North Texas based airlines Southwest and American both shared their outlook on airfares and stated that prices should go up this summer. The pandemic brought prices down to record lows, but since the Covid-19 vaccine rollout, planes and airports have been getting more crowded, impacting flight prices.

Consumer	NBC 5 News	4/24/2021	6:00 a.m.	2:06	Report on a labor shortage as millions lost their jobs due to the pandemic. The construction industry is now in search for more employees. Consumers are experiencing higher costs and for family-run businesses, it could mean an end to their way of life. NBC5's Allie Spillyards spoke with a North Texas Company getting creative in hopes that this outcome doesn't happen.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	4/30/2021	10:00 p.m.	3:31	Consumers who have shopped for furniture or appliances are having a tough time getting what they need quickly. The pandemic has slowed down production around the world. North Texans are asking NBC 5 Responds when will it get better? NBC 5's Diana Zoga provides consumers what they need to know before you buy.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	5/5/2021	6:00 a.m.	0:40	Report on the right time for people to sell their cars due to the shortage of parts and decreased production during the pandemic. New cars are becoming more expensive and harder to find. Auto traders say sellers are getting an average 12% more for their cars and some are cashing in even higher.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	5/13/2021	11:00 a.m.	0:29	The cost of groceries are rising during the pandemic and it appears to be staying that way. New government numbers show consumer prices for the month of April rose the most since September 2008.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	5/27/2021	6:00 a.m.	0:58	The Texas Rent Relief Program says it's ramping up staffing. More people will help the agency work through applications for people struggling to pay rent or utility bills during the pandemic. The program launched with more than a billion dollars, but it got off to a slow start when applications opened during the February winter storm.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	5/27/2021	5:00 p.m.	1:44	Consumer Report about the digital Covid-19 vaccine passport, which are a fast-developing field. It is advised for people planning to travel to research what documents or apps might be required. Travelers may need a Covid-19 vaccine passport and app depending on where they are trying to go or do.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	6/1/2021	10:00 p.m.	2:18	Last year, countless couples were forced to cancel or dramatically scale back on their weddings. Now, with the Covid-19 vaccine rollout and scaled back restrictions on large gatherings, many of those events are getting a second chance. There are competitions with dates and resources for those just now planning their weddings. This is resulting in what is being called a post pandemic wedding boom.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	6/11/2021	6:00 p.m.	2:04	Texans who are behind on paying their utility bills won't be able to put it off any longer. The state's Public Utility Commission lifted its Moratorium, that prohibited utility companies from shutting off service to people behind on their payments. NBC 5's Melissa Harrison provided more details.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	6/20/2021	10:00 p.m.	2:16	Report on people traveling with a vengeance this summer as many make up for the missed year of trips and vacations due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The demand is also impacting operations for airline companies. American Airlines says it's proactively canceling flights for the next several weeks.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	6/25/2021	5:00 a.m.	0:35	Report on more help for anyone struggling to pay their rent. The CDC has extended the Eviction Moratorium for another month. The agency says this is the last extension. Government data shows at the end of March, 6.4 million American households were behind on the rent. As of June 7th, roughly 3.2 million people said they faced eviction in the next two months. There's been some confusion surrounding the CDC order in Texas. After the state Supreme Court didn't extend its own emergency order, new guidance was issued. It allows individual judges to decide whether to uphold the moratorium or not.
Consumer	NBC 5 News	6/30/2021	11:00 a.m.	2:12	The upcoming Fourth of July holiday is expected to be the busiest in years and gas prices are soaring. The problem is getting gas to the pumps, not because of a gas shortage.
