						The topic is the "Confessed Heart" This is a follow up to the Men's Conference talk I did on Saturday. Many have requested more on this segment of my talk so I thought I would re-present some of it. Question one: Many times we say to someone, "c'mon just admit it! Is there something faulty about that approach? What is the result of an "admitted" heart vs. a "confessed" heart? How might this even tie into the Prodigal Son Parable? How does one shift from the "admitted" heart to the "confessed" heart?

5	Friday	7:15	Morning Show	Luke Spehar (Spee - har) http://www.lukespehar.com	Luke Spehar is a nationally known recording artist and singer/songwriter. Born and raised in Minnesota, Spehar's music reflects the elegant and thoughtful nature of the midwest. Spehar began writing songs at the age of 16 and composed all the music on his debut album, Be Still, before he graduated high school. Spehar continued to write throughout his four years at the University of St. Thomas. The songs for his second and third album, No Other Way and All is Gift, were born during this powerful time of spiritual growth and reflection. Following University, Spehar felt inspired to use his gift of music to participate in the New Evangelization. He began recording and then performing around the country and internationally. After touring with Grammy-Winner Ben Harper, Harper produced Spehar's third album, All Is Gift in 2015, the same year Spehar Married his wife, Elizabeth. Together with their two young children Jane and Mary, they live in St. Paul, MN. Following a successful crowd funding campaign, fans are already celebrating Spehar's much anticipated new release, The Pilgrim.	2 SONG tracks sent to Deacon Tony to play: The Pilgrim and Joshua 1...What were some of the thoughts or prayers that inspired you latest album, The Pilgrim? And what inspired the title? 2... What does it look like to be a family man and an independent musician? 3... What place to do you think music and art has in the church right now?

9	Tuesday				Choir director for the Chrism Mass: Jeremiah is the director of the St. Theresa Teen Choir and the Sacred Heart Knights and Chancel Choirs. He has been involved in music ministry since he was 14, has participated in numerous diocesan and area liturgies such as Christ Our Life, and this year was invited to plan music and direct the Anglo-Hispanic choir for the Chrism Mass. He lives in Ankeny with his wife and 4 children.	Chrism Mass is where the the Oil of Catechumens, Oil of the Sick, and the Sacred Chrism are blessed and consecrated for use by the priests of the diocese throughout the year. As many priests of the diocese as can make it are present, and they renew their vows (celibacy and obedience) to the Bishop during this Mass. This is one of the biggest Masses for the diocese, and all are welcome.

24	Wednesday				I'm a member of St. Francis of Assisi Parish and Co-chair of St. Francis Respect Life program. I also work on committees with lowans for LIFE and the Diocesan Divine Mercy Committee, which plans the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday each year. Bishop Pates requested the relic tour from the Saint Pio Foundation in New Rochelle, NY. He asked me to be the Event Coordinator because of our work on the Divine Mercy celebration, which generally attracts 500-600 people. I have been a devotee of Padre Pio for many years and have a statue of Our Lady of Fatima, which was touched by Padre Pio's glove. Naturally, I was thrilled to be asked to coordinate this special event! And if I may...the Diocesan Divine Mercy celebration will be this Sunday, at Christ the King Church, 5711 SW9th St. in Des Moines. We have 10 priests hearing confessions in various languages at 2 pm. The Chaplet will be sung at 3 pm and Bishop Pates will celebrate Mass at 3:30 pm. There will be a blessing of religious articles and a reception afterward.	Padre Pio relic coming to St. Ambrose Cathedral: https://www.dmdiocese.org/events/st-pio-relics-coming-to-des-moines?event=a517353b-0456-4dbf-b557-8b22630289b8. 1. I'm told the founder of the Saint Pio Foundation had his own miraculous experience with a relic of Padre Pio. What can you tell us about that? 2. The devotion to Padre Pio came to the United States because of soldiers returning from World War II. What was their connection to Padre Pio? 3. What value is there in coming to see the relics?
