

Quarterly Issues Report For WMRF-FM and WLAK-FM For the 1st Quarter Of 2015

Date: January 7, 2015

Time Segment Began: 8:35 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 8:48 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Kristina DeLuca, Membership Recruiter for Girl Scouts in the Heart of Pennsylvania, and Chuck Apgar, District Executive for the boy Scouts of America

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We discussed Girl Scout cookie sales and membership recruitment, as well as the benefits of scouting.

Date: January 14, 2015

Time Segment Began: 8:35 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 8:48 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Cher Harpster, Juniata Valley YMCA board member

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We discussed the programs available at the Juniata Valley YMCA, the upcoming fund-raising Polar Plunge.

Date: January 22, 2015

Time Segment Began: 9:31 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 9:38 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Mifflin County High School wrestlers Trey Hartsock and Drayson Sullivan.

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We discussed the team's fundraising event, which is gathering non-perishable food items to benefit Mother Hubbard's Cupboard, a local non-profit organization that gathers food for area residents in need. We discussed the particulars of the fundraiser, as well as the mission of Mother Hubbard's Cupboard.

Date: January 30, 2015

Time Segment Began: 9:35 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 9:41 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Juniata College AD and head men's basketball coach Greg Curley.

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We discussed the team's fundraising attempts for freshman basketball player Shaq Smith, who recently contracted bacterial meningitis. Coach Curley talked about the family's mounting medical bills and the need to assist his single mom in her care for Shaq.

Date: February 11, 2015

Time Segment Began: 8:39 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 8:47 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Jenny Landis, Juniata River Valley Visitor's Bureau project coordinator

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We discussed the River Valley's upcoming Heart Bombing in Downtown Lewistown, a project to show love for a couple of the area's most historic and beloved buildings. The event will be documented and submitted to the National Trust for historic Preservation.

Date: February 18, 2015

Time Segment Began: 8:34 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 8:43 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Jensen Graham (president), Alan Parker (actor) and Jennifer Tuyen (stage manager) of the Mifflin County High School Drama Club.

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We discussed this year's school play, Bone Chiller! We spoke with each student about their acting history and the details of the play, as well as how area residents can attend the show.

Date: February 25, 2015

Time Segment Began: 8:36 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 8:40 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Brandon Basom, United Fire Company #11's fund-raising Bash Bash, and assistant Scott Hasson.

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We discussed the Band Bash and all the other fundraising things going on during the day. We talked about where the money goes and how important this fundraiser is to operating the fire company.

Date: February 25, 2015

Time Segment Began: 9:31 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 9:38 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Dave Boozel, president of the Mount Union Little Trojans, and Mike Bratton

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We discussed the 24th Lift for Mount Union Little Trojans, Saturday April 25th at the Mount Union Area High School. This is a Bench and Dead Lift Competition. Weigh Ins will be Friday April 24th from 7-9pm. Spectators -$5 at the door, ages 12 and under are FREE. Dave Boozel and Mike Bratton will be coming to talk on the 24th. Dave is the President for the team. Anything else you think you need?

Date: March 4, 2015

Time Segment Began: 8:38 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 8:48 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Marie Mulvihill, executive director o the Mifflin/Juniata United Way

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We talked about the partner agencies that the Mifflin/Juniata Way services/funds. We talked about where the money goes and how important is is to meet the UW's yearly goal ($575,000 this year, deadline March 15, 2015). We also talked about all the ways to give.

Date: March 9, 2015

Time Segment Began: 8:39 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 8:47 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Brett Rogers, Mifflin County Science & Technology Fair coordinator

Community Issue(s) Addressed: Brett decided to throw together this fair, having no particular affiliation with the science or technology industries. We talked about the need to get young people interested and involved in science and technology. We talked about the specifics of the far, which is for grades four through nine. This is the fair's second year.

March 11, 2015
Date: May 21, 2014

Time Segment Began: 8:37 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 8:50 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Kelley Kroecker, executive director of the Huntingdon County Historical Society

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We discussed the Society's upcoming Civil War Weekend at the Huntingdon County Fairgrounds. We talked about the mission of the Huntingdon County Historical Society, as well as all the details about the special weekend that's on the way.

Date: March 18, 2014⁵

Time Segment Began: 8:34 a.m.

Time Segment Ended: 8:46 a.m.

Title of Show: Merf Morning Show

Name(s) Of Guests: Valerie Reed, Development Director at Belleville Mennonite School, and five Belleville Mennonite middle school students (Steven Gibson, Elizabeth Miller, Chisomo Vansciver, Brady McClure, Frankie Pannizzo)

Community Issue(s) Addressed: We talked the school's mission, tuition affordability and plans, transportation, its upcoming open house, chicken and waffle dinner, etc... We asked a few questions of each student about their school.