2017
9:06	50:16	Climate Change / Business	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Climate Cast: Wind turbines create economic and environmental opportunities. MPR News chief meteorologist Paul Huttner spoke to guests about the growth of clean energy jobs and what it means for the climate and our economy.
11:06	13:10	International Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Somalia's new president and Kenya's potential closure of Dadaab. Tom Weber talked with BBC Reporter Muhammad Ali, who was in Nairobi.
11:23	36:32	Music	MPR News with Tom Weber: In new solo album, Trampled by Turtles frontman explores painful times. Dave Simonett's latest work, "Furnace" is the result of a divorce that turned his world upside down.
12:06	52:09	Health Care	MPR News Presents: Obamacare architect shares recommendations for a new system. Some suggestions to improve our health care system from Dr. Ezekiel Emanuel, an oncologist and key architect of the Affordable Care Act.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2017
11:06	52:13	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Capitol update: Stadium power, pre-emption, marijuana and a special election. MPR News political editor Mike Mulcahy hosted a discussion of where things are at this legislative session with Sen. Julie Rosen, Rep. Pat Garofalo, Rep. Erin Maye Quade, Rep. Tony Cornish, Rep. Tina Liebling, and reporter Brian Bakst.
12:06	40:55	Politics	MPR News Presents: President Trump, Prime Minister Abe hold joint news conference. President Trump and Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe met at the White House on Friday.
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2017
9:06	17:51	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	28:41	Business	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'The Unbanking of America': When banks aren't the best option. Author Lisa Servon.
11:06	9:39	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Dakota Access pipeline in court Monday. Bismark reporter Lauren Donovan shared the latest DAPL developments.
11:16	14:44	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Humans of Minneapolis: The stories all around us. Stephanie Glaros stops strangers on the street to get their stories -- and their pictures.
11:33	23:48	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Update: Health insurance reform at the state Capitol. Sen. Michelle Benson, R-Ham Lake, and Sen. Tony Lourey, DFL-Kerrick, gave an update on health insurance reform at the Minnesota Legislature.
12:06	51:01	History	MPR News Presents: Cultural impact of the Indian Adoption Project still felt today. A new documentary follows the cultural, emotional impact the government's Indian Adoption Project had in the decades after World War II. It's called "Stolen Childhoods."
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2017
9:06	14:01	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: U of M diplomat in residence Mary Curtin talked about Flynn's contacts with Russia.
9:24	34:55	Business	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'Born on Third Base': Tackling economic inequality as a 'one percenter.' Chuck Collins was born with an advantage. He recognized it and decided to use it to help others.
11:06	24:01	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota ACLU head reflects on his career. After 20 years Chuck Samuelson will step down as the head of the American Civil Liberties Union of Minnesota in a time fraught with uncertainties.
11:31	25:20	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: U of M law professor continues with Trump lawsuit over ethics. Richard Painter thinks President Trump should do more than sell off his assets and place them in a blind trust.
12:06	52:00	History / Race	MPR News Presents: Four women share their struggles with racial identity. From the APM Reports series, "Historically Black," an exploration of black identity and a spotlight on African American love stories.
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2017
9:06	50:03	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: President Trump's evolving foreign policy. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with David Schanzer of Duke University and reporter Molly O'Toole about all of the foreign policy implications around the resignation of Flynn and Trump's unpredictable temperament.

11:06	44:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: President Trump press conference.
11:50	8:30	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: U of M professor Nick Hayes on President Trump and Russia.
12:06	53:38	Faith	MPR News Presents: How "moral courage" can help fix polarization in politics, faith. Irshad Manji, founder of the Moral Courage Project at the University of Southern California, spoke Tuesday in Minneapolis at the Westminster Town Hall Forum about how to heal polarization in the U.S.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2017
9:06	49:55	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How is Congress reacting to President Trump's first month? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with Linda Chavez, chair of the Center for Equal Opportunity, and J. Tobin Grant, professor at Southern Illinois University Department of Political Science, about the congressional response to Trump's first month in office.
11:06	33:18	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Do marginalized communities trust mainstream media? Chonburi Lee, a reporter with 3HmongTV, Cristeta Boarini, the editor of Twin Cities Daily Planet, and Ibrahim Hirsi, a staff writer for MinnPost.
11:39	21:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Donald Trump press conference.
12:06	1:16:49	Politics	MPR News Presents: At news conference, Trump says White House 'fine-tuned machine.'
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2017
9:06	50:44	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Cube Critics discuss the Oscars. It's Oscar season and Cube Critics Euan Kerr and Stephanie Curtis are in studio to discuss this year's nominees and which of them we should be watching.
11:06	49:29	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Friday politics chat: Stadium, schools and Sunday sales. Mike Mulcahy spoke to reporter Tim Nelson, Rep. Jim Davnie, Rep. Sara Anderson, Rep. Debra Hilstrom, and reporters Brian Bakst and Tim Pugmire.
12:06	50:30	Politics	MPR News Presents: Do the differences between the U.S., Saudi Arabia make them friends or foes? A group of four experts debated what should be done about this tense alliance under the motion: "The special U.S.-Saudi Arabia relationship has outlived its usefulness."
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 2017
9:06	13:30	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie: What's holding up ACA changes? President Trump promised to repeal and replace the Affordable Care Act simultaneously, but we haven't seen anything from Republican lawmakers.
9:24	31:15	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How does Donald Trump compare to past presidents? Historians Tim Walch and Elizabeth Cobbs discussed how Trump fits into the historical lineup of American leaders.
11:06	23:18	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: The story of Dorothy Day, her 'disorderly years' and her possible sainthood. Author Kate Hennessy.
11:32	17:29	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's it like to travel to the U.S as an immigrant? Farshid Zadeh lives in the Twin Cities. On Jan. 27, he was in Tehran, Iran, to accompany his wife to Minnesota for the first time. The couple were on the first leg of their trip, stopping in Amsterdam to connect to Minneapolis-St Paul International Airport.
11:50	8:47	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'Where the Children Sleep' photo exhibit tells story of Syrian refugees. Magnus Wennman captured photos of refugee children at their most vulnerable.
12:06	50:27	History	MPR News Presents: Presidents' Day opportunity to eavesdrop on three former presidents. A Presidents' Day broadcast of the APM documentary, "White House Tapes: The President Calling."

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2017
9:06	16:07	Immigration	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump's new travel ban. Dean of the University of California Kevin Johnson discussed what we might expect from Trump's new travel ban. Johnson is also a professor of public interest law.
9:23	29:07	Behavioral Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is age nothing but a mindset? Psychologist Ellen Langer spoke to MPR News host Kerri Miller about how the way we think influences the way our bodies age.
11:06	15:51	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: APM Reports update: The investigation into the Mesabi Academy. Reporter Tom Scheck joined the program to talk about his latest report on Mesabi Academy.
11:23	33:30	History / War	MPR News with Tom Weber: The legacy of the CIA in Laos. Joshua Kurlantzick's new book, "A Great Place to Have a War," explores the CIA's role in military operations in Laos in the 1960s and 70s.
12:06	51:59	History / Race	MPR News Presents: Tracing African-American history, success following slavery. This episode of the APM Reports "Historically Black" series shares the stories of some ancestors of slaves prospering in the years that followed emancipation.
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2017 PLEDGE DRIVE
9:06	15:43	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The future of Trump's immigration policy. William Stock, an immigration attorney in Philadelphia and the current President of the American Immigration Lawyers Association.
9:26	21:20	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rebroadcast 'Rad Woman Worldwide.' Author Kate Schatz.
11:06	46:34	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rebroadcast Three student leaders at the U share hopes for 2016. MPR News host Tom Weber met with three student leaders at the University of Minnesota to discuss life on campus, increased student activism and their hopes for 2016.
12:06	50:56	Politics	MPR News Presents: U.S.-Asia relations: The view from Tokyo and Honolulu. A Honolulu-Tokyo town hall meeting was held shortly after President Donald Trump took office, focusing on U.S.-Asia military alliances, trade deals and an unstable North Korea under President Donald Trump.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2017 PLEDGE DRIVE
9:06	46:15	Business	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rebroadcast 'Payoff.' Author Dan Ariely.
11:06	42:26	International Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rebroadcast 'The Mayor of Mogadishu: A Story of Chaos and Redemption in the Ruins of Somalia.' Author Mohamed Nur.
12:06	28:58	Business	MPR News Presents: 3 reasons why the white working class feels marginalized. Author Justin Gest said he wanted to find out how a demographic that's enjoyed relative wealth and power could feel marginalized.
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 2017 PLEDGE DRIVE
9:06	52:28	Music	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rebroadcast 'Anatomy of a Song: The Oral History of 45 Iconic Hits that Changed Rock, R&B, and Pop.'
11:06	53:04	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: National policy with local impact. Reporter Brian Bakst, editor Mike Mulcahy, and reporter Dan Gunderson discuss local politics.
12:06	39:04	History	MPR News Presents: Author talks 'Hidden Figures,' contributions of Black women to American innovation. Margot Lee Shetterly, author of "Hidden Figures."
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2017 PLEDGE DRIVE
9:06	13:26	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political Junkie: A peek into the future. Ken Rudin looked to the future this week. The Democrats have some work to do if they want to be successful in 2020 elections.

9:26	32:41	Law & Justice	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rebroadcast Women in Prisons. Valena Beety, associate professor of law West Virginia University and chair of the West Virginia Innocence Project and Nicole Gonzalez Van Cleve, Assistant Professor at Temple University's criminal justice department.
11:06	37:16	History / Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories goes to the movies: 'I Am Not Your Negro.' The Counter Stories hosts watched "I Am Not Your Negro" and shared their thoughts.
12:06	53:00	Social Issues	MPR News Presents: Free speech and the 'weaponization' of political correctness. Experts discuss the importance of expanding your horizons, listening to "the other side" and avoiding fake news when forming political opinions.
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2017 PLEDGE DRIVE
9:06	47:00	Behavioral Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rebroadcast 'America the Anxious.' Author Ruth Whippman.
11:06	7:00	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Historically Black Colleges. University president Ronald Mason joined the program.
11:19	22:07	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rebroadcast: 'The Arm.' Author Jeff Passan.
12:06	46:25	Science	MPR News Presents: Science wunderkind urges making science beneficial to humanity. Taylor Wilson astounded the science world when he built a bomb at age 10, and at age 14 became the youngest person in history to produce fusion. The young nuclear scientist is still only 22, and he believes science can potentially solve some of the most important problems of our time.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1, 2017 PLEDGE DRIVE
9:06	13:11	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Analysis of President Trump's address to Congress. Douglas Holtz-Eakin joined the program.
9:25	23:24	Nature	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rebroadcast: 'The Hour of the Land.' Author Terry Tempest Williams.
11:06	34:01	Labor / Race	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rebroadcast: Retaining people of color. Peter Frosch is Greater MSP vice president of strategic partnerships. Matt Kramer is President and CEO of the St. Paul Chamber of Commerce. And Sharon Smith-Akinsanya is founder of The People of Color Career Fair.
12:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: President Donald Trump's address to Congress.
THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 2017 PLEDGE DRIVE
9:06	37:27	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Sex education. Dr. Leslie Walker, division chief of adolescent Medicine at Seattle Children's Hospital and Al Vernacchio, a sexuality educator at Friends' Central School and author of "For Goodness Sex: Changing the Way We Talk to Teens About Sexuality, Values, & Health."
11:06	32:30	Music	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rebroadcast The Cactus Blossoms.
12:06	40:51	Hunger	MPR News Presents: Global food in a 'farm-to-table' world. MPR's Chris Farrell leads a conversation on food security and sustainability with Mike Robach of Cargill, Ruth Petran of Ecolab and Jessica Hellmann of the University of Minnesota Institute on the Environment.
FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 2017
9:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 1A from WAMU
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: The debate begins over the state budget, Sunday Sales on its way to Dayton's desk. Sen. Jeff Hayden, DFL-Minneapolis, and Rep. Jim Knoblach, R-St. Cloud, discuss the budget surplus and what should be done with it.

12:06	53:00	Climate Change	MPR News Presents: Common ground on climate change? Some in GOP say yes. Jeremy Carl research fellow, Hoover Institution, Stanford University, John Hofmeister, former president, Shell Oil Company and Bob Inglis, former Republican U.S. Representative, South Carolina.
			MONDAY, MARCH 6, 2017
9:06	21:26	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:22	25:33	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Are news organizations being too hard on Trump? Journalists Mollie Hemingway and Vann Newkirk discussed what duties news organizations have when covering presidential administrations and if Trump is getting a fair shake.
11:06	23:54	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Two lawmakers lost loved ones to opioids, now they are crafting bills to fight abuse. Rep. Dave Baker and Sen. Chris Eaton are hoping they can help those struggling with opioid addiction.
11:32	25:55	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: How might Trump's Medicaid block grants work? Robin Rudowitz of the Kaiser Family Foundation explained the proposal being discussed to make Medicaid a block grant program with the states.
12:06	53:00	Immigration	MPR News Presents: Children make perilous journey to Mexico-U.S. border in search of their mothers. A Twin Cities talk given by Pulitzer Prize-winning writer Sonia Nazario, the author of "Enrique's Journey."
			TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 2017
9:06	17:01	Immigration	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op Ed: Travel ban is necessary for safety. Mark Krikorian of the Center for Immigration Studies said the travel bans aren't about politics. They're about proper vetting.
9:22	28:25	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Analysis: Trump's plan for increased spending on infrastructure. Barry LePatner, the author of "Too Big to Fall: America's Failing Infrastructure and the Way Forward." David Levinson, the chair for transportation studies at the University of Minnesota.
11:06	38:15	Health / Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesotans respond to retraction of transgender bathroom guidance. Brenda Cassellius, the commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Education. Paul Mueller, the vice president of Education Minnesota, Minnesota state's teachers union. Andrea Jenkins, a transgender activist. Ellie Krug, the founder and president of Human Inspiration Works, LLC.
11:38	13:47	Immigration	MPR News with Tom Weber: New travel ban raises old questions. The Immigrant Law Center of Minnesota works with immigrants and refugees from many nations. Executive Director John Keller joined the program to answer questions about what this new order means for people in Minnesota and what kind of advice he's giving.
12:06	53:00	Immigration	MPR News Presents: How the U.S.-Mexico border was created, changed and enforced. Historian Rachel St. John gives some context for the deepening controversy over the sovereignty of the US borders, in particular the border with Mexico.
			WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2017
9:06	15:13	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The American Healthcare Act and the future of Planned Parenthood. Sarah Stoesz, president, and CEO of Planned Parenthood Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota spoke with MPR News host Kerri Miller about what the bill would mean for Planned Parenthood if it becomes law.
9:24	33:05	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Life after prison: The 'sentence never ends.' To discuss the issues behind these numbers, MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with Shaka Senghor, the author of "Writing My Wrongs," and Chris Uggen, a professor of sociology and law at the University of Minnesota and a fellow of the American Society of Criminology.

11:06	26:06	Climate Change	MPR News with Tom Weber: With government data on climate science at risk librarians rise to the rescue. USA Today political editor Paul Singer and University of Minnesota librarian Alicia Kubas talked about that movement on the program.
11:35	22:48	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: A mother reflects on her fugitive son: 'The connection is still there'. Charlene Briner was hopeful when her son was released from prison last year. Seven months later, she found herself sending him a text: "Turn yourself in."
12:06	53:00	Education	MPR News Presents: The impact of poverty on the goals of public education. "The View from Room 205." A documentary about the impact of poverty and societal dysfunction on the goals of public education. It was produced by public radio station WBEZ in Chicago.
THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 2017
9:06	15:26	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Where Trump is succeeding. Susan Del Percio is a Republican strategist and she joined MPR News host Kerri Miller to go over what Trump is doing well and what his supporters—and even detractors—should be happy about.
9:23	32:50	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump promises federal crackdown on marijuana. Manny Munson-Regala the principal consultant at Root Cause. Kevin Sabet, director of the Drug Policy Institute and former senior adviser at the White House Office of National Drug Control Policy.
11:06	36:02	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Crimes committed on reservations receive harsher penalties. Professor Sarah Deer and attorney Andrew Adams III joined the program to discuss why that is and the repercussions.
11:46	12:44	Climate Change	MPR News with Tom Weber: A story of two rivers: Photographing the Colorado and the Ganges. National Geographic photographer Pete McBride discussed his project photographing the dying Colorado River and the sacred Ganges River.
12:06	53:00	Education	MPR News Presents: Are charter schools the answer to America's public education challenges? A new debate from the Intelligence Squared series explores the issues.
FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 2017
9:06	53:00	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Health care in a imperfect world.
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Five takeaways from the week in Minnesota politics. Reporters Tim Nelson, Brian Bakst and Rachel Stassen-Berger joined the conversation as well as Dr. Robert Meiches, the CEO of the Minnesota Medical Association.
12:06	53:00	Race / Education	MPR News Presents: Universities confront painful past and ties to slavery. Writer Ta-Nehisi Coates and the president of Harvard University Drew Gilpin Faust say universities and other institutions need to come to terms with their complicity in slavery, and seek ways to make amends.
MONDAY, MARCH 13, 2017
9:06	15:05	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	31:36	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Outlook: Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch's hearings. MPR News host Kerri Miller talked Supreme Court with Kimberly Atkins, the Boston Herald's Washington correspondent, and all things political with political science professor Khalilah Brown-Dean from Quinnipiac University.
11:06	49:40	Climate Change	MPR News with Tom Weber: Exploring the death, and life, of the Great Lakes. Journalist Dan Egan dives into the history of the Great Lakes and the problems facing the natural resource.

12:06	53:00	Technology	MPR News Presents: Teaching artificial intelligence to behave is challenging, but crucial. Entrepreneur and Stanford researcher Jerry Kaplan says machines are already doing what used to require human attention or intervention, but we need to figure out a way to make these machines - or robots - act in a socially appropriate way when they're around humans.
TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 2017
9:06	36:16	Immigration / War	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'Dark at the Crossing': A story of love and loss in Syria. Author Elliot Ackerman.
9:39	19:46	Immigration	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Listen: Canada's private refugee sponsorship program. MPR's Elizabeth Shockman spoke to New York Times reporter Jodi Kantor about Canada's thriving refugee sponsorship program in a country where the "government can barely keep up with the demand to welcome refugees."
11:06	6:50	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Listen: Will CBO estimate impact Trump's health care bill? Self-proclaimed "health care policy nerd" Sarah Kliff joined the program to discuss.
11:13	15:23	War	MPR News with Tom Weber: Will MN's 98 old suspected Nazi be extradited to Poland? AP reporter David Rising discussed what his investigation uncovered and what Poland plans on doing next.
11:33	27:01	Education / Health	MPR News with Tom Weber Listen: New UMN Psychiatry head aims to end 'culture of fear.' Dr. Sophia Vinogradov took over the University of Minnesota Department of Psychiatry after a report revealed they failed to protect a patient who committed suicide.
12:06	53:00	Public Policy / Economics	MPR News Presents: How government policy disfavors the young. Economist Diana Furchtgott-Roth says millennials will have a more difficult time achieving success than young people had in the past because government policies benefit older people and leave the young with few choices and a mountain of debt.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15, 2017
9:06	36:29	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Tensions rising between the U.S. and North Korea. Two foreign policy experts joined the program to discuss U.S., Korean relations. Shelia Smith, is a senior fellow at the Counsel on Foreign Relations, and Philip Yun, is the executive director of Ploughshares Fund.
9:45	12:05	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: From political prisoner to President: The story of Ellen Johnson Sirleaf. Sirleaf is the first female president of an African nation and Helene Cooper's biography, "Madame President," tells her story.
11:06	28:39	Immigration / Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: UMN dean leaves to run refugee advocacy organization. Humphrey School Dean Eric Schwartz will step aside at the end of the academic year to be president of an organization based out of Washington D.C. He spoke about his tenure with the school.
11:43	17:18	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Meet Percy, the cat who hid under a semi for 400 miles. Truck driver Paul Robertson was devastated when his cat co-pilot went missing at a rest stop in Ohio.
12:06	53:00	Education / Careers	MPR News Presents: Writer says NCAA is a cartel making billions. On the eve of the NCAA basketball tournament, Joe Nocera concludes that the NCAA is nothing more than a cartel whose rules are fundamentally designed to ensure that the players have no money, no rights and no power.
THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 2017
9:06	18:09	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What tax reform can we expect from Republicans? Professor Lily Batchelder and reporter Jeanne Sahadi joined MPR's economics correspondent Chris Farrell to discuss.
9:21	31:08	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How planned giving actually helps you save. Marketplace senior economics contributor Chris Farrell spoke to Ross Levin about a counter-intuitive money-saving strategy.

11:06	25:07	Economics / Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump's budget and its implications. Ross Eisenbrey of the Economic Policy Institute joined the program to provide context for this proposal and discuss the likelihood that it will be passed by Congress.
11:34	12:47	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Walker film series celebrates indigenous filmmakers. Missy Whiteman spoke to MPR News host Tom Weber about the premiere of her newest film "Coyote Way."
11:47	12:21	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Is the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe running out of legal options to stop the pipeline? Dakota and Dine Nation activist Dallas Goldtooth of the Indigenous Environmental Network discussed the Dakota Access pipeline and what's happened since President Trump signed an executive order to continue construction.
12:06	53:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: CaringBridge CEO on keeping the customer first. MPR economics commentator Chris Farrell speaks with Liwanag Ojala. She's the CEO of CaringBridge, which offers free personalized websites for the family and friends of people facing health challenges.
FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 2017
9:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 1 A from WAMU.
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: Health care, pay raises, and tax cuts. Rep. Erin Murphy, Rep. Jim Abeler, Brian LeClair, and reporters Brian Bakst and Tim Pugmire.
12:06	53:00	Race / Education	MPR News Presents: American RadioWorks Documentary, 'The Living Legacy.'
MONDAY, MARCH 20, 2017
9:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR special coverage of Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch.
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: NPR special coverage of Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch.
12:06	53:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: "Dark Money: The Hidden History of the Billionaires Behind the Rise of the Radical Right." Jane Mayer was a reporter for the Wall Street Journal and is now with the New Yorker.
TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 2017
9:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR special coverage of Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch.
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: NPR special coverage of Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch.
12:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Klobuchar, Franken question Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch. On day two of Neil Gorsuch's Supreme Court confirmation hearings, Minnesota Sens. Amy Klobuchar and Al Franken were up to question the nominee.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 2017
9:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR special coverage of Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch.
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: NPR special coverage of Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch.
12:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch. Neil Gorsuch's Supreme Court confirmation hearings.
THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 2017
9:06	53:27	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's the economic impact of the AHCA? MPR News Host Kerri Miller spoke with NPR Health policy correspondent, Alison Kodjak, and Leighton Ku, Director of the Center for Health Policy Research at George Washington University, about the potential economic impact the proposal could have on voters.
11:06	19:40	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: St. Paul police launch website to hold themselves accountable. Chief Todd Axtell joined the show to talk about specifics.

11:26	15:06	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Fate of GOP health care overhaul uncertain. The U.S. House delayed a vote Thursday on the Republican's health care overhaul bill. Will they get enough votes to pass it? USA Today political editor Paul Singer discussed that and more.
11:44	14:12	Nature	MPR News with Tom Weber: Why are rusty patched bumble bees dying? Charles Wooley and Tamara Smith of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service discussed the bee's dramatic decline in population over the past 20 years. Then, Eric Mader, co-director of Xerces Pollinator Conservation Program, talked about his organization's partnership with General Mills.
12:06	53:00	Health Care	MPR News Presents: Pfizer CEO Ian Read speaks on health care costs and reform.
FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 2017
9:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 1 A from WAMU
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: 5 takeaways from the week at the Minnesota Capitol. Rep. Jon Koznick, Rep. Frank Hornstein, Rep. Drew Christensen, and reporters Brian Bakst and Tim Pugmire.
12:06	53:00	Health Care / Nutrition	MPR News Presents: CEOs of Minnesota's global stars. There are two entities that have made Minnesota famous around the world: Mayo Clinic and Cargill. Their CEOs, Dr. John Noseworthy and David MacLennan, spoke recently about two of our most important needs: health and food.
MONDAY, MARCH 27, 2017
9:06	13:25	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	32:53	Economics / Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Analysis of President Trump's budget proposal. MPR News chief economics correspondent Chris Farrell spoke with Washington Post Congressional reporter Kelsey Snell and Harvard Business School professor Rosabeth Kanter about what to expect of the Trump budget.
11:06	39:49	Health Care	MPR News with Tom Weber: Health Partners CEO on the future of health care. HealthPartners president and CEO Mary Brainerd will retire from her post in June after 15 years at the head of the health giant.
11:44	14:48	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: NAFTA negotiators on what to consider if there's a renegotiation. Jaime Serra Puche and Carla Hills were two of the lead architects of the North American Free Trade Agreement.
12:06	53:00	Politics / Mechanics of media	MPR News Presents: New York Times columnist talks Trump, news and how we protect our biases. Longtime New York Times columnist Frank Bruni talks about trust in the media and how we use technology to protect our biases.
TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 2017
9:06	13:59	Business	MPR News with Kerri Miller: There's a manufacturing renaissance, but at what cost? Bloomberg Businessweek's Peter Waldman talks to Marketplace economics editor, Chris Farrell.
9:20	34:23	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The uncertain future of science funding. MPR senior economics contributor Chris Farrell spoke with Andrea Thompson, senior science writer at Climate Central and Rush Holt, chief executive officer at the American Association for the Advancement of Science, about the potential impact of the president's budget blueprint.
11:06	42:24	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Our deadliest enemies are the germs we can't see. In a new book, "Deadliest Enemy," Michael Osterholm explores the global pandemics that could wipe us off the planet.
11:48	9:49	Business	MPR News with Tom Weber: Investigation results expected soon on Wells Fargo account scandal. New York Times reporter Stacy Cowley shared the latest on the Wells Fargo scandal, which went public last year when the bank was found to have opened 2 million bank accounts in customer's names without their consent.

12:06	53:00	Immigration	MPR News Presents: Immigrants share their stories, hopes for the future. An exploration of immigration in America from American Public Media and the BBC. "The Response-America's Story."
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2017
9:06	25:12	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Climate Cast: Climate opinion in the U.S. MPR's chief meteorologist Paul Huttner discussed climate opinion with Anthony Leiserowitz, the director of the Yale Program on Climate Change Communication.
9:37	12:36	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Climate Cast: Capitol Hill report with Jason Samenow. Washington Post weather editor Jason Samenow joined MPR's chief meteorologist Paul Huttner to discuss what's going on in Washington D.C.
9:51	5:33	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Climate Cast: Snow in the Sierras has increased. Climate researcher Dan Cayan joined MPR's chief meteorologist Paul Huttner to talk about the state of snowpack in California.
11:06	36:18	Business	MPR News with Tom Weber: How will automation affect the trucking industry? President of the Minnesota Trucking Association, John Hausladen and economic and political sociologist Steve Viscelli discussed the impact automation will have on the trucking industry.
11:43	16:03	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: How Congress' internet privacy bill will affect you. Brian Fung, technology reporter for the Washington Post, discussed proposed legislation that will remove online privacy protection.
12:06	53:00	Politics / Economics	MPR News Presents: IQ2 debate: Is Universal Basic Income the safety net of the future? Four people debate this topic using the motion, "A 'Universal Basic Income' is the safety net of the future."
THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 2017
9:06	51:59	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Political landscape shifts with new revelations from the Intelligence Committee. Former CIA officer Michael Hurley talked about the Committee Hearings and revelations around Russia's involvement in the 2016 election and Huffington Post senior political reporter Amanda Terkel discussed the dizzying amount of political news that came out of Washington this week.
11:06	31:48	Nature	MPR News with Tom Weber: Update on the Red River flood diversion project. MPR News host Tom Weber spoke to the opposing groups at the center of this dispute--DNR commissioner Tom Landwehr and the mayor of Fargo, Tim Mahoney.
11:42	9:01	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota's teacher shortage. MPR News reporters Solvejg Wastvedt and John Enger have been following a Minnesotan epidemic, too few teachers. Here are their stories from around the state.
11:51	10:55	Nature	MPR News with Tom Weber: About 100 elk live in MN, should there be more? Joe Albert, writer for the DNR's Minnesota Conservation Volunteer, talked about his recent article looking at the history of elk in Minnesota and efforts to restore their population.
12:06	53:00	Social Issue	MPR News Presents: The real history of America's 'working class.' Historian William Jones explores how the American workforce has been transformed over the past hundred years, and what "the working class" really is.
FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 2017
9:06	53:00	Gender / Science	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Women in science work for recognition and equal pay. University of Minnesota chemistry professor Erin Carlson, Fivethirtyeight science writer Maggie Koerth-Baker, and University of Wisconsin River Falls physics professor Rellen Hardtke
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: This week in politics: MnSure, buses and the internet. Sen. Ron Latz, Adam Duinick, and Rep. Matt Dean.
12:06	53:00	Social Issues	MPR News Presents: BBC in Minneapolis 'Somalis in America: A Community Under Pressure.' An event hosted by the BBC's Owen Bennett Jones, held March 29, 2017 at Augsburg College in Minneapolis.

