

MINNESOTA PUBLIC RADIO NEWS AND INFORMATION SERVICE
FCC QUARTERLY PROGRAMMING REPORT OF APRIL — JUNE, 2017

KNCM~KNSEK~KNBJ~KBPN~WIRN~WSCN~KNSR~KLNI~WIRC~ KNWF~WLSN~KGRP
WINH~WGGL~KITF~ KXLC~KNOW~KCCD~KRFI~KZSE~KRXW~KAUR~KNGA~KNTN~KNSW

Start Time	Duration min: sec	Issue Addressed	Title and Narrative
			MONDAY APRIL 3, 2017
9:06	16:58	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	31:12	Health Care	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The uncertain future for Medicaid. Kerri Miller talks with Mary Agnes Carey from Kaiser Health News and Henry J. Aaron from Brookings Institution about what populations Medicaid really serves and what the future holds for the program.
11:06	25:46	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Getting people to care about the caucuses. Star Tribune reporter Adam Belz has been covering the city council races and he explained why the caucuses matter. Organizer Ashley Fairbanks co-founded an effort called "Give a S---, Mpls," also joined the program to discuss how people can engage in this political process.
11:35	16:43	Finance	MPR News with Tom Weber: VP of Minneapolis Federal Reserve Bank steps down after 40 years. James Lyon joined the program to discuss his career and his work on the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, which was passed by President Obama in response to the financial crisis of 2007-2008.
11:51	6:47	Sports	MPR News with Tom Weber: Paying tribute to Minnesota Twin Tom Kelly. MPR producer Jim Bickal recounted his conversation with the legendary Tom Kelly.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: Understanding King's complex legacy five decades later. APM Reports and American RadioWorks put together a documentary on King's final years, produced by Kate Ellis and Stephen Smith, called "King's Last March."
			TUESDAY, APRIL 4, 2017
9:06	48:36	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: An author asks: What's wrong with the Democratic party? Author Thomas Frank spoke with MPR News host Kerri Miller about his new book, "Listen, Liberal."
9:53	6:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread question: What are your summer reading plans? Thread producer Tracy Mumford joined hosts Kerri Miller and Stephanie Curtis to talk about which books they're most excited about this summer.
11:06	49:24	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Exploring 'The Story of Autism.' A new book, "In a Different Key: The Story of Autism" by John Donvan and Caren Zucker, explores the history of the diagnosis.
12:06	54:00	Economy	MPR News Presents: AFL-CIO president talks best ways to create jobs. AFL-CIO president Richard Trumka answers questions at the National Press Club about the best ways to create jobs, reduce income inequality and improve the economy and the lives of the working people of America.
			WEDNESDAY APRIL 5, 2017
9:06	19:54	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is there a new housing bubble on the horizon? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with senior economics editor Chris Farrell about the likelihood of another bubble.

9:29	29:07	Psychology	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is age nothing but a mindset? Psychologist Ellen Langer spoke to MPR News host Kerri Miller about how the way we think influences the way our bodies age.
11:06	36:41	Social Issue	MPR News with Tom Weber: Can legislation really create racial equity? Co-hosts Tom Weber and Doualy Xaykaothao spoke to Brett Grant, director of research and policy at the Voices for Racial Justice, Steven Belton, president of Urban League Minneapolis and Bo Thao-Urabe, co-founder and network director of Coalition of Asian American Leaders (CAAL).
11:46	12:47	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Will the Senate 'go nuclear' over Gorsuch? MPR News co-hosts Tom Weber and Doualy Xaykaothao got the latest on the fight over Gorsuch from Kimberly Atkins, chief Washington reporter and columnist for the Boston Herald.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: The Thread Hour: Authors Molly Brodak and Paul Auster. MPR's Kerri Miller interviewed author Molly Brodak about her memoir, "Bandit: A Daughter's Memoir" and MPR's Euan Kerr interviewed Paul Auster about his latest novel, "4 3 2 1."
THURSDAY APRIL 6, 2017
9:06	49:04	Foreign Policy	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Foreign policy analysis of Trump's early days as president. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with David Kang from the University of Southern California and Stephen Sestanovich from the Council on Foreign Relations about how a new administration quickly forms its foreign policy.
11:06	8:56	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Yanez trial awaits venue decision. MPR's Riham Feshir shared the latest on the trial of Jeronimo Yanez, a St. Anthony police officer charged in the shooting death of Philando Castile.
11:16	13:39	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Mobile home park case could have implications statewide. Burnsville's attorney, Paul Reuvers, and the resident's attorney, Valerie Sims, discussed the findings and the ramifications for housing laws elsewhere in Minnesota.
11:32	17:11	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: The unexploded bombs littering Laos. Channapha Khamvongsa, founder and executive director of the Washington D.C. non-profit Legacies of War joined the program.
11:50	8:27	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: WWI history. A rebroadcast of a piece by reporter Dan Olson about a commission of public safety.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: The 'enemies among us' in World War I Minnesota. Annette Atkins is a retired professor of history at St. John's University and the College of St. Benedict. She spoke January 18, 2014 at the Minnesota Historical Society's History Forum.
FRIDAY APRIL 7, 2017
11:06	54:00	State Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: Protest bill, POCI and budget. Host Mike Mulcahy discussed the issues surrounding enhanced penalties for protests, a new DFL group that wants to work for racial equity, and the partisan gulf on the state budget. He spoke to Representatives Nick Zerwas, Melissa Hortman and Peggy Flanagan.
12:06	54:00	Social Issues	MPR News Presents: Speakers: Here's how to build trust between police, public. A panel of community leaders met for a discussion about trust and policing. Report Brandt Williams spoke to Cathy Spann, Jason Sole, Janee Harteau and Mark Kappelhoff.
MONDAY APRIL 10, 2017
9:06	16:15	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.

9:23	31:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Growing fractures in the Republican party. MPR News Host Kerri Miller spoke with The Atlantic's McKay Coppins and University of Miami political science professor, Joseph Uscinski about the growing fractures in the Republican Party.
11:06	33:52	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: The Pepsi ad and the all-male card club. This month, the Counter Stories hosts, Hlee Lee, Luz Maria Frias, and Anthony Galloway, focused on the Pepsi commercial that raised all sorts of controversy—and on a comment by Minnesota's House Minority Leader about who does, and doesn't, have the attention of the Legislature.
11:43	14:39	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Tribal leader reflects on Obama administration. Karen Diver is a well-known leader in Minnesota tribal politics. She discussed her time with the administration.
12:06	54:00	Global Politics	MPR News Presents: President Trump's approach to the Middle East. Middle East and national security scholars analyze President Trump's approach to the multiple problems in the Middle East, including Syria, Iran, Israel and ISIS.
TUESDAY APRIL 11, 2017
9:06	15:05	Global Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Dispatches from a Syria war correspondent. MPR News host Kerri Miller interviewed Janine di Giovanni, author of "The Morning They Came for Us: Dispatches from Syria."
9:23	33:19	Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What the 'princess effect' means for young women. With Disney's recent remakes of Beauty and the Beast and Cinderella, Kerri Miller explored "princess culture" with Salem State University's Rebecca Hains and Peggy Orenstein author of "Girls and Sex" and "Cinderella Ate My Daughter."
11:06	12:43	Economics	MPR News with Tom Weber: More fallout from Wells Fargo sales scandal. New York Times reporter Stacy Cowley joined Tom Weber for the latest.
11:22	29:42	Police	MPR News with Tom Weber: Maplewood police chief on police culture, reform. MPR News host Tom Weber talked with Maplewood Police Chief Paul Schnell, who will soon leave his post.
11:52	6:17	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City.' Matthew Desmond talked about his experience reporting "Evicted."
12:06	54:00	Social Issues	MPR News Presents: Rev. Otis Moss on ways to build community. Rev. Moss is the senior pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ in Chicago, the former church home for then-Senator Barack Obama. He spoke April 11, 2017 at the Westminster Town Hall Forum in Minneapolis — the speech was titled "Building the Beloved Community."
WEDNESDAY APRIL 12, 2017
9:06	54:00	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What is the most effective political activism? What is the best way for concerned citizens to make sure their voices are heard? MPR News Host Kerri Miller talks to University of California Irvine sociology professor David S. Meyer about effective political activism.
11:06	56:07	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Latino USA's Maria Hinojosa on Trump, deportations, media coverage, and self-care. Hinojosa joined host Tom Weber for a conversation as part of MPR's Broadcast Journalist series.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: In rural Wisconsin, researcher found roots of Trump's revolution. University of Wisconsin political science professor Katherine Cramer on the urban rural divide in Wisconsin. Cramer followed her speech with a Q&A session, moderated by professor Larry Jacobs.
THURSDAY APRIL 13, 2017
9:06	47:43	Conservation	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Are we living through the sixth extinction? Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Elizabeth Kolbert joined Kerri to discuss climate change and mass extinctions. Her latest book is "The Sixth Extinction."

9:53	6:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread Question with Tracy Mumford.
11:06	20:04	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Emmer: Republicans and Democrats must work together on health care. 6th District Republican Tom Emmer joined MPR News during Congress' recess.
11:26	18:27	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Hennepin Co. human services head on rising child abuse numbers. Jennifer DeCubellis, deputy administrator of Health and Human Services in Hennepin County, talked about why the numbers are rising and what can be done about it.
12:06	54:00	54:00	MPR News Presents: Experts debate: Does Walmart help or hurt America's economy? Experts took on these questions in an Intelligence Squared debate using the motion: 'Long live Walmart.'
FRIDAY APRIL 14, 2017
9:06	52:11	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Rural politics, special elections and the partisan divide. As President Trump draws close to his hundredth day in office, MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with Javier Morillo, president of SEIU Local 26, Annette Meeks, Founder and CEO of the Freedom Foundation of Minnesota, and Larry Jacobs, Chair for political Studies at the University of Minnesota's Humphrey School, about what we've learned since the end of the 2016 election.
11:06	53:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: The legislative session so far, the 'Trump Effect' and Speaker Daudt. Mike Mulcahy talked through the legislative session so far with former GOP House Minority Leader Marty Seifert and public affairs consultant Todd Rapp. And he checked in with GOP Speaker of the House Kurt Daudt.
12:06	54:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: Finnegans CEO and co-founder talks turning beer into food. Jacquie Berglund, the co-founder and CEO of Finnegans beer is Chris Farrell's guest for this episode in his series, "Conversations on the Creative Economy."
MONDAY APRIL 17, 2017
9:06	16:16	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	33:09	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Rethinking the DFL. The Democrats lost big in the 2016 election. After ceding control of the House, Senate and White House to Republicans, Democrats are now facing divisions and a crisis of leadership. MPR's Kerri Miller talks to political scientist Thomas Schaller and former Bernie Sanders press secretary, Symone Sanders about the way forward for the DFL.
11:06	4:51	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Affidavit: Doctor prescribed meds for Prince in another name. Reporter Tim Nelson shared the details with host Tom Weber.
11:10	20:06	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: 20 years after epic flood, Red River towns no longer dread the spring. Reporters Tim Nelson and Dan Gunderson discussed what it was like covering the historic flood.
11:30	20:00	Nature / Wild Life	MPR News with Tom Weber: Spring in Minnesota. Wildlife experts Sharon Stiteler and Phil Jenni discussed what to do if interacted with wildlife.
12:06	54:00	History / Conflict	MPR News Presents: A story half told: Looking at the genocide in Cambodia 42 years later. MPR's Greg Barron reported from the refugee camps on the Thai-Cambodia border and produced a 1979 documentary titled, "Trampled Grass." He revisits that story in his new documentary, "Follow the Moon."
TUESDAY APRIL 18, 2017
9:06	12:00	Global Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Professor David Kang talked about the dynamics between South and North Korea.

9:22	35:36	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why higher education doesn't close the gender wage gap. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with Elise Gould, senior economist at the Economic Policy Institute, and Rhonda Vonshay Sharpe, President and Founder of Women's Institute for Science, Equity and Race, about the history and economics of the gender wage gap in the United States.
11:06	7:43	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump visits Kenosha to promote U.S. jobs. Shawn Johnson, capitol bureau chief at Wisconsin Public Radio, talked about President Trump's visit to Kenosha, Wis.
11:15	17:30	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rep. Paulsen on town halls, health care and Trump's taxes. Republican Rep. Erik Paulsen joined MPR News host Tom Weber for an interview. Here's what the congressman had to say on a few key issues.
11:33	23:57	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: The making of the documentary 'Untouchable.' Tom Weber spoke with David Feige about his documentary "Untouchable," a film about efforts of a Florida lobbyist to pass tougher sex offender laws. Joining them was Eric Janus, professor at Mitchell Hamline School of Law.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: 100 years ago: Music and movements from WWI America. "The War That Changed Us - Songs and Stories of World War I America," is a show created by Minnesota musician and writer Dan Chouinard, featuring an all-star cast of local performers.
WEDNESDAY APRIL 19, 2017
9:06	10:08	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why did a Democrat almost win this hugely Republican district? National Review columnist John Fund says an upcoming special election in Georgia is a bellwether for how voters feel about Republicans' performance in Washington DC.
9:38	38:44	Family Life	MPR News with Kerri Miller: A look at the power dynamics of marriage in 'The Unmade Bed.' Stephen Marche and his wife Sarah Fulford explore the roles men and women play in modern relationships.
11:06	24:05	Conservation	MPR News with Tom Weber: Study: Salty lakes in Twin Cities mean no fish by 2050. Brooke Asleson of the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency discussed this research on rising salt levels in lakes. They were joined by Steven Lund, Minnesota Department of Transportation state maintenance engineer, and the co-author of the "Salting our freshwater lakes" report Mindy Morales- Williams
11:30	16:55	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rep. Keith Ellison's vision for the Democratic Party. The deputy chairman of the Democratic National Committee joined Tom Weber to discuss the party's future.
11:47	25:26	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Oscar-winning film producer Sarah Pillsbury, on her career and Minnesota roots.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: 100 years later: What America learned in WWI. "The War That Changed Us - Songs and Stories of World War I America," is a show created by Minnesota musician and writer Dan Chouinard, featuring an all-star cast of local performers.
THURSDAY APRIL 20, 2017
9:06	26:54	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Are oligopolies bad for the U.S. economy? MPR News chief economics editor Chris Farrell spoke with Derek Thompson from The Atlantic and Luigi Zingales, professor at Chicago's Booth School of Business, about the effect oligopolies - airlines, cellphone carriers, internet providers - have on micro and macro economies in the U.S.
9:36	29:45	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Economist editor-in-chief on populism, technology and aging around the world. Zanny Minton Beddoes is the first female editor-in-chief of global publication. MPR News chief economics editor Chris Farrell spoke to her ahead of her visit about the pressing economic issues she's watching.
11:06	15:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Rep. McCollum on climate agreement, budget prospects.

11:24	18:00	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Female genital mutilation. Fartun Weli heads the Minneapolis non-profit Isuroon which works to educate people and speak out against FGM. Robin Phillips is executive director of an organization of a group called Advocates for Human Rights. Welcome back.
11:42	18:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'First Daughter and the Black Snake.' Winona LaDuke is from the White Earth reservation in northern Minnesota. She joined the program along with filmmaker Keri Pickett.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Washington Post reporter calls Trump-Russia story 'astonishing.' Washington Post investigative reporter Tom Hamburger, who says that, despite his long career following politics and money, the Trump administration is unlike anything he's covered before.
FRIDAY APRIL 21, 2017
9:06	52:29	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Remembering Prince one year later. Guests shared their experiences, their perceptions and their memories of Prince on the one year anniversary of his death.
11:06	51:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Simulcast from Paisley Park. Andrea Swenson, Andre Cymone, and Donna Grantis joined the program.
12:06	54:00	Social Psychology	MPR News Presents: Jane Goodall on resilience of nature and the indomitable human spirit.
MONDAY APRIL 24, 2017
9:06	18:38	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:33	31:23	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How changes to Title X funding might impact public health. Public health professional Elizabeth Dawes Gay and Gretchen Borchelt of the National Women's Law Center discussed.
11:06	27:09	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'Hell to Heartland': Minnesota reporter on her journey to Dadaab.
11:35	24:22	Health / Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: For Sonny Knight, cancer diagnosis is a moment of reckoning.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: Holocaust Remembrance Day: Elie Wiesel on what makes us moral.
TUESDAY APRIL 25, 2017
9:06	19:39	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-ed: John Carney on the case for Trump's 'Buy American' policy. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Breitbart writer, John Carney about his recent op-ed, "The Libertarian Case for Trump's 'Buy American' order."
9:24	9:24	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump administration plans for high drug prices. Dr. Walid Gellad and MIT professor of economics Sara Ellison discussed drug pricing and what changes, if any, we may see to rising drug costs.
11:06	22:24	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: A look inside the measles outbreak in Minnesota. Kris Ehresmann, Minnesota Department of Health infectious disease director, joined MPR News host Tom Weber to talk about the current outbreak.
11:27	11:36	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: A Minnesotan's reflections on his work with Obama. Joe Paulsen is a Minnesota native, he joined MPR News today to talk about his work as a personal aide to former President Barack Obama.
11:45	13:29	Economics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Career fair focuses on people of color, as employment gaps persist. Sharon Smith-Akinsanya spoke with MPR News about the People of Color Career Fair, which takes place this Thursday at the Minneapolis Convention Center.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: David Grann on 'Killers of the Flower Moon.'

WEDNESDAY APRIL 26, 2017
9:06	49:11	Economics / Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's the best way to reform American taxes? Caroline Bruckner of American University and tax analyst Joseph Thorndike discussed.
11:06	4:07	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Scarsella, the Clark protester shooter, faces 19 years in jail at sentencing today. Reporter Brandt Williams gave details.
11:14	18:37	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: What happens to kids whose parents are incarcerated? Rebecca Schlafer is a child psychologist at the University of Minnesota Medical School. She joined the program to share the psychological effects on children whose parents are in incarcerated.
11:32	33:30	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Improv pioneer Dudley Riggs on comedy, jazz and the flying trapeze. Dudley Riggs new memoir, "Flying Funny," documents his life in the circus.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: How we got into a nuclear standoff with an impoverished dictatorship. A special report from Neal Conan on the historical background and context for the nuclear standoff with North Korea.
THURSDAY APRIL 27, 2017
9:06	48:45	Finance	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Exerting control over a budget. Personal finance expert Ruth Hayden spoke to MPR News Host Kerri Miller about managing debt.
11:06	10:21	Law & Justice / Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: New rift opens between Minneapolis mayor, police chief. Reporter Brandt Williams had the details.
11:14	15:02	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: U of M Prof: At 100 days, Trump still facing ethics issues. Richard Painter said that President Trump selling off some assets and placing the rest in a blind trust do not go far enough.
11:31	23:19	Science	MPR News with Tom Weber: The man behind the Mars rover on exploring space. Kobie Boykins can say he's explored Mars.
12:06	54:00	Climate Change	MPR News Presents: Climate change means too much water for some, too little for others. This APM Reports documentary explores some of the most salient problems and solutions regarding water by visiting two countries where water issues are critical: India and Israel.
FRIDAY APRIL 28, 2017
9:06	52:29	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: When books get adapted for the screen. Four bibliophiles discuss when Hollywood adaptations went right and when they went terribly wrong.
11:06	52:58	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: Dayton says GOP plan cuts too much in taxes. As GOP leaders release an outline of their spending plans, Gov. Mark Dayton says their tax numbers don't add up.
12:06	54:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: Louis Johnston and Chris Farrell on the economy under Trump.
MONDAY MAY 1, 2017
9:06	13:34	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	36:01	Social Issue	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Workplace sexual harassment happens beyond Fox News.
11:06	13:28	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: GOP chooses Minneapolis businesswoman as new state party chair. Jennifer Carnahan is new to the committee and the founder of the a chain of boutique clothing stores called Primrose Park. She beat out three Republican insiders.
11:26	31:15	Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Unpaid traffic tickets leave people with low-incomes in debt. Rep. Nick Zerwas, R- Elk River, University of Minnesota professor Chris Uggen, and the CEO of Diversion Solutions, Scott Adkisson discussed why this spiral of debt disproportionately affects low income households and people of color.

12:06	54:00	Climate Change / Politics	MPR News Presents: Newseum event explores politics of climate change. A panel discussion was held at the Newseum on the day of the People's Climate Movement March in Washington.
			TUESDAY MAY 2, 2017
9:06	15:56	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump voters happy with their choice. MPR News guest host Tiffany Hanssen spoke to Republican strategist Reed Galen and Mary Kate Cary, senior fellow for Presidential Studies at the University of Virginia's Miller Center.
9:25	34:15	Technology	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Asking big questions about our technological future. Guest host Tiffany Hanssen interviewed David Rothkopf, CEO and editor of Foreign Policy and author of "The Great Questions of Tomorrow."
11:06	7:48	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: How milk could spur a trade war with Canada. MinnPost reporter Sam Brodey recently wrote a story detailing how the Trump administration may be setting up a trade war with Canada — over milk.
11:14	44:50	Social Issues	MPR News with Tom Weber: Reformed extremist now fighting hate. Christian Picciolini discussed what it was like to participate in a hate group and how he's helped others leave that life behind.
12:06	54:00	Mental health / Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: Mental health and the criminal justice system: Can Minnesota do better? Sue Abderholden of the National Alliance on Mental Illness/Minnesota, Corrections Commissioner Tom Roy, and Dr. Eduardo Colon of HCMC suggest various ways Minnesota can do better, through early diagnosis and effective treatment, better crisis intervention, reducing stigma, and providing transitional help.
			WEDNESDAY MAY 3, 2017
9:06	12:17	Healthcare	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The AHCA flopped. What's next for healthcare reform? Mary Agnes Carey, senior correspondent for Kaiser Health News, joined MPR News guest host Jana Shortal for a conversation about the newest iteration of the American Health Care Act and it's political viability.
9:22	36:39	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The weird world of sleep. MPR News guest host Jana Shortal spoke to two experts about what happens to our brains when we sleep.
11:06	12:11	Demographics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Not thinking about the 2020 Census yet? You should be. Joan Naymark, executive director of MACS 2020 (Minnesotans for the American Community Survey and 2020 Census), told MPR News host Tom Weber why she thinks planning for the Census must begin soon and why her group is pushing for state funds three years ahead of time.
11:22	37:32	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: As opioid deaths increase, is anyone changing their behavior? An addiction specialist discussed Minnesotans and their struggles with opioid addiction.
12:06	54:00	Health	MPR News Presents: Former CDC chief says we're losing focus on public health priorities. Dr. Julie Gerberding says there's a lot of consensus about how to prevent the spread of infectious diseases.
			THURSDAY MAY 4, 2017
9:06	16:48	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Trump's foreign policy strategy: Reactionary, nimble, or both?
9:25	28:08	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: A new memoir explores belief, doubt and faith in Hollywood. "My Adventures with God" by actor Stephen Tobolowsky follows the arc of the Torah in five sections.
9:55	3:42	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread question: What's behind the plunge in e-book sales? Consumer e-book are down in both the U.K. and the U.S. Publishing industry experts say it may be the affect of screen fatigue. Physical book sales are rising while e-books sales are dropping.
11:06	7:23	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's happening in the race for St. Paul mayor? Reporter Tim Nelson had details.

11:14	44:28	Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: The fatal shooting of 15-year-old Jordan Edwards. The Counter Stories hosts discussed the fatal shooting of a 15-year-old Texas boy by police.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Richard Haass at Westminster Town Hall Forum. A broadcast from the Westminster Town Hall Forum featuring diplomat Richard Haass, the president of the Council on Foreign Relations.
			FRIDAY MAY 5, 2017
11:06	51:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Politics Friday: End of legislative session. This week we'll get the perspective of two first-time lawmakers. Mike Mulcahy will talk with two senators, one Republican and one Democrat, who also happen to be medical doctors. He'll also be joined by Republican Rep. Paul Torkelson for a look at the debate over transportation funding– and proposed cuts to metro transit. And finally, political reporters Tim Pugmire and Brian Bakst will wrap up the week and look ahead to the next.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: The rise of populism and the threat to the EU and NATO. Timothy Garton Ash of Oxford and Steve Erlanger of the New York Times explore the prospects for a united Europe in the face of a wave of nationalism and populism, internal divisions and the struggle to integrate nineteen diverse economies.
			MONDAY MAY 8, 2017
9:06	23:43	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:33	25:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What to pay attention to in the Russia investigations. MPR News guest host Jana Shortal spoke to foreign policy adviser, Molly McKew and The Washington Post's Tom Hamburger about investigations into Russian meddling in the 2016 election.
11:06	52:12	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Tales of covering the Trump White House with NPR's Tamara Keith. Keith joined MPR News for a discussion on covering both the Obama and Trump White Houses and the role of a journalist in the current political climate.
12:06	54:00	Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: Police: Not Trained to Not Kill. The investigative reporting of MPR's Curtis Gilbert of APM Reports, looks at training police to de-escalate a crisis.
			TUESDAY MAY 9, 2017
9:06	24:02	Healthcare	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The health care repeal and replace bill goes to the Senate. Sally Pipes of the Pacific Research Institute, and Julie Rovner of Kaiser Health News joined MPR guest host Tiffany Hanssen to discuss what the American Health Care Act would mean for people with pre-existing conditions.
9:32	24:37	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Working in the Obama White House. MPR guest news host, Tiffany Hanssen spoke to Alyssa Mastro Monaco, the former assistant to the President in the Obama White House about her memoir, "Who Thought This Was a Good Idea."
11:06	5:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Legislative update from political reporters.
11:11	17:52	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Meet the next St. Paul schools superintendent. Joe Gothard starts his new job in July, and he will face significant challenges in St. Paul schools.
11:31	27:44	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's next for former U.S. Attorney Andrew Luger? Andrew Luger will step down, along with other U.S. attorneys, as the Trump administration settles in.
12:06	54:00	Law & Justice / Race	MPR News Presents: A civil conversation on politics, race, religion and character. Cornel West calls for a commitment to what he calls "soul craft." Ross Douthat says we need to live our lives courageously without falling into a "palsy of anxiety and victimization" when bravery and heroism are called for.
			WEDNESDAY MAY 10, 2017

9:06	18:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Context around Comey's ouster. Former federal prosecutor and Mitchell Hamline Law Professor John Radsan joined MPR News reporter Marianne Combs to discuss what will happen to the Russia investigation in the wake of Comey's removal.
9:25	30:15	Ars & Culture / Mental Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Discussing depression, suicide and '13 Reasons Why.' Is the hit Netflix series spurring a conversation about suicide? Or causing more harm than good? MPR News guest host Marianne Combs spoke with Dr. Ron Avi Astor, a behavioral health professor, and Phyllis Alongi, clinical director for the Society for the Prevention of Teen Suicide.
11:06	19:25	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Comey sought more Russia probe resources before firing. Donald Kettl is professor and former dean in the School of Public Policy at the University of Maryland.
11:26	27:30	Conservation	MPR News with Tom Weber: What are insecticides doing to Minnesota bees? MPR News host Tom Weber was joined by MPR News reporter Dan Gunderson, entomologist Judy Wu-Smart, and Tom Slunicka, the head of the Minnesota Soybean Growers Association, to discuss these legal developments and how insecticides effect bees.
12:06	54:00	Education / Economics	MPR News Presents: Economist says early childhood education spending has big payoff. Economist Arthur Rolnick says we're under-investing in our most vulnerable kids, and that paying for early childhood programs is not just morally right, it's economically smart.
THURSDAY MAY 11, 2017
9:06	14:22	Conservation	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Grass isn't always 'greener.' Why is it that Americans are so obsessed with their green lawns? And what is this cultural infatuation doing to the environment? MPR News chief meteorologist Paul Huttner spoke to professor Joan Nassauer about lawns, and alternatives to green sod.
9:30	29:15	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Climate Cast: How cities are preparing for climate change. Many cities around the country are already beginning to deal with the practical effects of climate change. MPR Chief meteorologist Paul Huttner spoke with environmental reporter Elizabeth Dunbar about how city planners are adjusting to the increase in rainfall. Then he spoke with Minneapolis Sustainability Program coordinator Kelly Muellman and Varun Sivaram, who is the acting director of the Program on Energy Security and Climate Change for the Council on Foreign Relations.
11:06	52:39	Healthcare	MPR News with Tom Weber: How would the House health care bill affect you? Two experts discuss the possible implications of the GOP's Obamacare replacement plan at national and local levels.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Kao Kalia Yang. Award-winning author Kao Kalia Yang speaks about her books and the Hmong experience in Minnesota.
FRIDAY MAY 12, 2017
11:06	52:53	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Listen: Politics Friday on budget bills, veto threats and Trump's new voting commission. Three political reporters and the Minnesota Secretary of State joined MPR News host Tom Weber to discuss the latest at the Minnesota Legislature and at the U.S. Capitol.
12:06	54:00	Economics	MPR News Presents: The creative economy in Duluth's craft district. Chris Farrell's "Conversations on the Creative Economy" series comes this time from Duluth, featuring three people who founded small businesses in Duluth.
MONDAY MAY 15, 2017
9:06	22:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.

9:31	27:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What it means to be an America: Eddie Glaude. This is a rebroadcast of a conversation between Kerri Miller and Eddie Glaude in which they discuss racism, patriotism, and what it means to be an American.
11:06	34:56	Jobs	MPR News with Tom Weber: Why we don't hear about the decline in retail jobs. Derek Thompson, a senior editor at The Atlantic where he writes about economics and labor markets, has some ideas.
11:43	15:26	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's it like to be a chess master? MPR News host Tom Weber talked with Wesley So, the Minnetonka chess grandmaster who last month claimed the title of U.S. chess champion.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Russia: friend, foe or ??? Two Russia experts explore answers to the question, "Is Russia a friend, foe, or something else?"
TUESDAY MAY 16, 2017
9:06	22:50	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Answering your questions about reported Trump leaks. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Mitchell Hamline law professor John Radsan about the reports President Trump gave classified information to the Russians.
9:24	25:59	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Are we in a new housing bubble? Over the last 15 years the housing market has gone from bubble to bust, and is now back in a boom. Two housing experts discussed whether we might be headed for another housing bubble.
11:06	33:24	Politics / Resources	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump infrastructure investments. APM Reports reporter Tom Scheck spoke about the kinds of projects that the Trump administration might be interested in giving money to. Charles Marohn, an urban planner who formed the organization Strong Towns, thinks a $1 trillion federal infrastructure package is a bad idea.
11:43	15:54	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: To fight measles, Somali leaders want sustained engagement. Anab Gulaid, founder of the Somali Health Coalition.
12:06	54:00	Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: Former Minn. Supreme Court Justice Alan Page on life, education, football and the law.
WEDNESDAY MAY 17, 2017
9:06	52:28	International Relations	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Foreign policy and Trump's first Presidential trip abroad. President Trump leaves later this week for his first trip abroad in office. With all the news about leaks coming from the White House there are questions about how things will go while he's out of the country. MPR News host Kerri Miller invited two experts to talk about Trump's foreign policy and what we can expect from his upcoming trip.
11:06	4:00	Nature	MPR News with Tom Weber: One person was killed in a trailer park during tornado. Reporter Tim Nelson had the story.
11:10	31:52	Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: The dental crisis across Minnesota and the country. Dentist Kevin Dens, president of the Minnesota Dental Association, and journalist Mary Otto, whose new book "Teeth" explores America's dental crisis, discussed the dental care industry and how its structure creates disparities.
11:43	14:33	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: 90 years ago, Charles Lindbergh changed aviation history. Minnesota Historical Society exhibit developer Brian Horrigan talked about that storied flight and Lindbergh himself.
12:06	54:00	Mental Health	MPR News Presents: IQ2 debate: Will video games make us smarter? In this Intelligence Squared debate, experts discussed the topic with the motion: "Video games will make us smarter."
THURSDAY MAY 18, 2017

9:06	12:43	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why special counsel is not enough in Trump Russia probe. Kerri Miller asked Peter Zeidenberg. He served as an assistant special counsel in the prosecution of Scooter Libby, spent 17 years in the Department of Justice, and is currently a partner at Arent Fox LLP.
9:25	25:00	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The princess effect. Researchers have found that the emphasis and marketing around princess stuff encourages girls to behave in stereotypical feminine patterns. So, with Beauty and the Beast out now and Disney's Cinderella on the horizon, Kerri Miller explored the pros and cons of "princess culture". This is a rebroadcast.
9:50	10:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Thread question: What are your summer reading plans? Thread producer Tracy Mumford joined hosts Kerri Miller and Stephanie Curtis to talk about which books they're most excited about this summer.
11:06	51:00	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: Latino USA's Maria Hinojosa on Trump, deportations, media coverage, and self-care. Maria Hinojosa discussed the place and purpose of journalism in this political moment and her own journey. This is a rebroadcast.
12:06	54:00	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News Presents: NYT Frank Bruni on 'Media in the Age of Misinformation.'
FRIDAY MAY 19, 2017
9:06	21:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR's Mara Liasson on the Trump, Russia investigation.
9:27	32:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: An author asks: What's wrong with the Democratic party? Author Thomas Frank spoke with MPR News host Kerri Miller about his new book, "Listen, Liberal." This is a rebroadcast.
11:06	37:20	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Four days to go: Will they make it? Lawmakers must adjourn the 2017 legislative session by midnight on Monday (May 22), and they still have a lot to agree on if they're going to pass a new state budget before then. MPR's Mike Mulcahy and Brian Bakst join Tom Weber for the latest from the Minnesota Capitol.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Mondale and Durenberger: 'When Politics was Not a Blood Sport.' Former Vice President Walter Mondale and former U.S. Senator David Durenberger talk about the need to restore civility in politics and seek the common good.
MONDAY MAY 22, 2017
9:06	14:08	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:25	37:00	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The number of women in prison is rising. Why? Nicole Gonzalez Van Cleve, an assistant professor in Temple University's criminal justice department, and Valena Beety, an associate professor of law at West Virginia University, joined MPR News host Kerri Miller to discuss the factors behind the numbers.
11:06	27:35	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Indigenous authors month: Waziyatawin. MPR News host Tom Weber spoke with Waziyatawin, a Dakota woman who lives on the Upper Sioux reservation near Granite Falls.
11:22	18:17	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Indigenous authors month: 'We Are Still Here.' American Indian Movement history was written in a book by Laura Waterman Wittstock and included decades of photos from Dick Bancroft. The book is called "We Are Still Here." Tom Weber spoke with Wittstock.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: In Saudi Arabia, Trump says fight against terrorism a 'battle between good and evil.' In his first foreign trip as president, Trump stressed to leaders of Arab and Muslim-majority countries that "nations of the Middle East cannot wait for American power to crush this enemy for them."
TUESDAY MAY 23, 2017

9:06	12:14	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-ed: 'Removing Trump won't solve America's crisis.' Every week we interview a conservative voice on a current topic. This week MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Robert Merry - political editor of "The National Interest" - who recently wrote a piece for The American Conservative titled, "Removing Trump Won't Solve America's Crisis."
9:28	30:00	Family Life	MPR News with Kerri Miller: A look at the power dynamics of marriage in 'The Unmade Bed.' Stephen Marche and Sarah Fulford joined us to discuss "The Unmade Bed," a new book about modern marriage. This is a rebroadcast.
11:06	53:00	Mental Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Mental health and the criminal justice system: Can Minnesota do better? This panel hosted by MPR's Tom Crann includes Sue Abderholden of the National Alliance on Mental Illness, Minnesota Corrections Commissioner Tom Roy, and Dr. Eduardo Colon of HCMC.
12:06	54:00	Social Psychology	MPR News Presents: Jane Goodall on resilience of nature and the indomitable human spirit.
WEDNESDAY MAY 24, 2017
9:06	15:00	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: BBC broadcast.
9:21	37:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What it means to be an American: Rosanne Cash. Singer, songwriter Rosanne Cash on what it means to be an American. First in a series. This is a rebroadcast.
11:06	43:08	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: 74 Seconds episodes one and two. Reporters from MPR News are following the case of officer Jeronimo Yanez, who is being charged with manslaughter after shooting Phildano Castile during a traffic stop.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Former President Barack Obama speaks about courage.
THURSDAY MAY 25, 2017
9:06	54:00	Politics / Religion	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Indivisible rebroadcast. We invited Reverend Jennifer Bailey from the Faith Matters Network and Krista Tippett, the host of OnBeing to think about the intersection of faith identity and politics.
11:06	37:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: 74 Seconds episode three and a debrief with reporters.
12:06	54:00	Climate Change	MPR News Presents: Fond du Lac 'Water in a Time of Climate Change' event. Scientists, elders and community members from the Fond du Lac Band of Lake Superior Chippewa spoke recently at a gathering entitled, "Water in a Time of Climate Change."
FRIDAY MAY 26, 2017
11:06	37:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Legislative wrap. Political editor Mike Mulcahy, and two political analysts discussed the end of the session.
11:43	17:21	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: What happens to victims after a sex trafficking ring is busted? Tom Weber speaks with Assistant U.S. Attorney Laura Provinzino and Panida Rzonca, with the Thai Community Development Center in Los Angeles, about Thursday's indictments in one of the largest prosecutions ever of a global sex trafficking ring.
12:06	54:00	Social Psychology	MPR News Presents: James McGregor says one word describes the Chinese people: Ambition.
MONDAY MAY 29, 2017
11:06	53:27	History	MPR News with Tom Weber: Memorial Day special: The last men of Luverne prepare for a toast. It's Memorial Day, and we're remembering people in the armed forces who died. MPR News host Tom Weber opened the phones and invites Minnesota veterans and their loved ones to call in and share their Memorial Day stories in a special live hour.

12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: On JFK's 100th birthday, 'We Knew JFK: Unheard Stories from the Kennedy Archive.'
			TUESDAY MAY 30, 2017
9:06	21:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin. Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:27	30:33	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Answering your questions about the FBI. Host Tom Weber discussed what we should expect from the new director of the FBI, whoever that may be. He was joined by two former agents, Lauren Anderson and Ron Hosko.
11:06	17:29	Arts & Culture / Race	MPR News with Tom Weber: Dakota community ponders how to remove Walker sculpture. Kate Beane, a Dakota outreach and program manager for Native American Initiatives team at the Minnesota Historical Society, discussed the kinds of things the Dakota community might consider for the controversial installment at the Minneapolis Sculpture Garden, which the Walker Art Center over the weekend said would come down.
11:22	22:39	Mechanics of Journalism	MPR News with Tom Weber: New York Times reporter on his life and work in Africa. Pulitzer Prize-winning Jeffrey Gettleman is the East Africa correspondent for the New York Times.
11:46	12:44	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Why police trials are so rare. Officer Jeronimo Yanez faces manslaughter charges in the death of Philando Castile. As the trial gets underway criminologist Philip Stinson joined the show to discuss why so few officers go to trial after shootings.
12:06	54:00	Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: NPR Kelly McEvers 'Embedded' special on police videos.
			WEDNESDAY MAY 31, 2017
9:06	52:46	Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Hazing: group bonding tradition or deadly safety hazard? MPR News host Kerri Miller talked to hazing prevention advocate Lianne Kowiak who lost a 19-year-old son due to fraternity hazing, and journalist Hank Nuwer, who's written many books on the subject of hazing.
11:06	40:41	Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: Separation ordinance and Walker's 'Scaffold' installation. Three of the Counter Stories hosts--Hlee Lee, Don Eubanks and Luz Maria Frias--joined Tom Weber along with guest Sharon Smith-Akinsanya to discuss the Portland attack, separation ordinance, and reactions to the Walker's "Scaffold" sculpture.
11:43	15:10	Politics / Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: New Franken memoir marries comedy and politics...finally. "Al Franken: Giant of The Senate" paints the picture of a new U.S. senator trying to be taken seriously.
12:06	54:00	Climate Change	MPR News Presents: 'America Abroad:' Global approaches to climate change. From the "America Abroad" series, a look at the approaches various countries around the world are taking to address climate change: China, India, Canada and Morocco.
			THURSDAY JUNE 1, 2017
9:06	16:13	Conservation	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Will the U.S. pull out of the Paris Climate agreement? Richard Alley, professor at Penn State University's Earth and Environmental Systems Institute, joined MPR News host Kerri Miller to discuss the importance of President Trump's announcement on the Paris agreement.
9:23	31:24	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Doctor-patient communication. Danielle Ofri is the author of "What Patients Say, What Doctors Hear," a new guide on bridging the gulf between people and their care providers. She joined the program to talk about bridging the gulf between people and their care providers.
11:06	28:39	Healthcare	MPR News with Tom Weber: Caregivers need help too. Cynthia Orange the author of "Take Good Care" talked about the life choices that care givers make daily with MPR guest host Marianne Combs.

11:38	21:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Leaving Ten Thousand Things behind. Michelle Hensley, artistic director of Ten Thousand Things Theater spoke to MPR host Marianne Combs about her decision to retire after the 2017-2018 season.
12:06	54:00	Religion / Politics	MPR News Presents: Who says religion and politics don't belong in polite conversation? There are two subjects etiquette rules say we shouldn't talk about in polite conversation: religion and politics. But political science professor Amy Black of Wheaton College says it's both valuable and essential to discuss our political and religious world views.
FRIDAY JUNE 2, 2017
9:06	51:29	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable on America's place abroad. The afterglow of President Trump's first overseas trip--generally thought to be successful--didn't last long when he returned to the crisis enveloping his son-in-law Jared Kushner and his contacts with Russia. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to three experts on the state of international affairs.
11:06	51:05	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Friday Politics: Defund the Legislature? 'See you in court,' Daudt tells Dayton. Governor Mark Dayton and House Speaker Kurt Daudt made back-to-back appearances on MPR News with host Mike Mulcahy. Later in the hour, former Minnesota Attorney General Mike Hatch weighed in on the constitutional questions around Dayton's move to defund the legislature.
12:06	54:00	Mental Health	MPR News Presents: Dr. Vivek Murthy says emotional health key to physical health.
MONDAY JUNE 5, 2017
9:06	14:38	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:22	35:54	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Context on Russia ahead of Comey testimony. Michael Flynn, Jared Kushner, James Comey. The investigation into Russia's meddling in the 2016 presidential election continues to grow. But what should we be paying attention to? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to foreign policy advisor and Russia expert, Molly McKew for the latest on the Russia investigations.
11:06	51:57	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: What we can learn from 'Scaffold' and similar controversies. Three guests spoke with MPR News guest host Marianne Combs about how public art and monuments — whether at Fort Snelling, in paintings at the Capitol, or in the Walker Sculpture Garden — have sidestepped brutal Native American history, and how to change this pattern going forward.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Eddie Glaude Jr. explores what it means to be American.
TUESDAY JUNE 6, 2017
9:06	38:32	Terrorism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: ISIS and modern terrorism. Graeme Wood, author of "The Way of Strangers: Encounters with the Islamic State" and Charlie Winter, senior research fellow on homegrown radicalism, internet, and terrorism joined the program.
9:53	4:30	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: BBC broadcast.
11:06	12:48	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: An update on the trial of Jeronimo Yanez. 74 Seconds podcast producer Tracy Mumford spoke to guest host Marianne Combs about the latest in the trial of St. Anthony Police Officer Jeronimo Yanez.
11:21	22:17	Arts & Culture / Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Sculptor, Walker director reflect on what they've learned. MPR's Euan Kerr talked with Walker Art Center director Olga Viso and artist Sam Durant.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Eddie Glaude Jr. on what it means to be American. Part 2.

WEDNESDAY JUNE 7, 2017
9:06	21:27	Terrorism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How vulnerable are U.S. elections to hacking? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Nicholas Weaver, a lecturer at UC Berkley and researcher at the International Computer Science Institute for more information on cyber security and hacking the American vote.
9:28	28:39	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: 'American War' and empathy. "American War" is the first novel by award-winning journalist Omar El Akkad. It's set in an America that has been plunged into a second Civil War.
11:06	33:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Is satire dividing the nation? MPR guest host Marianne Combs spoke with two guests: Caitlin Flanagan, correspondent for The Atlantic and author of "Girl Land" and "To Hell With All That", and standup comedian Raghav Mehta, who writes for the comedy production firm Above Average.
11:41	12:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: For the poet Bao Phi, a violent past is never far away. Bao Phi's new book of poetry, "Thousand Star Hotel," is published by Coffee House Press.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: Documentary: 'Little War on the Prairie.' Although Mankato native and former MPR reporter and documentary producer John Biewen grew up in Mankato, he heard next to nothing about the U.S.-Dakota War of 1862 during his childhood there.
THURSDAY JUNE 8, 2017
9:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR News special coverage.
11:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: NPR News special coverage.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: A history of the FBI and former American presidents. The program, titled "You're Fired," is part of Neal Conan's "Truth, Politics and Power" series from PRX.
FRIDAY JUNE 9, 2017
11:06	3:56	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Defense makes their case in Yanez trial. In the trial of Officer Jeronimo Yanez, the prosecution has rested and the defense is arguing their case. Officer Yanez faces manslaughter charges in the shooting death of Philando Castile. 74 Seconds podcast producer Tracy Mumford gave insight into the defense's case and discussed when Officer Yanez will take the stand.
11:12	36:48	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Ask an expert: Summer gardening. Now that summer has arrived, how do you make sure your garden stays in bloom? MPR News guest host Marianne Combs asked University of Minnesota Extension horticulturist Julie Weisenhorn for practical advice on caring for your garden, summer planting, and how to be pesticide-free and bee-friendly. But, not all "would-be gardeners" have a garden. Gardening Matters' Seth Kuhl-Stennes joined Combs to talk about the challenges of setting up a community garden and what it means to grow sustainable, local foods.
11:38	9:47	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: All-night art festival is back with focus on climate change. MPR News guest host Marianne Combs talked with Steve Dietz, president and artistic director of Northern Lights.mn, which runs the festival.
12:06	54:00	Technology	MPR News Presents: Amory Lovins on the future of personal mobility. An exploration of the ways we'll get around in the future.
MONDAY JUNE 12, 2017
9:06	16:59	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	32:28	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's next in D.C. politics? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Brown University professor of political science, Wendy Schiller and Howard University politics professor, Michael Fautroy.

11:06	6:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Update on the Yanez trail with producer Tracy Mumford.
11:12	44:04	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Distracted driving causes 70 deaths in MN each year. A father who lost his daughter to distracted driving and a member of the State Patrol joined the program to talk about efforts to curve these deadly habits.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture / Politics	MPR News Presents: "The American Spirit: Who We Are and What We Stand For." Two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning historian David McCullough is out with a new book.
TUESDAY JUNE 13, 2017
9:06	14:54	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-ed: 'Terror and the Teddy Bear Society.' Op-Ed columnist Theodore Dalrymple, who argued British society is making too many concessions to extremists within the Islamic faith.
9:23	35:23	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Questions on credibility and ethics in Washington. Attorney General Jeff Sessions will testify before the Senate Intelligence Committee today. Two experts helped demystify the hearing process, discussed what's happening today, what actions come next and what are the rules around government ethics.
11:06	29:44	Technology / Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Will changes to net neutrality regulation affect you? Washington Post technology reporter Brian Fung joined MPR News host Tom Weber to talk about the Federal Communications Commission's plan to roll back regulations on high-speed internet.
11:38	9:00	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Reporter Tim Pugmire on the end of session.
11:47	4:27	People & Places	MPR News with Tom Weber: Red River strangers share their stories, find common ground. Careful listening is the idea behind a Fargo-Moorhead project that aims to break down barriers and build empathy between people who might think they have little in common. Dan Gunderson reports.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: APM Reports: Thurgood Marshall Before the Court. Listen to an APM Reports documentary, "Thurgood Marshall Before the Court."
WEDNESDAY JUNE 14, 2017
9:06	16:00	Politics / Terrorism	MPR News with Kerri Miller: BBC and NPR coverage.
9:22	27:50	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why most of your ideas about aliens are probably wrong. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Jim Al-Khalili, the editor of "Aliens: the World's Leading Scientists on the Search for Extraterrestrial Life."
11:06	12:29	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Hennepin, Ramsey Counties vote to raise sales taxes for transit. Star Tribune Janet Moore reporter gave an update on transit funding.
11:24	38:26	Trade	MPR News with Tom Weber: 'Containers': How global trade has changed us. Tom Weber spoke with Alexis Madrigal, host of the podcast "Containers" about how those containers have transformed us and our world.
12:06	54:00	Technology	MPR News Presents: IQ2 debate: Tech companies, private data and law enforcement. A new debate from the Intelligence Squared series. Four experts debate if tech companies should help law enforcement gain access to your private digital data.
THURSDAY JUNE 15, 2017
9:06	17:39	Law & Justice	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's happening in the jury room? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to Susan Gaertner for insight into the mysteries of the deliberation room.
9:21	32:37	Mental Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Paula Poundstone and 'The Totally Unscientific Study of the Search for Human Happiness.'
11:06	44:59	Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: A look at the minimum wage proposal in Minneapolis. Tom Weber talked with three guests about proposals to raise the minimum wage to $15 an hour in Minneapolis.

11:50	8:57	International Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Trump expected to reverse Cuba policy. The President isn't a fan of the Obama-era deal with Cuba. Gary Prevost, a professor emeritus at the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University, talked about what the reversal would mean for Cuba and for the U.S.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Beyond the Border: The Future of U.S.-Mexico Relations. Monica Serrano, professor of international relations at the College of Mexico, and Rodrigo Cervantes, Mexico City bureau chief for Arizona public radio station KJZZ.
			FRIDAY JUNE 16, 2017
10:06	48:10	Health	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Communication better health. Dr. Danielle Ofri. Dr. Ofri wrote a book called "What Patients Say, What Doctors Hear" about the importance of communication in healthcare. We asked two physician and one patient to read and reflect on her book as well as their own personal experiences.
11:06	12:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Update on the Yanez trial.
11:19	15:49	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 2023 World's Fair one step closer to Minneapolis. Former Minnesota Secretary of State Mark Ritchie is the chief executive of the Minnesota World's Fair Bid Committee. Ritchie joined the program to talk about what this news means.
11:42	17:51	Education	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minneapolis middle school gets a new name. Alexander Ramsey Middle School will be renamed for the state's first black Supreme Court justice, Alan Page.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: Thread Book Hour: Sheryl Sandberg on post-traumatic growth. Kerri Miller's interview with Facebook COO Sheryl Sandberg.
			MONDAY JUNE 19, 2017
9:06	49:35	Politics / Social Issues	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How to talk to someone who disagrees with you on politics. Political tensions are sky-high in the U.S. and it's difficult to have meaningful discussions about politics that don't devolve into arguments. MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke Bill Doherty, a professor of Family Social Science, who has been experimenting with ways to foster dialogue with members of opposing political tribes.
11:06	51:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Yanez not guilty on all counts. Tom Weber spoke to Reporters Jon Collins and Riham Feshir, professor Phil Stinson, the Roseville Police Chief and others .
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Chairman of Joint Chiefs of Staff speaks at National Press Club. U.S. Marine Corps General Joseph Dunford was appointed by President Obama and re-appointed by President Trump.
			TUESDAY JUNE 20, 2017
9:06	13:05	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Op-Ed: 'Mueller should recuse himself.' Special counsel Robert Mueller should recuse himself from the Russia investigation, says Georgetown University Law Center professor William G. Otis.
9:21	37:04	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is there still bipartisan support for criminal justice reform? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to two experts about Attorney General Session's proposed changes and how people on both sides of the aisle are responding.
11:06	17:39	Healthcare	MPR News with Tom Weber: What's the impact of the of GOP health care bill? Julie Rovner of Kaiser Health News joined the program to discuss the bill.
11:22	16:06	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: A conversation with Yanez defense attorney Tom Kelly. A conversation with Yanez defense attorney Tom Kelly
11:39	18:29	International Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: The state of refugees. On Tuesday, World Refugee Day, MPR News host Tom Weber spoke with Daniel Wordsworth of the Minnesota-based aid organization American Refugee Committee (ARC) about the state of refugees around the world, the future of refugee aid and ARC's efforts around the globe.

12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel at the National Press Club.
			WEDNESDAY JUNE 21, 2017
9:06	16:59	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.
9:23	33:28	Healthcare	MPR News with Kerri Miller: How are Republicans repealing and replacing the Affordable Care Act? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke with healthcare policy experts to try and figure out what's in the Senate healthcare bill that few people have seen. She was joined by Dr. Kavita Patel, fellow at the Brookings Institute, and Leighton Ku, director of the George Washington Milken Institute of Public Health.
11:06	47:22	Disparities	MPR News with Tom Weber: Counter Stories: Reflecting on the Yanez verdict and dashcam video. The Counter Stories hosts reacted to the dashcam video from the Jeronimo Yanez case.
12:06	54:00	International Politics	MPR News Presents: Neal Conan special: How Do Civil Wars End? A program from former NPR host Neal Conan's new series, "Truth, Politics and Power." This edition is called "How and Why Do Civil Wars End?"
			THURSDAY JUNE 22, 2017
9:06	45:51	Economics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Is Trump putting America back to work? President Donald Trump prioritized American jobs in the first month of his presidency, so what's his administration done to bring back manufacturing, re-shore companies, and put Americans back to work? Economics experts Gordon Gray and Lisa Cook discussed.
11:06	33:19	Disparities Gender	MPR News with Tom Weber: 45 years of Title IX: what's changed? Mary Jo Kane, professor at University of Minnesota's Tucker Center for Research on Girls and Women, discussed what has changed since the law's implementation.
11:42	14:39	Trade / Politics	MPR News with Tom Weber: The future of U.S. trade with Canada. Ralph Goodale, a member of Canada's Cabinet, was in town to speak at the University of Minnesota's Carlson School of Management.
12:06	54:00	Education	MPR News Presents: Dr. Mae Jemison on the need for science literacy.
			FRIDAY JUNE 23, 2017
9:06	52:13	Climate Change	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: Should we geo-engineer the atmosphere to fix climate change? How far should we go to 'fix' climate change? Should we attempt to alter the atmosphere? MPR News host Kerri Miller spoke to three experts about climate change during the Friday Roundtable.
11:06	35:12	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Yanez juror: 'Nobody was OK with it.' The juror spoke with MPR News host Tom Weber on the condition that he remain anonymous, because he said he is afraid of retribution.
11:45	12:38	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Reflections on the Yanez verdict one week later. MPR News host Tom Weber invited listeners to call in with their thoughts and questions. Weber was joined by Tracy Mumford, producer of the 74 Seconds podcast, and Brandt Williams, a reporter with MPR News' metro unit.
12:06	54:00	Health	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Spotlight on health. The host of the PBS Newshour Judy Woodruff interviewed speakers on the opening day of the Aspen Ideas Festival's "Spotlight on Health," discussing the proposals from Congress and the Trump administration to replace the Obama administration's Affordable Care Act.
			MONDAY JUNE 26, 2017
9:06	16:42	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: The Political Junkie: Ken Rudin Ken Rudin joins us to give his perspective on the national political scene.

9:23	31:52	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Why don't women run for political office? Women are politically motivated and they win elections as often as men. But in the U.S. they are far less likely to run for political office. Why is that? And what will it take to get more women to run?
11:06	7:00	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: Philando Castile family reaches $3M settlement in death. Reporter Brandt Williams discussed the settlement.
11:14	31:45	Business	MPR News with Tom Weber: What does Amazon's purchase of Whole Foods mean for Minnesotans? MPR News host Tom Weber spoke to Derek Thompson, senior editor at The Atlantic, about the impact the Amazon-Whole Foods combination could have on the Twin Cities and big grocery sellers.
11:47	10:41	Demographics	MPR News with Tom Weber: Twin Cities population growth lags behind other major U.S. cities. Tom Weber talked with Eric Roper, who analyzed the data and wrote about this story in the Star Tribune.
12:06	54:00	Arts & Culture	MPR News Presents: The Thread book hour: Authors find unique inspiration in Minnesota. Authors Lesley Nneka Arimah and Neil Gainman.
TUESDAY JUNE 27, 2017
9:06	51:51	Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's the future of President Trump's travel ban? Two experts discussed what the Court said and what its decision to hear the case means.
11:06	24:45	Politics / Transit	MPR News with Tom Weber: Debate: Should Minnesota spend money on trains, buses and bike lanes? President of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce and the President of the Center of the American Experiment discussed what's best for the state.
11:34	27:15	Arts & Culture / Health	MPR News with Tom Weber: Sonny Knight rebroadcast. The artist died of cancer.
12:06	54:00	History / Politics	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Norman Lear and Khizr Khan on American values and the Constitution.
WEDNESDAY JUNE 28, 2017
9:06	51:51	Healthcare	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Health care bill on hold. Gerald Kominski is a professor at UCLA's Department of Health Policy and Management. Avik Roy, President of The Foundation for Research on Equal Opportunity. Jennifer Haberkorn, a Senior Health care reporter for Politico.
11:06	11:59	Politics / Conservation	MPR News with Tom Weber: Deb Swackhamer, University of Minnesota professor, discussed her testimony for the EPA.
11:18	39:59	Recycling	MPR News with Tom Weber: Recycling: You're doing it wrong. Tom Weber spoke with Paul Singer, Washington correspondent for USA Today, and Wayne Gierde, recycling market development coordinator for the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, about what happens to our household recycling and how recycling companies are struggling to stay afloat.
12:06	54:00	Politics	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: Conservatism in the Trump era. Two well-known conservatives, William Kristol of the Weekly Standard and Ramesh Ponnuru of the National Review are joined by author and journalist McKay Coppins of The Atlantic to explore conservatism and the future of the Republican party in the era of President Donald Trump.
THURSDAY JUNE 29, 2017
9:06	52:30	International Politics	MPR News with Kerri Miller: What's happening in Syria? The war in Syria has been ongoing for six years and counting. MPR News host Tom Weber talks to some experts to figure out what is happening now.

11:06	52:38	Law & Justice	MPR News with Tom Weber: The lingering trauma of police shootings. Tom Weber was joined by Brandon Jones, integrated services manager at NorthPoint Health & Wellness Center, and Resmaa Menakem, clinical social worker at Unbound Therapy Resources, to discuss the trauma that follows police shootings.
12:06	54:00	History	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: What you need to know about Martin Luther King. Clarence B. Jones worked along side Martin Luther King Jr. during the Civil Rights movement. He recounted the amazing stories behind some of King's most famous speeches and writings.
			FRIDAY JUNE 30, 2017
9:06	51:49	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Kerri Miller: Friday Roundtable: The making of a great chef. MPR News host Kerri Miller talks to author of "Give a Girl a Knife," Amy Thielen, the co-owner of Pimento Jamaican Kitchen, Tomme Beevas, and Ann Kim, the owner of Pizzeria Lola and Young Joni, about how a chef's memories and imagination influence the food they make.
11:06	40:45	Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: 40 years later, Glensheen murders still grip Duluth. The History Theatre musical, "Glensheen." Creator Dan Hartman spoke to Tom Weber.
11:17	11:08	International Politics / Arts & Culture	MPR News with Tom Weber: Minnesota student musicians play in Cuba this week. Tom Weber talked with Manny Laureano, the conductor of the Minnesota Youth Symphonies and principal trumpet for the Minnesota Orchestra, and 18-year-old Christopher Schulte, one of the students on the trip.
12:06	54:00	Politics / Law & Justice	MPR News Presents: Aspen Ideas Festival: 'Examining the Rule of Law.' Former Attorney General Sally Yates gained notoriety for her decision to not defend President Trump's travel ban. She discussed that at the Aspen Ideas Festival with law professor Geoffrey Stone and Supreme Court lawyer Neal Katyal.