

QUARTERLY ISSUE/PROGRAM TOPIC REPORT
OCTOBER TO DECEMBER 2020
FOR RADIO STATIONS LICENSED TO UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN BOARD OF REGENTS
AND
THE STATE OF WISCONSIN EDUCATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS BOARD

Attached Reports Represent Q4 of 2020

ECB Radio Stations WLBL (AM/FM), WHAA (FM), WHAD (FM), WHBM (FM), WHDI (FM), WHHI (FM), WHLA (FM), WHSF (FM) and WHWC (FM) are affiliates of the WPR Ideas Network

ECB Radio Stations WERN (FM), WHWA (FM), WHND (FM), WHRM (FM), WHSA (FM), WPNE (FM), WSSU (FM), and WSSW (FM) are affiliates of the WPR News and Classical Network

During the period, this station, as part of the network that makes up Wisconsin Public Radio, has served the public interest by producing and broadcasting diverse content which addresses national, statewide and regional issues. The following is a list of some of the produced or acquired programming or news stories aired in response to areas of concern to listeners served by Wisconsin Public Radio.

ISSUES OF COMMUNITY CONCERN:

- AGRICULTURE
- ECONOMY
- EDUCATION
- ENVIRONMENT
- HEALTH
- POLITICS
- SOCIAL ISSUES

Ideas Network Quarterly Issues and Programs List October to December 2020
AGRICULTURE	PROGRAM	DATE

According to The Washington Post, fruit growers across the country blocked testing of seasonal farm workers and told those with COVID-19 not to tell people about it. A look at the extent of the problem and what, if anything, is being done about it. (Duration: 11 min, 28 sec)	Central Time	10/2/20 @ 4:15 pm
Just in time for National 4-H Week, hear from several 4-H'ers past and present about the wide-reaching impact the organization can have for those directly involved and for the local communities they take place in. (Duration: 41 min, 40 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	10/5/20 @ 11 am
Rural residents can lack access to healthy, affordable food, even when they are surrounded by agriculture. An Appleton-based organization is bringing extremely small-scale farming projects to the places and people that need them most. (Duration: 10 min, 53 sec)	Central Time	10/16/20 @ 4:30 pm
Learn about a new system for growing food for Appleton's airport restaurant -- that's inside the airport. (Duration: 5 min, 10 sec)	Central Time	11/2/20 @ 4 pm
Experts say that as the pandemic continues, the dairy industry is seeing record-breaking milk price volatility. A dairy farmer details the current state of supply and demand and explains how farmers are handling the situation. (Duration: 22 min, 35 sec)	The Morning Show	11/10/20 @ 7:30 am
Last year alone, Wisconsin lost 10 percent of the state's dairy farms, leaving just over 7,200 left in America's Dairyland. Years of low milk prices have given small dairies few options beyond selling their herds. The leaders of two farm organizations share why they think supply management could be the answer. (Duration: 20 min, 25 sec)	Central Time	11/25/20 @ 3:30 pm
As the deadline for the Coronavirus Food Assistance Program approaches, we check in with a local farmer to see if federal and state assistance has helped. (Duration: 21 min, 6 sec)	The Morning Show	12/10/20 @ 7 am
ECONOMY	PROGRAM	DATE
Since the pandemic began, millions of Americans have lost their jobs and many are struggling to pay for food and other necessities. Hear how COVID-19 has created the current economic crisis, what that might mean for the election and an update on a second stimulus. (Duration: 21 min, 23 sec)	The Morning Show	10/6/20 @ 8 am

After three months of slowing job growth the economic recovery is challenged. A financial advisor discusses managing investments during a recession and what to watch for as the presidential election and coronavirus pandemic affect stock markets. (Duration: 43 min, 39 sec)	The Morning Show	10/7/20 @ 6 am
The U.S. Dept. of Labor has proposed a rule that would make it easier for companies to classify workers as independent contractors. Hear about the future of the gig economy. (Duration: 22 min, 33 sec)	The Morning Show	10/13/20 @ 7:30 am
The Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation says Foxconn missed its hiring targets in 2019 and should renegotiate its contract with the state. A look at how the scope of the project is changing, how it aligns with Foxconn's business history and what happens after public incentive deals are reworked. (Duration: 21 min, 36 sec)	Central Time	10/19/20 @ 3 pm
A business writer explains how the oil industry's struggles affect workers and companies producing frac sand in Wisconsin. (Duration: 11 min, 14 sec)	Central Time	11/2/20 @ 3:30 pm
Since 1980, median household income in the Milwaukee metro area has gone down. A longtime Milwaukee journalist shares what's behind the trend and the impact it's had on the area. (Duration: 19 min, 43 sec)	Central Time	11/10/20 @ 3:30 pm
Online shopping has become an almost-necessary way to buy since the start of the pandemic. A personal finance expert tells us how to maximize the experience with money-saving apps and other digital penny-pinching strategies. (Duration: 43 min, 37 sec)	The Morning Show	11/11/20 @ 6 am
Cases of COVID-19 continue to rise rapidly in the U.S. and congress has stalled on a deal for further pandemic relief. A look at the negative economic trends of the last few months and how a stimulus bill could improve them. (Duration: 21 min, 3 sec)	The Morning Show	11/18/20 @ 7 am
Many people's lives and finances have looked a little different from their usual this year including things like navigating unemployment for a short or long period of time or receiving (or not) a stimulus check. A discussion of how some of these things may impact your 2020 tax filing and a few updated forms. (Duration: 38 min, 46 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	12/7/20 @ 11 am
With the pandemic and related job losses and economic uncertainty, you might think charitable giving would be down this year. But our guest says people are actually being more generous. Find out	Central Time	12/7/20 @ 4:45 pm

why and who they're giving to. (Duration: 9 min, 4 sec)
EDUCATION	PROGRAM	DATE
Teachers unions throughout Wisconsin are calling on state officials to mandate moving classes entirely online as the number of COVID-19 cases increase. (Duration: 12 min, 27 sec)	Central Time	10/1/20 @ 3:45 pm
A UW-Oshkosh counseling director talks about what students have been bringing up in counseling services over the last school year, including distress around coronavirus and what's being done to help them. (Duration: 9 min, 12 sec)	Central Time	10/12/20 @ 4:45 pm
High school sports look a lot different this year. We talk with a high school sports expert about what is expected from students and coaching staff and how it is affecting the game. (Duration: 37 min, 24 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	11/3/20 @ 11 am
Voters passed a pair of Madison School District referenda worth about $350 million. Hear about the results of school referenda and redistricting referendums across the state. Plus, we'll discuss what the election means for the direction of state government. (Duration: 21 min, 16 sec)	The Morning Show	11/9/20 @ 7 am
Two staff members from the National Museum Of African American History and Culture share books and other resources in order to have ongoing conversations with children about race, discrimination, social justice and protests. (Duration: 11 min, 6 sec)	Central Time	11/16/20 @ 4:15 pm
Congressional Democrats, nonprofit groups and community organizations are calling on President-elect Biden to cancel tens of thousands of dollars of federal student loan debt. A look at the arguments for and against debt forgiveness, especially during the pandemic. (Duration: 17 min, 33 sec)	Central Time	11/24/20 @ 3 pm
More than 20 educators with the Lake Mills Area School District recently filed safety grievances with the district as COVID-19 cases increase in the state. A teacher shares concerns coming from colleagues as in-person teaching continues. (Duration: 22 min, 33 sec)	The Morning Show	11/25/20 @ 7:30 am

Hear from an education reporter about how many school systems around the country are closing for in-person learning as coronavirus cases surge while other schools try to stay open and operate safely. (Duration: 12 min, 42 sec)	Central Time	12/1/20 @ 4:30 pm
Rural school districts around the state have had trouble attracting and retaining special education teachers, but a program at UW-Madison is working to get them the help they need. Hear how it works and the impact it's having so far. (Duration: 9 min, 50 sec)	Central Time	12/3/20 @ 4:15 pm
A new survey shows that a third of prospective college students are thinking about delaying a university education, due in part to COVID-19. Find out how the pandemic is making people rethink college and how schools are responding. (Duration: 13 min, 19 sec)	Central Time	12/4/20 @ 4 pm
ENVIRONMENT	PROGRAM	DATE
More than 5 million acres of forests have burned on the West Coast this year. A Wisconsin forester who has worked with indigenous communities shares the risks our state's forest face and how Native Americans traditionally managed natural resources. (Duration: 45 min, 2 sec)	The Morning Show	10/1/20 @ 8 am
The 2020 hurricane season has been one of the most active on record. A Wisconsin-based expert discusses this year's season and what to expect as we head into fall. (Duration: 10 min, 17 sec)	Central Time	10/16/20 @ 4:45 pm
A look at the importance and value of well-managed public and private forest lands in Wisconsin. (Duration: 40 min, 18 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	10/20/20 @ 11 am
Sheboygan has been directed to investigate and clean up the site of hazardous substances, while in other news changes to EPA smog regulations will affect Wisconsin utilities. (Duration: 10 min, 1 sec)	Central Time	10/23/20 @ 4:45 pm
The Wisconsin DNR recently released its 2020 Air Quality Trends report, which found that 95 percent of people live in an area that meets federal standards. (Duration: 43 min, 38 sec)	The Morning Show	11/5/20 @ 6 am
We talk with an Ice Age Trail steward about Sturgeon Bay joining the ranks of official Ice Age Trail communities in Wisconsin. (Duration: 6 min, 58 sec)	Central Time	11/9/20 @ 4:30 pm

The U.S. left the Paris climate agreement but President-elect Biden wants to re-enter it as soon as possible. Hear the ins and outs of the international climate accord and why it matters. (Duration: 21 min, 4 sec)	The Morning Show	11/10/20 @ 7 am
We are what we eat. But how do our dietary choices affect our environment? A researcher explains which foods are hurting our planet and how food production factors into that. Plus, we'll breakdown what this looks like between different populations and whether changes, if made, can influence climate change. (Duration: 43 min, 37 sec)	The Morning Show	11/12/20 @ 6 am
Only 29 states have to disclose information about flood risk to homebuyers and only two Western states are required to disclose wildfire risk. A climate reporter explains what you need to know to stay safe. (Duration: 23 min, 25 sec)	The Morning Show	12/3/20 @ 6 am
Two Wisconsin researchers are using aerial drones to study our soil and learn about groundwater contamination. Hear how data is captured and what thermal imaging can tell us about what lies beneath the Earth's surface. (Duration: 43 min, 46 sec)	The Morning Show	12/10/20 @ 6 am
HEALTH	PROGRAM	DATE
The pandemic is spiking in Wisconsin, filling hospital beds around the state. The chief medical officer for the Wisconsin Hospital Association shares how hospitals are managing the crisis and what they need. (Duration: 21 min, 4 sec)	The Morning Show	10/7/20 @ 7 am
It is estimated that one in four pregnancies ends in miscarriage. Even though it is common, understanding miscarriage and talking about it remains difficult for many. A psychotherapist discusses the physical and emotional toll of miscarriage and how we can support those who have experienced it. (Duration: 43 min, 28 sec)	The Morning Show	10/12/20 @ 6 am
It's estimated that one out of 10 Americans are affected by hearing loss, especially as we age. Hear from an audiologist about what causes it, when you should get tested and what can be done to correct it. (Duration: 39 min, 31 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	10/13/20 @ 11 am

Many of us are busy getting the yard cleaned up before winter arrives. Physical therapists share tips on how to do those extra chores in a way that is friendly to your body and discuss the important role core strength can play in injury prevention while doing things like raking leaves. (Duration: 1 hr, 13 min, 22 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	10/19/20 @ 11 am
While much of our attention and worry goes to the current pandemic, many families and healthcare providers have been simultaneously dealing with a crisis that has been with us even longer: the opioid crisis. (Duration: 21 min, 9 sec)	Central Time	11/3/20 @ 3:30 pm
The supplement Prevagen claims to improve memory using a jellyfish protein. Hear why Prevagen has been on the market for years in spite of serious safety concerns raised by the FDA. (Duration: 21 min, 5 sec)	The Morning Show	11/5/20 @ 7 am
Holidays can be stressful in a normal year, 2020 is not a normal year. A psychologist talks about managing feelings of isolation and loneliness and learn about creative ways to cope. (Duration: 38 min, 32 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	11/10/20 @ 11 am
Pharmaceutical company Pfizer announced that the COVID-19 vaccine is roughly 90 percent effective based on early trial results, raising some hopes that there could be a preemptive treatment available soon. A researcher shares what we know about the vaccine and other treatments in development. (Duration: 2 min, 56 sec)	Central Time	11/10/20 @ 4 pm
For decades, medical experts have been unable to meaningfully treat Huntington’s Disease — a fatal genetic disease that causes nerve cells in the brain to break down. A UW-Madison researcher could help change that. Hear about her work and a Wisconsin family’s struggle with the disease. (Duration: 13 min, 34 sec)	Central Time	12/2/20 @ 3:30 pm
Wisconsin's hospitals reported a collective $1.31 billion in uncompensated care for 2019. As medical debt among residents rises, ABC for Health advocates for patients and connects them with resources. (Duration: 24 min, 26 sec)	The Morning Show	12/4/20 @ 8 am
POLITICS	PROGRAM	DATE

According to The Washington Post, Democrats are requesting and returning ballots via mail in greater numbers than Republicans in key battleground states. A look at the effects, challenges and opportunities of voting by mail. (Duration: 22 min, 27 sec)	Central Time	10/1/20 @ 4:30 pm
The 2020 census has been hampered by the COVID-19 pandemic and its deadline has shifted multiple times with court decisions. A census historian shares how it's dealt with turbulent times in the past and what it takes for people to feel confident in the results. (Duration: 21 min, 30 sec)	Central Time	10/5/20 @ 3:30 pm
When you cast your vote for president, you're not really voting for the president — you're voting for electors, who will then vote for the candidate. A political scientist explains the how and why of the electoral college and catches us up on the national news. (Duration: 43 min, 47 sec)	The Morning Show	10/9/20 @ 8 am
One week before the presidential election, the U.S. Senate voted on Judge Amy Coney Barrett's nomination to the Supreme Court. A Wisconsin political scientist shares what this means for the future of the court. (Duration: 21 min, 5 sec)	Central Time	10/27/20 @ 4 pm
A look at the 2020 presidential race — what we know, what we don't and what happens next. (Duration: 43 min, 41 sec)	The Morning Show	11/4/20 @ 8 am
Wisconsin Republicans will keep control of the state Assembly and Senate for the next two years. But they will not have the veto-proof majorities they were hoping to gain from the fall elections. A look at what more divided government means for redistricting, the state budget and other issues. (Duration: 16 min)	Central Time	11/5/20 @ 4 pm
Wisconsin's assembly speaker is calling for an investigation into Wisconsin's election, citing vague allegations of voter fraud and "ballot dumping." Hear what could happen next and the reaction his statements are getting in the capitol. (Duration: 9 min, 42 sec)	Central Time	11/9/20 @ 4:45 pm
Wisconsin Senate Republicans have elected new leadership following the departure of Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald. The incoming Senate president Chris Kapenga talks about the party's priorities for the upcoming session, including fighting COVID-19, redistricting and the state budget. (Duration: 11 min, 4 sec)	Central Time	11/25/20 @ 4:45 pm

On Nov. 3, Puerto Ricans on the island voted in favor of statehood for the commonwealth. This is not the first time the question has been on the ballot. A discussion of the recent and past votes for statehood, the debate and the role of politics on the mainland U.S. (Duration: 12 min, 56 sec)	Central Time	12/1/20 @ 3 pm
The chair of the Democratic Party in Dunn County shares why he believes the problems facing his party in rural areas are not a lack of organizing, but a lack of understanding and hope for their future. (Duration: 21 min, 48 sec)	Central Time	12/8/20 @ 5 pm
SOCIAL ISSUES	PROGRAM	DATE
A documentary called "The Social Dilemma" has made waves. Hear from a social media and marketing professor about this film's take on the danger of social media use on individuals and our society as a whole. (Duration: 22 min, 16 sec)	Central Time	10/5/20 @ 3 pm
Adults and children are spending more time than ever online because of the COVID-19 pandemic. An expert on cyberbullying shares what to watch for as children have shifted in many communities to online learning. (Duration: 21 min, 35 sec)	Central Time	10/5/20 @ 4 pm
The F.B.I. says it thwarted a plot to kidnap the governor of Michigan and try her for treason before the Nov. 3 presidential election. A criminologist talks about the news and discuss the threat anti-government groups pose to the country. (Duration: 39 min, 14 sec)	Central Time	10/12/20 @ 4 pm
While the pandemic has complicated many things, for some it has fast tracked things they were thinking about doing. For some people, that meant making the move to rural living. Learn who's moving, what's driving that move and what that means for the communities and those who already reside there. (Duration: 20 min, 33 sec)	Central Time	10/19/20 @ 3:30 pm
Last week, Oregon became the first state in the nation to decriminalize the possession of small amounts of heroin, cocaine and other hard drugs while five other states legalized marijuana. A drug reform advocate and a public health expert explain why this could be a better approach to dealing with drugs. (Duration: 43 min, 40 sec)	The Morning Show	11/10/20 @ 8 am

Three years ago, a teenage girl who was sexually trafficked was a victim of suicide while being locked up in the Racine County Juvenile Detention Center. We talk with a Milwaukee Journal Sentinel reporter who investigated the ways the criminal justice system has failed her and other teenagers. (Duration: 21 min, 5 sec)	The Morning Show	11/11/20 @ 7 am
We talk with a Madison resident who founded an organization and podcast to defend Black girlhood and promote the healing of Black women everywhere. (Duration: 11 min, 42 sec)	Central Time	11/13/20 @ 4:30 pm
News outlets face the challenge of how to cover Pres. Trump's refusal to concede the election to President-elect Joe Biden, and other actions he and his administration are taking during this lame-duck period of the presidency. A media consultant shares how they're doing. (Duration: 20 min, 38 sec)	Central Time	11/19/20 @ 4:30 pm
The non-binary pronoun 'they' was named the 2019 word of the year by Merriam-Webster. An author shares 40 years of research on the history of pronouns and the controversies that exist in our culture. We'll explore their influence on women's suffrage, politics and the LGBTQ community. (Duration: 43 min, 32 sec)	The Morning Show	12/7/20 @ 6 am
The shooting of Jacob Blake and subsequent protests made headlines around the world. A look at the broader historical context of racial tensions in Kenosha as Wisconsin rapidly diversified over the past few decades. (Duration: 21 min, 19 sec)	The Morning Show	12/15/20 @ 7 am

NPR/Classical Music Network Quarterly Issues and Programs List October to December 2020
AGRICULTURE	PROGRAM	DATE
Wisconsin hemp groups are applauding the state's decision to delay new regulations for growing hemp. The move comes as the U.S. Department of Agriculture reviews its guidelines for how states can regulate the crop. (Duration: 46 sec)	Morning Edition	10/21/20 @ 5 am

The coronavirus pandemic has changed the way consumers shop at grocery stores. But retailers are expecting consumers to return to more normal shopping habits for Thanksgiving. (Duration: 47 sec)	Morning Edition	11/26/20 @ 5 am
Wisconsin Christmas tree growers are preparing for a busy season as more residents decide to stay home for the holidays because of the coronavirus. (Duration: 43 sec)	Morning Edition	11/30/20 @ 5 am
Wisconsin dairy groups applauded President-elect Biden's nomination of Tom Vilsack as head of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. (Duration: 50 sec)	Morning Edition	12/14/20 @ 5 am
Environmental and farm groups are joining forces to lobby the state for significant funding to support farms across Wisconsin and protect drinking water. But they stopped short of putting a price tag on their request. (Duration: 48 sec)	Morning Edition	12/16/20 @ 5 am
ECONOMY	PROGRAM	DATE
Gov. Evers announced new money to help small businesses affected by the pandemic. But some business owners say they won't see much help from the program. (Duration: 49 sec)	Morning Edition	10/13/20 @ 5 am
Out-of-work Wisconsinites have started receiving a $300 unemployment supplement from the Trump administration. (Duration: 39 sec)	All Things Considered	10/21/20 @ 6 pm
After a fast start Wisconsin's economic recovery from the coronavirus has slowed. That's according to the director of the Center for Research on the Wisconsin Economy. (Duration: 42 sec)	Morning Edition	11/18/20 @ 5 am
Many retailers count on the holiday shopping season to generate revenue. But after a tough year with the pandemic, that pressure might be even higher this year. (Duration: 46 sec)	All Things Considered	11/26/20 @ 6 pm
Thirty percent of Wisconsin businesses could struggle to stay open over the next six months if conditions surrounding the coronavirus pandemic don't change. That's based on a survey of nearly 500 businesses conducted in November by UW-Oshkosh. (Duration: 43 sec)	Morning Edition	12/7/20 @ 5 am
EDUCATION	PROGRAM	DATE

After nearly a decade of state mandated tuition freezes, the University of Wisconsin System has the lowest level of leftover tuition revenues since 2008. That comes at a time when state universities are facing unprecedented financial losses due to the COVID-19 pandemic. (Duration: 3 min, 47 sec)	Morning Edition	10/5/20 @ 5 am
Enrollment at Wisconsin's 52 virtual charter schools has skyrocketed because of the coronavirus pandemic. (Duration: 48 sec)	Morning Edition	10/26/20 @ 5 am
As winter school sports start their season this week, some county health officials are calling for in-person extracurriculars to be canceled. (Duration: 48 sec)	Morning Edition	11/16/20 @ 5 am
Wisconsin's largest teacher's union is asking the Department of Health Services to set specific COVID-19 benchmarks that would dictate when schools across the state should close their doors. (Duration: 45 sec)	Morning Edition	11/23/20 @ 5 am
Students enrolling for the spring semester should expect COVID-19 safety guidelines and social restrictions to continue next year, says UW-Madison Chancellor Rebecca Blank. (Duration: 43 sec)	All Things Considered	12/9/20 @ 6 pm
ENVIRONMENT	PROGRAM	DATE
For nearly five years Green Bay Water Utility has been working to replace more than 2,000 lead pipes throughout the city. That's after testing in 2011 showed lead levels in the water at some homes exceeded the EPA's preferred limits. (Duration: 42 sec)	Morning Edition	10/7/20 @ 5 am
According to a new report, nitrate contamination in drinking water is linked to negative health outcomes that are costing people in Wisconsin anywhere from $23 million to $80 million each year in medical expenses. (Duration: 45 sec)	Morning Edition	10/28/20 @ 5 am
State environmental regulators are asking a Marinette manufacturer of firefighting foam to test fish for PFAS in public waters. The move comes after sampling near Tyco's fire training facility showed PFAS concentrations that would trigger restrictions on eating fish. (Duration: 45 sec)	Morning Edition	11/13/20 @ 5 am
A legislative committee has voted to weaken an emergency rule that sought to curb pollution from firefighting foam that contains PFAS. (Duration: 48 sec)	BBC Newshour	12/18/20 @ 3 pm

Public water systems will have to test schools and day care centers for lead in drinking water under an overhaul of a rule finalized by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. But critics say the changes fail to speed up replacement of lead pipes that wear away and pollute drinking water. (Duration: 45 sec)	All Things Considered	12/22/20 @ 4 pm
HEALTH	PROGRAM	DATE
A recovery facility for COVID-19 patients opens at State Fair Park, five months after it was authorized by Gov. Evers through an emergency order. (Duration: 46 sec)	Morning Edition	10/14/20 @ 5 am
The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development says it's giving Wisconsin close to $8 million dollars for lead paint cleanup. (Duration: 43 sec)	Morning Edition	10/30/20 @ 5 am
Wisconsin doctors say a growing stable of outpatient coronavirus treatments will help improve patient outcomes and reduce stress on the state's hospital system. This includes the Mayo Clinic's new outpatient infusion center at its hospital in La Crosse. (Duration: 46 sec)	Morning Edition	11/20/20 @ 5 am
Wisconsin reported more than 100 new deaths from COVID-19 in a single day for the first time since the start of the pandemic. (Duration: 43 sec)	All Things Considered	11/24/20 @ 6 pm
The federal government has told Wisconsin it will not get nearly 15,000 doses of a COVID-19 vaccine that is being used to protect frontline healthcare workers. (Duration: 43 sec)	BBC Newshour	12/18/20 @ 3 pm
POLITICS	PROGRAM	DATE
A recent study out of Tufts University says Wisconsin is the state where voters ages 18-29 will have the most effect on the presidential election. But the youth turnout has historically lagged far behind older age groups. (Duration: 43 sec)	Morning Edition	10/6/20 @ 5 am
Wisconsin is expected to play a critical role in the upcoming election with both candidates traveling to the state today. (Duration: 42 sec)	All Things Considered	10/30/20 @ 6 pm
Three Wisconsin voters have dropped a federal lawsuit that sought to throw out votes in three counties that supported President-elect Biden. (Duration: 46 sec)	All Things Considered	11/16/20 @ 6 pm

County clerks across Wisconsin completed their certification of election results. That opens up a roughly 24-hour window for a recount to be requested in the state -- something Pres. Trump's campaign has said it plans to do. (Duration: 44 sec)	All Things Considered	11/17/20 @ 6 pm
Friday could be a huge day for three lawsuits challenging President-elect Biden's victory in Wisconsin. (Duration: 43 sec)	Morning Edition	12/11/20 @ 5 am
SOCIAL ISSUES	PROGRAM	DATE
A COVID-19 vaccine could come as soon as next year. So when it does, could your employer require you to get it? (Duration: 43 sec)	Morning Edition	10/19/20 @ 5 am
With less than one month to go until election day, the country is facing simultaneous crises: the coronavirus pandemic, growing economic hardship and ongoing racial turmoil. This summer, a huge amount of energy built up for the Black Lives Matter movement throughout the country and in Wisconsin. (Duration: 3 min, 46 sec)	Morning Edition	10/15/20 @ 5 am
Food banks have seen more demand as people are struggling to make ends meet during the pandemic. Food banks in Wisconsin are serving hundreds of thousands more people. (Duration: 42 sec)	Morning Edition	11/26/20 @ 5 am
A limited workforce, a lack of housing and broadband are among leading challenges facing rural Wisconsin. That's according to a new report issued by an arm of the state's largest business group. (Duration: 46 sec)	Morning Edition	12/2/20 @ 5 am
As the pandemic drags on in Wisconsin, parents and families are getting stretched to their limits -- and schools are having a hard time picking up the slack. (Duration: 48 sec)	Morning Edition	12/16/20 @ 5 am