

WYOS 1360 AM
BINGHAMTON, NEW YORK

ISSUE RESPONSIVE PROGRAM LISTING
January, February, March 2018

Submitted April 1, 2018

Introduction

As per the revised Federal Communications Commission Public Inspection File Rule (section 73.3526 (A)), This document is submitted in the licensee's good faith judgment.

The issue responsive news stories listed are those which represent the station's more significant treatment of the issues which we believed to be of the greatest concern during the preceding three months.

In order to allow for extended listener responsiveness, community ascertainment are conducted on an on-going basis. Areas not covered within our programming and news segments are addressed in public service announcements.

The following issues were of greatest community concerns to the listeners in the WNBF broadcast area for the quarter:

- Economy/ Jobs
- Crime
- Drugs
- Environment
- Health/ Safety

ECONOMY/JOBS

MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	1/5/18	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature addressed local concerns about business development by publicizing a visit by Congresswoman Claudia Tenney to the region to get input on how the Federal Government can help economic development in the Southern Tier.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	1/12/18	7:20am, 9:20am	This feature responded to concerns about attracting and maintaining manufacturing jobs in the region with Lockheed Martin announcing a job fair will be held in Central New York to fill jobs in Owego and the Syracuse areas.

MORNING UPDATE
:20 each time

1/18/18

6:20am, 8:20am

In response to continued concern by resident that they can gain the needed skills to get a job or switch careers, WYOS aired this feature regarding the launch of the new, free on-line job training program SKILLUP that also offers classroom training concentrating on areas where a majority of well-paying jobs are available.

SOUTHERN TIER
15:00
CLOSE UP

2/3/18

6am

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed concerns from employers about finding qualified workers for existing jobs and finding jobs for people looking for employment as host, Kathy Whyte talked with Broome Tioga Workforce spokeswoman Sara Liu about the new SkillUp job training program that offers free online and classroom training for local residents concentrating on areas currently seeking to fill positions.

MORNING UPDATE

2/14/18

6:20am, 8:20am

:20 each time

In response to concerns about the state of the local economy, WYOS aired this feature dealing with the presentation of the 2018 Economic Forecast at the Greater Binghamton Chamber of Commerce annual overview event.

MORNING UPDATE
:20 each time

2/27/18

7:20am, 8:20am

This feature responded to concerns about finding new, large, sustainable industry in the area by publicizing an Industrial Hemp Research Forum tomorrow at Cornell University.

SOUTHERN TIER
15:00
CLOSE UP

3/4/18

6am

This edition of the weekly, local public affairs program addressed concerns about attracting tourism business to the area as host, Kathy

Whyte talked to Friends of the Forum Theatre members Ron Sall and Robin Alpaugh about an upcoming fundraiser for the local theater and its role in attracting business to Broome County and Downtown Binghamton.

SOUTHERN TIER 3/10/18 &
CLOSE UP 3/17/18

6am 15:00
This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed employment concerns in Tioga County as host, Kathy Whyte talked with Tioga County Chamber of Commerce President and CEO, Gwen Kiana about the 100 years of the chamber and what makes Tioga County different in attracting and keeping employers and jobs.

MORNING UPDATE 3/22/18

6:20am, 8:20am
:20 each time
This feature addressed concerns about smaller and start-up businesses getting help in competing by publicizing the annual contest in Binghamton for ideas for new ventures in the City.

MORNING UPDATE 3/23/18
:20 each time

7:20am, 8:20am
In response to concerns about how the local economy is fairing compared to state and national numbers, WYOS aired this feature dealing with the February and yearly unemployment rates.

MORNING UPDATE 3/27/18

6:21am, 8:21 am
:20 each time
This feature responded to concerns about redevelopment of blighted properties in the region by discussing a number of properties included in the latest Restore NY money in Broome and Tioga Counties.

CRIME

MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	1/2/18	7:21am, 9:21am	This feature addressed crime concerns by warning residents about a new twist to the “Grandparent Scam” with the latest version involving a female caller trying to get the victim to send her $4,000 since she was in a crash and had to pay right away or lose her license.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	1/22/18	6:21am, 8:21am	This feature addressed crime issues as Binghamton Police investigate a bunch of smashed windows at West Side businesses and ask anyone with information, including business owners who may have surveillance footage to contact detectives.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	1/24/18	6:21am, 8:21am	As New York State Assemblyman Clifford Crouch calls domestic violence a “cancer on society”., WYOS aired this feature concerning a new Assembly report on the crime containing recommendations for prevention and services for victims and training for support organizations.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	1/30/18	6:21am, 8:21am	This feature addressed future expected scams as Broome County Sheriff David Harder warns residents to be wary of spring-time paving scams that often have a person showing up, unsolicited, offering a discount price on paving a driveway and using inferior equipment or not doing the job after taking payment.

MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	2/14/18	7:21am, 9:21am This feature responded to concerns that some Broome County residents may be tricked by someone claiming to be a former or current County Clerk claiming the person owes on past invoices from the clerk's office that they must pay.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	2/26/18	6:21am, 8:21am This feature addressed the issue of increased threats of crime and actual attacks in schools by informing residents that New York State Senator Fred Akshar is holding summits with school officials and law enforcement to talk about security.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	3/8/18	7:21am, 9:21am This feature dealt with another scam targeting residents in the region by warning people about receiving a text that appears to be from their bank pushing an "alternate method" to contact them and that the messages are fraudulent.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	3/22/18	7:21am, 9:21am This feature cautioned residents of dangers to children in even rural areas as Pennsylvania State Police report someone tried to lure a child into a vehicle in Rome Township in Bradford County March 16.
SOUTHERN TIER 15:00 CLOSE UP	3/24/18	6am This edition of the weekly, local public affairs program addressed issues facing the victims of crime and their families as host, Kathy Whyte talked to the director of the Crime Victims Assistance Center in the Southern Tier, Rani

Baudendistle about Domestic Violence Awareness Month, Victims Rights Week, the changing issues facing CVAC, its clients, lawmakers and police with the advance of technology, especially.

MORNING UPDATE

3/26/18

6:20am, 8:20am
:20 each time

This feature address continued concerns about school safety and violence as WYOS aired this feature publicizing the results of the weekend March for Our Lives around the country and locally and the work that organizers say they hope will step forward.

DRUG/ADDICTION

MORNING UPDATE
:20 each time

1/4/18

7:20am, 9:20am

This feature addressed drug and addiction concerns by publicizing figures from the Broome County District Attorney concerning the number of people who died as a result of overdoses in 2017.

SOUTHERN TIER
15:00
CLOSE UP

1/6/18

6am

This edition of the weekly, local public affairs program addressed a variety of issues including the drug addiction epidemic as host, Kathy Whyte talked to New York State Senator Fred Akshar about the just passed approval of accepting money to develop a drug treatment center at the former Broome Developmental Center in the Town of Dickinson. The Senator also touched on economic development and talked in length about the programs involving children to help underprivileged youth prepare for the working world, which also discourages drug use.

MORNING UPDATE	2/1/18	6:21am, 8:21am :20 each time This feature addressed substance abuse issues by informing residents that increased patrols are being put on the road to look for drunk and impaired drivers during Superbowl Weekend.
MORNING UPDATE	2/6/18	6:21am, 8:21am :20 each time This feature responded to concerns that people directed impacted by opioid addiction be heard by those forming legislative policy by informing residents that today's first hearing from members of the New York State Senate has all the oral testimony slots taken but comments can still be submitted online.
MORNING UPDATE	2/28/18	6:21am, 8:21am :20 each time In response to concerns about the continued problem of drug addiction and overdose deaths, this feature was aired that publicized $10 million in New York State funding is coming to five detox programs, including in the Southern Tier.
MORNING UPDATE	3/28/18	7:21am, 9:21am :20 each time This feature responded to concerns about addressing the local opioid epidemic by informing residents that the county has received over $100,000 in funding from the Rotary organization for education and other programs to combat addiction.

ENVIRONMENT

MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	3/8/18	7:21am, 9:21am This feature addressed environmental concerns by publicizing a meeting hosted by the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation in Endicott to talk about the clean up of the toxic spill at the former IBM manufacturing site on North Street.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	3/27/18	7:21am, 9:21 This feature addressed environmental concerns by informing residents that plans are underway for Broome County's Earth Day festivities, which is one of the oldest Earth Fests in the country and there is a need for vendors for the April event.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	3/28/18	6:21am, 8:21am, This feature responded to interest in family-friendly ways to support and learn about the environment while having fun by outlining the activities at Binghamton's Ross Park Zoo annual Eggstravaganza Easter Celebration that includes animal interaction and enrichment for the residents of the zoo and education about animals and the environment for visitors.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	3/29/18	6:21am, 8:21am This feature addressed concerns resulting from environmental reaction to increasing temperatures by informing residents that minor flooding is expected over the next several days due to rain and snow melt runoff.
SOUTHERN TIER 15:00 CLOSE UP	3/31/18	6am This edition of the weekly, local public affairs program addressed environmental issues as host, Kathy Whyte talked to the education coordinator at Binghamton's Ross Park Zoo, Rachel Davenport about the upcoming season at the zoo and how the mission has changed from an entertainment focus to educating people about animals, the environment and human impact on both.

HEALTH/SAFETY

MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	1/5/18	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature addressed safety concerns associated with bitterly cold temperature by informing residents that many fires happen during cold weather due to unmaintained heating sources and carbon monoxide buildup can result from clogged vents.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	1/8/18	6:20am, 8:20am	In response to concerns about safety during the cold weather and fire season, WYOS aired this feature informing resident that fire officials credit smoke detectors to alerting residents to a fire on Avon Street from which they all escaped.
MORNING UPDATE :20 each time	1/11/18	6:20am, 8:20am	This feature responded to safety issues by warning residents that warming temperatures through Saturday could result in dangerous ice jams and flooding along area rivers and tributaries.
SOUTHERN TIER 15:00	1/13/18 and	6am

CLOSE UP 1/20/18 This edition of the weekly, local public affairs program, with a requested repeat airing on 1/20, addressed Health and safety issues as host, Kathy Whyte talked to Broome County Emergency Services Communications Supervisor Michael Ballard and Dispatcher Jeffrey Crane about what it's like to be a 911 dispatcher, what residents may not know, how they hold it together and what information residents should have ready if they have to call 911.

MORNING UPDATE 2/2/18 6:21am, 8:21am
:20 each time
This feature responded to women's health issues by publicizing that today is National Wear Red for Women Day, encouraging people to wear something red to raise awareness especially about women's risks for stroke and heart disease.

MORNING UPDATE 2/8/18 6:21am, 8:21am
:20 each time
In response to concerns about funding for local nonprofit agencies dealing with health care issues, WYOS aired this feature publicizing awards being offered by Excellus BlueCross BlueShield.

SOUTHERN TIER 2/11/18 6am
15:00
CLOSE UP
This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed health issues associated with the naturally-occurring odorless and colorless gas that can cause cancer and what residents can do to identify radon and mitigate the problem as host, Kathy Whyte talked with Broome County Health Department healthy neighborhood coordinator and environmental health educator, Mark Schuster.

SOUTHERN TIER 2/17/18 6am
15:00
CLOSE UP
This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed a variety of health issues as host, Kathy Whyte talked to Chief Executive Officer for Family Planning of South Central new York, Debra Marcus about the variety of services offered in five locations in the southern tier ranging from family planning, pregnancy testing and options to cancer screening and HIV testing and counseling.

SOUTHERN TIER 2/25/18

6am

15:00

CLOSE UP

This edition of the weekly local public affairs program addressed seasonal depression and an event to boost mood as host, Kathy Whyte talked with educator from the Mental Health Association of the Southern Tier, Joanne Weir and recovery coach Cincy Casterlin about the winter blah, how to recognize and deal with them and the upcoming Color Run in April.

MORNING UPDATE 3/1/18

6:21am, 8:12am

:20 each time

This feature responded to continuing health concerns in the region by publicizing the Broome County Medical Society is hosting a health information fair this month.