KLFX
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

KLFX provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Blood Donations: Linda talked about the many many Carter Blood Care blood drives going on around the Central Texas area and the demand on their supplies during the summer months.
- Breast Cancer Awareness: One last update from Destiny on the upcoming Komen Race For The Cure. She talked about how participants could pick up their pre-race packages and encouraged families to bring their children.
- Community Involvement: Talked about Hooves For Stripes, a family event aimed at collecting money for charities that help wounded warriors.
- Elderly: Casey talked about Friends For Life and how they help the elderly and adults with disabilities. She also had info on their summer campaigns and upcoming open house.
- Family Involvement: The upcoming Santa's Workshop Golf Scramble fundraiser was the topic. Samara had details on the event and how it raises money for families in need during the holiday season.
- Food Drive: With Caritas, Buddy talked about how important it is to stocking the shelves during the summer as well as during the holiday months.
- Madd: Kim is the coordinator for the Bell County 5k Walk Like Madd and had all the details how family and business could get involved and talked about how a drunk driver affected her family.
- Military Involvement: NCO Command Sergeant Smith talked about hoe the events of 9/11 changed his life and others on post at Fort Hood.
- Multiple Sclerosis: Lilly talked about the upcoming Walk MS. She gave some background on the many different types of MS, their symptoms and treatments and had info on their upcoming event.
- Show Your Stripes: Program discussed the Show Your Stripes initiative in getting vets a job.
