There follows a list of some of the significant issues responded to by, WLWV- FM, Washington, D.C., along with significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of October 1- December 31, 2021. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issue appear does not reflect any priority or significance. All time are Pacific Time zones.

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Description of Program
Family	Closer Look	10/9	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: ‘Solo’ Parent Society Hosts Free Online Support Groups- After 13 years of marriage, Robert Beeson suddenly found himself single. “My wife left me -- and left me with our three daughters who were 9, 7 and 4 at the time. It was the darkest season.” Grappling with this new solo responsibility, the divorced dad turned to his church for comfort and support. He was saddened to find very few Christian resources address the deep loneliness and doubt that many single parents endure. Out of his own need to be part of a welcoming faith community, Beeson founded the Solo Parent Society.
Education	Closer Look	10/10	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: ‘Dare to Dream’ School Assemblies Ignite Hope in Tweens, Teens- Dare To Dream school assemblies rely heavily on the power of personal experience, starting with the unlikely success Randy Rich enjoyed as a professional football player for the Detroit Lions, Denver Broncos, Oakland Raiders and Cleveland Browns. Various artists, musicians and pro-athletes take the mic to share their own struggles to believe and achieve.
Education	Closer Look	10/10	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 2	CLOSER LOOK: Young Children Give Out Phone Numbers, Chat With Strangers Online- An Interview with the Center for Cyber Safety and Education and Eliza McCoy with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children about their age-appropriate training program called Netsmartz.
Education	Closer Look	12/19	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: GenZ Christians Surveyed On God, The Bible And Society GenZ Christians have questions about practical faith. They want Scripture-based solutions for the issues they face alongside their friends. “I can no longer avoid truths about racial injustice, about environmental destruction and I do not know if the Church cares about this.” For them it’s pastoral – not political. Monika Kelly reports.
Education	Closer Look	12/19	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 2	CLOSER LOOK: Tech Careers Encouraged Among Black Youth Through ‘Hidden Genius’- The Hidden Genius Project began when five business and tech titans, all black men, partnered to mentor black boys for careers in science and technology in Oakland California. Not only do 95% of program participants graduate from high school, but many go on to head up other impactful social and educational outreaches in their communities. Kindra Ponzio talks with founding exec. director Brandon Nicholson.

Education	Local Closer Look	11/14 12/12	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Education - Becky Hansen talks with Monique Rizer, Executive Director of The Urban Alliance in the Greater DC Region. Through Internship Programming and mentorship for underserved students, most of whom are people of color, the Urban Alliance is providing jobs skills training and real experience to raise up a diverse next generation workforce. www.theurbanalliance.org
Education	Local Closer Look	12/5	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Educational- A special charter school exists in Baltimore that has a remarkable record of sending young women to college, and not just to college, but as debt free as possible. Bob Dittman talked with the CEO of the Baltimore Leadership School for Young Women, Chevonne Hall, about their success, and how they prepare students not only with STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, Mathematics) education, but the leadership skills for them to be successful in school and beyond. These young women, mainly of color, can begin taking classes as early as 6th grade, which Chevonne says is imperative, because reaching them at an early age, with leadership skills paired with academics, will lead to future success. The school works together with the Baltimore School District in enrollment procedures, and students are chosen through a lottery system after applying. There is no cost to the student's families, as BLSYW is considered a public school.
Health	Closer Look	10/31	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: 'Tell Me More' - 3 Words to Prevent Teen Suicide- Crushing loneliness and lack of purpose has seized millions of young adults, causing a frightening spike in teen suicides. Mental health experts urge parents, teachers and pastors to turn the tide of dark thoughts with these three little words: "Tell me more." Monika Kelly gets advice from Maureen Underwood with the Society for the Prevention of Teen Suicide who also serves as a social worker and psychotherapist.
Health	Closer Look	10/31	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 2	CLOSER LOOK: 'Call-In' Bible Studies Connect to Faith and Friendship (K-LOVE Closer Look) – When COVID-19 forced churches to close and halted even small social gatherings, Christians continued to crave interaction with fellow believers. Soldiers for Faith Ministries launched 'call-in' bible studies back in 2012, but stay-at-home orders in 2020 crystalized the ministry purpose and mission. "When the pandemic hit," says founder Kelly McAndrew, "all of a sudden we understood what God had prepared us for."

Health	Closer Look	11/14	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: Arts & Crafts Ease PTSD In Veterans- Beads, leather, paint and glue: can crafts help vets heal from PTSD? "Yes," says Captain Joe McClain. Closer Look's Bob Dittman reports. Vets often fight anger and hopelessness after their time in the service. If you or a soldier you know is struggling call the confidential Veterans Crisis Line 800-273-8255.
Health	Closer Look	11/19	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: GenZ Christians Surveyed on God, The Bible and Society GenZ Christians have questions about practical faith. They want Scripture-based solutions for the issues they face alongside their friends. "I can no longer avoid truths about racial injustice, about environmental destruction and I do not know if the Church cares about this." For them it's pastoral – not political. Monika Kelly reports.
Health	Closer Look	12/5	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: Living with Chronic Illness? Advice for Faith and Family- "It can be very isolating when no one really gets it," says Susan Rodriguez at Hospital for Special Surgery in New York. As a licensed clinical social worker, she works with patients who experience emotional pain caused by their debilitating physical condition. "They feel like they're being looked at as lazy, not wanting to work, saying 'my family thinks I just want to be home all day,' she explains, "but many are licensed, they hold degrees...they have contributed to society and they want to continue doing that."
Health	Local Closer Look	10/3 10/31	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Disease- F.A.R.E. is a national non-profit in the D.C. area that funds and provides research and education about food allergies. 32 million Americans suffer with food allergies and F.A.R.E. wants to help them lead safe and productive lives with ongoing research, treatments, and education. www.foodallergy.org
Health	Local Closer Look	11/21	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Mental Health Depression - Becky Hansen talks with Ann Chauvin, Executive Director of the Woodley House. Woodley House serves people with mental illness in greater Washington D.C. Chauvin outlines the services and programs the organization provides including Residential Care and Support Services. Chauvin also talked about the residential program expansion in their future plans. For 62 years, Woodley House has been providing comfort and programs to transform the lives of 300 men and women each year. www.woodleyhouse.org

Health	Local Closer Look	11/28	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Health/Hospitals- Becky Hansen talks with Jocelyn Hunter, Senior Director of Communications for the Columbia Lighthouse for the Blind in Washington D.C. serving people with blindness, low vision as well as people who are both deaf and blind. Hunter describes the many programs including Youth and Family Services and rehabilitation. Hunter also shares about the Mobile Eye Care Unit and the success they've seen bringing eye care into the neighborhoods. ( www.clb.org )
Economy	Closer Look	10/24	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: Americans On the Move - The Great Reshuffling? Facing realities, sometimes economic, sometimes health-related, people nationwide are reassessing personal priorities. Dvera Cohn of Pew Research Center confirms "about 1 in 20 adults told us they had moved permanently or temporarily due to the coronavirus outbreak," a marked uptick from years past.
Economy	Closer Look	12/12	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: Land Your Next Great Job! Crossroads Career Services Offers Advice- Losing your job can be emotionally draining and can even lead to questioning your faith in God. "To have some anger, some bitterness, some regret is a very natural thing," agrees Dave Sparkman of Crossroad Career Services, who challenges jobseekers to ask themselves "...a truly curious question. 'I wonder what God's up to here?'"
Economy	Local Closer Look	10/24	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Homelessness- Monika Kelly spoke to Central Union Mission CEO Joe Mettimano about all of the unique services that the mission offers--a men's shelter and ministry program, help for families and children from at-risk neighborhoods (including a food and clothing pantry), workforce training, medical help (including psychiatric care), Camp Bennett (a summer camp for at-risk children), a Social Work Department and daily chapel services. The Central Union Mission also has a bakery and a business called Mission Muffins Trailer, helping thousands of people have an opportunity to work. You might be surprised what CEO Joe's mom did years ago to inspire him to help homeless people.
Economy	Local Closer Look	12/19	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Homelessness- Billie Branham talks with Dr. Marla Dean, Executive Director of Bright Beginnings. Bright Beginnings serves Washington D.C. by providing educational and support services to area homeless families. Dr. Dean outlines why their 4th street location is vital to the community. Dr. Dean also provides information about interventions offered to families with special needs. Hear how one mom who came to Bright Beginnings from a domestic violence situation transformed her life and became a teacher.

Crime	Closer Look	11/22	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: Jail to Jobs, Prison Fellowship 'Remembers Those in Prison' Christ-centered ministries like Prison Fellowship and Jail To Jobs Austin break into that hopelessness with practical and spiritual reform. Hip-hop artist Lecrae partners with Prison Fellowship, performing concerts in select prisons, speaking and encouraging inmates to embrace a second chance at life. He has several relatives who have been in prison, "even my own father was incarcerated, some of my closest uncles as well."
Crime	Local Closer Look	10/10	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Police/ Prison- Becky Hansen talks with Paula Thompson, Founder & Co-chair of DC Reentry Action Network. Thompson outlines the services of DC RAN that assist people exiting prison and transitioning back into the community by providing Life Skills, Education, Health and Wellness, Family & Friend Reunification, Housing, and so much more. ( www.dc-ran.org )
Public Safety	Closer Look	11/28	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: Heroes Shaped by 9/11: Lessons from the Attack on the America. For those who witnessed the aftermath up close, the effects of 9-11 were infinitely more personal than intrusive changes to airport security. The attacks redirected their personal health and professional ministries. Kevin Ellers, D. Min was in Kansas City when he was called to the Trade Towers collapse in New York City with The Salvation Army. Ellers has since designed curriculum with titles like Spiritual First Aid used to train first responders internationally. Rev. Dr. Tim Carentz was a young Air Force medic in D.C. when he got the call to the Pentagon on 9-11. He was eventually diagnosed with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD). Leaning on faith in Jesus and the support of his military community, Carentz retired from the USAF as a Chief Master Sergeant and now operates Kaiserslautern Military Resiliency Center.
