

From: Yenlys Hernandez
Sent: Thursday, May 30, 2013 9:39 PM
To: Carole Bird
Subject: Al Punto FCC May, 2013

Hi Carole

These are the FCC of Al Punto of the month of May, 2013

Thank you

FCC REPORTS for AL PUNTO, MAY, 2013

====05/05/2013====

Barack Obama, President of the United States

Latin America trip

Time: 8:58

President Barack Obama arrived in Mexico City on Thursday for his first trip to Latin America since winning re-election. Obama met with Mexican President Enrique Peña Nieto to discuss trade, border security and immigration. María Elena Salinas traveled with Obama to Mexico and Costa Rica, and sat down with the U.S. President for an interview.

Julio Borges, Venezuela Opposition Member of Parliament

Fights in Venezuelan Parliament

Time: 7:00

Fistfights broke out in Venezuela's parliament on Tuesday resulting in injuries. Julio Borges, leader of the opposition party "Primero Justicia," was one of those injured in the brawl and talks this Sunday to Jorge Ramos.

Juan José Rendón, Political Strategist

Crisis in Venezuela

Time: 7:00

Known for having conducted successful campaigns such as that of Colombian President Juan Manuel Santos, Juan José Rendón has consulted for many successful presidential campaigns and legislative elections in Latin America. Recently, he worked closely with former Venezuelan Presidential Candidate Henrique Capriles. Rendón visits Al Punto to talk about the latest developments in the political crisis facing Venezuela-including the Capriles' contestation of the April 14 elections.

Wendy Greuel, Los Angeles Mayoral Candidate

Upcoming Elections

Time: 6:00

The City of Los Angeles holds a runoff election on May 21 between Eric Garcetti and Wendy Greuel. Ramos interviews Gruel about what she is doing to attract Hispanic voters.

===05/12/2013===

Senator Patrick Leahy (D), Vermont

Immigration Reform Bill

Time: 9:00

The Senate Judiciary Committee began considering more than 300 amendments to the Immigration Reform bill this week. Jorge Ramos interviews Committee Chairman Senator Patrick Leahy.

Jesús Esquivel, Correspondent for Mexican magazine "Proceso" and author of "La DEA en Mexico"; Shannon K. O'Neil, Senior Fellow for Latin America Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations and author of "Two Nations Indivisible"

Relationship between Mexico and the United States

Time: 10:00

After President Barack Obama's trip to Mexico last week, two authors visit Al Punto to talk about the relationship between Mexico and the United States.

Aurora Martí and Altagracia Tejeda, neighbors of Ariel Castro, the man accused in the recent Ohio abductions

Witnesses of the kidnapping in Ohio

Time: 7:00

Three women who were abducted and lived in captivity for 10 years were freed on Monday and reunited with their families. The man accused of kidnapping them is Ariel Castro. Ramos speaks with two of his neighbors who witnessed the ordeal unfold.

La Santa Cecilia, Latin Fusion Band

Music group that promotes the Immigration Reform

Time: 8:02

The Los Angeles music group consists of accordionist Jose Carlos, bassist Alex Bendana, percussionist Miguel Ramirez, and lead vocalist La Marisoul. The group visits Al Punto to talk about their pro-immigration reform stance as well as the release of their new video for "El Hielo" (ICE), which highlights the daily struggles faced by millions of undocumented Latinos.

===05/19/2013===

U.S. Representative Ileana Ros-Lehtinen (R), Florida's 27th District and U.S. Representative Mario Diaz-Balart (R), Florida's 25th District

Scandals in the White House

Time: 9:00

President Barack Obama attempted to move past the scandals that dominated the news over the past few days: the Internal Revenue Service's targeting of conservative political groups, the Justice Department investigation on The Associated Press and Benghazi. Jorge Ramos interviews two Republican U.S. Representatives regarding those issues, as well as the agreement that was reached in principle to draft a comprehensive reform bill by a bipartisan group in the House of Representatives.

Jay Carney, White House Press Secretary

Respond to criticism about President Obama

Time: 7:00

Jay Carney, White House Spokesperson visits Al Punto to respond to criticism about how the President has dealt with the controversies that arose this week.

Pedro Pierluisi, Resident Commissioner of Puerto Rico

Proposal about Puerto Rico Statehood

Time: 8:00

On Wednesday, Pedro Pierluisi proposed a bill to grant Puerto Rico a Yes/No vote on Statehood. He returns to Al Punto to explain his proposal and to respond to his critics.

Antonio Villaraigosa, Mayor of Los Angeles

Goodbye to his life as a Chief Executive

Time: 6:00

After eight years as mayor of Los Angeles, Villaraigosa is saying goodbye to his life as a Chief Executive. What is next for him? Would he pursue a gubernatorial seat in the future?

Dr. Juan José Rivera, Univision Network News Chief Medical Correspondent and Marta Duque, patient who underwent a double mastectomy

Preventive Surgery

Time: 9:00

In light of Angelina Jolie announcing that she underwent a double mastectomy to prevent breast cancer, Ramos explores the pros and cons of this preventative surgery.

===05/26/2013===

U.S. Senator Bob Menéndez (D), New Jersey

Next steps in the process of an immigration reform

Time: 7:34

After three weeks of hearings and debates, the Senate Judiciary Committee approved this Tuesday the immigration reform bill proposed by a bipartisan group of senators known as the Gang of Eight. One of those Senators, Bob Menéndez, returns to Al Punto to talk with Jorge Ramos about the next steps in the process.

Edgardo Briones, Mexico Deputy Consul in Little Rock, Arkansas

Hispanics affected by the tornados in Oklahoma

Time: 4:29

There could be as many as 5,000 Hispanics affected by the tornados in Oklahoma this week and most of them are Mexicans. Maria Elena Salinas interviews Deputy Consul Edgardo Briones as the Mexican Consulate has set up a provisional help center in Oklahoma City to assist those affected by the tragic event.

Guillermo Fariñas, Cuban Dissident

Opposition to Raul Castro's government

Time: 8:00

After more than 20 hunger strikes and eleven years in jail, Cuban dissident Guillermo Fariñas has left Cuba and visits the U.S. for the first time. Fariñas is having a world tour before heading back to Cuba. He visits our studios in Miami and talks about life in Cuba and his opposition to Raul Castro's government.

Eric Garcetti, Mayor-elect of Los Angeles

Won the elections to Wendy Greuel

Time: 6:39

Garcetti won the runoff election on Tuesday with 54 percent of the vote against Wendy Greuel's 46 percent, becoming the first elected Jewish mayor of Los Angeles. What will he bring to the Latino Community once he becomes mayor on July 1st?

=====END OF MAY REPORTS=====